FOREWORD

In keeping with strong national trends toward strengthening the legislature as an organ of government, the 1967 Legislature enacted chapter 67-472, which established the Statutory Revision Department as a part of the Legislative Reference Bureau, subject to the supervision of the Legislative Council. Although the effect was to transfer the administration of the continuous revision program from the attorney general's office, where it had been long and well performed, there was no intent to alter the basic policy that guides the preparation of the Florida Statutes. That policy continues to be that of providing an authoritative, up-to-date publication of the general laws of the state at the lowest possible cost to the user.

The practicing bar has a natural and compelling interest in the publication of the Florida Statutes, and this interest should not be affected in any way by the transfer of the statutory revision function to the Legislative Council. The continuous revision program cannot be successfully administered without the active and continuing cooperation of the bar and its individual members. Comments and suggestions from members of the profession for improvements in the publication of the Statutes are indispensable.

George L. Hollahan, Jr., Chairman
Florida Legislative Council

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge with appreciation the cooperation given by Mr. David V. Kerns, Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, with the Statutory Revision and Bill Drafting Department in exchange of indexes, summaries, and revision of sections and chapters, which have improved the field of continuous law reform.

We also acknowledge the fine service rendered by the following Special Assistants to the Attorney General before and during the 1967 Session of the Legislature in preparing either daily bill summaries for the Reference Bureau or drafting bills, resolutions and other statutory materials in the Statutory Revision and Bill Drafting Department.

Dedication

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Florida Legislative Council on November 10, 1967, this eleventh edition of the Florida Statutes is gratefully dedicated to The Honorable Charles Tom Henderson, former member of the House of Representatives and Assistant Attorney General of Florida, now retired. While serving as Assistant Attorney General, Mr. Henderson was also director of the Statutory Revision Department from January, 1949 until April, 1967, a period which included the real beginning of the continuous revision program in Florida and also the biennial publication of nine editions of the Florida Statutes. During this long period of exemplary service, Charles Tom Henderson rendered invaluable assistance, both personally and through the bill-drafting resources of his department, to legislators and members of the bench and bar.

PREFACE

THE CONTINUOUS REVISION PROGRAM

Florida is one of the few states conducting a continuous statutory revision program by publishing the whole body of the general law in force after each regular legislative session. The advantages are obvious: Such a program provides an up-to-date, authoritative statement of the general law for use by practitioners, judges, legislators and other interested persons. The following is an attempt to identify and explain some of the attributes and consequences of the Florida program that should be of interest to all who use the Statutes.

Biennial adoption of the Florida Statutes.—An important feature of Florida's continuous statutory revision program is the biennial adoption by the legislature of the last edition of the Florida Statutes, including general laws enacted by the preceding legislature, as amended by revisor's bills enacted during the current session. Section 11.2421 is the vehicle for such adoption, which has for a primary purpose to provide the legislature then meeting with an authoritative, official statement of the general law then in force upon which to base its deliberations.

Section 11.242(6)(d) requires that all laws "of a general and permanent nature" enacted during the preceding session be included in the biennial publication of the Florida Statutes published at the close of each regular session, but specifies that they shall be only prima facie evidence of the law in all courts of the state. This means that until these portions of the Florida Statutes are made official by the adoption bill enacted at the beginning of the following session, the respective pamphlet laws constitute the official evidence of the law embodied in them. City of Coral Gables v. Brasher, Fla. 1960, 120 So.2d 5.

The biennial adoption feature of Florida's continuous statutory revision program has an important by-product that should be mentioned. It cures any procedural—as opposed to substantive—defect in the initial passage of a particular act. Brewer v. Gray, Fla. 1956, 86 So.2d 799. As a result, general legislation remains susceptible to attack on such technical, procedural grounds only during the period between its original enactment and passage of the adoption bill at the beginning of the subsequent legislative session.

Implied repeals and amendments.—In the confusion that seems inevitably to attend legislative sessions, the legislature occasionally enacts two or more bills that relate to the same provision of the Florida Statutes. On such occasions, the revisors must find the legislative intent from the best evidence available. When the provisions of two amendatory acts are not mutually inconsistent, the language is meshed and full effect is given to both. When the provisions of two amendatory statutes are in irreconcilable conflict, the last enacted is published as the most recent expression of the sovereign will; however, a note is inserted calling attention to the conflict and setting forth the text of the act which was prior in enactment.

When the last enacted of two conflicting statutes purports to amend a section of the Florida Statutes which an earlier act had repealed, the course to be followed must depend on whether the substance of the amendatory act makes sense standing alone. If it does not, it is not published as a section in force, and an explanatory note is inserted; if the amendatory act does make sense standing alone, it is published as a new section in place of the repealed section, though with a new section number. On the other hand, if the last enacted of two conflicting acts repeals a section which an earlier act purported to amend, the section would simply be deleted.

It would be a most unusual occurrence if a statute "of a general and permanent nature" were inadvertently omitted from the Florida Statutes. In the rare event that this happened, the legal effect of the omitted statutes would probably not be affected during the period between the time of its enactment and the enactment of the adoption bill early in the following session, when the new portions of the Statutes are only prima facie evidence of the law, in any event. It would appear, however, that unless the omission were corrected by an appropriate revisor's bill at the beginning of the next session, the omitted act would stand repealed by the enactment of the adoption bill, pursuant to section 11.2422. National Bank of Jacksonville v. Williams, 1896, 38 Fla. 305, 20 So. 931.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES OF THE FLORIDA STATUTES

Arrangement of chapters and titles.—The object of any arrangement of statutes is to facilitate the finding of the law. There are two methods of arrangement in general use in the United States: The "logical," or "topical," grouping of related subjects, as used in many digests; and the "alphabetical" arrangement, as used by Corpus Juris and American Jurisprudence. Florida has followed the majority of states in adopting the former of these arrangements.

Numbering system.—The sections of the Florida Statutes are identified by the decimal numbering system. Having first been arranged by subject matter, the chapters of the Florida Statutes are each assigned a whole number which appears to the left of the decimal point in each number that identifies a section. The section within the chapter is then identified by the digits appearing to the right of the decimal point. Thus, section 16.01 would identify a section in chapter 16 of the Statutes.

The principal advantage of the decimal numbering system is its infinite flexibility. A new section can always be inserted between any two existing sections. For example, a new section to be inserted between sections 16.12 and 16.13 could be assigned any number between 16.121 and 16.129 without using more than three digits to the right of the decimal point. We have recently adopted the practice of using "5" as the last digit in such a situation—i.e., 16.125—so as to leave room for future expansion in both directions without the necessity of adding another digit. If need develops for a new chapter number where none is available, the need can be met by the addition of a capital letter. Thus, a new chapter between chapters 121 and 122 could be assigned number 121A.

As a corollary to this discussion of flexibility of the decimal numbering system, it should be emphasized that the number of a chapter or section has no significance other than to indicate order. In other words, a section that is identified by a number containing four digits to the right of the decimal point is of no less dignity or importance than a section having a number with only two or three digits to the right of the decimal point.

The hierarchical arrangement of textual subdivisions is indicated by different designations. Thus, chapters are indicated by whole numbers; sections, by numbers containing a decimal point; subsections, by whole arabic numbers enclosed by parentheses; paragraphs, by lower case letters enclosed by parentheses; and subparagraphs, by whole arabic numbers followed by a period. Subdivisions beyond the subparagraph are not ordinarily used.

Chapters 186, 229, 230, 348, 601, 608, 624, 625, 626, and 627 contain aberrational departures from the rule of decimal numbering. These aberrations will be eliminated as soon as this can be accomplished without causing undue confusion. Chapters 671 through 680 also depart from strict decimal numbering in that the sections of those chapters are keyed to the section numbers of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Finding the law.—There are two general methods for finding those sections of the Florida Statutes that deal with a particular subject matter. The choice of which to use on any particular occasion should be determined by the preference of the searcher and the degree of his familiarity with the Statutes and the indexing systems contained therein. One who has considerable familiarity with the body of law being searched may save some time by simply using the chapter index which appears at the front of each chapter. The proper chapter can usually be located by use of the alphabetical and numerical (also topical) indexes that are located at the front of Volumes 1 and 2. One who is less familiar with the subject matter or who is conducting a more wide-ranging search will probably prefer to use the general index which is located in Volume 3. Directions for the use of the general index are also to be found there.

History notes and cross references.—History notes have been carefully compiled, checked for accuracy with the original session laws, and brought completely up to date. During the period 1957-1965, an attempt was made to relate the history notes to the specific subsection or paragraph affected. This practice has now been abandoned as involving labor and susceptibility to error far out of proportion to the benefit attained. However, notes containing that detailed information will be left undisturbed until later changes require resetting of the type.

Where possible, related or qualifying sections are noted in the form of cross references immediately following the history notes.

Table of statutory changes by the 1967 Legislature.—A table of changes to sections of the Florida Statutes is located at the front of Volumes 1 and 2, printed on buff paper. This table shows: (1) The numbers of sections or subsections that have been changed in any way and (2) whether the change consisted of an amendment, a repeal, a transfer, or an addition. It is a convenient device for pinpointing changes to a given segment of the general law.

Tracing table.—A table tracing the classification of general laws into the Florida Statutes throughout the period 1919-1967 will be found in Volume 3. The word "omitted" shown in the place of a statute section number indicates that the act was local or special or a general act of local application. To find an omitted chapter, consult the appropriate volumes of the Session Laws.

Table of repealed and inactive sections.—Immediately preceding the General Index in Volume 3 is a table showing repealed and inactive sections. Whenever a section is repealed or transferred through revision to a new location in the Statutes, the former section number becomes inactive and will not be used again. Such numbers are then transferred to this table, along with the history notes that applied to the former section. The table is of primary utility to the researcher who is interested in the movement of the law as well as its current content.

Miscellaneous materials.—Section 11.242(5) authorizes the inclusion in the published edition of the Florida Statutes, in addition to the general laws as adopted and enacted, the Florida Constitution, and complete indexes, "such other matters, notes, data, and other material as may be deemed necessary or admissible by the Statutory Revision Department for reference, convenience or interpretation." The various items published under this authority are located in Volume 3 and identified in the table of contents at the front of each volume.

FORMER REVISIONS AND COMPILATION

The laws of general application of the territory of Florida and of the State of Florida have either been compiled unofficially or revised under authority of law and adopted as official statutes in the following publications: Duval's Compilation of Territorial Laws, 1840 (compilation); Thompson's Digest, 1847 (compilation); Bush's Digest, 1872 (compilation); McClellan's Digest, 1881 (compilation); Revised Statutes (R.S.) 1892 (revision enacted as a law); General Statutes (G.S.) 1906 (revision enacted as a law); Revised General Statutes (R.G.S.) 1920 (revision enacted as a law); Compiled General Laws (C.G.L.) 1927 (compilation unofficial); revision of 1940 and the beginning of the continuous revision system; adoption of the official 1940 revision in 1941 (F.S. 1941); the Florida Statutes of 1949 (F.S. 1949) (consolidation of 1941 statutes and supplements printed during the war years in 1943, 1945, 1947); and Florida Statutes of 1951, 1953, 1955, 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965, and 1967.

THE STATUTORY REVISION DEPARTMENT

By chapter 22012, Laws of Florida, 1943, the legislature created a permanent statutory revision and legislative drafting and reference department under the supervision and control of the attorney general. The principal functions of this department were to publish the general laws of the state and to maintain a bill drafting department and legislative reference library. In 1949 the legislature established the Legislative Council and Legislative Reference Bureau as an arm of the legislature and completely separate from the attorney general. Finally, by chapter 67-472, the current legislature removed the Statutory Revision Department from the office of the attorney general and established it as a part of the Legislative Reference Bureau under the supervision of the Legislative Council.

The powers, duties, and functions of the Statutory Revision Department are set out in section 11.242. In general, they remain as before: (1) To conduct a systematic and continuing study of the statutes and laws of the state for the purpose of reducing their number and bulk, removing inconsistencies, redundancies and unnecessary repetitions and otherwise improve their clarity and facilitate their correct and proper interpretation; (2) to publish the Florida Statutes; and (3) to maintain a bill drafting department for the benefit of the members of the legislature.

Section 11.242(6) defines the limits of the editorial license that is available to the Statutory Revision Department in producing the Florida Statutes. Pursuant to this section, the department has broad authority over the arrangement and grammatical structure of the Statutes. Although the statutes provide that the product of the department's work shall constitute only prima facie evidence of the law until it has been formally adopted at the beginning of the following session, the Statutory Revision Department nonetheless traditionally exercises its editorial prerogatives with as much self-restraint as possible. It believes its mandate to be to produce the Statutes in usable and literate form, but strictly within the framework of the legislative intent.

The revisor's office is a clearinghouse where lawyers, judges, legislators, and administrators may help to improve the statutory law of the state. Persons calling attention to errors, omissions, conflicts and other defects in the law can be a material help in administering Florida's continuous revision program.

ORDINANCES OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1885

ORDINANCE NO 1:

Section 1: This constitution shall be submitted to the people of the State of Florida for ratification on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November A. D. 1886, and it shall require a majority of the votes cast upon the question to determine its ratification or rejection.

Section 2: At such election each qualified elector shall express his assent or dissent, by having written or printed upon the ticket which he shall vote the words, "For the Constitution," or "Against the Constitution;" such election being subject to the same regulations and restrictions as are now prescribed by law. And in case of its ratification by the people, the Governor shall forth-with cause proclamation to be made of the fact, and it shall go into effect on the first day of January, A. D. 1887.

ORDINANCE NO 2:

Section 1: Article XIX shall be submitted to the people, when the Constitution is submitted for ratification, to become a part of the Constitution, if adopted by a majority of the votes cast upon the question, and the ballots of those voting on this Article shall have written or printed on them the words, "For Article XIX," or "Against Article XIX"

ORDINANCE NO 3:

Be it Ordained by the People of Florida, Represented in Constitutional Convention:

Section 1: The pay of the members of this Constitutional Convention shall be a per diem for attendance of six $6.00 dollars a day in addition to mileage of ten cents a mile, each way, from their places of residence to the Capital and return, estimated by the shortest thoroughfare.

Section 2: The pay of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Convention and all the Clerks elected by the Convention shall be six $6.00 dollars per diem each, allowing the Secretary and Assistant Secretary one day after adjournment to complete unfinished business; all Committee Clerks shall receive five $5.00 dollars per diem for the number of days certified by the Chairman of the Committee; the pay of the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be six $6.00 dollars per diem, and the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms shall be five $5.00 dollars per diem; the pay of the Messengers of the Convention shall be four $4.00 dollars per diem each; the pay of the Door-Keeper shall be five $5.00 dollars per diem; the pay of Pages shall be three $3.00 dollars per diem each; the pay of the Janitor shall be two $2.00 dollars per diem; the pay of the Chaplain shall be one hundred dollars. The Recording Clerk shall complete his work after the adjournment of the Convention, under the supervision of the Secretary of State, and shall be paid for the same fifty dollars when his work is completed. Eighteen dollars shall be paid W. R. Carter for services as Assistant Secretary for three days. Messrs Dorr & Bowen shall be paid for printing the amount approved by the Committee on Printing, certified by the President and Secretary of the Convention.

Section 3: The Comptroller is required to draw his warrant on the Treasurer in favor of the officers and employees of this Convention for the full amount allowed them by section two, and to each delegate of this Convention for his pro-rata share of the amount appropriated by the Legislature, after deducting from said amount the amount due said employees and all other expenses, including mileage of members, incurred by this Convention.

Section 4: The President is authorized on behalf of this Convention to issue certificates signed by himself and countersigned by the Secretary, to each of the members, payable to himself or his order, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum from date, for the amount remaining due on account of the deficiency of the Legislative appropriation for expenses of this Convention.

Section 5: The Legislature shall make an appropriation at its next session to pay said certificates.

Section 6: Be it further ordained; That the Secretary of this Convention be and he is hereby authorized to audit the accounts of the members and all other expenses.

Done in open Convention, at Tallahassee this 3rd day of August A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-Five, and of the independence of the United States, the One Hundred and tenth year.

S. PASCO, President.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION OF 1885, AS AMENDED.

The constitution of the State of Florida as it appears here is a literal reproduction of the original handwritten constitution signed by the members of the Constitutional Convention of 1885, on file in the office of the Secretary of State, with the exception of amended sections and subsequent additional amendments adopted by a vote of the people, which are reproduced here from the original joint resolutions of the Legislature filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State. Variances in spelling and punctuation between this reproduction and previously published copies of the constitution exist, because we have refrained from editing or correcting apparent clerical errors in the original document. The analysis which appears at the beginning of each article of the constitution, the headings which follow each section number and the history notes have been added for convenience, and are not a part of the original.

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Florida, being grateful to Almighty God for our constitutional liberty, in order to secure its benefits, form a more perfect government, insure domestic tranquility, maintain public order, and guarantee equal civil and political rights to all, do ordain and establish this constitution.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 1966, 1961; adopted 1962.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS

Sec.

1. Equality; inherent rights.
2. Political powers; government; allegiance.
3. Trial by jury inviolate.
4. Courts open to everyone; remedy for wrongs.
5. Religious freedom; liberty of conscience, etc.
6. Religious preferences; public aid, etc.
7. Habeas corpus and suspension thereof.

23. Treason
24. Enunciated rights no impairment of others.

SECTION 4. Courts open to everyone; remedy for wrongs.—All courts in this state shall be open, so that every person for any injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation shall have remedy, by due course of law, and right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay.

SECTION 5. Religious freedom; liberty of conscience, etc.—The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship shall for ever be allowed in this State, and no person shall be rendered incompetent as a witness on account of his religious opinions; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to justify licentiousness or practices subversive of, or inconsistent with, the peace or moral safety of the State or society.

SECTION 6. Religious preferences; public aid, etc.—No preference shall be given by law to any church, sect or mode of worship and no money shall ever be taken from the public treasury directly or indirectly in aid of any church, sect or religious denomination or in aid of any sectarian institution.

SECTION 7. Habeas corpus and suspension thereof.—The writ of habeas corpus shall be grantable speedily and of right, freely and without cost, and shall never be suspended unless, in case of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

SECTION 8. Excessive bail, fines, etc.; cruel punishment.—Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines be imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishment or indefinite imprisonment be allowed, nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

SECTION 9. Right to bail; when denied.—All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offences where the proof is evident or the presumption great.

SECTION 10. Prosecution for crimes; indictments; informations; grand juries, etc.—No person shall be tried for a capital crime unless on presentment or indictment by a grand jury, and no person shall be tried for other felony unless on presentment or indictment by a grand jury or upon information under oath filed by the prosecuting attorney of the court wherein the information is filed, except as is otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except in cases of impeachment, and in cases in the militia when in active service in time of war, or which the State, with the consent of Congress, may keep in time of peace. Any person under such information, presentment or indictment for any felony not capital may be arraigned and may enter a plea in term time or in vacation, and the judgment and sentence of the court on a plea of guilty may be made and entered either in term time or in vacation. The Judge of any circuit court is authorized to dispense with the summoning, empanelling, and convening of the grand jury at any term of court by making, entering, and filing with the clerk of said court a written order directing that no grand jury be summoned at such term of court, which order of the Circuit Judge may be made in vacation or term time of said court. The Legislature shall have power by general legislation to regulate the number of grand jurors to serve upon, or constitute, a grand jury and to fix the number of grand jurors required to vote for and return an indictment or presentment.

This amendment, upon ratification as aforesaid, shall take effect at midnight on December 31st, 1934, without the necessity of Legislation.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 152, 1933; adopted 1934.
cf.—§28, Art. V, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 11. Rights of accused; speedy trial; etc.—In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, in the county where the crime was committed, and shall be heard by himself, or counsel, or both, to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and have compulsory process for the attendance of witnesses in his favor, and shall be furnished with a copy of the indictment against him.

SECTION 12. Double jeopardy; self-incrimination; eminent domain; right to work.—No person shall be subject to be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense, nor compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken without just compensation. The right of persons to work shall not be denied or abridged on account of membership or nonmembership in any labor union, or labor organization; provided, that this clause shall not be construed to deny or abridge the right of employees by and through a labor organization or labor union to bargain collectively with their employer.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 13, 1943; adopted 1944.

SECTION 13. Freedom of speech and press; truth as defense to libel; etc.—Every person may fully speak and write his sentiments on all subjects being responsible for the abuse of that right, and no laws shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech, or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions and civil actions for libel, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear that the matter charged as libellous is true, and was published for good motives, the party shall be acquitted or exonerated.

SECTION 14. Costs, when payable.—No person shall be compelled to pay costs except after conviction, on a final trial.

SECTION 15. Right of assemblage; petition.—The people shall have the right to assemble together to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, and to petition the Legislature for redress of grievances.

SECTION 16. Imprisonment for debt.—No person shall be imprisoned for debt, except in cases of fraud.

SECTION 17. Attainder; ex post facto laws; obligation of contract.—No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, nor any law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall ever be passed.

SECTION 18. Equal rights for aliens and citizens.—Foreigners who are eligible to become citizens of the United States under the provisions of the laws and treaties of the United States shall have the same rights as to the ownership, inheritance and disposition of property in the State as citizens of the State, but the Legislature shall have power to limit, regulate and prohibit the ownership, inheritance, disposition, possession and enjoyment of real estate in the State of Florida by foreigners who are not eligible to become citizens of the United States under the provisions of the laws and treaties of the United States.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 750, 1925; adopted 1926.

SECTION 19. Slavery prohibited; penal servitude.—Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party has been duly convicted, shall ever be allowed in this State.

SECTION 20. Right to bear arms.—The right of the people to bear arms in defence of themselves, and the lawful authority of the State, shall not be infringed, but the Legislature may prescribe the manner in which they may be borne.

SECTION 21. Military subordinate to civil powers.—The military shall in all cases, and at all times, be in strict subordination to the civil power.

SECTION 22. Searches and seizures.—The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable seizures and searches, shall not be violated and no warrants issued, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place or places to be searched and the person or persons, and thing or things to be seized.

SECTION 23. Treason.—Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, adhering to its enemies, or giving them aid and comfort, and no person shall be convicted of treason, except on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court, and no conviction for treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of estate.

SECTION 24. Enunciated rights no impairment of others.—This enunciation of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people.

ARTICLE I

BOUNDARIES

The state boundaries are: Begin at the mouth of the Perdido River, which for the purposes of this description is defined as the point where latitude 30° 16' 53" north and longitude 87° 31' 06" west intersect; thence to the point where latitude 30° 17' 02" north and longitude 87° 31' 06" west intersect; thence to the point where latitude 30° 18' 00" north and longitude 87° 27' 08" west intersect; thence to the point where the center line of the Intracoastal Canal (as the same existed on June 12, 1953) and longitude 87° 27' 00" west intersect; the same being in the middle of the Perdido River; thence up the middle of the Perdido River to the point where it intersects the south boundary of the State of Alabama, being also the point of intersection of the middle of the Perdido River with latitude 31° 00' 00" north; thence east, along the south boundary line of the State of Alabama, the same being latitude 31° 00' 00", north to the middle of the Chattahoochee River; thence down the middle of said river to its confluence with the Flint River; thence in a straight line to the head of the St. Mary's River; thence down the middle of said river to the Atlantic Ocean, and extending therein to a point three geographic miles from the Florida coast line, meaning the line of ordinary low water along that portion of the coast which is in direct contact with the open sea and the line marking the seaward limit of inland waters; thence southeastwardly following a line three geographic miles distant from the Atlantic coast line of the state and three leagues distant from the Gulf of Mexico coast line of the state to and around the Tortugas Islands; thence northeastwardly, three leagues distant from the coast line, to a point three leagues distant from the coast line of the mainland; thence north and northwestwardly, three leagues distant from the coast line, to a point west of the mouth of the Perdido River, three leagues from the coast line, as measured on a line bearing 0° 01' 00" west from the point of beginning; thence along said line to the point of beginning.

The legislature may extend the coastal boundaries to such limits as the laws of the United States or international law may permit.

Should the secretary of state fail to receive the requisite number of said certificates requesting the convening of an extra session of the legislature within a period of sixty days after receipt of the first of said certificates, all certificates previously filed shall be rendered null and void and no extra session shall be called and said certificates shall not be used at any future time for the convening of the legislature.

History.—Am. H. J. R. 579, 1953; adopted 1954; am. S. J. R. 119, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 2A. Special session for organizational purposes.—The legislature shall meet on the first Tuesday in November after the general election for the purpose of organization, swearing in new members and selecting officers. No other business shall be transacted.

History.—Added S.J.R. 655, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 3. Legislators, how chosen.—The members of the House of Representatives of the State of Florida shall be chosen biennially beginning with the general election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1898, and thereafter on the corresponding day of every second year.

History.—Am. J.R. 5, 1895, adopted 1896.

SECTION 4. Legislators, qualifications, salaries, etc.—Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall be duly qualified electors in the respective counties and districts for which they were chosen. The compensation of legislators shall be twelve hundred ($1200.00) dollars each year and shall be paid in monthly installments of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each. During the time the legislature is in session each legislator shall receive per diem and travel expenses as provided by law, but such may not exceed the allowances for such expenses provided for other state officials under general law.

History.—Am. H. J. R. 179, 1947; adopted 1948. Am. H. J. R. 579, 1953; adopted 1954.

SECTION 5. Ineligibility of legislators to office.—No Senator or member of the House of Representatives shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed, or elected to any civil office under the Constitution of this State that has been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time.

SECTION 6. Organization; officers; rules; expulsion of members; etc.—Each house shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers, and determine the rules of its proceedings. The Senate shall, at the convening of each regular session thereof, choose from among its own members a permanent President of the Senate, who shall be its presiding officer. The House of Representatives shall, at the convening of each regular session thereof, choose from among its own members a permanent Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall be its presiding officer. Each house may punish its own members for disorderly conduct; and each house with the concurrence of two-thirds of all its members present, may expel a member.

SECTION 7. Ineligibility of state and federal officers.—No person holding a lucrative office or appointment under the United States or this State, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislature of this State.

SECTION 8. Change of residence vacates office.—The seat of a member of either House shall be vacated on his permanent change of residence from the district or county from which he was elected.

SECTION 9. Contempt of legislature.—Either House during the session may punish by fine or imprisonment any person not a member who shall have been guilty of disorderly or contemptuous conduct in its presence, or of a refusal to obey its lawful summons but such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the final adjournment of the session.

SECTION 10. Compulsory attendance of witnesses.—Either House shall have power to compel the attendance of witness upon any investigations held by itself, or by any of its committees; the manner of the exercise of such power shall be provided by Law.

SECTION 11. Quorum; adjournments; compulsory attendance of members.—A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the presence of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as it may prescribe.

SECTION 12. Journals of proceedings.—Each House shall keep a Journal of its own proceedings, which shall be published, and the yeas and nays of the members of either House on any question shall, at the desire of any five members present, be entered on the Journal.

SECTION 13. Open doors; adjournment of one house.—The doors of each House shall be kept open during its session except the Senate while sitting in Executive session; and neither shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days or to any other town than that in which they may be holding their session.

SECTION 14. Origin of bills; amendments.—Any bill may originate in either House of the Legislature, and after being passed in one House may be amended in the other.

SECTION 15. Enacting clause, form.—The enacting clause of every law shall be as follows: Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida.

SECTION 16. Acts; one subject; expressed in title; amendments.—Each law enacted in the Legislature shall embrace but one subject and matter properly connected therewith, which subject shall be briefly expressed in the title, and no law shall be amended or revised (by reference) to its title only; but in such case the act as revised or section, or subsection of a section, or paragraph of a subsection of a section, as amended, shall be reenacted and published at length.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 290, 1949; adopted 1950.

SECTION 17. Enactment of legislature; reading; vote; signatures.—Every bill shall be read by its title, on its first reading, in either house, unless one-third of the members present desire it read by sections. Every bill shall be read on three several days, unless two-thirds of the members present when such bill may be pending shall deem it expedient to dispense with this rule. Every bill shall be read by its sections on its second reading and on its final passage, unless on its second reading two-thirds of the members present in the House where such bill may be pending, shall deem it expedient to dispense with this rule. The vote on the final passage of every bill or joint resolution shall be taken by yeas and nays to be entered on the journal of each house; Provided;—That any general revision of the entire laws embodied in any bill shall not be required to be read by sections upon its final passage, and its reading may be wholly dispensed with by a two-thirds vote. A majority of the members present in each house shall be necessary to pass every bill or joint resolution. All bills or joint resolutions so passed shall be signed by the presiding officer of the respective houses and by the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

History.—Am. J.R. 2, 1895; adopted 1896.

SECTION 18. Effective date of acts.—No law shall take effect until sixty days from the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature at which it may have been enacted, unless otherwise specially provided in such law.

SECTION 19. Accounts of public money; publication.—Accurate statements of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be attached to and published with the laws passed at every regular session of the Legislature.

SECTION 20. Special and private laws, when prohibited.—The Legislature shall not pass special or local laws in any of the following enumerated cases: that is to say, regulating the jurisdiction and duties of any class of officers, except municipal officers, or for the punishment of crime or misdemeanor, regulating the practice of courts of justice, except municipal courts; providing for changing venue of civil and criminal cases; granting divorces; changing the names of persons; vacating roads; summoning and empanneling grand and petit juries, and providing for their compensation; for assessment and collection of taxes for State and county purposes; for opening and conducting elections for State and County officers, and for designating the places of voting; for the sale of real estate belonging to minors, estates of descendents and of persons laboring under legal disabilities; regulating the fees of officers of the State and County; giving effect to informal or invalid deeds or wills; legitimizing children; providing for the adoption of children; relieving minors from legal disabilities; and for the establishment of ferries.

SECTION 21. General laws on certain subjects; general and uniform operation; notice of intention to apply for local legislation.—In all cases enumerated in the preceding Section, all laws shall be general and of uniform operation throughout the State, but in all cases not enumerated or excepted in that Section, the Legislature may pass special or local laws, except as now or hereafter otherwise provided in the Constitution; PROVIDED that no local or special bill shall be passed, nor shall any local or special law establishing or abolishing municipalities, or providing for their government, jurisdiction and powers, or altering or amending the same, be passed, unless notice of intention to apply therefor shall have been published in the manner provided by law where the matter or thing to be affected may be situated, which notice shall be published in the manner provided by law at least thirty days prior to introduction into the Legislature of any such bill. The evidence that such notice has been published shall be established in the Legislature before such bill shall be passed, and such evidence shall be filed or preserved with the bill in the office of the Secretary of State in such manner as the Legislature shall provide, and the fact that such notice was established in the Legislature shall in every case be recited upon the Journals of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; PROVIDED, however, no publication of any such law shall be required hereunder when such law contains a provision to the effect that the same shall not become operative or effective until ratified or approved at a referendum election to be called and held in the territory affected in accordance with a provision therefor contained in such bill, or provided by general law.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 81, 1937; adopted 1938.

SECTION 22. Suits against state.—Provision may be made by general law for bringing suit against the State as to all liabilities now existing or hereafter originating.

SECTION 23. Lotteries.—Lotteries are hereby prohibited in this State.

SECTION 24. Uniform county and municipal government; classification of cities and towns.—The Legislature shall establish an uniform system of county and municipal government, which shall be applicable, except in cases where local or special laws for counties are provided by the Legislature that may be inconsistent therewith. The Legislature shall by general law classify cities and towns according to population, and shall by general law provide for their incorporation, government, jurisdiction, powers, duties and privileges under such classifications, and no special or local laws incorporating cities or towns, providing for their government, jurisdiction, powers, duties and privileges shall be passed by the Legislature.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 296, 1933; adopted 1934.

SECTION 25. Incorporation of companies and associations; special and local laws.—The Legislature shall provide by general law for incorporating such educational, agricultural, mechanical, mining, transportation, mercantile and other useful companies or associations as may be deemed necessary; but it shall not pass any special law on any such subject, and any such special law shall be of no effect; Provided, however, That nothing herein shall preclude special legislation as to a university or the public schools, or as to a ship canal across the State.

History.—Am. J.R. 2, 1899; adopted 1900.

SECTION 26. Election laws.—Laws shall be passed regulating elections, and prohibiting under adequate penalties, all undue influence thereon from power, bribery, tumult or other improper practice.

SECTION 27. Election, duties and compensation of state and county officers.—The Legislature shall provide for the election by the people or appointment by the Governor of all State and county officers not otherwise provided for by this Constitution, and fix by law their duties and compensation.

SECTION 28. Executive approval of acts; veto; overriding veto.—Every bill that may have passed the Legislature shall, before becoming a law, be presented to the Governor; if he approves it he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it with his objections to the House in which it originated, which House shall cause such objections to be entered upon its Journal, and proceed to reconsider it; if, after such reconsideration, it shall pass both Houses by a two-thirds vote of members present, which vote shall be entered on the Journal of each House, it shall become a law. If any bill shall not be returned within five days after it shall have been presented to the Governor, (Sunday excepted) the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it. If the Legislature, by its final adjournment prevent such action, such bill shall be a law, unless the Governor within twenty (20) days after the adjournment, shall file such bill, with his objections thereto, in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall lay the same before the Legislature at its next session, and if the same shall receive two-thirds of the votes present it shall become a law.

History.—Am. S. J. R. 179, 1953; adopted 1954.

SECTION 29. Impeachment of officers.—The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. The speaker of the House may appoint a committee to investigate alleged grounds for impeachment against any officer subject to impeachment either during or between legislative sessions; but a vote of two-thirds of all members present shall be required to impeach any officer; and all impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. When sitting for that purpose the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senate present. The Senate may adjourn to a fixed time for the trial of any impeachment, and may sit for the purpose of such trial whether the House of Representatives be in session or not, but the time fixed for such trial shall not be more than six months from the time articles of impeachment shall be preferred by the House of Representatives. The Chief Justice shall preside at all trials by impeachment except in the trial of the Chief Justice, when the Governor shall preside. The Governor, Administrative officers of the Executive Department, Justices of the Supreme Court, and Judges of the Circuit Court shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office, but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under the State; but the party convicted or acquitted shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial and punishment according to law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 1730, 1961; adopted 1962.

SECTION 30. Appropriation bills.—Laws making appropriations for the salaries of public officers and other current expenses of the State shall contain provisions on no other subject.

SECTION 31. United States senators.—The Legislature shall elect United States Senators in the manner prescribed by the Congress of the United States and by this Constitution.

cf.—17th Amendment to U. S. Constitution.
§99.081 Election of U. S. Senators.

SECTION 32. Crimes, effect of repeal or amendment of law.—The repeal or amendment of any Criminal Statute shall not effect the prosecution or punishment of any crime committed before such repeal or amendment.

SECTION 33. Limitations, reducing time.—No statute shall be passed lessening the time within which a civil action may be commenced on any cause of action existing at the time of its passage.

SECTION 34. Impeached officers; effect of impeachment.—Immediately upon the impeachment of any officer by the House of Representatives, he shall be disqualified from performing any of the duties of his office until acquitted by the Senate, and the Governor in such case shall at once appoint an incumbent to fill such office pending the impeachment proceedings. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, the President of the Senate, or in case of the death, resignation or inability of the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, shall act as Governor pending the impeachment proceedings against the Governor.

History.—Added, J.R. 8, 1897; adopted 1898.

SECTION 4. Commander-in-chief of militia.—The Governor shall be commander in Chief of the military forces of the State, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

SECTION 5. Duties of governor.—The Governor shall transact all Executive business with the officers of the Government, civil and military, and may require information in writing from the administrative officers of the Executive Department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

SECTION 6. Execution of laws.—The Governor shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SECTION 7. Vacancies in office; appointments.—When any office, from any cause, shall become vacant, and no mode is provided by this Constitution or by the laws of the State for filling such vacancy, the Governor shall have the power to fill such vacancy by granting a commission for the unexpired term.

SECTION 8. Convening legislature in extra session.—The Governor may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Legislature by proclamation, and shall in his proclamation state the purpose for which it is to be convened, and the Legislature when organized shall transact no legislative business other than that for which it is especially convened, or such other legislative business as the Governor may call to its attention while in session, except by a two-thirds vote of each House.

SECTION 9. Governor's message to legislature.—The Governor shall communicate by message to the Legislature at each regular session information concerning the condition of the State, and recommend such measures as he may deem expedient.

SECTION 10. When governor may adjourn legislature.—In case of a disagreement between the two Houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the Governor shall have power to adjourn the Legislature to such time as he may think proper, provided it be not beyond the time fixed for the meeting of the next Legislature.

SECTION 11. Reprieves; suspension of fines; etc.—The Governor shall have power to suspend the collection of fines and forfeitures, and grant reprieves for a period not exceeding sixty days, for all offenses, except in cases of impeachment. In cases of conviction for treason he shall have power to suspend the execution of sentence until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next session, when the Legislature shall either pardon, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve; and if the Legislature shall fail or refuse to make disposition of such case, the sentence shall be enforced at such time and place as the Governor may direct. He shall communicate to the Legislature, at the beginning of every session, every case of fine or forfeiture remitted, or reprieved, pardon or commutation granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence, its date, and the date of its remission, commutation, pardon or reprieve.

SECTION 12. Pardon board.—The Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Attorney General and Commissioner of Agriculture or a major part of them, of whom the Governor shall be one, may upon such conditions, and with such limitations and restrictions as they may deem proper, remit fines and forfeitures, commute punishment and grant pardon after conviction, in all cases except treason and impeachment subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons.

History.—Am. J.R. 3, 1895; adopted 1896. cf.—§32, Art. XVI, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 13. Obtaining opinion of justices.—The Governor may, at any time, require the opinion of the Justices of the Supreme Court, as to the interpretation of any portion of this Constitution upon any question affecting his Executive powers and duties, and the Justices shall render such opinion in writing.

SECTION 14. Grants and commissions.—All grants and commissions shall be in the name and under the authority of the State of Florida, sealed with the great seal of the State, signed by the Governor, and countersigned by the Secretary of State.

SECTION 15. Removal or suspension of officers.—All officers that shall have been appointed or elected, and that are not liable to impeachment, may be suspended from office by the Governor for malfeasance, or misfeasance, or neglect of duty in office, for the commission of any felony, or for drunkenness or incompetency, and the cause of suspension shall be communicated to the officer suspended and to the Senate at its next session. And the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, may remove any officer, not liable to impeachment, for any cause above named. Every suspension shall continue until the adjournment of the next session of the Senate, unless the officer suspended shall, upon the recommendation of the Governor, be removed; but the Governor may reinstate the officer so suspended upon satisfactory evidence that the charge or charges against him are untrue. If the Senate shall refuse to remove, or fail to take action before its adjournment, the officer suspended shall resume the duties of the office. The Governor shall have power to fill by appointment any office, the incumbent of which has been suspended. No officer suspended who shall under this section resume the duties of his office, shall suffer any loss of salary or other compensation in consequence of such suspension. The suspension or removal herein authorized shall not relieve the officer from indictment for any misdemeanor in office.

SECTION 16. Appointment of officers of militia.—The Governor shall appoint all commissioned officers of the State Militia, including an adjutant general for the State, with the rank of brigadier general, who shall be chief of staff. The duties and compensation of all officers so appointed shall be as fixed by law. The terms of office of all commissioned officers of the organized militia shall be continuous during the pleasure of the Governor; subject to such laws as may be enacted by the Legislature providing for their retirement for age or other causes.

History.—Am. com. sub. for H.J.R. 281, 1913; adopted 1914.
cf.—Art. XIV, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 17. Board of commissioners of state institutions.—The Governor and the administrative officers of the Executive Department shall constitute a Board of Commissioners of State Institutions, which Board shall have supervision of all matters connected with such institutions in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 18. Veto of appropriations.—The Governor shall have power to disapprove of any item or items of any bills making appropriations of money embracing distinct items, and the part or parts of the bill approved shall be the law, and the item or items of appropriation disapproved shall be void, unless repassed according to the rules and limitations prescribed for the passage of other bills over the Executive veto.

SECTION 19. Impeachment, death, resignation, etc., of governor; who to act.—In case of the impeachment of the Governor, his removal from office, death, resignation or inability to discharge his official duties, the powers and duties of Governor shall devolve upon the President of the Senate for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease; and in case of the impeachment, removal from office, death, resignation or inability of the of the President of the Senate, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Representatives. But should there be a general election for members of the Legislature during such vacancy, an election for Governor to fill the same shall be had at the same time.

SECTION 20. Governor's cabinet.—The governor shall be assisted by administrative officers as follows: A secretary of state, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, and commissioner of agriculture, who shall be elected at the same time as the governor, and shall hold their offices for the same term; provided, that the first election of such officers under this section shall be had at the time of voting for governor in 1964 for a term of two years and thereafter commencing with the time of voting for governor in 1966, said officers shall be elected for a term of four years.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 428, 1963, adopted 1963.

SECTION 21. Secretary of state, duties, etc.—The Secretary of State shall keep the records of official acts of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government, and shall, when required, lay the same, and all matters relative thereto, before either branch of the Legislature; and shall be the custodian of the Great Seal of the State. He shall also have charge of the Capitol building and grounds, and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 22. Attorney general, duties, etc.—The Attorney-General shall be the legal advisor of the Governor, and of each of the officers of the Executive Department, and shall perform such other legal duties as may be prescribed by law. He shall be Reporter for the Supreme Court.

SECTION 23. Comptroller, duties, etc.—The Comptroller shall examine, audit, adjust and settle the accounts of all officers of the State and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

SECTION 24. Treasurer, duties, etc.—The Treasurer shall receive and keep all funds, bonds, and other securities, in such manner as may be prescribed by law, and shall disburse no funds, nor issue bonds, or other securities, except upon the order of the Comptroller, countersigned by the Governor, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 25. Superintendent of public instruction, duties, etc.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall have supervision of all matters pertaining to public instruction; the supervision of State buildings devoted to educational purposes, and perform such other duties as the Legislature may provide by law.

SECTION 26. Commissioner of agriculture, duties, etc.—The commissioner of agriculture shall perform such duties in relation to agriculture as may be prescribed by law. He shall also have supervision of the state prison, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 869, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 27. Reports of cabinet officers.—Each officer of this Department shall make a full report of his official acts, of the receipts and expenditures of his office, and the requirements of the same, to the Governor at the beginning of each regular session of the Legislature, or whenever the Governor shall require it. Such reports shall be laid before the Legislature by the Governor at the beginning of each regular session thereof. Either House of the Legislature may at any time call upon any officer of this Department for information required by it.

SECTION 28. Installation of cabinet officers.—The administrative officers of the Executive Department shall be installed on the same day as the Governor.

SECTION 29. Salaries of cabinet officers.—The salary of the Governor of the State shall be thirty-five hundred dollars a year, of the Comptroller two thousand dollars a year, of the State Treasurer two thousand dollars, of the Secretary of State fifteen hundred dollars, of the Attorney General fifteen hundred dollars, of the Commissioner of Agriculture fifteen hundred dollars, of the Superintendent of Public Instruction fifteen hundred dollars, a year; Provided, That no administrative officer of the Executive Department shall receive any additional compensation beyond his salary for any service or services rendered the State in connection with the Internal Improvement fund or other interests belonging to the State of Florida; Provided, further, That the Legislature may after eight years from the adoption of this Constitution increase or decrease any or all of said salaries.

SECTION 30. Game and fresh water fish commission; powers, duties, etc.—

(1) From and after January 1, 1943, the management, restoration, conservation, and regulation, of the birds, game, fur-bearing animals, and fresh-water fish, of the State of Florida, and the acquisition, establishment, control, and management, of hatcheries, sanctuaries, refuges, reservations, and all other property now or hereafter owned or used for such purposes by the State of Florida, shall be vested in a Commission to be known as the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. Such Commission shall consist of five members, one from each congressional district, as existing on January 1, 1941, who shall be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate. The members so appointed shall annually select one of their members as Chairman of the Commission.

(2) The first members of the Commission shall be appointed on January 1, 1943, and shall serve respectively for one, two, three, four, and five years. At the expiration of each of such terms, a successor shall be appointed to serve for a term of five years.

(3) The members of the Commission shall receive no compensation for their services as such, but each Commissioner shall receive his necessary traveling or other expenses incurred while engaged in the discharge of his official duties, but such shall not exceed the sum of $600.00 in any one year.

(4) Among the powers granted to the Commission by this section shall be the power to fix bag limits and to fix open and closed seasons, on a state-wide, regional or local basis, as it may find to be appropriate, and to regulate the manner and method of taking, transporting, storing and using birds, game, fur-bearing animals, fresh-water fish, reptiles, and amphibians. The Commission shall also have the power to acquire by purchase, gift, all property necessary, useful, or convenient, for the use of the Commission in the exercise of its powers hereunder.

(5) The Commission shall appoint, fix the salary of, and at pleasure remove, a suitable person, as Director, and such Director shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Commission in pursuance of its duties under this section. Such Director shall, subject to the approval of the Commission, appoint, fix the salaries of, and at pleasure remove, assistants, and other employees who shall have such powers and duties as may be assigned to them by the Commission or the Director. No Commissioner shall be eligible for any such appointment or employment.

(6) The funds resulting from the operation of the Commission and from the administration of the laws and regulations pertaining to birds, game, fur-bearing animals, fresh-water fish, reptiles, and amphibians, together with any other funds specifically provided for such purpose shall constitute the State Game Fund and shall be used by the Commission as it shall deem fit in carrying out the provisions hereof and for no other purposes. The Commission may not obligate itself beyond the current resources of the State Game Fund unless specifically so authorized by the Legislature.

(7) The Legislature may enact any laws in aid of, but not inconsistent with, the provisions of this amendment, and all existing laws inconsistent herewith shall no longer remain in force and effect. All laws fixing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this amendment and all laws imposing license taxes, shall be enacted by the legislature from time to time.

History.—Added, com. sub. for S.J.R. 28, 1941; adopted 1942.

SECTION 1. Courts.—The judicial power of the State of Florida is vested in a supreme court, district courts of appeal, circuit courts, Court of Record of Escambia County, criminal courts of record, county courts, county judge's courts, juvenile courts, courts of justices of the peace, and such other courts, including municipal courts, or commissions, as the legislature may from time to time ordain and establish.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 2. Administration.—The chief justice of the supreme court is vested with, and shall exercise in accordance with rules of that court, authority temporarily to assign justices of the supreme court to district courts of appeal and circuit courts, judges of district courts of appeal and circuit judges to the supreme court, district courts of appeal, and circuit courts, and judges of other courts, except municipal courts, to judicial service in any court of the same or lesser jurisdiction. Any retired justice or judge may, with his consent, be likewise assigned to judicial service.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956.

SECTION 3. Practice and procedure.—The practice and procedure in all courts shall be governed by rules adopted by the supreme court.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956.

SECTION 4. Supreme Court.—

(1) ORGANIZATION. The supreme court shall consist of seven members, one of whom shall be the chief justice. Five justices shall constitute a quorum, but the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision.

(2) JURISDICTION. Appeals from trial courts may be taken directly to the supreme court, as a matter of right, only from judgments imposing the death penalty, from final judgments or decrees directly passing upon the validity of a state statute or a federal statute or treaty, or construing a controlling provision of the Florida or federal constitution, and from final judgments or decrees in proceedings for the validation of bonds and certificates of indebtedness. The supreme court may directly review by certiorari interlocutory orders or decrees passing upon chancery matters which upon a final decree would be directly appeal-able to the supreme court. In all direct appeals and interlocutory reviews by certiorari, the supreme court shall have such jurisdiction as may be necessary to complete determination of the cause on review.

Appeals from district courts of appeal may be taken to the supreme court, as a matter of right, only from decisions initially passing upon the validity of a state statute or a federal statute or treaty, or initially construing a controlling provision of the Florida or federal constitution. The supreme court may review by certiorari any decision of a district court of appeal that affects a class of constitutional or state officers, or that passes upon a question certified by the district court of appeal to be of great public interest, or that is in direct conflict with a decision of another district court of appeal or of the supreme court on the same point of law, and may issue writs of certiorari to commissions established by law.

The supreme court may issue writs of mandamus and quo warranto when a state officer, board, commission, or other agency authorized to represent the public generally, or a member of any such board, commission, or other agency, is named as respondent, and writs of prohibition to commissions established by law, to the district courts of appeal, and to the trial courts when questions are involved upon which a direct appeal to the supreme court is allowed as a matter of right.

The supreme court may issue all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction.

The supreme court or any justice thereof may issue writs of habeas corpus returnable before the supreme court or any justice thereof, or before a district court of appeal or any judge thereof, or before any circuit judge.

The supreme court shall provide for the transfer to the court having jurisdiction of any matter subject to review when the jurisdiction of another appellate court has been improvidently invoked.

(3) CHIEF JUSTICE. The chief justice of the supreme court shall be chosen by the members of the court and shall serve for a term of two years. In the event of a vacancy, a successor shall be chosen within sixty days for a like term. During a vacancy or whenever the chief justice is unable to act for any reason, the justice longest in continuous service and able to act shall act as chief justice.

(4) CLERK AND MARSHAL; PROCESS. The supreme court shall appoint a clerk and a marshal who shall hold office during the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court directs. Their compensation shall be fixed by law. The marshal shall have the power to execute the process of the court throughout the state, and in any county may deputize the sheriff or a deputy sheriff for such purpose.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956.

SECTION 5. District Courts of Appeal.—

(1) APPELLATE DISTRICTS. The state shall be divided into four or more appellate districts of contiguous counties as the Legislature may from time to time prescribe, and there shall be organized a district court of appeal in each district.

(2) ORGANIZATION; NUMBER AND SELECTION OF JUDGES. There shall initially be three judges in each district court of appeal, and the Legislature may provide for additional judges for any district court of appeal and may reduce the number of any district to not less than three. Three judges shall constitute a panel for and shall consider each case, and the concurrence of a majority of the panel shall be necessary to a decision. The court shall hold at least one session every year in each judicial circuit within the district wherein there is ready business to transact. After a change in the territorial limits of any appellate district, all proceedings then pending within the jurisdiction of each district court of appeal shall be transferred to the court then having jurisdiction, except causes which have been orally argued.

(3) JURISDICTION. Appeals from trial courts in each appellate district, and from final orders or decrees of county judge's courts pertaining to probate matters or to estates and interests of minors and incompetents, may be taken to the court of appeal of such district, as a matter of right, from all final judgments or decrees except those from which appeals may be taken direct to the supreme court or to a circuit court.

The supreme court shall provide for expeditious and inexpensive procedure in appeals to the district courts of appeal, and may provide for review by such courts of interlocutory orders or decrees in matters reviewable by the district courts of appeal.

The district courts of appeal shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as may be provided by law.

A district court of appeal or any judge thereof may issue writs of habeas corpus returnable before that district court of appeal or any judge thereof, or before any circuit judge in that district. A district court of appeal may issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and quo warranto, and also all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction.

(4) CLERKS AND MARSHALS. Each district court of appeal shall appoint a clerk and a marshal who shall hold office during the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court may direct. Their compensation shall be fixed by law. The marshal shall have power to execute the process of the court throughout the state, and in any county may deputize the sheriff or a deputy sheriff for such purpose.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956; (1) (2) Am. H.J.R. 1601, 1959; adopted 1960; (1) (2) Am. S.J.R. 261, 1965; adopted 1965.

SECTION 6. Circuit Courts.—

(1) JUDICIAL CIRCUITS. The legislature may establish not more than twenty judicial circuits, each composed of a county or contiguous counties and of not less than fifty thousand inhabitants, according to the last census authorized by law, except that the county of Monroe shall constitute one of the circuits; provided, however, there shall be no reduction in the number of circuit judges residing in any county formerly a part of a judicial circuit, which circuit is hereafter created, divided, changed or revised.

(2) CIRCUIT JUDGES. The legislature shall provide for one circuit judge in each circuit for each fifty thousand inhabitants or major fraction thereof according to the last census authorized by law. In circuits having more than one judge the legislature may designate the place of residence of any such additional judge or judges.

(3) JURISDICTION. The circuit courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in all cases in equity except such equity jurisdiction as may be conferred on juvenile courts, in all cases at law not cognizable by subordinate courts, in all cases involving the legality of any tax, assessment, or toll, in the action of ejectment, in all actions involving the titles or boundaries of real estate, and in all criminal cases not cognizable by subordinate courts. They shall have original jurisdiction of actions of forcible entry and unlawful detainer, and of such other matters as the legislature may provide. They shall have final appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal cases arising in the county court, or before county judges' courts, of all misdemeanors tried in criminal courts of record, and of all cases arising in municipal courts, small claims courts, and courts of justices of the peace. The circuit courts and judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, injunction, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of their jurisdiction.

The circuit courts and circuit judges shall have such extra-territorial jurisdiction in chancery cases as may be prescribed by law.

(4) COURT COMMISSIONERS. A circuit judge may appoint in each county in his circuit one or more attorneys at law, to be court commissioners, who shall have power in the absence from the county of the circuit judge, to allow writs of injunction and to issue writs of habeas corpus, returnable before himself or the circuit judge. Their orders in such matters may be reviewed by the circuit judge, and confirmed, qualified or vacated. They may be removed by the circuit judge. The legislature may confer upon them further powers, not judicial, and shall fix their compensation.

(5) RECOMMENDATION TO ATTORNEY GENERAL; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE. It shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit courts to report to the attorney general at least thirty days before each session of the legislature such defects in the laws as may have been brought to their attention, and to suggest such amendments or additional legislation as may be deemed necessary. The attorney general shall report to the legislature at each session such legislation as he may deem advisable.

(6) STATE ATTORNEYS. In each judicial circuit a state attorney shall be elected by the qualified electors of that circuit in the same manner as other state and county officials, to serve a term of four years and to fulfill duties prescribed by law.

(7) CLERKS OF THE CIRCUIT COURTS. In each county a clerk of the circuit court, who shall also be clerk of the board of county commissioners, recorder, and ex officio auditor of the county, shall be elected by the qualified electors of that county in the same manner as other state and county officials, to serve a term of four years and to fulfill duties prescribed by law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956; (1) Am. H.J.R. 59, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 7. County Judges' Courts.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT. There shall be a county judge's court in each county.

(2) COUNTY JUDGES. There shall be in each county a county judge or county judges in such number as the legislature shall provide who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county at the time and places of voting for other county officers and shall hold office for four years. Compensation shall be as provided by law.

(3) JURISDICTION. The county judges' courts shall have original jurisdiction in all cases at law in which the demand or value of property involved shall be as provided by the legislature; of proceedings relating to the forcible or unlawful detention of lands and tenements; and of such criminal cases as the legislature may prescribe. The county judges' courts shall have jurisdiction of the settlement of the estate of decedents and minors, to order the sale of real estate of decedents and minors, to take probate of wills, to grant letters testamentary and of administration and guardianship, and to discharge the duties usually pertaining to courts of probate. The county judge shall have the power of committing magistrates.

(4) PRESCRIBED QUALIFICATION AUTHORIZED. The legislature may require by special act, subject to approval by referendum within the county, that the county judge of any county be a member of The Florida Bar; provided such law shall not affect the term of office or the reelection of any county judge holding office on the date of its enactment who is not a member of The Florida Bar.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956; (2A) added H.J.R. 1649, 1965; adopted, 1965; Am. S.J.R. 662, 1965; adopted, 1966; (4) added H.J.R. 175, 1965; adopted, 1966.

SECTION 8. County Courts; organization and officers.—The legislature may organize in such counties, as it may think proper, county courts which shall have jurisdiction of all cases at law in which the demand or value of the property involved shall not exceed five hundred dollars; of proceedings relating to the forcible entry or unlawful detention of lands and tenements, and of misdemeanors. The county judge shall be the judge of said court. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of said county at the time when the said judge is elected a prosecuting attorney for said county, who shall hold office for four years. His duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. Such courts may be abolished at the pleasure of the legislature.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956.

SECTION 9. Criminal Courts of Record.—

(1) ORGANIZATION AND JUDGES. The legislature may provide for the establishment of a criminal court of record in any county. Judges of criminal courts of record shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the county, in the same manner as other state and county officials. Their compensation shall be fixed by law and paid by the county.

In any county having a population in excess of 125,000 and not more than 250,000 according to the last decennial federal census, or census authorized by the legislature and paid for by the county, the legislature may provide for an additional judge of the criminal court of record for such county, provided that any law having for its purpose the creating of an additional judge of said court in such county shall not become effective unless ratified by a majority of the participating voters of such county in an election presenting the same for approval or rejection. In any county having a population of more than 250,000 according to such census, the legislature may, without referendum thereon, provide for one additional county judge for each additional 250,000 of population or major fraction thereof.

(2) JURISDICTION. The said courts shall have jurisdiction of all criminal cases not capital which shall arise in said counties respectively.

(3) TERMS. There shall be six terms of said courts in each year.

(4) PROSECUTING ATTORNEY; TERM. There shall be for each of said courts a prosecuting attorney who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the county as other state and county officials are elected and whose compensation shall be fixed by law.

(5) INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION. All offenses triable in said court shall be prosecuted upon information under oath, to be filed by the prosecuting attorney, but the grand jury of the circuit court for the county in which said criminal court is held may indict for offenses triable in the criminal court. Upon the finding of such indictment the circuit judge shall commit or bail the accused for trial in the criminal court, which trial shall be upon information.

(6) CRIMINAL COURTS OF RECORD SUPERSEDE CRIMINAL JURISDICTION OF COUNTY COURTS. The county courts in counties where such criminal courts are established shall have no criminal jurisdiction and no prosecuting attorney.

(7) CLERK. The clerk of said court shall be elected by the electors of the county in which the court is held and shall hold office for four years, and his compensation shall be fixed by law. He shall also be clerk of the county court. The sheriff of the county shall be the executive officer of said court, and his duties and fees shall be fixed by law.

(8) STATE ATTORNEY ELIGIBLE FOR APPOINTMENT AS COUNTY SOLICITOR. The state attorney residing in the county where such court is held shall be eligible for appointment as county solicitor for said county.

(9) CRIMINAL COURTS OF RECORD MAY BE ABOLISHED BY LEGISLATURE. Such courts may be abolished by the legislature.

(10) The clerk of the circuit court in and for Palm Beach county shall also be and serve as the clerk of the Palm Beach county criminal court of record.

History.—Am. H. J. R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956; (10) added H. J. R. 586, 1965; adopted, 1965.

SECTION 9A. Additional judge, Duval County criminal court of record.—From and after the adoption of this Amendment, there shall be a Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Duval County, Florida, in addition to the Judge of said Criminal Court of Record already provided in said county, said Judge shall be elected at the General Election next succeeding the coming into effect of this Amendment, except as otherwise provided herein, and shall hold office for four years and receive the same salary and allowances for expenses as is provided by law for the Judge of a Criminal Court of Record of Duval County. He shall have all powers and perform all duties and possess all qualifications that are or may be provided or prescribed by the Constitution or by statute for the Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Duval County, and all statutes concerning said Judge shall apply to him. Provided, however, that if there be a judge of a Provisional Criminal Court in Duval County upon the adoption of this Amendment, such Judge shall become such additional Judge, and shall be commissioned by the Governor to hold office as a Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Duval County, until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

On and after the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1965, the State Attorney of the Fourth Judicial Circuit shall be the prosecuting attorney of the Criminal Court of Record of Duval County, Florida, and the office of County Solicitor, the position of Assistant County Solicitor, the position of Special Investigator for the County Solicitor in Duval County, shall stand abolished and terminated; and thereafter the State Attorney and his Assistant Attorneys, under his direction, shall perform all the duties and functions of office heretofore performed by the County Solicitor. Pending informations filed in the Criminal Court of Record shall not be invalidated hereby, and the State Attorney, or his Assistant State Attorneys, may file amended informations in any such cases if and when necessary. The Legislature may provide for Assistant State Attorneys and Special Investigators for the State Attorney of The Fourth Judicial Circuit, and all Assistant State Attorneys of said Fourth Judicial Circuit shall be appointed by the State Attorney and sworn in by the Court, and such Assistant State Attorneys shall work under the direction of the State Attorney and shall have full authority to do and perform any official duties and acts that the State Attorney may do and perform within said Fourth Judicial Circuit.

Upon this amendment being adopted all funds appropriated by law approved by the Budget Commission and budgeted by the Board of County Commissioners of Duval County, Florida, and for the purpose of employing Assistant County Solicitors and other office personnel shall thereafter be used for the operation of the State Attorneys office of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, and for the employing of Assistant State Attorneys and other personnel, of that office, and the State Attorney is hereby authorized to employ such personnel, including Assistant State Attorneys and investigators in the same number and to be paid the same salary as the number of Assistant County Solicitors and investigators employed by the County Solicitor of Duval County, Florida.

History.—Added S.J.R. 777, 1955; adopted 1956; Am. S.J.R. 218, 1961; adopted 1962.

SECTION 9B. Dade County, state attorney as prosecuting attorney, criminal court of record.—On and after the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1957, the State Attorney of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in and for Dade County, Florida, shall be the prosecuting attorney of the Criminal Court of Record and the Court of Crimes of Dade County, and the office of County Solicitor, the position of Assistant County Solicitor, the positions of process server and investigator in Dade County, shall stand abolished and terminated; and thereafter the State Attorney and his Assistant State Attorneys, under his direction, shall perform all of the duties and functions of office heretofore performed by the County Solicitor. Pending informations filed in the Criminal Court of Record or Court of Crimes shall not be invalidated hereby, and the State Attorney, or his Assistant State Attorneys, may file amended informations in any such cases if and when necessary. The Legislature may provide for Assistant State Attorneys and special investigators for the State Attorney of Dade County, and all Assistant State Attorneys shall be appointed by the State Attorney and sworn in by the Court, and such Assistant State Attorneys shall work under the direction of the State Attorney and shall have full authority to do and perform any official act that the State Attorney may do and perform.

Upon this amendment being adopted all funds appropriated by law approved by the Budget Commission and budgeted by the Board of County Commissioners of Dade County for the use of office of County Solicitor of Dade County, Florida, and for the purpose of employing Assistant County Solicitors and other office personnel shall thereafter be used for the operation of the State Attorney's Office of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in and for Dade County, and the employing of Assistant State Attorneys and other personnel for the operation of that office, and the said State Attorney is hereby authorized to employ such personnel, including Assistant State Attorneys, process servers and investigator, in the same number and to be paid the same salary as the number of Assistant County Solicitors, process servers and investigator employed by the County Solicitor of Dade County, Florida.

History.—Added S.J.R. 1201, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 9C. Hillsborough County, offices of the state attorney and county solicitor.—On and after the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1969, there shall be a Prosecuting Attorney of the Criminal Court of Record of Hillsborough County to be known as County Solicitor who shall be a separate official elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the county as other state and county officials are elected and whose compensation shall be fixed by law. Said County Solicitor shall perform the functions and duties of a County Solicitor in the Criminal Court of Record of Hillsborough County, Florida, as prescribed by law in all noncapital felony cases and other lesser offenses in said court's jurisdiction.

After said time there shall also be a State Attorney of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County who shall be a separate official elected by the qualified electors of that circuit in the same manner as other state and county officials to serve a term of four years who shall fulfill the duties prescribed by law, including, but not limited to, prosecution of all capital felony cases.

The legislature may provide for Assistant State Attorneys and Special Investigators for the State Attorney and for Assistant County Solicitors and Special Investigators for the County Solicitor of Hillsborough County, Florida, and all Assistant State Attorneys and Assistant County Solicitors and Investigators shall be appointed by the State Attorney and the County Solicitor respectively and sworn in by the court, and such Assistant State Attorneys and County Solicitors shall work under the direction of said State Attorney and County Solicitor and shall have full authority to do and perform any of the official duties and acts that the State Attorney and County Solicitor may do and perform.

Pending informations filed in the Criminal Court of Record of Hillsborough County shall not be invalidated by this amendment or affected in any way hereby; and the County Solicitor may file amended informations in any such cases if and when necessary.

The County Commissioners shall, upon this amendment becoming effective, apportion the funds appropriated for the operation of the State Attorney's Office between the State Attorney's Office and the County Solicitor's Office on the basis of the case load, personnel assigned in the State Attorney's Office to handle the duties of the newly created County Solicitor, and the cost of operations of said two offices. Thereafter, the Board of County Commissioners of Hillsborough County shall appropriate such funds as to them may be reasonably required for the operation of the State Attorney's Office and County Solicitor's Office.

It is the express intent of the legislature and the electors of the State of Florida to create offices of the State Attorney and County Solicitor in Hillsborough County, Florida, which shall be separate, distinct, and unconnected with each other so that the same shall be and exist as they did in said county before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January of 1961.

History.—Added S.J.R. 532, 1957; adopted 1958; Am. S.J.R. 6, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 10. Court of Record of Escambia County.—In Escambia County there shall be a court of record with two or more judges as the legislature may provide, who shall be elected for a term of six years by the qualified electors of said county as other county officials are elected, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the legislature. Said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all criminal cases not capital and, concurrent with the circuit court of said county and the judges thereof, the same original jurisdiction of all cases and matters and the same power and authority to issue all writs as the circuit court of said county and the judges thereof, excepting the power to summon and empanel a grand jury, and jurisdiction of such other matters as the legislature may provide. The rules of procedure and practice applicable to the circuit court of said county shall obtain in the court of record.

The provisions of this constitution and all laws enacted in consonance therewith pertaining to circuit courts and the officers thereof and to appeals and writs of error from circuit courts, including the manner of the appointment or election and the terms of office and compensation of said officers, shall apply with like effect to the court of record of Escambia County and the officers thereof except as otherwise provided in this section; provided that the compensation and expense allowances of said judges of said court of record shall be paid by Escambia County and shall be the same as paid to and received from all sources by judges of the circuit court of said county resident in said county.

At the request of a judge of the circuit court of Escambia County evidenced as now provided by law a judge of the court of record may assume and perform in every respect the jurisdiction and duties of the circuit court of Escambia County or a judge thereof, including the trial of capital cases and the power to summon and empanel a grand jury; and at the request of a judge of the court of record evidenced as now provided by law a judge of the circuit court of Escambia County may assume and perform in every respect the duties and jurisdiction of the court of record of Escambia County or a judge thereof.

There shall hereafter be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of Escambia County, Florida, a prosecuting attorney, who shall be known as "County Solicitor of Escambia County, Florida", and who shall be the prosecuting attorney in the Court of Record in and for Escambia County, Florida, and his duties and compensation shall be fixed by law. An election for County Solicitor shall be held at the general election in 1958, and each four years thereafter, and the person elected at any such election shall take office the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January succeeding the date of the election. Any person now occupying such office or who shall hereafter be appointed to fill any vacancy therein shall continue in office until the election and qualification of a County Solicitor hereunder.

All offenses triable in the Court of Record in and for Escambia County, Florida, shall be prosecuted upon information under oath, to be filed by the County Solicitor, but the Grand Jury of the Circuit Court for Escambia County, Florida, may indict for offenses triable in said Court. Upon the finding of any such indictment the Circuit Judge shall admit to bail or commit the accused pending trial in the Court of Record in and for Escambia County, Florida, and trial shall be upon information filed by the County Solicitor.

The Clerk of said Court shall be elected by the electors of Escambia County at the General Election in 1960 and each four years thereafter, and the person elected shall hold office for four years. The compensation and duties of the Clerk shall be fixed by law. The Clerk of the Court of Record in and for Escambia County, Florida, elected at the General Election of 1956 and any successor appointed to fill any vacancy in said office which may occur, shall hold office until the first Tuesday after the first Monday, January, 1961.

The sheriff of the County shall be the executive officer of said Court and his duties and compensation shall be fixed by law.

In event of vacancy in the office of County Solicitor, Clerk or other officer of the Court of Record in and for Escambia County, Florida, from any cause, the successor to fill such vacancy shall be appointed by the Governor to serve for the unexpired term of such office which has become vacant.

History.—Am. H. J. R. 83-XX, 1956, adopted 1956.

SECTION 11. Courts of Justices of the Peace.—

(1) DISTRICTS AND PRESIDING OFFICER. There shall be not more than five justice districts in each county, and there shall be elected one justice of the peace for each justice district, who shall hold office for four years. Existing justice districts are hereby recognized, but the legislature may, by special act, from time to time change the boundaries of any such district now or hereafter established, and may establish new or abolish any such district now or hereafter existing. Provided, however, that any such changes shall be submitted to the people of any county so affected, by referendum at the next ensuing general election.

(2) JURISDICTION. The justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction in cases at law in which the demand or value of the property involved does not exceed $100.00, and in which the cause of action accrued or the defendant resides in his district; and in such criminal cases, except felonies, as may be prescribed by law, and he shall have power to issue process for the arrest of all persons charged with felonies and misdemeanors not within his jurisdiction to try, and make the same returnable before himself or the county judge for examination, discharge, commitment or bail of the accused. Justices of the peace shall have the power to hold inquests of the dead. Appeal from justices of the peace courts in criminal cases may be tried de novo under such regulations as the legislature may prescribe.

(3) CONSTABLES. A constable shall be elected by the registered voters in each justice's district, who shall perform such duties, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted, 1956.

SECTION 11A. Orange County; boundaries of Justice of Peace Districts.—The board of county commissioners of Orange County may at any time upon resolution, alter, change or revise the boundary of any justice of the peace district within Orange County without referendum; provided that no existing justice of the peace district shall be dissolved or otherwise eliminated except as otherwise provided by law. A public hearing shall be held on the proposed resolution with ten days' notice published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

History.—Added H.J.R. 748, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 12. Juvenile Courts; establishment; jurisdiction; judge; officers; procedure.—The legislature shall have power to create and establish juvenile courts in such county or counties or districts within the state as it may deem proper, and to define the jurisdiction and powers of such courts and the officers thereof, and to vest in such courts exclusive original jurisdiction of all or any criminal cases where minors under any age specified by the legislature from time to time are accused, including the right to define any or all offenses committed by any such persons as acts of delinquency instead of crimes; to provide for the qualification, election or selection and appointment of judges, probation officers and such other officers and employees of such courts as the legislature may determine, and to fix their compensation and term of office; all in such manner, for such time, and according to such methods as the legislature may prescribe and determine, without being limited therein by the provisions in this constitution as to trial by jury in Sections 3 and 11 of the Declaration of Rights, as to the use of the terms "prosecuting attorney" and "information" in Section 10 of the Declaration of Rights, as to election or appointment of officers in Section 27 of Article 3, as to jurisdiction of criminal cases in Sections 6, 7, 9, and 11 of this Article, as to original jurisdiction of the interests of minors in Section 6 of this Article, and as to style of process and prosecuting in the name of the state in Section 20 of this Article, or other existing conflicting provisions of this constitution.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 13. Eligibility requirements for justices and judges.—No person shall be eligible for the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of a district court of appeal unless he is a citizen of this state, and unless he is, at the time, a member of the Florida Bar in good standing and for a period of at least ten years has been a member of the bar of Florida; and no person shall be eligible for the office of judge of a circuit court or criminal court of record who is not twenty-five years of age and a member of the bar of Florida. Any senator or member of the house of representatives otherwise qualified shall be eligible for appointment or election to any judicial office which may have been created, or the emoluments whereof may have been increased, during the time for which he was elected.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 13A. Eligibility requirements for justices and certain judges.—

(1) No person shall be eligible for the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of a district court of appeal unless he is a citizen of this state, and unless he is, and for a period of ten years has been, a member of The Florida Bar; and no person shall be eligible for the office of judge of a circuit court unless he is a citizen of this state and unless he is, and for a period of five years has been, a member of The Florida Bar. The judges of other courts shall be citizens of this state and residents of the county served. Any senator or member of the house of representatives otherwise qualified shall be eligible for appointment or election to any judicial office, notwithstanding that it may have been created or its emoluments increased during the time for which he was elected.

History.—Added Com. Sub. for S.J.R. 485, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 14. Vacancies in office of judge, how filled.—When the office of any judge shall become vacant from any cause, the successor to fill such vacancy shall be appointed or elected only for the unexpired term of the judge whose death, resignation, retirement, or other cause created such vacancy.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 15. Election of judges.—Circuit judges shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective judicial circuits as other state and county officials are elected.

Judges of district courts of appeal shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts as other state and county officials are elected.

Justices of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state as other state and county officials are elected.

The judges of district courts of appeal identified as belonging to Group "A" shall be elected in 1958 and every six years thereafter; those identified as belonging to Group "B" shall be elected in 1960 and every six years thereafter; and those identified as belonging to Group "C" shall be elected in 1962 and every six years thereafter.

Election of circuit judges shall be held in the year 1960 and every six years thereafter.

Two justices of the supreme court shall be elected in 1958 and every six years thereafter; three justices of the supreme court shall be elected in 1960 and every six years thereafter; two justices of the supreme court shall be elected in 1962 and every six years thereafter.

Such elected justices and judges shall take office on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the following January.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 16. Terms of office of certain judges.—The terms of office of justices of the supreme court, judges of district courts of appeal, and circuit judges shall be six years.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 17. Retirement, suspension and removal of judges.—Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article relating to terms of office:

(1) All justices and judges shall automatically retire at age 70;

(2) Subject to rules of procedure to be established by the supreme court, and after notice and hearing, any justice or judge may be retired for disability at retirement pay to be fixed by law, which shall not be less than two-thirds of his then compensation if he has served for ten years or more, by a commission composed of one justice of the supreme court to be selected by that court, two judges of the district courts of appeal to be selected by the judges of said district courts of appeal, and two circuit judges and two county judges to be selected by the supreme court.

(3) Any justice of the supreme court, judge of the district court of appeal, or circuit judge shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 17A. Discipline, retirement and removal of justices and certain judges.—

(1) Except as it provides for mandatory retirement, this section shall apply to every justice of the supreme court and judge of the district courts of appeal and circuit courts. It shall be the sole method of disciplining, automatically or involuntarily retiring or removing such justices or judges, provided that all such justices or judges shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office. All justices and judges shall automatically retire at age seventy except those who held any judicial office on July 1, 1957; provided, however, that such mandatory retirement shall not prohibit a justice or judge from serving the entire term to which he was appointed or elected if he attains his seventieth birthday after serving at least one half of such term.

(2) There shall be a judicial qualifications commission composed of:

(a) Two judges of the district courts of appeal appointed by the judges of those courts and two circuit court judges appointed by the judges of those courts.

(b) Two members of The Florida Bar, who shall have practiced law in this state for at least eight years, appointed by the board of governors of The Florida Bar; and

(c) Three citizens, each of whom shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years, neither of whom shall be a justice or judge of any court, active or retired, nor a member of The Florida Bar, appointed by the governor. When a member appointed under paragraph (a) ceases to be a judge of the court from which he was appointed or a member appointed under paragraph (b) ceases to be a member of The Florida Bar, or a member appointed under paragraph (c) becomes a justice or judge of any court or a member of The Florida Bar, his membership on the commission shall terminate and a successor shall be appointed for the remainder of his term. No member of the commission appointed under paragraphs (b) or (c) shall be eligible to succeed himself. Except as provided herein, no member of the commission shall hold a public office and no member shall hold office in a political party. The compensation and terms of office of members of the commission shall be fixed by law, provided that not more than one third of the terms of the members shall terminate in any two year period. No recommendation of the commission to the supreme court shall be valid unless concurred in by two thirds of its members. The commission shall elect one of its members to serve as chairman.

(3) Any justice or judge to whom this section applies may be disciplined by private reprimand or removed from office for willful or persistent failure to perform his duties or habitual intemperance or conduct unbecoming a member of the judiciary or he may be involuntarily retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature. After such investigation as it deems necessary, the judicial qualifications commission may conduct a hearing concerning the removal, discipline or retirement of a justice or judge or request the supreme court to appoint three special referees, who shall be active or retired justices or judges of courts of record, to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the commission. All hearings shall be held in the county in which the justice or judge involved resides. Testimony shall be under oath, administered by a member of the commission or a special referee, and subject to the penalties for perjury. If after hearing, or after considering the record and report of the referees, the commission finds good cause therefor, it shall recommend to the supreme court the removal, discipline or retirement of the justice or judge. The supreme court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and shall order removal, discipline or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the commission's recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability, the justice or judge shall thereby be retired at retirement pay to be fixed by law which as to a justice of the supreme court, judge of a district court of appeal or circuit judge shall not be less than two thirds of his then compensation if he has served for ten years or more as justice or judge of such court or courts. Upon an order for removal, the justice or judge shall thereby be removed from office, and his salary shall cease from the date of such order. The supreme court shall make rules providing for the procedure before the commission and the referees and the extent to which communications shall be privileged or confidential, provided that upon the entry of an order of discipline, removal or retirement the record shall no longer remain confidential. A justice or judge shall be disqualified in any proceeding involving his own discipline, retirement or removal. The supreme court shall by rule provide for the disqualification of any member of the commission or referee and for the ad hoc appointment of a person to take the place of a disqualified person.

(4) In the event a judge is removed from office, his judicial service shall not provide immunity from disciplinary proceedings for professional misconduct performed during his term of office or prior thereto.

History.—Added S.J.R. 485, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 18. Prohibited activities of judges.—Justices of the supreme court, judges of district courts of appeal and circuit judges shall devote full time to their judicial duties, shall not engage in the practice of law or hold any office or position of profit under this state or any office of profit under the United States, and shall not hold office in any political party.

Compensation for service in the state militia or the armed forces of the United States or other defense agencies recognized by the supreme court for such periods of time as may be determined by the supreme court shall not be deemed profit.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 19. Judicial salaries and expenses.—Justices of the supreme court and judges of all other courts shall receive for their services salaries or compensation provided by law. A retired justice or judge assigned to active judicial service shall, while so serving, receive as additional compensation the difference between his retirement benefits and the compensation applicable to such service. Salaries of circuit judges may be supplemented in any county or counties when authorized by law. Judicial officers shall be paid such actual and necessary expenses as may be authorized by law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 20. Style of process.—The style of all process shall be "The State of Florida" and all prosecutions shall be conducted in the name and by the authority of the State.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 21. Referees.—Any civil cause may be tried before a practicing attorney as referee upon the applications of the parties and an order from the court in whose jurisdiction the case may be, authorizing such trial and appointing such referee. The referee shall keep a complete record of the case, including the evidence taken, and such record shall be filed with the papers in the case in the office of the clerk; and the cause shall be subject to an appeal in the manner prescribed by law.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 22. Juries.—The number of jurors for trial of causes in any court may be fixed by law but shall not be less than six in any case.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 23. Admission and discipline of attorneys.—The supreme court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the admission to the practice of law and the discipline of persons admitted. It may provide for an agency to handle admissions subject to its supervision. It may also provide for the handling of disciplinary matters in the circuit courts and the district courts of appeal, or by commissions consisting of members of the bar to be designated by it, the supreme court, subject to its supervision and review.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 24. Effect of reduction of number of judges.—Any law reducing the number of judges of any court shall not shorten the term of any judge then in office.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 25. Judicial Officers as conservators of the peace. All judicial officers in this state shall be conservators of the peace.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 810, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 26. Schedule.—

(1) This Article shall become effective on the first day of July 1957 and shall replace all of Article V, and shall supersede any other provisions of the present constitution of Florida in conflict herewith, which shall then stand repealed.

(2) Until changed by law as authorized in this Article, the appellate districts shall be composed as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT:

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th, 8th, and 14th judicial circuits as presently constituted.

SECOND DISTRICT:

The 6th, 9th, 10th, 12th, and 13th judicial circuits as presently constituted.

THIRD DISTRICT:

The 11th, 15th, and 16th judicial circuits as presently constituted.

(3) The provisions of the Article governing eligibility for office shall not affect the right of any incumbent to continue in office or to seek reelection.

(4) Except to the extent inconsistent with the provisions of this Article, all provisions of law and rules of court in force on the effective date of this Article shall continue in effect until superseded in a manner authorized by the constitution.

(5) Judges of the district courts of appeal appointed by the governor shall take office on the effective date of this Article.

(6) The supreme court may transfer to the respective district courts of appeal such causes, matters and proceedings as are pending in the supreme court on the effective date of this Article which are within the jurisdiction of such courts as the supreme court may see fit. No case that has been orally argued before the supreme court shall be so transferred. The supreme court shall have and retain jurisdiction and authority over all causes, matters and proceedings not so transferred to the district courts of appeal.

(7) All trial courts as organized and constituted on the effective date of this Article shall, except as otherwise provided herein, continue with their jurisdiction, judges and officers, including the manner of their election or appointment, until otherwise provided by the legislature.

(8) Until otherwise provided by law, there shall be an additional judge for the Fourth Judicial Circuit who shall reside in Duval County, and shall receive the same salary and allowances for expenses as other circuit judges in and for the circuit court of said county, which salary and expenses shall be paid by said county out of its general revenue. The additional judge of the circuit court of Duval County holding office on the effective date of this Article under former Section 42 of Article V shall become the additional judge here provided for until the expiration of his then term of office.

(9) There shall be an additional circuit judge for the circuit court of the judicial circuit wherein the state capital is located. Subsequent to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January 1957, the governor shall appoint the first judge hereunder to serve for a term expiring on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January 1959, following the election of his successor at the general election in November 1958, which successor shall serve for a term expiring on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January 1961, following the election of his successor at the general election in November 1960, which successor shall serve for the full term and his successors chosen as otherwise provided for circuit judges.

(10) Until otherwise provided by the legislature, orders of the Florida Industrial Commission shall be subject to review only by petition to the district courts of appeal for writ of certiorari.

(11) All provisions of law pertaining to the State Board of Law Examiners shall continue in effect until superseded in a manner authorized by this Article.

(12) This Article shall not disturb the terms of incumbent judges.

(13) The provision for automatic retirement in Section 17 of this Article does not apply to any person now holding office.

(14) Upon the adoption of this Article, the legislature shall enact such laws and make such appropriations and the supreme court shall make such rules as may be necessary or proper to give effect to its provisions.

History.—Am. H. J. R. 810, 1955, adopted 1956.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 6. Elections; method of voting.—In all elections by the Legislature, the vote shall be viva voce, and in all elections by the people, the vote shall be by ballot.

SECTION 7. (Repealed)

History.—Repealed, J.R. 2, 1893; adopted 1894.

SECTION 8. Poll tax.—The legislature shall have power to make the payment of the capitation tax, a prerequisite for voting, and all such taxes received shall go into the school fund.

SECTION 9. Legislature to enact laws to preserve purity of ballot.—The Legislature shall enact such laws as will preserve the purity of the ballot given under this Constitution.

ARTICLE VII

CENSUS AND APPORTIONMENT

Sec.

1. Composition of first legislature.
2. Number of members of senate and house of representatives; terms.
3. Apportionment of representation in senate and house of representatives.

SECTION 1. Composition of first legislature.—The Senators representing the odd numbered districts, as said districts are now designated, whose terms have not expired, and those Senators representing even numbered districts, to be elected A. D. 1886, under the Constitution of 1868, shall be the first Senate under this Constitution; and the members of the Assembly to be elected A. D. 1886, shall be the first House of Representatives under this Constitution, and the Senate and House of Representatives thus constituted shall be the first Legislature under this Constitution, and the terms of office of each of the said Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall expire at the election for Senators and members of the House of Representatives A. D. 1888, and in that year a new Senate and House of Representatives shall be elected.

SECTION 2. Number of members of senate and house of representatives; terms.—The Legislature shall consist of not more than thirty-two members of the Senate, and of not more than sixty-eight members of the House of Representatives. The members of the House of Representatives shall be elected for terms of two years, and the members of the Senate shall be elected for terms of Four years except as hereinafter provided. The election for members of the House of Representatives and Senate shall be at the same time and places. The terms of office of the Senators elected in Oct. A. D. 1896, shall expire on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November A. D. 1900 and the terms of office of those elected in November A. D. 1898 shall expire on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November A. D. 1902, and thereafter all Senators shall be elected for Four Years.

History.—Am. J.R. 5, 1895; adopted 1896.
cf.—§3, Art. VII, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 3. Apportionment of representation in senate and house of representatives.—The Legislature that shall meet in regular session A. D. 1925, and those that shall meet every ten years thereafter, shall apportion the Representation in the Senate, and shall provide for thirty-eight (38) Senatorial Districts, such Districts to be as nearly equal in population as practicable, but no county shall be divided in making such apportionment, and each district shall have one Senator; and, at the same time, the Legislature shall also apportion the Representation in the House of Representatives, and shall allow three (3) Representatives to each of the five most populous counties, and two (2) Representatives to each of the next eighteen more populous counties, and one Representative to each of the remaining counties of the State at the time of such apportionment. Should the Legislature fail to apportion the Representation in the Senate and in the House of Representatives, at any regular session of the Legislature at any of the times herein designated, it shall be the duty of the Legislature or Legislatures succeeding such regular session of the Legislature, either in special or regular session, to apportion the Representation in the Senate and in the House of Representatives as herein provided. The preceding regular Federal or regular State Census, which ever shall have been taken nearest any apportionment of Representatives in the Senate and in the House of Representatives, shall control in making any such apportionment. In the event the Legislature shall fail to reapportion the representation in the Legislature as required by this amendment, the Governor shall (within thirty days after the adjournment of the regular session), call the Legislature together in extraordinary session to consider the question of reapportionment and such extraordinary session of the Legislature is hereby mandatorily required to reapportion the representation as required by this amendment before its adjournment (and such extraordinary session so called for reapportionment shall not be limited to expire at the end of twenty days or at all, until reapportionment is affected, and shall consider no business other than such reapportionment).

History.—Am. S.J.R. 255, 1923; adopted 1924.

SECTION 4. Senatorial district to be composed of contiguous counties.—Where any Senatorial District is composed of two or more counties, the counties of which such district consists, shall not be entirely separated by any county, belonging to another district. Any new county that may be created, shall be entitled to one member in the House of Representatives, in excess of the limit prescribed in Sec. 2 of this Article until the apportionment following next thereafter, and shall be assigned when created to one of the adjoining Senatorial Districts as shall be determined by the Legislature.

History.—Am. J.R. 1, 1899; adopted 1900.
cf.—§3, Art. VII, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 5. State census.—The Legislature shall no longer be required to provide for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the State. The last preceding decennial Federal census beginning with the Federal census of 1950 shall also be the State census and shall control in all population Acts and constitutional apportionments, unless otherwise ordered by the Legislature.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 46, 1949; adopted 1950.

officers, and shall hold office for four years, provided, that the County Commissioners elected from the even numbered districts in 1944 shall serve for two years, those elected in 1944 from the odd numbered districts shall serve for four years, and thereafter the terms shall be for four years; Provided, that Section 11 of Article VIII of this Constitution shall not be affected hereby.

History.—Am. J.R. 3, S.J.R. 44, 1899, adopted 1900; Am. S.J.R. 314, 1943, adopted 1944.

SECTION 6. Election of county officers; terms.—The Legislature shall provide for the election by the qualified electors in each County of the following County Officers: A Clerk of the Circuit Court, a Sheriff, Constables, a County Assessor of Taxes, a Tax Collector, a Superintendent of Public Instruction and a County Surveyor. The term of office of all County officers mentioned in this Section shall be for four years, except that of County Assessor of Taxes and County Tax Collector, who shall be elected for two years until at the general election to be held in the year A. D. 1918, when and after which they shall be elected for a term of four years. Their powers, duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide by law for the care and custody of all County funds and shall provide the method of reporting and paying out all such funds. Provided, County Treasurers elected in General Election held in 1914 shall hold office for the term elected.

History.—Am. com. sub. for J.R. 34, 89 and 98, 1913; adopted 1914.

SECTION 6A. Appointive county superintendents of public instruction; terms and employment.—In those counties authorized to appoint a superintendent of public instruction under Article XII of the state constitution the superintendent shall serve at the pleasure of the board provided that the board may enter into a contract of employment with such appointed county superintendent which contract shall not extend beyond the thirtieth day of June in the year in which the terms of a majority of the members of the board of public instruction shall expire. The county superintendent shall not be commissioned by the governor but shall be required to file with the county board of public instruction a good and sufficient bond and in such sum and upon such condition as the legislature by law shall prescribe for elective superintendents as provided by Section 7, Article VIII of the state constitution.

History.—Added S.J.R. 221, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 7. Bond of county officers; assistant assessor of taxes.—The Legislature shall by law authorize the County Commissioners of the several counties, where it is deemed necessary for assessment purposes to divide their respective counties into taxation districts, and to appoint in, and for each district, an Assistant Assessor of Taxes, whose powers, duties, and compensation, shall be prescribed by law. All county officers, except Assistant Assessors of Taxes, shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, be commissioned by the Governor; but no such commission shall issue to any such officer, until he shall have filed with the Secretary of State a good and sufficient bond, in such sum and upon such conditions, as the Legislature shall by law prescribe, approved by the County Commissioners of the county in which such officer resides, and by the Comptroller. No county officer shall become security upon the official bond of any other county officer. If any person elected, or appointed to any county office, shall fail to give bond and qualify within sixty days after his election, the said office shall become vacant.

SECTION 8. Establishing and abolishing municipalities.—The Legislature shall have power to establish, and to abolish, municipalities to provide for their government, to prescribe their jurisdiction and powers, and to alter or amend the same at any time. When any municipality shall be abolished, provision shall be made for the protection of its creditors.

cf.—§§21 and 24, Art. III, Florida Constitution.

SECTION 9. Legislative power over city of Jacksonville and Duval county.—The Legislature shall have power to establish, alter or abolish, a Municipal corporation to be known as the City of Jacksonville, extending territorially throughout the present limits of Duval County, in the place of any or all county, district, municipal and local governments, boards, bodies and officers, constitutional or statutory, legislative, executive, judicial, or administrative, and shall prescribe the jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions of such municipal corporation, its legislative, executive, judicial and administrative departments and its boards, bodies and officers; to divide the territory included in such municipality into subordinate districts, and to prescribe a just and reasonable system of taxation for such municipality and districts; and to fix the liability of such municipality and districts. Bonded and other indebtedness, existing at the time of the establishment of such municipality, shall be enforceable only against property theretofore taxable therefor. The Legislature shall, from time to time, determine what portion of said municipality is a rural area, and a homestead in such rural area shall not be limited as if in a city or town. Such municipality may exercise all the powers of a municipal corporation and shall also be recognized as one of the legal political divisions of the State with the duties and obligations of a county and shall be entitled to all the powers, rights and privileges, including representation in the State Legislature, which would accrue to it if it were a county. All property of Duval County and of the municipalities in said county shall vest in such municipal corporation when established as herein provided. The offices of Clerk of the Circuit Court and Sheriff shall not be abolished but the Legislature may prescribe the time when, and the method by which, such offices shall be filled and the compensation to be paid to such officers and may vest in them additional powers and duties. No county office shall be abolished or consolidated with another office without making provision for the performance of all State duties now or hereafter prescribed by law to be performed by such county officer. Nothing contained herein shall affect Section 20 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, except as to such provisions therein as relate to regulating the jurisdiction and duties of any class of officers, to summoning and impanelling grand and petit jurors, to assessing and collecting taxes for county purposes and to regulating the fees and compensation of county officers. No law authorizing the establishing or abolishing of such Municipal corporation pursuant to this Section, shall become operative or effective until approved by a majority of the qualified electors participating in an election held in said County, but so long as such Municipal corporation exists under this Section the Legislature may amend or extend the law authorizing the same without referendum to the qualified voters unless the Legislative act providing for such amendment or extension shall provide for such referendum.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 113, 1933; adopted 1934.

SECTION 10. Legislative power over city of Key West and Monroe county.—The Legislature shall have power to establish, alter or abolish, a Municipal corporation to be known as the City of Key West, extending territorially throughout the present limits of Monroe County, in the place of any or all county, district, municipal and local governments, boards, bodies and officers, constitutional or statutory, legislative, executive, judicial, or administrative, and shall prescribe the jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions of such municipal corporation, its legislative, executive, judicial and administrative departments and its boards, bodies and officers; to divide the territory included in such municipality into subordinate districts, and to prescribe a just and reasonable system of taxation for such municipality and districts; and to fix the liability of such municipality and districts. Bonded and other indebtedness, existing at the time of the establishment of such municipality, shall be enforceable only against property theretofore taxable therefor. The Legislature shall, from time to time, determine what portion of said municipality is a rural area, and a home-stead in such rural area shall not be limited as if in a city or town. Such municipality may exercise all the powers of a municipal corporation and shall also be recognized as one of the legal political divisions of the State with the duties and obligations of a county and shall be entitled to all the powers, rights and privileges, including representation in the State Legislature, which would accrue to it if it were a county. All property of Monroe County and of the municipality in said county shall vest in such municipal corporation when established as herein provided. The offices of Clerk of the Circuit Court and Sheriff shall not be abolished but the Legislature may prescribe the time when, and the method by which, such offices shall be filled and the compensation to be paid to such officers and may vest in them additional powers and duties. No county office shall be abolished or consolidated with another office without making provision for the performance of all State duties now or hereafter prescribed by law to be performed by such county officer. Nothing contained herein shall affect Section 20 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, except as to such provisions therein as relate to regulating the jurisdiction and duties of any class of officers, to summoning and impanelling grand and petit juries, to assessing and collecting taxes for county purposes and to regulating the fees and compensation of county officers. No law authorizing the establishing or abolishing of such Municipal corporation pursuant to this Section shall become operative or effective until approved by a majority of the qualified electors participating in an election held in said County, but so long as such Municipal corporation exists under this Section the Legislature may amend or extend the law authorizing the same without referendum to the qualified voters unless the Legislative Act providing for such amendment or extension shall provide for such referendum.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 429, 1935; adopted 1936.

SECTION 10A. Assessment of state, county, municipal, etc., taxes in Monroe county.—

(1.) From and after January 1, 1956, the county tax assessor in the County of Monroe, State of Florida, shall assess all property for all state, county, school and municipal taxes to be levied in the county by the state, county, county school board, school district, special tax school districts, port districts, drainage districts, and any other taxing districts, and municipalities of the county.

(2.) The Legislature shall at the legislative session in 1955 and from time to time thereafter, enact laws specifying the powers, functions, duties and compensation of the county tax assessor, designated in the first paragraph of this section, and shall likewise provide by law for the extension on the assessment roll of the county tax assessor of all taxes levied by the state, county, county school board, school districts, special tax school districts, port districts, drainage districts, and any other taxing districts and municipalities whose taxes may be assessed by the county tax assessor pursuant to the first paragraph of this section.

History.—Added H.J.R. 858, 1953; adopted 1954.

SECTION 11. Dade County, home rule charter.—(1) The electors of Dade County, Florida, are granted power to adopt, revise, and amend from time to time a home rule charter of government for Dade County, Florida, under which the Board of County Commissioners of Dade County shall be the governing body. This charter:

(a) Shall fix the boundaries of each county commission district, provide a method for changing them from time to time, and fix the number, terms and compensation of the commissioners, and their method of election.

(b) May grant full power and authority to the Board of County Commissioners of Dade County to pass ordinances relating to the affairs, property and government of Dade County and provide suitable penalties for the violation thereof; to levy and collect such taxes as may be authorized by general law and no other taxes, and to do everything necessary to carry on a central metropolitan government in Dade County.

(c) May change the boundaries of, merge, consolidate, and abolish and may provide a method for changing the boundaries of, merging, consolidating and abolishing from time to time all municipal corporations, county or district governments, special taxing districts, authorities, boards, or other governmental units whose jurisdiction lies wholly within Dade County, whether such governmental units are created by the Constitution or the Legislature or otherwise, except the Dade County Board of County Commissioners as it may be provided for from time to time by this home rule charter and the Board of Public Instruction of Dade County.

(d) May provide a method by which any and all of the functions or powers of any municipal corporation or other governmental unit in Dade County may be transferred to the Board of County Commissioners of Dade County.

(e) May provide a method for establishing new municipal corporations, special taxing districts, and other governmental units in Dade County from time to time and provide for their government and prescribe their jurisdiction and powers.

(f) May abolish and may provide a method for abolishing from time to time all offices provided for by Article VIII, Section 6, of the Constitution or by the Legislature, except the Superintendent of Public Instruction and may provide for the consolidation and transfer of the functions of such offices, provided, however, that there shall be no power to abolish or impair the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court or to abolish any other court provided for by this Constitution or by general law, or the judges or clerks thereof although such charter may create new courts and judges and clerks thereof with jurisdiction to try all offenses against ordinances passed by the Board of County Commissioners of Dade County and none of the other courts provided for by this Constitution or by general law shall have original jurisdiction to try such offenses, although the charter may confer appellate jurisdiction on such courts, and provided further that if said home rule charter shall abolish any county office or offices as authorized herein, that said charter shall contain adequate provision for the carrying on of all functions of said office or offices as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by general law.

(g) Shall provide a method by which each municipal corporation in Dade County shall have the power to make, amend or repeal its own charter. Upon adoption of this home rule charter by the electors this method shall be exclusive and the Legislature shall have no power to amend or repeal the charter of any municipal corporation in Dade County.

(h) May change the name of Dade County.

(i) Shall provide a method for the recall of any commissioner and a method for initiative and referendum, including the initiation of and referendum on ordinances and the amendment or revision of the home rule charter, provided, however, that the power of the Governor and Senate relating to the suspension and removal of officers provided for in this Constitution shall not be impaired, but shall extend to all officers provided for in said home rule charter.

(2) Provision shall be made for the protection of the creditors of any governmental unit which is merged, consolidated, or abolished or whose boundaries are changed or functions or powers transferred.

(3) This home rule charter shall be prepared by a Metropolitan Charter Board created by the Legislature and shall be presented to the electors of Dade County for ratification or rejection in the manner provided by the Legislature. Until a home rule charter is adopted the Legislature may from time to time create additional Charter Boards to prepare charters to be presented to the electors of Dade County for ratification or rejection in the manner provided by the Legislature. Such Charter, once adopted by the electors, may be amended only by the electors of Dade County and this charter shall provide a method for submitting future charter revisions and amendments to the electors of Dade County.

(4) The County Commission shall continue to receive its pro rata share of all revenues payable by the state from whatever source to the several counties and the state of Florida shall pay to the Commission all revenues which would have been paid to any municipality in Dade County which may be abolished by or in the method provided by this home rule charter; provided, however, the Commission shall reimburse the comptroller of Florida for the expense incurred if any, in the keeping of separate records to determine the amounts of money which would have been payable to any such municipality.

(5) Nothing in this section shall limit or restrict the power of the Legislature to enact general laws which shall relate to Dade County and any other one or more counties in the state of Florida or to any municipality in Dade County and any other one or more municipalities of the State of Florida, and the home rule charter provided for herein shall not conflict with any provision of this Constitution nor of any applicable general laws now applying to Dade County and any other one or more counties of the State of Florida except as expressly authorized in this section nor shall any ordinance enacted in pursuance to said home rule charter conflict with this Constitution or any such applicable general law except as expressly authorized herein, nor shall the charter of any municipality in Dade County conflict with this Constitution or any such applicable general law except as expressly authorized herein, provided however that said charter and said ordinances enacted in pursuance thereof may conflict with, modify or nullify any existing local, special or general law applicable only to Dade County.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the power of the Legislature to enact general laws which shall relate to Dade County and any other one or more counties of the state of Florida or to any municipality in Dade County and any other one or more municipalities of the State of Florida relating to county or municipal affairs and all such general laws shall apply to Dade County and to all municipalities therein to the same extent as if this section had not been adopted and such general laws shall supersede any part or portion of the home rule charter provided for herein in conflict therewith and shall supersede any provision of any ordinance enacted pursuant to said charter and in conflict therewith, and shall supersede any provision of any charter of any municipality in Dade County in conflict therewith.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the power and jurisdiction of the Railroad and Public Utilities Commission or of any other state agency, bureau or commission now or hereafter provided for in this Constitution or by general law and said state agencies, bureaus and commissions shall have the same powers in Dade County as shall be conferred upon them in regard to other counties.

(8) If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or provisions of this section is held invalid as violative of the provisions of Section 1 Article XVII of this Constitution the remainder of this section shall not be affected by such invalidity.

(9) It is declared to be the intent of the Legislature and of the electors of the State of Florida to provide by this section home rule for the people of Dade County in local affairs and this section shall be liberally construed to carry out such purpose, and it is further declared to be the intent of the Legislature and of the electors of the State of Florida that the provisions of this Constitution and general laws which shall relate to Dade County and any other one or more counties of the State of Florida or to any municipality in Dade County and any other one or more municipalities of the State of Florida enacted pursuant thereto by the Legislature shall be the supreme law in Dade County, Florida, except as expressly provided herein and this section shall be strictly construed to maintain such supremacy of this Constitution and of the Legislature in the enactment of general laws pursuant to this Constitution.

SECTION 21 (14)* Collection of state, county, municipal, etc., taxes in Pinellas county.—

1. From and after January 1, 1950, the County Tax Collector in the County of Pinellas, State of Florida, shall collect all taxes levied in the county by the State, County, County School Board, School Districts, Special Tax School Districts and Municipalities.

2. The Legislature shall at the Legislative Session of 1949, and from time to time thereafter, enact laws specifying the powers, functions, duties and compensation of County Tax Collector designated in paragraph 1 of this Section 21*, and shall likewise provide for the collection, care, custody, reporting and disbursement of all taxes collected by the County Tax Collector.

*Erroneously numbered (14) by 1947 legislature.

SECTION 22. Authority of the Legislature as to assessment and collection of municipal taxes.—The Legislature may, by general, special or local act provide for the assessment of the taxes of any municipality by the County Tax Assessor of the county wherein such municipality is located and the collection thereof by the County Tax Collector of such county; provided that no such act, except the provisions thereof for a referendum election, may become effective in any municipality until approved by a majority vote of the electors qualified to vote in such municipality, voting at an election called for such purpose, which election may be held separately or with any other election. Any such act shall provide for reasonable compensation for the County Tax Assessor and County Tax Collector for such additional duties to be paid by the municipality for which such duties are performed.

History.—Added H.J.R. 851, 1953; adopted 1954.

SECTION 23. Escambia County officers' salaries; disposition of fees.—On and after the first day of October, 1957, all fees, revenues or other charges collected by the several county officers of Escambia county shall be paid into the general county fund of Escambia county subject to disbursement as provided by law. The legislature shall provide by local or special legislation for the salaries, expenses and compensation to be paid the several county officers of Escambia county. Any legislation which shall have heretofore been enacted in contemplation of the ratification of this amendment is hereby confirmed and shall have the same force and effect as if the said legislation were enacted subsequent to the ratification of this amendment.

History.—Added H.J.R. 155, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 24. Hillsborough County, home rule charter.—

(1) The electors of Hillsborough county are hereby granted the power to adopt a charter for a government which shall exercise any and all powers for county and municipal purposes which this constitution or the legislature, by general, special or local law, has conferred upon Hillsborough county or any municipality therein. Such government shall exercise these powers by the enactment of ordinances which relate to government of Hillsborough county and provide suitable penalties for the violation thereof. Such government shall have no power to create or abolish any municipality, except as otherwise provided herein.

(2) The method and manner by which the electors of Hillsborough county shall exercise this power shall be set forth in a charter for the government of Hillsborough county which charter shall be presented to said electors by any charter commission established by the legislature. The legislature may provide for the continuing existence of any charter commission or may establish a charter commission or commissions subsequent to any initial commission without regard to any election or elections held upon any charter or charters theretofore presented. A charter shall become effective only upon ratification by a majority of the electors of Hillsborough county voting in a general or special election as provided by law.

(3) The number, qualifications, terms of office and method of filling vacancies in the membership of any charter commission established pursuant to this section and the powers, functions and duties of any such commission shall be provided by law.

(4) A charter prepared by any commission established pursuant to this section shall provide that:

(a) The governments of the city of Tampa and the county of Hillsborough shall be consolidated, and the structure of the new local government shall include:

1. An executive branch, the chief officer of which shall be responsible for the administration of government.

2. An elected legislative branch, the election to membership, powers and duties of which shall be as provided by the charter.

3. A judicial branch, which shall only have jurisdiction in the enforcement of ordinances enacted by the legislative branch created by this section.

(b) Should the electors of the municipalities of Plant City or Temple Terrace wish to consolidate their governments with the government hereinabove created, they may do so by majority vote of the electors of said municipality voting in an election upon said issue.

(c) The creditors of any governmental unit consolidated or abolished under this section shall be protected. Bonded or other indebtedness existing at the effective date of any government established hereunder shall be enforceable only against the real and personal property theretofore taxable for such purposes.

(d) Such other provisions as might be required by law.

(5) The provisions of such charter and ordinances enacted pursuant thereto shall not conflict with any provision of this constitution nor with general, special or local laws now or hereafter applying to Hillsborough county.

(6) The government established hereunder shall be recognized as a county, that is one of the legal political subdivisions of the state with the powers, rights, privileges, duties and obligations of a county, and may also exercise all the powers of a municipality. Said government shall have the right to sue and be sued.

(7) Any government established hereunder shall be entitled to receive from the state of Florida or from the United States or from any other agency, public or private, funds and revenues to which a county is, or may hereafter be entitled, and also all funds and revenues to which an incorporated municipality is or may hereafter be entitled, and to receive the same without diminution or loss by reason of any such government as may be established. Nothing herein contained shall preclude such government as may be established hereunder from receiving all funds and revenues from whatever source now received, or hereinafter received provided by law.

(8) The board of county commissioners of Hillsborough county shall be abolished when the functions, duties, powers and responsibilities of said board shall be transferred in the manner to be provided by the charter to the government established pursuant to this section. No other office provided for by this constitution shall be abolished by or pursuant to this section.

(9) This section shall not restrict or limit the legislature in the enactment of general, special or local laws as otherwise provided in this constitution.

History.—Added Com. Sub. for H.J.R. 1987, 1965; adopted 1966.

15. Allocation of excise taxes.
16. Board of administration; gasoline and like taxes, distribution and use; etc.
17. Bonds; land acquisition for outdoor recreation development.

—No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of law.

SECTION 4. Money drawn from treasury.—No money shall be drawn from the Treasury except in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

SECTION 5. Taxes for county and municipal purposes.—The Legislature shall authorize the several counties and incorporated cities or towns in the State to assess and impose taxes for county and municipal purposes, and for no other purposes, and all property shall be taxed upon the principles established for State taxation. But the cities and incorporated towns shall make their own assessments for municipal purposes upon the property within their limits. The Legislature may also provide for levying a special capitation tax, and a tax on licenses. But the capitation tax shall not exceed one dollar a year and shall be applied exclusively to common school purposes.

SECTION 6. Bonds; state, county, municipal.—The Legislature shall have power to provide for issuing State bonds only for the purpose of repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection, and the Counties, Districts, or Municipalities of the State of Florida shall have power to issue bonds only after the same shall have been approved by a majority of the votes cast in an election in which a majority of the freeholders who are qualified electors residing in such Counties, Districts, or Municipalities shall participate, to be held in the manner to be prescribed by law; but the provisions of this act shall not apply to the refunding of bonds issued exclusively for the purpose of refunding of the bonds or the interest thereon of such Counties, Districts, or Municipalities.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 26, 1929; adopted 1930.

SECTION 7. Taxing for benefit of chartered company prohibited.—No tax shall be levied for the benefit of any chartered company of the State, nor for paying interest on any bonds issued by such chartered companies, or by counties, or by corporations, for the above-mentioned purpose.

SECTION 8. Payment of legally assessed taxes prerequisite to relief from illegally assessed taxes.—No person or corporation shall be relieved by any court from the payment of any tax that may be illegal, or illegally or irregularly assessed, until he or it shall have paid such portion of his or its taxes as may be legal, and legally and regularly assessed.

SECTION 9. Property exempt from taxation; widows and disabled persons.—There shall be exempt from taxation property to the value of five hundred dollars to every widow and to every person who is a bona fide resident of the State and has lost a limb or been disabled in war or by misfortune.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 375, 1939; adopted 1940.

SECTION 10. Credit of state not to be pledged or loaned.—The credit of the State shall not be pledged or loaned to any individual, company, corporation or association; nor shall the State become a joint owner or stockholder in any company, association or corporation. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain or appropriate money for, or to loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or individual.

SECTION 11. Income tax prohibited; inheritance tax; exemption for head of family.—No taxes upon inheritances or upon the income of residents or citizens of this State shall be levied by the State of Florida, or under its authority, and there shall be exempt from taxation to the head of the family residing in this State, household goods and personal effect to the value of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, provided, however, that the Legislature may provide for the assessment, levying and collection of a tax upon Inheritances, or for the levying of Estate taxes, not exceeding in the aggregate the amounts which may by any law of the United States be allowed to be credited against or deducted from any similar tax upon Inheritances, or taxes on estates assessed or levied by the United States on the same subject, but the power of the Legislature to levy such Inheritance taxes, or Estate Taxes in this State, shall exist only so long as, and during the time, a similar tax is enforced by the United States against Florida Inheritances or Estates and shall only be exercised or enforced to the extent of absorbing the amount of any deduction or credit which may be permitted by the laws of the United States, now existing or hereafter enacted to be claimed by reason thereof, as a deduction or credit against such similar tax of the United States applicable to Florida Inheritances or Estates. The Legislature may provide for the appropriation of all taxes collected under this Article to such State, County, Municipal or Educational purposes as it may deem advisable.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 135, 1923, adopted 1924; am. H.J.R. 85, 1929, adopted 1930.

SECTION 12. Exemption of industrial plants.—For a period of fifteen years from the beginning of operation, all industrial plants shall be established in this State on or after 1st, 1929, engaged primarily during said year in the manufacture of steel vessels, auto tires, fabrics and textiles, wood pulp, paper bags, fiber board, automobile parts, aircraft, aircraft parts and Crockery Manufacturers and the products of sugar and oils, and including by-products or derivatives incident to the manufacture of any of the above products, shall be exempt from all taxation, except that no amendment which shall become effective by virtue of this amendment shall extend beyond the year 1943.

The Legislature herein authorized shall not apply to real estate owned and used by such industries except the real estate occupied location required to house such industries and the buildings and property thereon, together with such lands as are required for warehouses, storage, track shipping facilities and being used for such purposes.

History.—S.J.R. 89, 1929; adopted 1930.

SECTION 13. Motor vehicles subject to single tax.—Motor vehicles, as property, subject to only one form of taxation shall be a license tax for the operation of motor vehicles, which license tax shall be such amount and levied for such purpose as the Legislature may, by law, provide, and in lieu of all ad valorem taxes assessed against motor vehicles as personal property.

“Motor vehicles” as that term is used herein shall also include mobile homes, trailer coaches, house trailers, camper type mobile homes, motor homes, transported wholly upon the body of a self-propelled vehicle, or any type of trailer or body without independent motive power, or carried upon a self-propelled vehicle designed for and used either as a means of transporting persons or property over the streets and highways of this State, or for furnishing housing accommodations. Provided, however, any included vehicle shall be subject to a license tax as an motor vehicle regardless of its actual use, if the included vehicle is permanent to the land, in which case it shall be assessed as real property.

History.—R. 753, 1929; adopted 1930; am. S.J.R. 751, 1965; 5.

SECTION 14. Exemption of motion picture studios.—For a period of fifteen years from the beginning of operation, motion picture studios which shall be established in this State on or after July 1st, 1933, including the buildings and chattels utilized in connection therewith, and all raw material up to the finished products of such studios, shall be exempt from all ad valorem taxes, except that no exemption which shall become effective by virtue of this amendment shall extend beyond the year 1943.

The Legislature herein authorized shall not apply to real estate owned by such motion picture studios and plants except the real estate occupied as the location required to house such motion picture studios and plants and other buildings incidental to the operation of such studios and plants, together with such lands as may be required for housing officers and employees, and for warehouses, laboratories, cutting rooms, projections rooms, storage, trackage, shipping facilities, sets and locations.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 1441, 1933; adopted 1934.

SECTION 14A. Exemption; stock in trade.—Goods, wares, commodities and merchandise, commonly known as stock in trade or inventory and livestock, may be exempted in part from ad valorem taxation as personal or tangible property as the legislature may prescribe by general law of uniform operation throughout the state.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 578, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 15. Allocation of excise taxes.—The Legislature shall have the power to allocate and distribute to the several counties of the State, in equal amounts, and at such times as the Legislature shall determine, any portion of or all excise taxes now levied and collected, or hereafter levied or collected, by the State of Florida from the operation of pari-mutuel pools.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 45, 1939; adopted 1940.

SECTION 16. Board of administration; gasoline and like taxes, distribution and use; etc.—(a) That beginning January 1st, 1943, and for fifty (50) years thereafter, the proceeds of two (2¢) cents per gallon of the total tax levied by state law upon gasoline and other like products of petroleum, now known as the Second Gas Tax, and upon other fuels used to propel motor vehicles, shall as collected be placed monthly in the 'State Roads Distribution Fund' in the State Treasury and divided into three (3) equal parts which shall be distributed monthly among the several counties as follows: one part according to area, one part according to population, and one part according to the counties' contributions to the cost of state road construction in the ratio of distribution as provided in Chapter 15659, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1931, and for the purposes of the apportionment based on the counties' contributions for the cost of state road construction, the amount of the contributions established by the certificates made in 1931 pursuant to said Chapter 15659, shall be taken and deemed conclusive in computing the monthly amounts distributable according to said contributions. Such funds so distributed shall be administered by the State Board of Administration as hereinafter provided.

(b) The Governor as chairman, the State Treasurer, and the State Comptroller shall constitute a body corporate to be known as the 'State Board of Administration,' which board shall succeed to all the power, control and authority of the statutory Board of Administration. Said Board shall have, in addition to such powers as may be conferred upon it by law, the management, control and supervision of the proceeds of said two (2¢) cents of said taxes and all moneys and other assets which on the effective date of this amendment are applicable or may become applicable to the bonds of the several counties of this state, or any special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, issued prior to July 1st, 1931, for road and bridge purposes. The word 'bonds' as used herein shall include bonds, time warrants, notes and other forms of indebtedness issued for road and bridge purposes by any county or special road and bridge district or other special taxing district, outstanding on July 1st, 1931, or any refunding issues thereof. Said Board shall have the statutory powers of Boards of County Commissioners and Bond Trustees and of any other authority of special road and bridge districts, and other special taxing districts thereof with regard to said bonds, (except that the power to levy ad valorem taxes is expressly withheld from said Board), and shall take over all papers, documents and records concerning the same. Said Board shall have the power from time to time to issue refunding bonds to mature within the said fifty (50) year period, for any of said outstanding bonds or interest thereon, and to secure them by a pledge of anticipated receipts from such gasoline or other fuel taxes to be distributed to such county as herein provided, but not at a greater rate of interest than said bonds now bear; and to issue, sell or exchange on behalf of any county or unit for the sole purpose of retiring said bonds issued by such county, or special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates bearing interest at not more than three (3) per cent per annum in such denominations and maturing at such time within the fifty (50) year period as the board may determine. In addition to exercising the powers now provided by statute for the investment of sinking funds, said Board may use the sinking funds created for said bonds of any county or special road and bridge district, or other unit hereunder, to purchase the matured or maturing bonds participating herein of any other county or any other special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, provided that as to said matured bonds, the value thereof as an investment shall be the price paid therefor, which shall not exceed the par value plus accrued interest, and that said investment shall bear interest at the rate of three (3) per cent per annum.

(c) The said board shall annually use said funds in each county account, first, to pay current principal and interest maturing, if any, of said bonds and gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates of such county or special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof; second, to establish a sinking fund account to meet future requirements of said bonds and gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates where it appears the anticipated income for any year or years will not equal scheduled payments thereon; and third, any remaining balance out of the proceeds of said two (2¢) cents of said taxes shall monthly during the year be remitted by said board as follows: Eighty (80%) per cent to the State Road Department for the construction or reconstruction of state roads and bridges within the county, or for the lease or purchase of bridges connecting state highways within the county, and twenty (20%) per cent to the Board of County Commissioners of such county for use on roads and bridges therein.

(d) Said board shall have the power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers hereby granted and no legislation shall be required to render this amendment of full force and operating effect from and after January 1st, 1943. The Legislature shall continue the levies of said taxes during the life of this Amendment, and shall not enact any law having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of said two (2¢) cents of said taxes from the operation of this amendment. The board shall pay refunding expenses and other expenses for services rendered specifically for, or which are properly chargeable to, the account of any county from funds distributed to such county; but general expenses of the board for services rendered all the counties alike shall be prorated among them and paid out of said funds on the same basis said tax proceeds are distributed among the several counties; provided, report of said expenses shall be made to each Regular Session of the Legislature, and the Legislature may limit the expenses of the board.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 324, 1941; adopted 1942.

SECTION 17. Bonds; land acquisition for outdoor recreation development.—The outdoor recreational development council, as created by the 1963 legislature, may issue revenue bonds, revenue certificates or other evidences of indebtedness to acquire lands, water areas and related resources and to construct, improve, enlarge and extend capital improvements and facilities thereon in furtherance of outdoor recreation, natural resources conservation and related facilities in this state; provided, however, the legislature with respect to such revenue bonds, revenue certificates or other evidences of indebtedness shall designate the revenue or tax sources to be deposited in or credited to the land acquisition trust fund for their repayment and may impose restrictions on their issuance, including the fixing of maximum interest rates and discounts.

The land acquisition trust fund, created by the 1963 legislature for these multiple public purposes, shall continue from the date of the adoption of this amendment for a period of fifty years.

In the event the outdoor recreational development council shall determine to issue bonds for financing acquisition of sites for multiple purposes the state board of administration shall act as fiscal agent, and the attorney general shall handle the validation proceedings.

All bonds issued under this amendment shall be sold at public sale after public advertisement upon such terms and conditions as the outdoor recreational development council shall provide and as otherwise provided by law and subject to the limitations herein imposed.

HOMESTEAD AND EXEMPTIONS

Sec.

1. Exemption of homestead; extent.
2. Exemption to inure to widow and heirs.
3. Exemptions in former constitution; applicability.
4. Homestead may be alienated by husband and wife.

SECTION 1. Exemption of homestead; extent.—A homestead to the extent of one hundred and sixty acres of land, or the half of one acre within the limits of any incorporated city or town, owned by the head of a family residing in this State, together with one thousand dollars worth of personal property, and the improvements on the real estate, shall be exempt from forced sale under process of any court, and the real estate shall not be alienable without the joint consent of husband and wife, when that relation exists. But no property shall be exempt from sale for taxes or assessments, or for the payment of obligations contracted for the purchase of said property, or for the erection or repair of improvements on the real estate exempted, or for house, field or other labor performed on the same. The exemption herein provided for in a city or town shall not extend to more improvements or buildings than the residence and business house of the owner; and no judgment or decree or execution shall be a lien upon exempted property except as provided in this Article.

SECTION 2. Exemption to inure to widow and heirs.—The exemptions provided for in section one shall inure to the widow and heirs of the party entitled to such exemption, and shall apply to all debts, except as specified in said section.

SECTION 3. Exemptions in former constitution; applicability.—The exemptions provided for in the Constitution of this State adopted in 1868 shall apply as to all debts contracted and judgments rendered since the adoption thereof and prior to the adoption of this Constitution.

SECTION 4. Homestead may be alienated by husband and wife.—Nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent the holder of a homestead from alienating his or her homestead so exempted by deed or mortgage duly executed by himself or herself, and by husband and wife, if such relation exists; nor if the holder be without children to prevent him or her from disposing of his or her homestead by will in a manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 5. Homestead area not reduced by subsequent inclusion in municipality.—No homestead provided for in section one shall be reduced in area on account of its being subsequently included within the limits of an incorporated city or town, without the consent of the owner.

SECTION 6. Legislature to enact laws to enforce article.—The Legislature shall enact such laws as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this Article.

SECTION 7. Exemption of homestead from taxation.—Every person who has the legal title or beneficial title in equity to real property in this state and who resides thereon and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home, or the permanent home of another or others legally or naturally dependent upon said person, shall be entitled to an exemption from all taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of five thousand dollars on said home and contiguous real property, as defined in Article X, Section 1, of the Constitution, for the year 1939 and thereafter, provided that in Sarasota County the first two thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of such property shall be taxable for school purposes only and the exemption shall apply to the next five thousand dollars for school purposes only of assessed valuation. Said title may be held by the entireties, jointly, or in common with others, and said exemption may be apportioned among such of the owners as shall reside thereon, as their respective interests shall appear, but no such exemption of more than five thousand dollars shall be allowed to any one person or on any one dwelling house, nor shall the amount of the exemption allowed any person exceed the proportionate assessed valuation based on the interest owned by such person. The legislature may prescribe appropriate and reasonable laws regulating the manner of establishing the right to said exemption.

History.—H.J.R. 1443, 1961; adopted 1962.

SECTION 2C. County superintendent of public instruction; appointment in certain counties.—

(1) The county superintendent of public instruction shall be appointed by the county board of public instruction in the counties of Escambia, Lake, Martin, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, Putnam and Seminole wherein the proposition is affirmed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of any such county making the office of county superintendent of public instruction appointive.

(2) The board of public instruction of the county must request an election, which may be a special election or may be on the ballot of any regular primary or general election to be designated by the board of public instruction, and upon such timely request the board of county commissioners of such county will call such special election or cause to be placed on the ballot at such other election the proposition whether subsection (1) shall be effective in such county.

(3) Any county adopting the provisions of subsection (1) hereof may after four years return to its former status and reject the provisions of this section by the same procedure outlined in subsection (2) hereof for adopting the provisions thereof in the beginning.

(4) In the event a referendum election results in a change in the method of selecting a county superintendent, the incumbent shall be permitted to serve the remainder of the term of office to which he was duly elected or appointed.

History.—Added H.J.R. 1045, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 2D. County superintendent of public instruction; appointment in certain counties.—

(1) The county superintendent of public instruction shall be appointed by the county board of public instruction in Taylor county, providing the proposition is affirmed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of Taylor county making the office of county superintendent of public instruction appointive.

(2) To submit the proposition contained in subsection (1) to the electors a special election shall be called by the county commissioners of Taylor county upon the request of the county board of public instruction, which election shall be held within sixty days after the request and the result thereof shall determine whether subsection (1) shall be effective in said county.

(3) Should the county adopt the provisions of subsection (1) hereof it may, after four years return to its former status and reject the provisions of this section by the same procedure outlined in subsection (2) hereof for adopting the provisions thereof in the beginning.

(4) In the event a referendum election results in a change in the method of selecting a county superintendent, the incumbent shall be permitted to serve the remainder of the term of office to which he was duly elected or appointed.

History.—Added H.J.R. 2194, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 3. State board of education; members; powers.—The Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, State Treasurer and State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall constitute a body corporate, to be known as the State Board of Education of Florida, of which the Governor shall be President, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction Secretary. This Board shall have power to remove any subordinate school officer for cause, upon notice to the incumbent; and shall have the management and investment of all State School Funds under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and such supervision of schools of higher grades as the law shall provide.

SECTION 4. State school fund; use; derivation.—The State School Fund, the interest of which shall be exclusively applied to the support and maintenance of public free schools, shall be derived from the following sources.

The proceeds of all lands that have been or may hereafter be granted to the State by the United States for public school purposes.

Donations to the State when the purpose is not specified.

Appropriations by the State.

The proceeds of escheated property or forfeitures.

Twenty five per cent of the sales of public lands which are now or may hereafter be owned by the State.

SECTION 5. Principal of state school fund to remain inviolate.—The principal of the State School Fund shall remain sacred and inviolate.

History.—Repealed, S.J.R. 69, 1939; adopted 1940.

SECTION 7. Apportionment of state school fund.—Provision shall be made by law for the apportionment and distribution of the interest on the State School Fund and all other means provided, including the special tax, for the support and maintenance of public free schools, among the several counties of the State in proportion to the average attendance upon schools in the said counties respectively.

History.—Am. J.R. 3, 1893; adopted 1894.

SECTION 8. County school tax.—Each county shall be required to assess and collect annually for the support of the public free schools therein, a tax of not less than three (3) mills, not more than ten (10) mills on the dollar on all taxable property in the same.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 25, 1917; adopted 1918.

SECTION 9. County school fund.—In addition to the tax provided for in Section 8 of this Article the county school fund shall consist of the proportion of the interest of the State School Fund and of the one mill State tax apportioned to the county, all capitation taxes collected within the county and all appropriations by the Legislature which shall with all other County School Funds be apportioned and distributed as may be provided by law and shall be disbursed by the County Board of Public Instruction solely for the support and maintenance of public free schools. Provided that such apportionment and distribution shall be made by general law based upon some declared principle of classification to be determined by the Legislature.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 541, 1925; adopted 1926.

cf.—One mill state tax repealed by Section 2, Article IX.

SECTION 10. County school districts; trustees; tax.—The Legislature may provide for the division of any county or counties into convenient school districts; and for the election biennially of three school trustees, who shall hold their office for two years, and who shall have the supervision of all the schools within the district; and for the levying and collection of a district school tax, for the exclusive use of public free schools within the district, whenever a majority of the qualified electors thereof that pay a tax on real, or personal property shall vote in favor of such levy; Provided, that any tax authorized by this section shall not exceed ten mills on the dollar in any one year on the taxable property of the district.

History.—Am. S. J. R. 1, 1921; adopted 1922.

SECTION 10A. Abolition of county school district trustees.—(1) From and after January 1, 1957, the office of county special tax school district trustees shall be abolished and all duties of district trustees shall be vested in the county board of public instruction, including levying taxes provided by article XII of the constitution, in all counties wherein the proposition is affirmed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of any such county.

(2) To submit the proposition contained in subsection (1) above to the electors a special election shall be called by the county commissioners of any county upon the request of the County Board of Public Instruction therein, which election may be held at the same time as the next general election and the result thereof shall determine whether subsection (1) shall be effective in such county.

(3) Any county adopting the provisions of subsection (1) hereof may after four years return to its former status and reject the provisions of this section by the same procedure outlined in subsection (2) hereof for adopting the provisions thereof in the beginning.

History.—Added S. J. R. 638, 1955; adopted 1956.

SECTION 11. Municipality as school district; distribution of district funds.—Any incorporated town or city may constitute a School District. The fund raised by Section ten may be expended in the district where levied for building or repairing school houses, for the purchase of school libraries and textbooks, for salaries of teachers, or for other educational purposes, so that the distribution among all the schools of the district be equitable.

SECTION 12. White and colored; separate schools.—White and colored children shall not be taught in the same school, but impartial provision shall be made for both.

SECTION 13. Restriction on use of county or district school funds.—No law shall be enacted authorizing the diversion or the lending of any County or District School Funds, or the appropriation of any part of the permanent or available school Fund to any other than school purposes; nor shall the same, or any part thereof, be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school.

SECTION 14. Normal schools.—The Legislature at its first session shall provide for the establishment, maintenance, and management, of such Normal Schools, not to exceed two, as the interests of public education may demand.

SECTION 15. County school officer paid from county school fund.—The compensation of all county school officers shall be paid from the school fund of their respective counties, and all other county officers receiving stated salaries shall be paid from the general funds of their respective counties.

SECTION 16. (No section.) (Proposed additional section defeated at general election of 1908.)

SECTION 17. Special tax school districts; issuance of bonds.—The Legislature may provide for special tax school districts to issue bonds for the exclusive use of public free schools within any such special tax school district, whenever a majority of the qualified electors thereof who are freeholders shall vote in favor of the issuance of such bonds, but no bonds shall be issued hereunder which shall exceed, together with the existing indebtedness of such special tax school district 20 per cent of the assessed value of the taxable property of such district according to the last assessment for State and County purposes prior to the issuing of such bonds. Any bonds issued hereunder shall become payable within thirty years and from the date of issuance in annual installments which shall commence not more than three years after the date of issue. Each annual installment shall be not less than three per cent of the total amount of the issue. Whenever any such special tax school district has voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds a special tax for the payment of the interest on said bonds and the principal thereof as the same shall become due and payable, shall be levied on the taxable property within the district voting for their issuance in accordance with law, providing for the levy of taxes and such tax shall not be applied to any purpose other than the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds.

History.—Added, J.R. 76, 1911, adopted 1912; amended, S.J.R. 333, 1923, adopted 1924.

SECTION 18. School bonds for capital outlay, insurance.—

(a) Beginning January 1, 1965 and for thirty-five years thereafter, the first proceeds of the revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles to the extent necessary to comply with the provisions of this amendment, shall, as collected, be placed monthly in the county capital outlay and debt service school fund in the state treasury, and used only as provided in this amendment. Such revenue shall be distributed annually among the several counties in the ratio of the number of instruction units in each county in each year computed as provided herein. The amount of the first revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles to be so set aside in each year and distributed as provided herein shall be an amount equal in the aggregate to the product of four hundred dollars multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all the counties of Florida. The number of instruction units in each county in each year for the purposes of this amendment shall be the greater of (1) the number of instruction units in each county for the school fiscal year 1951-52 computed in the manner heretofore provided by general law, or (2) the number of instruction units in such county for the school fiscal year computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board of education (hereinafter called the state board), or (3) the number of instruction units in each county on behalf of which the state board of education has issued bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates under this amendment which will produce sufficient revenues under this amendment to equal one and one-third times the aggregate amount of principal of and interest on such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates which will mature and become due in such year, computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board.

Such funds so distributed shall be administered by the state board as now created and constituted by Section 3 of Article XII of the Constitution of Florida. For the purposes of this amendment, said state board, as now constituted, shall continue as a body corporate during the life of this amendment and shall have all the powers provided in this amendment in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this amendment heretofore or hereafter conferred upon said board.

(b) The state board shall, in addition to its other constitutional and statutory powers, have the management, control and supervision of the proceeds of the first part of the revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles provided for in subsection (a). The state board shall also have power, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the use of any county board of public instruction in acquiring, building, constructing, altering, improving, enlarging, furnishing, or equipping capital outlay projects for school purposes, to issue bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, and also to issue such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates to pay, fund or refund any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates theretofore issued by said state board. All such bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum and shall mature serially in annual installments commencing not more than three years from the date of issuance thereof and ending not later than thirty years from the date of issuance or January 1, 2000, A.D., whichever is earlier. All such motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum and shall mature prior to January 1, 2000, A.D. The state board shall have power to determine all other details of said bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates and to sell at public sale after public advertisement, or exchange said bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, upon such terms and conditions as the state board shall provide.

The state board shall also have power to pledge for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, including refunding bonds or refunding motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, all or any part from the anticipated revenues to be derived from the licensing of motor vehicles provided for in this amendment and to enter into any covenants and other agreements with the holders of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates at the time of the issuance thereof concerning the security thereof and the rights of the holders thereof, all of which covenants and agreements shall constitute legally binding and irrevocable contracts with such holders and shall be fully enforceable by such holders in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall ever be issued by the state board until after the adoption of a resolution requesting the issuance thereof by the county board of public instruction of the county on behalf of which such obligations are to be issued. The state board of education shall limit the amount of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates which can be issued on behalf of any county to seventy-five per cent of the amount which it determines can be serviced by the revenue accruing to the county under the provisions of this amendment, and such determination shall be conclusive. All such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall be issued in the name of the state board of education but shall be issued for and on behalf of the county board of public instruction requesting the issuance thereof, and no election or approval of qualified electors or freeholders shall be required for the issuance thereof.

(c) The State Board shall in each year use the funds distributable pursuant to this Amendment to the credit of each county only in the following manner and order of priority:

(1) To pay all amounts of principal and interest maturing in such year on any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued under the authority hereof, including refunding bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, issued on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of such county; subject, however, to any covenants or agreements made by the State Board concerning the rights between holders of different issues of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, as herein authorized.

(2) To establish and maintain a sinking fund or funds to meet future requirements for debt service, or reserves therefor, on bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of such county, under the authority hereof, whenever the State Board shall deem it necessary or advisable, and in such amounts and under such terms and conditions as the State Board shall in its discretion determine.

(3) To distribute annually to the several Boards of Public Instruction of the counties for use in payment of debt service on bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by any such Board where the proceeds of the bonds were used, or are to be used, in the construction, acquisition, improvement, enlargement, furnishing, or equipping of capital outlay projects in such county, and which capital outlay projects have been approved by the Board of Public Instruction of the county, pursuant to a survey or surveys conducted subsequent to July 1, 1947 in the county, under regulations prescribed by the State Board to determine the capital outlay needs of the county.

The State Board shall have power at the time of issuance of any bonds by any Board of Public Instruction to covenant and agree with such Board as to the rank and priority of payments to be made for different issues of bonds under this Subsection (3), and may further agree that any amounts to be distributed under this Subsection (3) may be pledged for the debt service on bonds issued by any Board of Public Instruction and for the rank and priority of such pledge. Any such covenants or agreements of the State Board may be enforced by any holders of such bonds in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) To distribute annually to the several Boards of Public Instruction of the counties for the payment of the cost of the construction, acquisition, improvement, enlargement, furnishing, or equipping of capital outlay projects for school purposes in such county as shall be requested by resolution of the County Board of Public Instruction of such county.

(5) When all major capital outlay needs of a county have been met as determined by the State Board, on the basis of a survey made pursuant to regulations of the State Board and approved by the State Board, all such funds remaining shall be distributed annually and used for such school purposes in such county as the Board of Public Instruction of the county shall determine, or as may be provided by general law.

(d) Capital outlay projects of a county shall be eligible to participate in the funds accruing under this Amendment and derived from the proceeds of bonds and motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates and from the motor vehicle license taxes, only in the order of priority of needs, as shown by a survey or surveys conducted in the county under regulations prescribed by the State Board, to determine the capital outlay needs of the county and approved by the State Board; provided, that the priority of such projects may be changed from time to time upon the request of the Board of Public Instruction of the county and with the approval of the State Board; and provided further, that this Subsection (d) shall not in any manner affect any covenant, agreement, or pledge made by the State Board in the issuance by said State Board of any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, or in connection with the issuance of any bonds of any Board of Public Instruction of any county.

(e) The State Board may invest any sinking fund or funds created pursuant to this Amendment in direct obligations of the United States of America or in the bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, matured or to mature, issued by the State Board on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of any county.

(f) The State Board shall have power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers herein granted and no legislation shall be required to render this Amendment of full force and operating effect from and after January 1, 1953. The Legislature shall not reduce the levies of said motor vehicle license taxes during the life of this Amendment to any degree which will fail to provide the full amount necessary to comply with the provisions of this Amendment and pay the necessary expenses of administering the laws relating to the licensing of motor vehicles, and shall not enact any law having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of such motor vehicle license taxes from the operation of this Amendment and shall not enact any law impairing or materially altering the rights of the holders of any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued pursuant to this Amendment or impairing or altering any covenant or agreement of the State Board, as provided in such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates.

The State Board shall have power to appoint such persons and fix their compensation for the administration of the provisions of this Amendment as it shall deem necessary, and the expenses of the State Board in administering the provisions of this Amendment shall be prorated among the various counties and paid out of the proceeds of the bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates or from the funds distributable to each county on the same basis as such motor vehicle license taxes are distributable to the various counties under the provisions of this Amendment. Interest or profit on sinking fund investments shall accrue to the counties in proportion to their respective equities in the sinking fund or funds.

History.—Added S.J.R. 106, 1951; adopted, 1952; (a), (b) Am. S.J.R. 218, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 19. Institutions of higher learning and junior college capital outlay trust fund; bonds.—(a) That beginning January 1, 1964, and for fifty years thereafter, all of the proceeds of the revenues derived from the gross receipts taxes collected from every person, including municipalities, receiving payment for electricity for light, heat or power, for natural or manufactured gas for light, heat or power, for use of telephones and for the sending of telegrams and telegraph messages, as now provided and levied as of the time of adoption of this amendment in Chapter 203, Florida Statutes (hereinafter called "Gross Receipts Taxes"), shall, as collected be placed in a trust fund to be known as the "Institutions of Higher Learning and Junior Colleges Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund" in the State Treasury (hereinafter referred to as "Capital Outlay Fund"), and used only as provided in this Amendment.

Said fund shall be administered by the State Board of Education, as now created and constituted by Section 3 of Article XII of the Constitution of Florida (hereinafter referred to as "State Board"). For the purpose of this Amendment, said State Board, as now constituted, shall continue as a body corporate during the life of this Amendment and shall have all the powers provided in this Amendment in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this Amendment heretofore or hereafter conferred by law upon said State Board.

(b) The State Board shall have power, for the purpose of obtaining funds for acquiring, building, constructing, altering, improving, enlarging, furnishing or equipping capital outlay projects theretofore authorized by the legislature and any purposes appurtenant or incidental thereto, for Institutions of Higher Learning or Junior Colleges, as now defined or as may be hereafter defined by law, and for the purpose of constructing buildings and other permanent facilities for vocational technical schools as provided in chapter 230 Florida Statutes, to issue bonds or certificates, including refunding bonds or certificates to fund or refund any bonds or certificates theretofore issued. All such bonds or certificates shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum, and shall mature at such time or times as the State Board shall determine not exceeding, in any event, however, thirty years from the date of issuance thereof. The State Board shall have power to determine all other details of such bonds or certificates and to sell at public sale, after public advertisement, such bonds or certificates, provided, however, that no bonds or certificates shall ever be issued hereunder to finance, or the proceeds thereof expended for, any part of the cost of any capital outlay project unless the construction or acquisition of such capital outlay project has been theretofore authorized by the Legislature of Florida. None of said bonds or certificates shall be sold at less than ninety-eight per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest, and said bonds or certificates shall be awarded at the public sale thereof to the bidder offering the lowest net interest cost for such bonds or certificates in the manner to be determined by the State Board.

The State Board shall also have power to pledge for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or certificates and reserves therefor, including refunding bonds or certificates, all or any part of the revenue to be derived from the said Gross Receipts Taxes provided for in this Amendment, and to enter into any covenants and other agreements with the holders of such bonds or certificates concerning the security thereof and the rights of the holders thereof, all of which covenants and agreements shall constitute legally binding and irrevocable contracts with such holders and shall be fully enforceable by such holders in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No such bonds or certificates shall ever be issued by the State Board in an amount exceeding seventy-five per centum of the amount which it determines, based upon the average annual amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding two fiscal years, or the amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding fiscal year, as shown in a certificate filed by the State Comptroller with the State Board prior to the issuance of such bonds or certificates, whichever is the lesser, can be serviced by the revenues accruing thereafter under the provisions of this Amendment; nor shall the State Board, during the first year following the ratification of this amendment, issue bonds or certificates in excess of seven times the anticipated revenue from said Gross Receipts Taxes during said year, nor during each succeeding year, more than four times the anticipated revenue from said Gross Receipts Taxes during such year. No election or approval of qualified electors or freeholder electors shall be required for the issuance of bonds or certificates hereunder.

After the initial issuance of any bonds or certificates pursuant to this Amendment, the State Board may thereafter issue additional bonds or certificates which will rank equally and on a parity, as to lien on and source of security for payment from said Gross Receipts Taxes, with any bonds or certificates theretofore issued pursuant to this Amendment, but such additional parity bonds or certificates shall not be issued unless the average annual amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding two fiscal years, or the amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding fiscal year, as shown in a certificate filed by the State Comptroller with the State Board prior to the issuance of such bonds or certificates, whichever is the lesser, shall have been equal to one and one-third times the aggregate amount of principal and interest which will become due in any succeeding fiscal year on all bonds or certificates theretofore issued pursuant to this Amendment and then outstanding, and the additional parity bonds or certificates then proposed to be issued. No bonds, certificates or other obligations whatsoever shall at any time be issued under the provisions of this Amendment, except such bonds or certificates initially issued hereunder, and such additional parity bonds or certificates as provided in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision herein no such bonds or certificates shall be authorized or validated during any biennium in excess of fifty million dollars, except by two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house of the legislature; provided further that during the biennium 1963-1965 seventy-five million dollars may be authorized and validated pursuant hereto.

(c) Capital outlay projects theretofore authorized by the legislature for any Institution of Higher Learning or Junior College shall be eligible to participate in the funds accruing under this Amendment derived from the proceeds of bonds or certificates and said Gross Receipts Taxes under such regulations and in such manner as shall be determined by the State Board, and the State Board shall use or transmit to the State Board of Control or to the Board of Public Instruction of any County authorized by law to construct or acquire such capital outlay projects, the amount of the proceeds of such bonds or certificates or Gross Receipts Taxes to be applied to or used for such capital outlay projects. If for any reason any of the proceeds of any bonds or certificates issued for any capital outlay project shall not be expended for such capital outlay project, the State Board may use such unexpended proceeds for any other capital outlay project for Institutions of Higher Learning or Junior Colleges and vocational technical schools, as defined herein, as now defined or as may be hereafter defined by law, theretofore authorized by the State Legislature. The holders of bonds or certificates issued hereunder shall not have any responsibility whatsoever for the application or use of any of the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds or certificates, and the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds or certificates and their right to payment from said Gross Receipts Taxes in the manner provided herein shall not be affected or impaired by the application or use of such proceeds.

The State Board shall use the moneys in said Capital Outlay Fund in each fiscal year only for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:

(1) For the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds or certificates maturing in such fiscal year.

(2) For the deposit into any reserve funds provided for in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds or certificates, of any amounts required to be deposited in such reserve funds in such fiscal year.

(3) After all payments required in such fiscal year for the purposes provided for in (1) and (2) above, including any deficiencies for required payments in prior fiscal years, any moneys remaining in said Capital Outlay

Fund at the end of such fiscal year may be used by the State Board for direct payment of the cost or any part of the cost of any capital outlay project theretofore authorized by the legislature or for the purchase of any bonds or certificates issued hereunder then outstanding upon such terms and conditions as the State Board shall deem proper, or for the prior redemption of outstanding bonds or certificates in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings which authorized the issuance of such bonds or certificates.

The State Board may invest the moneys in said Capital Outlay Fund or in any sinking fund or other funds created for any issue of bonds or certificates, in direct obligations of the United States of America or in the other securities referred to in Section 344.27, Florida Statutes.

(d) The State Board shall have the power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers herein granted and no legislation shall be required to render this Amendment of full force and operating effect on and after January 1, 1964. The Legislature, during the period this Amendment is in effect, shall not reduce the rate of said Gross Receipts Taxes now provided in said Chapter 203, Florida Statutes, or eliminate, exempt or remove any of the persons, firms or corporations, including municipal corporations, or any of the utilities, businesses or services now or hereafter subject to said Gross Receipts Taxes, from the levy and collection of said Gross Receipts Taxes as now provided in said Chapter 203, Florida Statutes, and shall not enact any law impairing or materially altering the rights of the holders of any bonds or certificates issued pursuant to this Amendment or impairing or altering any covenants or agreements of the State Board made hereunder, or having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of said Gross Receipts Taxes from the operation of this Amendment.

The State Board of Administration shall be and is hereby constituted as the Fiscal Agent of the State Board to perform such duties and assume such responsibilities under this Amendment as shall be agreed upon between the State Board and such State Board of Administration. The State Board shall also have power to appoint such other persons and fix their compensation for the administration of the provisions of this Amendment as it shall deem necessary, and the expenses of the State Board in administering the provisions of this Amendment shall be paid out of the proceeds of bonds or certificates issued hereunder or from said Gross Receipts Taxes deposited in said Capital Outlay Fund.

(e) No capital outlay project or any part thereof shall be financed hereunder unless the bill authorizing such project shall specify it is financed hereunder and shall be approved by a vote of three-fifths of the elected members of each house.

The legislature may provide also that the clerk of any court or any other court officer, within said county, shall maintain such offices within such municipality and have available such official books and records therein, as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this amendment; provided, however, that the principal offices of such clerks or other officers shall not be removed from the county seat.

History.—H.J.R. 1853, 1961; adopted 1962.

SECTION 4F. Civil trials in branch court-houses in Dade county.—Civil trials may be held as provided by law in branch courthouses in any municipality within Dade county. The clerk of any court, the sheriff, and any other court officer, within said county, shall maintain such offices within such municipality, and have available such official books and records therein, as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this amendment, provided that the principal offices of such clerks or other officers shall not be removed from the county seat.

History.—Added S.J.R. 1083, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 5. Donation of public lands to settlers.—The Legislature may provide for the donation of the public lands to actual settlers, but such donation shall not exceed eighty acres to any one person.

SECTION 6. Publication and distribution of laws.—The legislature shall provide for the speedy publication and distribution of all laws it may enact. Decisions of the Supreme Court and all laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person. But no judgment of the Supreme Court shall take effect until the decision of the Court in such case shall be filed with the clerk of said Court.

History.—Am. J.R. 1, 1895; adopted 1896.

SECTION 7. Terms of offices created by legislature.—The legislature shall not create any office, the term of which shall be longer than four years, except membership on the board charged with responsibility for colleges and universities (not including junior colleges) which terms may be extended by the legislature to not more than nine years.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 267, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 8. Determination of choice at elections.—A plurality of votes given at an election of officers shall constitute a choice when not otherwise provided by this Constitution.

SECTION 9. Costs in criminal cases prosecuted in name of state.—In all criminal cases prosecuted in the name of the State when the defendant is insolvent or discharged, the legal costs and expenses, including the fees of officers, shall be paid by the counties where the crime is committed, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law, and all fines and forfeitures collected under the penal laws of the State shall be paid into the County Treasuries of the respective Counties as a general County fund to be applied to such legal costs and expenses.

History.—Am. J.R. 1, 1898; adopted 1894.

SECTION 10. Location of state offices; temporary removal.—The Governor, Supreme Court and all the administrative officers of the Executive Department shall keep their offices at the Seat of Government. But in case of invasion or violent epidemics the Governor may direct that the offices of the Government be removed temporarily to some other place. The sessions of the Legislature may be adjourned for the same cause to some other place, but in case of such removal all the Departments of the Government shall be removed to one place. But such removal shall not continue longer than the necessity for the same shall continue.

SECTION 11. Extra compensation claims.—No extra compensation shall be made to any officer, agent, employe, or contractor after the service shall have been rendered, or the contract made; nor shall any money be appropriated or paid on any claim, the subject matter of which shall not have been provided for by pre-existing laws, unless such compensation or claim be allowed by bill passed by two thirds of the members elected to each house of the Legislature.

SECTION 12. Seal of State of Florida;

state flag.—The present seal of the state shall remain the seal of the state of Florida. The state flag shall conform with standard commercial sizes and be of the following proportions and description: The seal of the state, of diameter one half the hoist, in the center of a white ground. Red bars in width one fifth the hoist extending from each corner toward the center, to the outer rim of the seal.

History.—Am. J.R. 4, 1899; adopted 1900; Am. S.J.R. 433, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 13. Sureties upon official bonds.—The sureties upon the official bonds of all State, county, and municipal officers shall be residents of, and have sufficient visible property unencumbered within the State, not exempt from sale under legal process, to make good their bonds: and the sureties upon the official bonds of all county and municipal officers shall reside within the county where their principals upon such bonds reside, and shall have sufficient visible and unencumbered property in such county, that is not exempt from sale under legal process, to make good their liability on such bonds: Provided, "That any duly organized and responsible Guarantee or Surety Company, either foreign or domestic, lawfully doing business in this State, may become and be accepted as surety on all such official bonds."

History.—Am. J.R. 1, 1897; adopted 1898.

SECTION 14. Officers to hold until successors qualified.—All State, County and Municipal officers shall continue in office after the expiration of their official terms until their successors are duly qualified.

SECTION 15. No person to hold two offices at same time.—No person holding or exercising the functions of any office under any foreign Government, under the Government of the United States, or under any other State, shall hold any office of honor or profit under the government of this State; and no person shall hold, or perform the functions of, more than one office under the government of this State at the same time; Provided, Notaries Public, militia officers, county school officers and Commissioners of Deeds may be elected or appointed to fill any legislative, executive or judicial office.

SECTION 16. Corporate property subject to taxation, exception.—The property of all corporations, except the property of a corporation which shall construct a ship or barge canal across the peninsula of Florida, if the Legislature should so enact, whether heretofore or hereafter incorporated, shall be subject to taxation unless such property be held and used exclusively for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary or charitable purposes.

SECTION 17. Personal attention to duties of office required.—No person shall hold any office of trust or profit under the laws of this State without devoting his personal attention to the duties of the same.

SECTION 18. Salary deductions for neglect of duty.—The Legislature shall provide for deductions from the salaries of public officers who neglect the performance of any duty assigned them by law.

SECTION 19. Action on proposed United States constitutional amendment; prerequisite.—No Convention nor Legislature of this State shall act upon any amendment of the Constitution of the United States proposed by Congress to the several States, unless such Convention or Legislature shall have been elected after such amendment is submitted.

SECTION 20. Certificate of election to house of representatives or senate of United States; prerequisite.—The Governor and every State officer are hereby prohibited from giving certificates of election or other credentials to any person as having been elected to the House of Representatives of the United States Congress or the United States Senate, who has not been five years a citizen of the State and ten years a citizen of the United States, and a qualified voter.

SECTION 21. Recorded deeds and mortgages as prima facie evidence; certified copies.—Deeds and mortgages which have been proved for record and recorded according to law, shall be taken as prima facie evidence in the courts of this State without requiring proof of the execution. A certified copy of the record of any deed or mortgage that has been or shall be duly recorded according to law shall be admitted as prima facie evidence thereof, and of its due execution with like effect as the original duly proved; Provided, It be made to appear that the original is not within the custody or control of the party offering such copy.

SECTION 22. Mechanics liens.—The Legislature shall provide for giving to mechanics and laborers an adequate lien on the subject matter of their labor.

SECTION 23. Quartering of soldiers; prohibition.—No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war except in the manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 24. Intermarriage of white persons and negroes prohibited.—All marriages between a white person and a negro, or between a white person and a person of negro descent to the fourth generation, inclusive, are hereby forever prohibited.

SECTION 25. Definition of felony.—The term felony, whenever it may occur in this Constitution or in the laws of the State, shall be construed to mean any criminal offense punishable with death or imprisonment in the State Penitentiary.

SECTION 26. Provision for claims connected with establishment of East Florida Seminary.—The Legislature may make provision for the proper adjustment and settlement of the claim of the citizens of Ocala against the State for certain aid given by the town of Ocala for the establishment of the East Florida Seminary in 1852, and conditional upon its location at the said town.

SECTION 27. Purchase of books for supreme court library.—The Legislature shall appropriate at least five hundred dollars each year for the purchase of such books for the Supreme Court Library as the Court may direct.

SECTION 28. Drainage of land.—The Legislature may provide for the drainage of the land of one person over or through that of another, upon just compensation therefor to the owner of the land over which such drainage is had.

SECTION 29. Condemnation of property; compensation.—No private property, nor right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation or individual until full compensation therefor shall be first made to the owner, or first secured to him by deposit of money; which compensation, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation or individual, shall be ascertained by twelve jurors in a court of competent jurisdiction, as shall be prescribed by law.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 67, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 30. Legislative power over common carriers.—The Legislature is invested with full power to pass laws for the correction of abuses and to prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges by persons and corporations engaged as common carriers in transporting persons and property, or performing other services of a public nature; and shall provide for enforcing such laws by adequate penalties or forfeitures.

SECTION 31. Free railroad passes to state officials prohibited.—No railroad or other transportation company or common carrier in this State shall grant a free pass, or discount the fare paid by the public generally, to any member of the Legislature, or to any salaried officer of this State, and the Legislature shall prohibit the granting or receiving such free pass, or fare at a discount, by suitable penalties.

SECTION 32. Legislature may create parole commission.—The Legislature may create a Parole Commission empowered to grant paroles or conditional releases or probation under official supervision to prisoners or persons charged with criminal offenses, and may provide for the qualification and method of selecting the Commission members and for their term of office the length of which shall be wholly within the discretion of the Legislature.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 1001, 1939; adopted 1940.

SECTION 33 (32)* Salt water fish and salt water products; regulation, etc.—The Legislature may vest in such board or commission, now created or that may be created by it, authority to make and establish rules and regulations without regard to uniformity of application, relating to the conservation of salt water fish and salt water products.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 560, 1941; adopted 1942.

*Erroneously numbered (32) by legislature.

SECTION 34. Civil service system and boards.—The Legislature may by general, special or local laws create Civil Service systems and Civil Service Boards for municipal, county and state employees and for municipal, county and state officers not appointed by the governor or elected by the people and the Legislature may authorize such Civil Service Boards to provide for the qualifications and method of employing such employees and officers and to prescribe the length of their terms of office or employment.

History.—Added S. J. R. 642, 1955; adopted 1956.

ARTICLE XVII

AMENDMENTS

Sec.

1. Method of amending constitution.
2. Method of revising constitution; convention.
3. Method of amending constitution at special election.

SECTION 1. Method of amending constitution.—Either branch of the Legislature, at any regular session, or at any special or extraordinary session thereof called for such purpose either in the governor's original call or any amendment thereof, may propose the revision or amendment of any portion or portions of this Constitution. Any such revision or amendment may relate to one subject or any number of subjects, but no amendment shall consist of more than one revised article of the Constitution.

If the proposed revision or amendment is agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to each house, it shall be entered upon their respective journals with the yeas and nays and published in one newspaper in each county where a newspaper is published for two times,

4. Additional method of revising or amending constitution.

one publication to be made not earlier than ten weeks and the other not later than six weeks, immediately preceding the election at which the same is to be voted upon, and thereupon submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election, provided, however, that such revision or amendment may be submitted for approval or rejection in a special election under the conditions described in and in the manner provided by Section 3 of Article XVII of this Constitution. If a majority of the electors voting upon the amendment adopt such amendment the same shall become a part of this Constitution.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 118, 1947; adopted 1948.

SECTION 2. Method of revising constitution; convention.—If at any time the legislature, by a vote of two-thirds of all members of both houses shall determine that a revision of this constitution is necessary, such determination shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays thereon. Notice of said action shall be published weekly in one newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is published, for three months preceding the next general election of representatives, and in those counties where no newspaper is published, notice shall be given by posting at the several polling precincts in such counties for six weeks next preceding said election. The electors at said election may vote for or against the revision in question. If a majority of the electors so voting be in favor of revision, the legislature chosen at such election shall provide by law for a convention to revise the constitution and shall provide for the conduct and rules of such convention. The convention shall be held within six months after passage of the law, providing for the convention. Delegates to the convention shall equal in number and be apportioned among the various counties as the membership of the house of representatives is apportioned. The convention upon adoption of a revised constitution shall certify a copy of it to the governor. Five printed copies of the revised constitution shall be transmitted by the secretary of state to the clerk of the circuit court of each county, and five to the county judge of each county. These copies shall be distributed throughout the various counties and shall be available for examination by any person desiring to examine same for a period of at least three months immediately preceding the next general election. At this election the revised constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for approval or rejection. If a majority of the electors voting upon the revision of the constitution shall approve same, the revised constitution shall take effect immediately upon such approval by the electors.

History.—Am. S.J.R. 115, 1965; adopted 1966.

SECTION 3. Method of amending constitution at special election.—If at any regular or special or extra session, the Legislature, by vote of three-fourths of all members elected to each House, shall determine that an emergency requiring an early decision by the electors of the State exists, an Amendment to this Constitution dealing with the subject matter of such emergency may be proposed, and if the proposed Amendment be agreed to by a three-fourths vote of all the members elected to each House, the same shall be entered upon their respective journals with the yeas and nays thereon. Thereupon, at the same session, the Legislature shall provide for a special election to be held not less than ninety nor more than one hundred eighty days after adjournment and for publication of notice thereof, at which special election the proposed Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection; provided, that if a general election of Representatives is to occur within said period, such Amendment shall be submitted to the electors at such general election.

If a majority of the electors voting upon the proposed Amendment shall adopt the Amendment, the same shall become a part of this Constitution. This Amendment shall not be held to supersede or in anywise affect any existing provision of the Constitution relating to Amendments, but shall be regarded as an additional method of Amendment thereto.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 88, 1941; adopted 1942.

SECTION 4. Additional method of revising or amending constitution.—As a method of revising the entire Constitution of Florida, and as an additional method of revising or amending any portion or portions of it, either branch of the legislature, at any regular session, or at any special or extraordinary session called for the purpose, may propose by joint resolution a revision of the entire constitution or a revision or amendment of any portion or portions thereof and may direct and provide for an election thereon.

If the joint resolution is adopted by vote of three fifths of the members elected to each house, the yeas and nays shall be entered upon their respective journals, and the proposed revision or amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state for ratification or rejection at the next general election held more than seventy days after the adoption of the resolution unless, by vote of three fourths of the members elected to each house, the legislature shall provide for submission at a special election at an earlier date. The secretary of state shall cause notice of the proposed revision or amendment and of the date of the election thereon to be published twice in one newspaper in each county in which a newspaper is published, the first publication to be not more than ten or less than eight weeks before the election and the second publication to be at least one week after the first and not less than four weeks before the election. If the proposed revision or amendment receives the favorable vote of a majority of the electors voting thereon, it shall take effect at noon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of the January following the election if voted upon in a general election, and on the sixtieth day after the election if voted upon in a special election, or in either case on any date designated therein.

History.—Added H.J.R. 368, 1963; adopted, 1964.

SECTION 3. Status as of 1918 to be same until changed by election.—Until changed by elections called under this Article, the status of all territory in the State of Florida as to whether the sale is permitted or prohibited shall be the same as it was on December 31, 1918, provided that at the General Election in 1934 or at any time within two years after this Article becomes effective the Board of County Commissioners of any County shall, upon the application of five percent. of the registered voters of the County, call and provide for an election to decide whether the sale shall be prohibited in such County, said election to be otherwise as provided in Article I hereof.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 83, 1933; adopted 1934.

SECTION 4. Article to become effective; when.—This Article shall become effective immediately upon its adoption and the repeal of Article XVIII of the Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 83, 1933; adopted 1934.

ARTICLE XX COUNTY OFFICERS

Sec.

1. Assessment and collection officers for state, county, municipal, etc., taxes in Orange county.

SECTION 1. Assessment and collection officers for state, county, municipal, etc., taxes in Orange county.—The Legislature is authorized and empowered to provide by law or laws enacted by it at its regular session held in A. D. 1947, or at any regular session thereafter, for the consolidation, abolishing or creating of any county offices in Orange County, Florida, provided, there is excepted from the effects of this article judges of all courts; and to provide for the assessment and collection of municipal taxes and assessments, or either of them, by county tax officers in said county. Any law so enacted respecting the consolidation or creation of any county offices shall prescribe the powers, duties and compensation, of the officers designated therein to exercise and discharge the duties of the offices so consolidated or created; and any law so enacted respecting the assessment and collection of municipal taxes and assessments, or either of them, by county tax officers, shall provide for the assessing, collecting, accounting for and disbursing of said taxes and/or assessments to the appropriate municipal authorities, and for compensation for such county taxing officers for services rendered incident thereto. That if any such law respecting the consolidation or creation of any county offices is accepted and ratified at the referendum election herein provided, such law shall become effective with respect to the offices affected thereby on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January of any year immediately succeeding the general election had subsequent to said referendum election at which electors for President of the United States are voted for; and if any such law respecting the assessment and collection of municipal taxes and assessments, or either of them, by county tax officers is accepted and ratified at the referendum election as provided herein, the same shall become effective on the first day of January next succeeding such referendum election.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 663, 1945; adopted 1946.

SECTION 2. Referendum election.—Before any law described in the preceding section of this Article shall be of any force and effect, it shall be accepted and ratified by a majority vote of the qualified electors of Orange County, Florida, at a referendum election to be called and held for the purpose of determining whether such law shall be accepted and ratified or rejected by the qualified electors of said county. Such referendum election shall be held within ninety days after the effective date of any such law. The board of county commissioners shall provide for the holding of any such referendum election and notice thereof shall be published by said Board once each week for at least four successive weeks immediately next prior to the date of such election in a newspaper of general circulation in said county. Except as herein otherwise provided, the laws of the state relating to the holding of general elections shall cover the holding of any such referendum election. If any such law shall be accepted and ratified by the majority of electors participating in any such referendum election, such law shall become and be in full force and effect, but if at any such election a majority of the electors participating therein shall vote against the acceptance and ratification of such law, it shall be null and void and of no force and effect. The canvassing board of such county shall certify the result of any such referendum election to the secretary of state within ten days after the holding thereof.

History —Added, S.J.R. 663, 1945; adopted 1946.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

PREAMBLE

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 2. ¹ The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States, and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislature.

* No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

* [Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other persons.] The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each State shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New-York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

Note.—The part of this clause relating to the mode of apportionment of Representatives was changed after the Civil War by section 2 of the Fourteenth Amendment and as to taxes on incomes without apportionment, by the Sixteenth Amendment.

* When vacancies happen in the representation from any State, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

* The House of Representatives shall chuse their speaker and other officers; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3. ¹ [The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each State, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.]

Note.—This provision has now been changed by the Seventeenth Amendment to the Constitution.

* Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one third may be chosen every second year; [and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any State, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.]

Note.—That part of the above paragraph in brackets was changed by the Seventeenth Amendment.

* No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

* The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

* The Senate shall chuse their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the office of the President of the United States.

* The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside: and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two thirds of the members present.

* Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States: but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4. ¹ The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of chusing senators.

* [The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.]

Note.—This provision of the Constitution has been superseded by the Twentieth Amendment.

SECTION 5. ¹ Each House shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties as each House may provide.

² Each House may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behaviour, and, with the concurrence of two thirds, expel a member.

⁴ Neither House, during the session of Congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6. ¹ The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

² No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States, shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7. ¹ All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

² Every bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the President of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each House respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

³ Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be re-passed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

SECTION 8. The Congress shall have power

¹ To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defence and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts, and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

² To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

³ To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes;

⁴ To establish a uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States;

⁵ To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures;

⁶ To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States;

⁷ To establish post offices and post roads;

⁸ To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries;

⁹ To constitute tribunals inferior to the Supreme Court;

¹⁰ To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations;

¹¹ To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water;

¹² To raise and support armies, but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years;

¹³ To provide and maintain a navy;

¹⁴ To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces;

¹⁵ To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions;

¹⁶ To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress;

¹⁷ To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular States, and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the State in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, and other needful buildings; —and

¹⁸ To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this Constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

SECTION 9. ¹ The migration or importation of such persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

² The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

³ No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

⁴ [No capitation, or other direct, tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.]

Note.—This provision was changed in 1913 by the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

⁵ No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any State.

⁶ No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one State over those of another: nor shall vessels bound to, or from, one State be obliged to enter, clear, or pay duties in another.

SECTION 10. ¹ No State shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

² No State shall, without the consent of the Congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws: and the net produce of all duties and imposts, laid by any State on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and controul of the Congress.

³ No State shall, without the consent of the Congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ships of war in time of peace, enter into an agreement or compact with another State, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1. ¹ The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and together with the Vice President, chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

² Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

[The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the Senate. The president of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by ballot one of them for President; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said House shall in like manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the President, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the Vice President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the Senate shall chuse from them by ballot the Vice President.]

Note.—Clause enclosed in brackets superseded by Twelfth Amendment.

* The Congress may determine the time of chusing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

* No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

* In case of the removal of the President from office, or at his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what officer shall then act as President, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

* The President shall, at stated times, receive for his services, a compensation which shall neither be encreased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

* Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

SECTION 2. ¹ The President shall be commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several States, when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

* He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the Supreme Court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law: but the Congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

* The President shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

SECTION 3. He shall from time to time give to the Congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper; he shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers; he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

SECTION 4. The President, Vice President, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the Supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behaviour, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

SECTION 2. ¹ The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this Constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority;—to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls;—to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction;—to controversies to which the United States shall be a party;—to controversies between two or more States; between a State and citizens of another State;—between citizens of different States;—between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants of different States, and between a State, or the citizens thereof, and foreign States, citizens or subjects.

* In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a State shall be a party, the Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make.

* The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the State where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the trial shall be at such place or places as the Congress may by law have directed.

SECTION 3. ¹ Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

² The Congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State. And the Congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

SECTION 2. ¹ The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States.

² A person charged in any State with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another State, shall on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the crime.

³ No person held to service or labour in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labour, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labour may be due.

SECTION 3. ¹ New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States, or parts of States, without the consent of the legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

² The Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular States.

SECTION 4. The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V

The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this Constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this Constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three fourths of the several States, or by conventions in three fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress; Provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate.

ARTICLE VI

¹ All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

² This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

³ The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII

The ratification of the conventions of nine States shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

Done in Convention by the unanimous consent of the States present the seventeenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In Witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

[Names omitted]

Articles in addition to, and amendment of, the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the legislatures of the several States pursuant to the fifth article of the original Constitution.

Amendments

First Ten amendments passed by Congress
Sept. 25, 1789.

Ratified December 15, 1791.

AMENDMENT I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

AMENDMENT II.

A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

AMENDMENT III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

AMENDMENT IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

AMENDMENT V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

AMENDMENT VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district where the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

AMENDMENT VII.

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

AMENDMENT VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

AMENDMENT IX.

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

AMENDMENT X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

AMENDMENT XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another State, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign State.

RATIFIED JANUARY 8, 1798.

AMENDMENT XII.

The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate;—The President of the Senate shall, in presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted;—The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

RATIFIED SEPTEMBER 25, 1804.

AMENDMENT XIII.

SECTION 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SECTION 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

RATIFIED DECEMBER 18, 1865.

AMENDMENT XIV.

SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SECTION 3. No person shall be a senator or representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SECTION 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

RATIFIED JULY 28, 1868.

AMENDMENT XV.

SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

RATIFIED MARCH 30, 1870.

AMENDMENT XVI.

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

RATIFIED FEBRUARY 25, 1913.

AMENDMENT XVII.

The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

RATIFIED MAY 31, 1913.

AMENDMENT XVIII.

Section 1. [After one year from the ratification of this article, the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Section 2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Section 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by Congress.]

Note.—Twenty-first Amendment to Constitution repealed the Eighteenth Amendment.

RATIFIED JANUARY 29, 1919.

AMENDMENT XIX.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

RATIFIED AUGUST 26, 1920.

AMENDMENT XX.

SECTION 1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

SECTION 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

SECTION 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

SECTION 6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

RATIFIED JANUARY 23, 1933.

AMENDMENT XXI.

SECTION 1. The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

SECTION 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission thereof to the States by the Congress.

RATIFIED DECEMBER 15, 1933.

AMENDMENT XXII.

SECTION 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative, from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

SECTION 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress.

RATIFIED FEBRUARY 26, 1951.

AMENDMENT XXIII.

SECTION 1. The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

RATIFIED APRIL 3, 1961.

AMENDMENT XXIV.

SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

RATIFIED FEBRUARY 4, 1964.

AMENDMENT XXV.

SECTION 1. In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

SECTION 2. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

SECTION 3. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

SECTION 4. Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

FLORIDA RULES OF COURT

PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION AND AMENDMENT OF COURT RULES

On May 3, 1965, Chief Justice Harris Drew and Justices Thomas, Roberts, O'Connell, Caldwell and Ervin of the Florida Supreme Court, in conference, adopted the following motion relative to the procedure for the adoption and amendment of court rules:

1. The Supreme Court shall receive recommendations from The Florida Bar on proposed new rules of court procedure or amendments to existing rules of court procedure and hold hearings on such proposals biennially, in odd-numbered years, under the following procedure.

2. All proposed rules or amendments shall be submitted to the Florida Court Rules Committee of The Florida Bar on or before September 1 of the year in which a hearing before the Supreme Court on such proposals is to be held.

3. The Chairman of the Committee shall assign each proposed rule or amendment to the chairman of the appropriate subcommittee, such as the Subcommittee on Appellate Court Rules or on Civil Procedure Rules or on Criminal Court Rules or on Probate Court Rules or on Courts of Lesser Jurisdiction Rules.

4. The Florida Court Rules Committee, upon consideration of the proposals, shall present its recommendations on the proposals to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar for its consideration at its meeting in or prior to the month of November of the year preceding the year in which a hearing is to be held before the Supreme Court on such proposals.

5. The Board shall submit its final recommendations on the proposals to the Supreme Court of Florida on or before February 1 of the year in which a hearing is to be held before the Supreme Court on such proposals.

6. A hearing on the proposals shall be held before the Supreme Court at an early date, but no later than the following June 1, after publication of the petition, filed by The Florida Bar, in The Florida Bar Journal.

7. The Supreme Court shall consider the proposals and should it adopt any proposed new rule of court procedure or amendment to an existing rule of court procedure, it shall make the new rule or amendment effective July 1 after its hearing on the proposals.

8. The foregoing procedure shall not control in any situation when the Court concludes that an emergency amendment to the Rules is required. It is also understood that the Florida Bar Court Rules Committee will report to the Supreme Court all proposed Court Rules Amendments which it disapproves as well as those which it approves.

FLORIDA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

1967 REVISION

Order of the Supreme Court

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA
JANUARY TERM, A. D. 1966

IN RE: FLORIDA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE
1967 REVISION

Opinion filed June 15, 1966

PER CURIAM.

The opinion and compilation appended thereto filed May 18, 1966, are withdrawn and this opinion and attached compilation substituted therefor.

Appended to this order is a complete compilation of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and all amendments, revisions, forms or additions which have been made since June 20, 1962, adopted pursuant to the power vested in this Court by Article V of the Florida Constitution. This compilation and revision shall govern all proceedings within the scope of these rules after midnight December 31, 1966. This compilation and revision shall supersede all conflicting rules and statutes. All statutes not superseded hereby or in conflict herewith shall remain in effect as rules promulgated by the Supreme Court.

Adopted and approved by the Court en banc June 15, 1966.

It is so ordered.

and ERVIN, JJ., concur.

FLORIDA

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

1967 Revision

SUBCOMMITTEE NOTE*

The * * * consolidation of civil procedure rules for law and chancery is basically the 1965 Florida Rules of Civil Procedure which become effective January 1, 1966.

In the consolidation the following rules which are now in force were omitted. The reason for omission is given opposite each rule. Rule numbers are those of the 1965 rules.

Rule	Reason for Omission	Rule	Reason for Omission
1.1(e)	It is combined with Rule 1.1(d) in new Rule 1.020(d).	2.16	Provision that the rule governing an extraordinary remedy shall be applicable when the rule itself is set forth is redundant.
1.2(b)	Separate law and equity dockets are not appropriate after consolidation.
1.2(c)	Docketing special statutory proceeding at common law is impossible under consolidation.	3.1	The rule that nominal parties need not answer the complaint in chancery is obsolete. The procedure on nominal parties should be the same as that on all other parties.
1.4(f) (2)	The rule is unnecessary.
1.14(c)	To the extent this rule grants the court authority to strike, it is superfluous and the remainder is no longer necessary.	3.2	A rule stating the substantive law that a plaintiff may sue one or more parties on joint and several demands is unnecessary.
1.39(a)	Transfers between law and chancery are unnecessary.
2.4(c)	Service of motions is covered by Rule 1.4 including motions for a continuance.	3.7	Joinder of causes of action is covered by Rule 1.8(g) except to the extent that Rule 3.7 conflicts with it and to this extent, it should be repealed.
2.10(b)	Provision for attachment procedure to follow that in personal actions is covered by Rule A.	3.16	Petitions for rehearing are covered in the rule on motions for new trial.
2.11(b) thru (g)	Substitution and adding parties in ejectment, as well as other cases, is covered by Rules 1.18 and 1.19.
2.14	The judgment and execution docket is partly covered by the progress docket of the clerk required by 28.21(2) Florida Statutes and otherwise by the sheriff's execution docket required by 30.17 Florida Statutes.

The following have been added to the consolidation. The proposed rule number is given and the reason for its inclusion is set opposite each proposal.

Rule	Reason for Inclusion
1.030(e)	This sets out the existing law for substitution of attorneys as stated in Diem v. Diem, 187 So. 569 and other cases. The rule is recommended to make the ruling readily available to the practitioner.

*Subcommittee on Civil Procedural Rules of The Florida Bar.

FLORIDA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule	Reason for Inclusion	Rule	Reason for Inclusion
1.110(d)	The last sentence has been added to the present Rule 1.8(d) to permit a motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action to take advantage of an affirmative defense appearing on the face of the pleading to which the motion is directed. If the pleader affirmative show that he has no claim in his pleading, the claim should be disposed of at the earliest possible stage. This will eliminate the conflicts between Tuggle v. Maddox , 60 So.2d 158; Hinchee v. Fisher , 93 So.2d 531; Flye v. Jeffords , 106 So.2d 229; Fletcher v. Williams , 153 So.2d 759 and Martin v. Highway Equipment Supply Co. , 172 So.2d 246.	1.040	This is Federal Rule 2 and provides for one form of action.
		1.600	This is Federal Rule 67 and provides for deposits in court. It merely declares the law of Florida set out in Phipps v. Watson , 147 So. 234 as that case relates to procedure.
		1.650	The last sentence paraphrases 80.06 F.S. which sets out the requirements for the petition for prohibition.
1.390(b)	The last sentence eliminates the confusion about introduction of expert's depositions resulting from Cook v. Lichtblau , 176 So.2d 523 and permits the intent of rule to control as shown by its earlier legislative history.	A new default rule (Rule 1.500) based on Federal Rule 55 is proposed as a substitute for Rules 2.9, 3.9, 3.10 and 3.11. The only substantial difference between the proposal and the federal rule is one which forbids the clerk to enter a default against a party who has appeared. The court is required to enter such a default after notice and to this extent the proposal is intended to overrule Capers v. Lee, 91 So.2d 337. The proposal will eliminate entry of final judgments consequent on default by clerks. Rule 3.14 about masters in chancery has not been revised since 1873. Much of the language is archaic and many of the subdivisions of the rule duplicate each other. Some of the provisions are obsolete. The duplication and obsolete provisions have been removed and the entire rule framed in more modern language. Many other minor changes in style, grammar and punctuation have been made throughout the rules. None of these changes affect the meaning or intent of any rule. The last sentence in Rule 1.420(a) (1) has been added to clarify the status of a lis pendens when an action is voluntarily dismissed.
1.410(b)	Provision for a notice to produce at trial which can be served on the opposing attorney in lieu of a subpoena duces tecum being served on the party has been made. It is intended to make the procedure for obtaining documentary evidence for trial easier.

COMPARISON TABLE

Florida Rules of Civil Procedure

Prior Rules to 1967 Revision

The consolidation of Procedural Rules for law and chancery was prepared by the Subcommittee on Civil Procedural Rules of The Florida Bar. The consolidation is basically the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure as amended and in effect January 1, 1966.

While many minor changes in style, grammar and punctuation have been made throughout the Rules, none of these changes affect the meaning or intent of any Rule. Where new provisions have been added to the consolidated Rules, the Rule number is listed in this Table and the reason for their inclusion is explained in the footnotes. The comments in the footnotes are taken from the explanatory notes of the Subcommittee.

The following Table shows the disposition of the prior Rules as amended in the 1967 Revision of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

Prior Rules	1967 Revision Rules	Prior Rules	1967 Revision Rules
A	1.010	1.8	1.110 ⁷

1.7	1.100	1.25	1.320

1. Combined with 1954 Rule 1.1(d) in 1967 Revised Rule 1.020(d).
2. Separate law and equity dockets are not appropriate after consolidation.
3. Docketing special statutory proceeding at common law is impossible under consolidation.
4. The Rule is unnecessary.
5. 1967 Revised Rule 1.030(e) sets out the existing law for substitution of attorneys as stated in Diem v. Diem, 187 So. 569, and other cases. The rule was recommended to make the ruling readily available to the practitioner.
6. This is Federal Rule 2 and provides for one form of action.
7. The last sentence has been added to 1954 Rule 1.8(d) to permit a motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action to take advantage of an affirmative defense appearing on the face of the pleading to which the motion is directed. If the pleader affirmatively shows that he has no claim in his pleading, the claim should be disposed of at the earliest possible stage. This will eliminate the conflicts between Tuggle v. Maddox, 60 So.2d 158; Hinchee v. Fisher, 93 So.2d 531; Flye v. Jeffords, 106 So.2d 229; Fletcher v. Williams, 153 So.2d 759, and Martin v. Highway Equipment Supply Co., 172 So.2d 246.

8. To the extent this Rule granted the court authority to strike, it was superfluous and the remainder was no longer necessary.
9. The last sentence of 1967 Revised Rule 1.390(b) eliminates the confusion about introduction of expert's depositions resulting from Cook v. Lichtblau, 176 So.2d 523, and permits the intent of the Rule to control as shown by its earlier legislative history.

10. In 1967 Revised Rule 1.410(c) provision for a notice to produce at trial which can be served on the opposing attorney in lieu of a subpoena duces tecum being served on the party has been made. It is intended to make the procedure for obtaining documentary evidence for trial easier.

11. Transfers between law and chancery are unnecessary.

12. Rep. July 28, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

13. Service of motions was covered by 1954 Rule 1.4 (1967 Revised Rule 1.080) including motions for a continuance.

14. Transferred to 1954 Rule 1.37(c) (d), eff. Jan. 1, 1966 (1967 Revised Rule 1.450(c) (d)).

15. A new default Rule (1967 Revised Rule 1.500) based on Federal Rule 55 is a substitute for 1954 Rules 2.9, 3.9, 3.10 and 3.11. The only substantial difference between the new Rule and the Federal Rule is one which forbids the clerk to enter a default against a party who has appeared. The court is required to enter such a default after notice and to this extent the proposal is intended to overrule Capers v. Lee, 91 So.2d 337. The proposal will eliminate entry of final judgments consequent on default by clerks.

16. Provision for attachment procedure to follow that in personal actions was covered by 1954 Rule A (1967 Revised Rule 1.010).

17. Substitution and adding parties in ejectment, as well as other cases, was covered by 1954 Rules 1.18 and 1.19 (1967 Revised Rules 1.250, 1.260).

18. The judgment and execution docket is partly covered by the progress docket of the clerk required by section 28.21(2), Florida Statutes Annotated, and otherwise by the sheriff's execution docket required by section 30.17, Florida Statutes Annotated.

19. Provision that the Rule governing an extraordinary remedy shall be applicable when the Rule itself is set forth is redundant.

20. The second sentence of 1967 Revised Rule 1.650(a) paraphrases section 80.06, Florida Statutes Annotated, which sets out the requirements for the petition for prohibition.

21. The Rule that nominal parties need not answer the complaint in chancery is obsolete. The procedure on nominal parties should be the same as that on all other parties.

22. A Rule stating the substantive law that a plaintiff may sue one or more parties on joint and several demands is unnecessary.

23. Joinder of causes of action was covered by 1954 Rule 1.8(g) except to the extent that 1954 Rule 3.7 conflicted with it and to this extent, it was repealed. See 1967 Revised Rule 1.110.

24. Eliminated March 21, 1962, eff. July 1, 1962.

25. See note 15, ante.

26. Rep. July 28, 1965, eff. Jan 1, 1966.

27. Rule 3.14 (1954) about masters in chancery had not been revised since 1873. Much of the language was archaic and many of the subdivisions of the Rule duplicated each other. Some of the provisions were obsolete. The duplication and obsolete provisions have been removed and the entire Rule framed in more modern language.

28. Petitions for rehearing are covered in the Rule on motions for new trial. See 1967 Revised Rule 1.530.

29. This is Federal Rule 67 and provides for deposits in court. It merely declares the law of Florida set out in Phipps v. Watson, 147 So. 234, as that case relates to procedure.

Rule 1.010. SCOPE AND TITLE OF RULES

These rules apply to all suits of a civil nature and all special statutory proceedings in the Circuit Courts, County Judge's Courts, County Courts and Civil Courts of Record except that the form, content, procedure and time for pleading in all special statutory proceedings shall be as prescribed by the statutes providing for such proceedings unless these rules specifically provide to the contrary. These rules shall be construed to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of every action. These rules shall be known and cited as the Rules of Civil Procedure and may be abbreviated as "RCP".

Committee Note: See order of the Supreme Court of Florida effective January 1, 1950, adopting the existing common law and equity rules and former Common Law Rules 61 and 62 and former Equity Rule 79. This rule is adapted somewhat from Federal Rule 1.

Rule 1.020. COURTS AND JUDGES

(a) Court and Judge Synonymous. When these rules refer to the court, they shall be construed to apply to a judge thereof when the context requires or permits.

(b) Presiding Judge.

(1) In circuit courts having more than two judges on active status:

A presiding judge of the court shall be chosen by majority vote of the judges thereof on the first day of July, 1957, for a term of two years. Successor presiding judges shall be elected in the same manner for a like term. If a vacancy occurs, other than through expiration of a term, a successor shall be chosen within 60 days in the same manner for the remainder of the term.

If the presiding judge dies, retires or is unable to perform his duties, the judge having the longest continuous service as circuit judge shall perform such duties during the disability or until a successor presiding judge is elected.

(2) In circuit courts having two judges on active status:

The office of presiding judge shall be rotated between the judges. The term shall be two years. The judge having the longest continuous service as a circuit judge shall serve the first term beginning on the first day of July, 1957.

If the presiding judge dies, retires or is unable to perform his duties for any extended time, the remaining judge shall serve as presiding judge.

(c) Duties.

(1) The presiding judge shall be the administrative officer of the court and shall be responsible for the efficient and speedy disposition of the business of the court.

(2) As often as necessary to insure the efficient and speedy administration of justice, and not less frequently than bi-monthly, the presiding judge shall examine the dockets of the court in each county or require a report on the status of the cases on such dockets and thereupon take such action as may be necessary to cause said dockets to be made current.

(3) All circuit judges shall inform the presiding judge of any contemplated absences which will affect the progress of the court's business and shall state the reasons for such absence.

(4) If any circuit judge is absent from the court or otherwise unable to perform his duties, or if for other reasons it appears to the presiding judge that the efficient and speedy administration of justice so requires, the presiding judge without delay shall request the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to temporarily assign an additional judge or judges to duty in such circuit.

(d) Local Rules.

(1) All local rules concerning practice and procedure, not in conflict with any rule promulgated by the Supreme Court, which are in force in any trial court on July 1, 1957, are hereby recognized, ratified and confirmed, subject to formal approval or disapproval of the Supreme Court at such time as it may formally act thereon.

(2) Prior to October 1, 1957, each trial court shall submit seven copies of all local rules in effect on July 1, 1957, to the Supreme Court.

(3) Such courts shall have power to amend, rescind and adopt local rules not in conflict with any rule promulgated by the Supreme Court, provided that any such action shall not be effective until approved by the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.030. ATTORNEYS

(a) Pleadings to be Signed by Attorney. Every pleading and other paper of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name whose address shall be stated and who shall be duly licensed to practice law in Florida. He may be required by order of court to vouch for his authority to represent and to give the address of such party. Except when otherwise specifically provided by these rules or an applicable statute, pleadings as such need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney shall constitute a certificate by him that he has read the pleading or other paper; that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken and the action may proceed as though the pleading or other paper had not been served.

(b) Party not Represented by Attorney to Sign. A party who has no attorney but represents himself shall sign his pleading or other paper and state his address.

(c) Attorney not to be Surety. No attorney or other officer of court shall enter himself or be taken as bail or surety in any proceeding in court on pain of being considered in contempt.

(d) Stipulations. No private agreement or consent between parties or their attorneys shall be of any force unless the evidence thereof is in writing, subscribed by the party or his attorney against whom it is alleged; provided that parol agreements may be made before the court if promptly made a part of the record or incorporated in the stenographic notes of the proceedings and agreements made at depositions which are incorporated in the transcript thereof need not be signed when signing thereof is waived.

(e) Substitution of Attorneys. Attorneys for a party may be substituted at any time by order of court. No substitute attorney shall be permitted to appear in the absence of such an order. The court may condition such substitution upon payment of or security for the substituted attorney's fee and expenses or upon such other terms as may be just.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 12 and Equity Rule 7.

Rule 1.040. ONE FORM OF ACTION

There shall be one form of action to be known as "civil action".

Committee Note: Federal Rule 2.

Rule 1.050. WHEN ACTION COMMENCED

Every action of a civil nature shall be deemed commenced when the complaint or petition is filed except that ancillary proceedings shall be deemed commenced when the writ is issued or the pleading setting forth the claim of the party initiating the action is filed.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 4 and Equity Rule 4.

Rule 1.060. TRANSFERS OF ACTIONS

(a) Transfers of Courts. If it should appear at any time that an action is pending in the wrong court of any county, it may be transferred to the proper court within said county by the same method as provided in Rule 1.170(j).

(b) Wrong Venue. When any action is filed laying venue in the wrong county or district, the court may transfer the action in the same manner as provided in Rule 1.170(j) to the proper court in any county or district where it might have been brought in accordance with the venue statutes. When the venue might have been laid in two or more counties or districts, the person bringing such action may select the county or district to which the action is transferred; but if no such selection is made, the matter shall be determined by the court.

Committee Note: Adapted from Equity Rule 75 and 53.17 F.S.

Rule 1.070. PROCESS

(a) Summons—Issuance. Upon the commencement of the action summons or other process authorized by law shall be issued forthwith by the clerk or judge and delivered for service without praecipe.

(b) Service—By Whom Made. Service of process may be made by any officer authorized by law to serve process but if such officer shall be disqualified or unable to act for any reason, the court may appoint any competent person not interested in the action to serve such process. The person serving process shall make proof of service promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person appointed by the court for such purpose, he shall make proof of service by affidavit. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of the service. When any process is returned not executed or returned improperly executed as to any defendant, the plaintiff shall be entitled to such additional process against such defendant as is required to effect service.

(c) Same—Numerous Defendants. If there is more than one defendant, the clerk or judge shall issue as many writs of process against the several defendants as may be directed by the plaintiff or his attorney.

(d) Same—Proceed Against Those Served. When action is brought against two or more defendants and process is served on one or more, but not on all, and the person making service returns that any defendant not served does not reside in the county, the plaintiff may proceed against the defendants served, noting the fact of non-service as to the defendants not served or the plaintiff at his option may order additional process to be delivered to the sheriffs of the counties in which such defendants reside to be served on them. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent the plaintiff from bringing action thereafter against any defendant not served for the same claim but the plaintiff shall have satisfaction of only one judgment rendered for the same claim.

(e) Service by Publication. Service of process by publication may be made as provided by statute.

(f) Copies of Complaint for Defendants. At the time of personal service of process a copy of the complaint, affidavit, petition or other initial pleading shall be delivered to the party upon whom service is made. The date and hour of service shall be endorsed on the original summons and all copies of it by the person making the service.

(g) Constructive Service—Notice and Copies of Pleadings. When service is made by publication, copies of the plaintiff's initial pleadings shall be furnished to the clerk and mailed by him with the notice of suit to all parties whose addresses are stated in the initial pleading or affidavit.

(h) Same—Plaintiff to Furnish Copies. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service or mailing notice of suit with such copies as may be necessary.

(i) Fees—Service of Pleadings. The statutory compensation for making service shall not be increased by the simultaneous delivery or mailing of the copy of the initial pleading in conformity with this rule.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 5 and Equity Rule 5, subsection (c), has been conformed in part to Federal Rule 4(g).

Rule 1.080. SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND PAPERS

(a) Service; When Required. Unless the court otherwise orders, every pleading subsequent to the initial pleading and every order or judgment not entered in open court and every other paper filed in the action, except applications for witness subpoena, shall be served on each party. No service need be made on parties against whom a default has been entered, except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims against them shall be served in the manner provided for service of summons.

(b) Same; How Made. When service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party is ordered by the court. Service on the attorney or party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court. Delivery of a copy within this rule shall mean (1) handing it to the attorney or to the party or (2) leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof or (3) if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein or (4) if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his usual place of abode with some person of his family above fifteen years of age and informing such person of the contents. Service by mail shall be complete upon mailing.

(c) Same; Numerous Defendants. In actions when the parties are unusually numerous, the court may regulate the service contemplated by these rules on motion or on its initiative in such manner as may be found to be just and reasonable.

(d) Filing. All original papers shall be filed with the court either before service or immediately thereafter. If the original of any bond or other paper is not placed in the court file, a certified copy shall be so placed by the clerk.

(e) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and transmit them to the clerk.

(f) Certificate of Service. When any attorney shall certify in substance:

"I certify that copy hereof has been furnished to (here insert name or names) by (delivery) (mail) this _____ day of _____, 19....

Attorney"

the certificate shall be taken as prima facie proof of such service in compliance with these rules.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Common Law Rule 6 and Equity Rule 6.

Rule 1.090. TIME

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in which event the period shall run until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Enlargement. When an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time by order of court, by these rules or by notice given thereunder, for cause shown the court at any time in its discretion (1) with or without notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion made and notice after the expiration of the specified period, may permit the act to be done when failure to act was the result of excusable neglect but it may not extend the time for making a motion for new trial, motion for rehearing or motion to alter or amend a judgment or a motion for relief from a judgment under Rule 1.540(b) or for taking an appeal or filing petition for certiorari or for making a motion for a directed verdict.

(c) Unaffected by Expiration of Term. The period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding shall not be affected or limited by the continued existence or expiration of a term of court. The continued existence or expiration of a term of court in no way affects the power of a court to do any act or take any proceeding in any action which is or has been pending before it.

(d) For Motions. A copy of any written motion which may not be heard ex parte and a copy of the notice of the hearing thereof shall be served a reasonable time before the time specified for the hearing.

(e) Additional Time After Service by Mail. When a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceeding within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Committee Note: Based on Common Law Rule 3 and Federal Rule 6.

Rule 1.100. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint or when so designated by statute or rule, a petition, and an answer thereto; an answer to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third party complaint if a person who was not an original party is summoned as a third party defendant and a third party answer if a third party complaint is served. No other pleadings shall be allowed except the court may order a reply to an answer or third party answer.

(b) Motions. An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which shall be made in writing unless made during a hearing or trial, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(c) Contents. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the file number and a designation as in subdivision (a) or (b) of this rule and the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(d) Motion in Lieu of Scire Facias. Any relief available by scire facias may be granted on motion after notice without the issuance of a writ of scire facias.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Federal Rules 7(a), 10(a) and Common Law Rule 8.

Rule 1.110. GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

(a) Forms of Pleadings. Forms of action and technical forms for seeking relief and of pleas, pleadings or motions are abolished.

(b) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim must state a cause of action and shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, unless the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new grounds of jurisdiction to support it, (2) a short and plain statement of the ultimate facts showing that the pleader is entitled to relief and (3) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded. Every complaint shall be considered to pray for general relief.

(c) The Answer. In his answer a pleader shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments on which the adverse party relies. If the defendant is without knowledge, he shall so state and such statement shall operate as a denial. Denial shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and shall deny the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all of the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or he may generally deny all of the averments except such designated averments as he expressly admits, but when he does so intend to controvert all of its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, he may do so by general denial.

(d) Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court, on terms if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation. Affirmative defenses appearing on the face of a prior pleading may be asserted as grounds for a motion or defense under Rule 1.140(b); provided this shall not limit amendments under Rule 1.190 even if such ground is sustained.

(e) Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damages, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(f) Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in consecutively numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all subsequent pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense when a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

(g) Joinder of Causes of Action; Consistency. A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action or defenses in the same right as he has, and claims for relief may be stated in the alternative if separate items make up the cause of action, or if two or more causes of action are joined. A party may also set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently, would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has, regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or equitable grounds or both. All pleadings shall be construed so as to do substantial justice.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Common Law Rule 9, Equity Rules 28 and 34, and Federal Rule 8(a). Subsection (b) more closely conforms to Federal Rule 8(b) but the last sentence is similar to Federal Rule 54(c).

Rule 1.120. PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS

(a) Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or to be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the court. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with such particularity as the circumstances may permit. Malice, intent, knowledge, mental attitude and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Conditions Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment or Decree. In pleading a judgment or decree of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decree without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 10.

Rule 1.130. ATTACHING COPY OF CAUSE OF ACTION AND EXHIBITS

(a) Instruments Attached. All bonds, notes, bills of exchange, contracts, accounts or documents upon which action may be brought or defense made, or a copy thereof or a copy of the portions thereof material to the pleadings, shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleading. No papers shall be unnecessarily annexed as exhibits. The pleadings shall contain no unnecessary recitals of deeds, documents, contracts or other instruments.

(b) Part for all Purposes. Any exhibit attached to a pleading shall be considered a part thereof for all purposes. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion.

Committee Note: Consolidation of Common Law Rule 11 and Equity Rule 22. Subsection (b) includes language in Federal Rule 10(c).

Rule 1.140. DEFENSES

(a) When Presented. A defendant shall serve his answer within twenty days after service of original process and the original pleading upon him, or not later than the date fixed in a notice by publication, which date shall be not less than twenty-eight nor more than sixty days after the first publication of the notice. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within twenty days after service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his answer to a counterclaim within twenty days after service of the counterclaim, or if a reply is ordered by the court, within twenty days after service of the order unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion under this rule (except a motion for judgment on the pleadings) alters these periods of time as follows unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: (1) if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after notice of the court's action; (2) if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after service of the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required except that the following defenses may be made by motion at the option of the pleader: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) improper venue, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a cause of action, (7) failure to join indispensable parties. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. The grounds on which any of the enumerated defenses are based and the substantial matters of law intended to be argued shall be stated specifically and with particularity in the responsive pleading or motion. Any ground not so stated shall be deemed to be waived except any ground showing that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter may be made at any time. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed, but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses 1 to 7 in subdivision (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment in subdivision (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party unless the court orders that the hearing and determination shall be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within ten days after notice of the order or such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(f) Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within twenty days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the court's initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of Defenses. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except as provided in subdivision (h) of this rule.

(h) Waiver of Defenses. A party waives all defenses and objections which he does not present either by motion as herein provided or, if he has made no motion, in his answer or reply except (1) that the defense of failure to state a cause of action, the defense of failure to join an indispensable party, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings or at the trial on the merits and (2) that when it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall be disposed of as provided in Rule 1.190(b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Common Law Rule 13 and Equity Rule 33. Subsection (b), (6) is amended to restore demurrer practice to the extent of requiring the specific grounds of defensive motions to be stated.

Rule 1.150. SHAM PLEADINGS

(a) Motion to Strike. If a party deems any pleading or part thereof filed by another party to be a sham, he may move to strike said pleading or part thereof before the cause is set for trial and the court shall hear said motion, taking evidence of the respective parties, and if the motion is sustained, the pleading to which the motion is directed shall be stricken. Default and summary judgment on the merits may be entered in the discretion of the court or the court may permit additional pleadings to be filed for good cause shown.

(b) Same—Contents. The motion to strike shall be verified and shall set forth fully the facts on which the movant relies and may be supported by affidavit. No traverse of the motion shall be required.

Committee Note: Combination of Common Law Rule 14 and Equity Rule 32.

Rule 1.160. MOTIONS

All motions and applications in the clerk's office for the issuance of mesne process and final process to enforce and execute judgments, for entering defaults, and for such other proceedings in the clerk's office as do not require an order of court shall be deemed motions and applications grantable as of course by the clerk. The clerk's action may be suspended or altered or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Equity Rule 2.

Rule 1.170. COUNTERCLAIMS AND CROSS-CLAIMS

(a) Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, provided it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties over whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state a claim if (1) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action, or (2) the opposing party brought suit upon his claim by attachment or other process by which the court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on the claim and the pleader is not stating a counterclaim under this rule.

(b) Permissive Counterclaim. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counterclaim Against the State. These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits established by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the State or any of its subdivisions or other governmental organizations thereof subject to suit or against a municipal corporation or against an officer, agency or administrative board of the State.

(e) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading with the permission of the court.

(f) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence or excusable neglect or when justice requires, he may set up the counterclaim by amendment with leave of the court.

(g) Cross-Claim Against Co-Party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party rising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of either the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. The cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(h) Additional Parties May be Brought In. When the presence of parties other than those to the original action is required for the granting of complete relief in the determination of a counterclaim or cross-claim, the court shall order them to be brought in as defendants as provided in these rules if jurisdiction of them can be obtained and their joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction of the action.

(i) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 1.270(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered when the court has jurisdiction to do so even if a claim of the opposing party has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

(j) Demand Exceeding Jurisdiction; Transfer of Cause. If the demand of any counterclaim or cross-claim exceeds the jurisdiction of the court where the action is pending, the action shall be transferred forthwith to the court of the same county having jurisdiction of the demand in the counterclaim or cross-claim with only such alterations in the pleadings as are essential. The court shall order the transfer of the action and the transmittal of all papers therein to the proper court and thereupon the original papers shall be transmitted and filed, together with a certified copy of the order. The court to which the action is transferred shall have full power and jurisdiction over the demands of all parties.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Equity Rule 35, F.S. 52.11, and F.S. 52.12(1). Third party practice is provided for. See Federal Rule 14.

Rule 1.180. THIRD PARTY PRACTICE

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. At any time after commencement of the action a defendant as a third party plaintiff may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. The third party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if he files the third party complaint not later than twenty days after he serves his original answer; otherwise, he must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third party complaint, herein called the third party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rules 1.110 and 1.140 and his counterclaims against the third party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third party defendants as provided in Rule 1.170. The third party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff and the third party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in Rules 1.110 and 1.140 and his counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Rule 1.170. Any party may move to strike the third party claim or for its severance or separate trial. A third party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against the plaintiff, he may bring in a third party under circumstances which would entitle a defendant to do so under this rule.

Committee Note: See Federal Rule 14.

Rule 1.190. AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

(a) Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within twenty days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party and leave shall be given freely when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within twenty days after service of the amended pleading unless the court otherwise orders; provided that if a motion or pleading has been served in response to a prior pleading and a party does not plead or move in response to the amended pleading, the original response shall be considered as pleaded to the amended pleading.

(b) Amendments to Conform with the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment, but failure so to amend shall not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If the evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended to conform with the evidence and shall do so freely when the merits of the cause are more effectually presented thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. When the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment shall relate back to the date of the original pleading.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the court may permit him, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Amendments Generally. At any time in furtherance of justice, upon such terms as may be just, the court may permit any process, proceeding, pleading or record to be amended or material supplemental matter to be set forth in an amended or supplemental pleading. At every stage of the action the court must disregard any error or defect in the proceedings which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

Committee Note: Consolidation of Common Law Rule 15 and Equity Rules 26 and 36.

Rule 1.200. PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE

After all issues are settled the court may of its own motion or shall on motion of any party to the action require the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for conference to consider and determine:

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master for findings of fact for use by the court for pre-trial purposes;
- (6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court shall make an order reciting the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered and limiting the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel. The order shall control the subsequent course of the action unless modified at the trial to prevent injustice. The court may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration.

The court shall serve a copy of its order setting a pre-trial conference on the attorneys for the parties not less than twenty days prior to the conference. Upon failure of an attorney for a party to attend the conference, the court may dismiss the suit or strike the answer or take such action as justice requires.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 16 and Equity Rule 77. Subsection (5) is adapted from Federal Rule 16.

Rule 1.210. PARTIES

(a) Parties Generally. Every action may be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, but an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another or a party expressly authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. All persons having an interest in the subject of the action and in obtaining the relief demanded may join as plaintiffs and any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest adverse to the plaintiff. Any person may at any time be made a party if his presence is necessary or proper to a complete determination of the cause. Persons having a united interest may be joined on the same side as plaintiffs or defendants, and when anyone refuses to join, he may for such reason be made a defendant.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons. When an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a guardian or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. If an infant or incompetent person does not have a duly appointed representative, he may sue by his next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person.

(c) Trustees May Represent Beneficiaries. In actions concerning property to which title is vested in trustees, where such trustees are competent to sell and give discharges for the proceeds of the sale, or the rents, income or profits of the estate, all, or any of such trustees, shall represent the persons beneficially interested in the estate or the proceeds, or the rents, income or profits, and in such actions it shall not be necessary to make the persons beneficially interested in such property, or rents, income or profits, parties to the suit; but the court may order such persons beneficially interested to be made parties.

(d) Action to Execute Trusts of Will: Heir as Party. In actions to execute the trusts of a will, it shall not be necessary to make the heir at law a party but plaintiff may make the heir at law a party where he desires to have the will established against such heir.

Committee Note: Subsection (a) is substantially the same as Equity Rule 8. Subsection (b) is adapted from Equity Rule 15 and Federal Rule 17(c). Subsection (c) is Equity Rule 12. Subsection (d) is Equity Rule 13.

Rule 1.220. CLASS ACTIONS

When the question is one of common or general interest to many persons constituting a class so numerous as to make it impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the whole.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 14.

Rule 1.230. INTERVENTIONS

Anyone claiming an interest in pending litigation may at any time be permitted to assert his right by intervention, but the intervention shall be in subordination to, and in recognition of, the propriety of the main proceeding, unless otherwise ordered by the court in its discretion.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 9.

Rule 1.240. INTERPLEADER

Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claim of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties otherwise permitted.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Federal Rule 22(1).

Rule 1.250. MISJOINDER AND NON-JOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties shall not be ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 17.

Rule 1.260. SURVIVOR. SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

(a) Death.

(1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on all parties as provided in Rule 1.080 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided for the service of a summons. Unless the motion for substitution is made within 90 days after the death is suggested upon the record by service of a statement of the fact of the death in the manner provided for the service of the motion, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action shall not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court, upon motion served as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule, may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule.

(d) Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office.

(1) When a public officer is a party to an action in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

(2) When a public officer sues or is sued in his official capacity, he may be described as a party by his official title rather than by name but the court may require his name to be added.

Committee Note: Combination of Common Law Rule 19 and Equity Rules 10 and 19. Subsection (c) is from Federal Rule 25(c). Subsections (a) and (d) are changed to conform to Federal Rule 25(a) and (d).

Rule 1.270. CONSOLIDATION: SEPARATE TRIALS

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim or third party claim or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third party claims or issues.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Federal Rule 42.

Rule 1.280. DEPOSITIONS PENDING ACTION

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken. Any party may take the deposition of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination or written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery or for use as evidence in the action or for both purposes. After commencement of the action the deposition may be taken without leave of court except that leave, granted with or without notice, must be obtained if notice of the taking is served by the plaintiff within twenty days after service of process on the defendant. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoenas as provided by law. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

(b) Scope of Examination. Unless otherwise ordered by the court as provided herein, the deponent may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter of the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts. It is not ground for objection that the testimony will be inadmissible at the trial if the testimony sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) Examination and Cross Examination. Examination and cross examination of deponent may proceed as permitted at the trial.

(d) Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice thereof, in accordance with any one of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(2) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director or managing agent of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (1) That the witness is dead; or (2) that the witness is at a greater distance than one hundred miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (3) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (4) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness; or (5) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(4) If only a part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

(e) Substitution of Parties. Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken. When an action in any court of the United States or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor.

(f) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Rule 1.300(b) or Rule 1.330(c), objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(g) Effect of Taking or Using Deposition. A party shall not be deemed to make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of a deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of this rule. At the trial or hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

Committee Note: Based on Common Law Rule 20, Equity Rule 47(d), and Federal Rule 26.

Rule 1.290. DEPOSITIONS BEFORE ACTION OR PENDING APPEAL

(a) Before Action.

(1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in any court of this state may file a verified petition in the circuit court in the county of the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: (1) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in a court of Florida, but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought, (2) the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein, (3) the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it, (4) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known, and (5) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the deposition of the persons to be examined named in the petition for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court at a time and place named therein for an order described in the petition. At least twenty days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the county in the manner provided by law for service of summons but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make an order for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint an attorney for persons not served in the manner provided by law for service of summons who shall represent them, and if they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the deposition shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The deposition may then be taken in accordance with these rules and the court may make orders in accordance with the requirements of these rules. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in any court of Florida in accordance with the provisions of Rule 1.280(d).

(b) Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of any court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion for leave to take the deposition upon the same notice and service as if the action was pending in the court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each and (2) the reason for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay in justice, it may make an order allowing the deposition to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by these rules, and thereupon the deposition may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the court.

(c) Perpetuation by Action. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

(d) Deposition de bene esse. If a person desires to perpetuate the testimony of himself or another person about any matter cognizable in any court of this state and it is urgent to take such testimony because the person is bound on a voyage at sea, or is about to leave Florida, or to go out of the county in which the action may be instituted before the time of trial or when he is old or infirm, the deposition may be taken without complying with the requirements of subdivision (a) of this rule. Reasonable notice must be given in writing by the party proposing to take such deposition to those whom he expects to be adverse parties, which notice shall state the name of the witness or witnesses, the time and place of his deposition, the name of the officer taking it and the reason for taking such deposition. When the giving of such notice is impracticable because of the absence from the jurisdiction of the court of the prospective adverse party or for any other reason, such deposition may be taken upon such notice as the court in which the action may be instituted deems reasonable. Any person may be compelled to appear and testify as provided in this rule in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in court. Depositions to perpetuate testimony taken under this subsection may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in any court of Florida in accordance with and under the terms and conditions as provided in Rule 1.280(d).

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 21 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.300. PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN

(a) Persons Authorized. Depositions may be taken before any notary public or judicial officer or before any officer authorized by the statutes of Florida to take acknowledgments or proof of executions of deeds or by any person appointed by the court in which the action is pending.

(b) In Foreign Countries. In a foreign country depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of Florida or of the United States or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (herein name the country)". Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within Florida under these rules.

(c) Selection by Stipulation. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person at any time or place upon any notice and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

(d) Persons Disqualified. Unless so stipulated by the parties no deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel or is financially interested in the action.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 22 and Equity Rule 47(d). Subsection (b) is from Federal Rule 28(b).

Rule 1.310. DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

(a) Notice of Examination: Time and Place. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the court may enlarge or shorten the time for cause shown.

(b) Orders for the Protection of Parties and Deponents. After notice is served for taking a deposition by oral examination, upon motion seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories or that certain matters shall not be inquired into or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel or that after being sealed the deposition shall be opened only by order of the court or that secret processes, developments or research need not be disclosed or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court or the court may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment or oppression.

(c) Record of Examination: Oath: Objections: Submitting Written Cross Questions. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be recorded verbatim stenographically or by mechanical means and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition or to the manner of taking it or to the evidence presented or to the conduct of any party and any other objection to the proceedings shall be noted by the officer upon, or shall be attached to, the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition on motion of any party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the circuit court where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in subdivision (b) of this rule. If the order terminates the examination, it shall be resumed only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. In granting or refusing such order the court may impose upon either party or upon the witness the requirement to pay such costs or expenses as the court may deem reasonable.

(e) Submission to Witness: Changes: Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 1.330(d) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) Certification and Filing by Officer: Copies: Notice of Filing.

(1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope indorsed with the title of the action and marked "deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

(g) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena: Expenses.

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 23 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.320. DEPOSITIONS OF WITNESSES UPON WRITTEN INTERROGATORIES

(a) Serving Interrogatories; Notice. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon written interrogatories shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating the name and address of the person who is to answer them and the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. Within 10 days thereafter a party so served may serve cross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. Within 5 days thereafter the latter may serve redirect interrogatories upon a party who has served cross interrogatories. Within 3 days after being served with redirect interrogatories a party may serve re-cross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition.

(b) Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all interrogatories served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall promptly proceed to take the testimony of the witness in the manner provided by Rule 1.310(c), (e) and (f) in response to the interrogatories and to prepare, certify and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the interrogatories received by him.

(c) Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed, the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

(d) Orders for the Protection of Parties and Deponents. After the service of interrogatories and prior to the taking of the testimony of the deponent, the court in which the action is pending, on motion promptly made by a party or a deponent and upon notice and good cause shown, may make any order specified in Rule 1.340 which is appropriate and just or an order that the deposition shall not be taken before the officer designated in the notice or that it shall not be taken except upon oral examination.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 24 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.330. EFFECT OF ERRORS AND IRREGULARITIES IN DEPOSITIONS

(a) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(b) As to Disqualification of Officers. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(c) As to Taking of Deposition.

(1) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(2) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed or cured if promptly presented are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(3) Objections to the form of written interrogatories submitted under Rule 1.320 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other interrogatories and within three days after service of the last interrogatories authorized.

(d) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 1.310 and 1.320 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 25, Equity Rule 47(d) and Equity Rule 53.

Rule 1.340. INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES

Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may be served after commencement of the action and without leave of court, except that if service is made by the plaintiff within ten days after service of process on the defendant leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be first obtained. The interrogatories shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath. The answers shall be signed by the person making them and the party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers within twenty days after service of interrogatories unless the court, on motion and notice for good cause shown, enlarges or shortens the time. Within ten days after service of interrogatories a party may serve written objections thereto together with a notice of hearing the objections at the earliest practicable time. Answers to interrogatories to which objection is made shall be deferred until the objections are determined.

Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 1.280(b) and the answers may be used to the same extent as provided in Rule 1.280(d) for the use of the deposition of a party. Interrogatories may be served after a deposition has been taken and a deposition may be sought after interrogatories have been answered, but the court, on motion of the deponent or the party interrogated, may make such protective order as justice may require. The number of interrogatories or of sets of interrogatories to be served is not limited except as justice requires to protect the party from annoyance, expense, embarrassment or oppression. The provisions of Rule 1.310(b) are applicable for the protection of the party from whom answers to interrogatories are sought under this rule.

Answers made by a party shall not be binding on a co-party.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 26 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.350. DISCOVERY AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS

On motion of any party showing good cause therefor and upon notice to all parties and subject to the provisions of Rule 1.310(b), the court in which an action is pending may (1) order any party to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing by or on behalf of the moving party of any designated documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects or tangible things, not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence relating to any of the matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 1.280(b) and which are in his possession, custody or control or (2) order any party to permit entry upon designated land or other property in his possession or control for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying or photographing the property or any designated object or operation thereon within the scope of the examinations permitted by Rule 1.280(b). The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 27 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.360. EXAMINATION OF PARTIES AND PROPERTY

(a) Order for Examination. In any action in which the mental or physical condition of a party or injury to property is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order such party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or other qualified expert in advance of the trial or may order an examination of the property alleged to have been damaged or injured by the defendant or his agent or of the party alleged to have caused the damage or injury. The order may be made only on good cause shown and on notice to the party to be examined and to all other parties and to all persons in whose custody such property may then be and shall specify the time, place, manner, condition and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(b) Report of Findings.

(1) If requested by the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician or other expert, setting out his findings and conclusions. After such request and delivery the party causing the examination to be made shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party examined a like report of any examination of the same mental or physical condition previously or thereafter made. If the party examined refuses to deliver such report, on motion and notice the court may make an order requiring delivery on such terms as are just and if a physician or other such qualified expert fails or refuses to make such a report, the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 28 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.370. ADMISSION OF FACTS AND GENUINENESS OF DOCUMENTS

(a) Request for Admission. After commencement of an action a party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission by the latter of the genuineness of any relevant documents described in and exhibited with the request or of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth in the request. If a plaintiff desires to serve a request within ten days after service of process on the defendant, leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained. Copies of the documents shall be served with the request unless copies have already been furnished. Each of the matters of which an admission is requested shall be deemed admitted unless within a period designated in the request not less than twenty days after service thereof or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow on motion and notice, the party to whom the request is directed serves either (1) a sworn statement denying specifically the matters of which an admission is requested or setting forth in detail the reasons why he cannot truthfully admit or deny those matters or (2) written objections on the ground that some or all of the requested admissions are privileged or irrelevant or that the request is otherwise improper in whole or in part together with a notice of hearing the objections at the earliest practicable time. If written objections to a part of the request are made, the remainder of the request shall be answered within the period designated in the request. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission and when good faith requires that a party deny only a part or a qualification of a matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and deny only the remainder.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any admission made by a party pursuant to such request is for the purpose of the pending action only and neither constitutes an admission by him for any other purpose nor may be used against him in any other proceeding.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 29 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.380. REFUSAL TO MAKE DISCOVERY: CONSEQUENCES

(a) Refusal to Answer. If a party or other deponent refuses to answer any question propounded upon oral examination, the examination shall be completed on other matters or adjourned as the proponent of the question may prefer. Thereafter on reasonable notice to all parties and the deponent, the proponent of the question may apply to the circuit court in the county where the deposition is taken, if taken out of the county where the action is pending, or the court having jurisdiction of the action for an order compelling an answer. Upon the refusal of a deponent to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 1.320 or upon the refusal of a party to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 1.340, the proponent of the question may on like notice make like application for such an order. If the motion is granted and the court hearing the motion finds that the refusal was without substantial justification, it may enforce its order by contempt. The court having original jurisdiction of the action may require the refusing party or deponent and the party or attorney advising the refusal or either of them to pay to the examining party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order including reasonable attorney's fees. If the motion is denied by the court hearing it and said court finds that the motion was made without substantial justification, the court having original jurisdiction of the action may require the examining party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the refusing party or witness the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion including reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) Failure to Comply with order.

(1) Contempt. If a party or other witness refuses to be sworn or refuses to answer any question after being directed to do so by the circuit court in the county in which the deposition is being taken, the refusal shall be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Other Consequences. If any party or an officer or managing agent of a party refuses to obey an order made under subdivision (a) of this rule requiring him to answer designated questions or an order made under Rule 1.350 to produce any document or other thing for inspection, copying or photographing or to permit it to be done or to permit entry upon land or other property or an order made under Rule 1.360 requiring him to submit to a physical or mental examination, the court may make such orders in regard to the refusal as are just, and among others the following:

(i) An order that the matters regarding which the questions were asked or the character or description of the thing or land or the contents of the paper or the physical or mental condition of the party or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(ii) An order denying the disobedient party the privilege of supporting or opposing designated claims or defenses or prohibiting him from introducing in evidence designated documents or things or items of testimony or from introducing evidence of physical or mental condition;

(iii) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(iv) An order in lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto directing the arrest of any party or agent of a party for disobeying any of such orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

(c) Expenses on Refusal to Admit. If a party, after being served with a request under Rule 1.370 to admit the genuineness of any documents or the truth of any matters of fact, serves a sworn denial thereof and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of any such document or the truth of any such matter of fact, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making such proof including reasonable attorney's fees. Unless the court finds that there were good reasons for the denial or that the admissions sought were of no substantial importance, the order shall be made.

(d) Failure of Party to Attend or Serve Answers. If a party or an officer or managing agent of a party wilfully fails to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition after being served with a proper notice or fails to serve answers to interrogatories submitted under Rule 1.340 after proper service of such interrogatories, the court on motion and notice may strike out all or any part of any pleading of that party or dismiss the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or enter a judgment by default against that party.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 30 and Equity Rule 47(d).

Rule 1.390. DEPOSITIONS OF EXPERT WITNESSES

(a) Definition. The term "expert witness" as used herein applies exclusively to a person duly and regularly engaged in the practice of his profession who holds a professional degree from a university or college and has had special professional training and experience or one possessed of special knowledge or skill about the subject upon which he is called to testify.

(b) Procedure. The testimony of an expert or skilled witness may be taken at any time before the trial upon reasonable notice in the manner provided for taking depositions under Rule 1.280 or Rule 1.290 notwithstanding the residence of the witness; provided that the court may, upon proper objection by opposing counsel pursuant to due notice disallow the taking of such deposition and require the attendance of such witness in person at the trial if the court finds that such personal appearance at the trial is necessary to insure a fair and impartial trial. Such objection shall be made to the court before taking the deposition; otherwise, the same may be used in evidence if otherwise admissible. A deposition taken under this rule and any deposition taken of an expert witness under any other rule may be used in any manner permitted by Rule 1.280(d).

(c) Fee. An expert or skilled witness whose deposition is taken shall be allowed a witness fee in such reasonable amount as the court may determine and it shall be taxed as costs.

(d) Applicability. Nothing in this rule shall prevent the taking of any deposition as otherwise provided by law.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 47. See also F.S. 90.23.

Rule 1.400. DEPOSITION DEEMED PUBLISHED WHEN FILED

Upon the filing of any deposition or affidavit taken under any rule or statute it shall be deemed published, unless otherwise ordered by the court, and may be opened and examined by any party in the presence of the clerk. The clerk may unseal the deposition and file it with other papers in the court file.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Equity Rule 52.

Rule 1.410. SUBPOENA

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance. Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence signed and sealed but otherwise in blank to a party requesting it who shall fill it in before service without praecipe.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or tangible things designated therein but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents or tangible things. A party seeking production of evidence at trial which would be subject to a subpoena may compel such production by serving a notice to produce such evidence on an adverse party as provided in Rule 1.080(b). Such notice shall have the same effect and be subject to the same limitations as a subpoena served on the party.

(c) Service. A subpoena may be served by any person authorized by law to serve process or by any other person who is not a party and who is not less than twenty-one years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to him the fee for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the person making service if not served by an officer authorized by law to do so.

(d) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination.

(1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in Rules 1.310(a) or 1.320(a) constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein by the clerk of the court in which the action is pending. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce designated books, papers, documents or tangible things which constitute or contain evidence relating to any of the matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 1.280(b), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Rule 1.310(b) and subdivision (b) of this rule.

(2) A person may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person or at such other convenient place as may be fixed by an order of court.

(e) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

(f) Depositions before Commissioners Appointed in This State by Courts of Other States, Subpoena, Powers, etc. When any person authorized by the laws of Florida to administer oaths shall be appointed by a court of record of any other state, jurisdiction or government as commissioner to take the testimony of any named witness within this state, such witness may be compelled to attend and testify before such commissioner by witness subpoena issued by the clerk of any circuit court at the instance of said commissioner or by other process or proceedings in the same manner as if said commissioner had been appointed by a court of this state; provided that no document or paper writing shall be compulsorily annexed as an exhibit to such deposition or otherwise permanently removed from the possession of the witness producing it, but in lieu thereof, a photostatic copy may be annexed to and transmitted with such executed commission to the court of issuance.

Committee Note: An adaptation of Federal Rule 45.

Rule 1.420. Dismissal of actions

(a) Voluntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof.

(1) By Parties. Except in actions wherein property has been seized or is in the custody of the court, an action may be dismissed by plaintiff without order of court (i) by serving or during trial, by stating on the record, a notice of dismissal at any time before a hearing on motion for summary judgment, or if none is served or if such motion is denied, before retirement of the jury in a case tried before a jury or before submission of a nonjury case to the court for decision, or (ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when served by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court an action based on or including the same claim. If a lis pendens has been filed in the action, a notice or stipulation of dismissal under this paragraph shall be recorded and cancels the lis pendens without the necessity of an order of court.

(2) By Order of Court; If Counterclaim. Except as provided in the subdivision (a) (1) of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at a party's instance except on order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been served by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's notice of dismissal, the action shall not be dismissed against defendant's objections unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal. Any party may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him for failure of an adverse party to comply with these rules or any order of court. After a party seeking affirmative relief in an action tried by the court without a jury has completed the presentation of his evidence, any other party may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the party seeking affirmative relief has shown no right to relief, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the party seeking affirmative relief or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or for improper venue or for lack of an indispensable party, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim or Third Party Claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim.

(d) Costs. Costs in any action dismissed under this rule shall be assessed and judgment for costs entered in that action. If a party who has once dismissed a claim in any court of this State commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same adverse party, the court shall make such order for the payment of costs of the claim previously dismissed as it may deem proper and shall stay the proceedings in the action until the party seeking affirmative relief has complied with the order.

(e) Failure to Prosecute. All actions in which it does not affirmatively appear from some action taken by filing of pleadings, order of court or otherwise that the same is being prosecuted for a period of one year shall be deemed abated for want of prosecution and shall be dismissed by the court on its own motion or on motion of any interested person, whether a party to the action or not, after notice to the parties; provided that actions so dismissed may be reinstated on motion for good cause, such motion to be served by any party within one month after such order of dismissal.

Committee Note: See Federal Rule 41 and 45.19(1) F.S.

Rule 1.430. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL—WAIVER

(a) Right Preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by the Constitution or by statute shall be preserved to the parties in violation.

(b) Demand. Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving upon the other party a demand therefor in writing at any time after commencement of the action and not later than ten days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. The demand may be indorsed upon a pleading of the party.

(c) Specification of Issues. In his demand a party may specify the issues which he wishes so tried; otherwise, he is deemed to demand trial by jury for all issues so triable. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues triable by jury ten days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order.

(d) Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule shall constitute a waiver by him of trial by jury. If waived, a jury trial may not be granted without the consent of the parties. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 31.

Rule 1.440. SETTING CASES FOR TRIAL

(a) When at Issue. An action is at issue after any motions directed to the last pleading served have been disposed of or if no such motions are served, twenty days after service of the last pleading.

(b) Notice that Cause is at Issue. Thereafter any party may file and serve a motion that the action be tried and thereupon the clerk shall notify the court and the action shall be set for trial as provided in subdivision (c) of this rule.

(c) When Set. When the motion that the action be tried is filed, the court shall set the action for trial and notify all parties in writing of the trial date; provided no trial date shall be less than thirty days from the service of notice of the trial date unless all parties agree to a shorter time. An action shall not be set for trial if the parties so stipulate with the approval of the court. By giving the same notice the court may set a case for trial of its own motion.

Committee Note: New rule in 1965.

Rule 1.450. EVIDENCE

(a) Adverse Witness. A party may interrogate any unwilling or hostile witness by leading questions. A party may call an adverse party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a public or private corporation or of a partnership or association which is an adverse party and interrogate him by leading questions and contradict and impeach him in all respects as if he had been called by the adverse party and the witness thus called may be contradicted and impeached by or on behalf of the adverse party also and may be cross-examined by the adverse party only upon the subject matter of his examination in chief.

(b) Record of Excluded Evidence. In an action tried by a jury if an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the court, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness. The court may require the offer to be made out of the hearing of the jury. The court may add such other or further statement as clearly shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made and the ruling thereon. In actions tried without a jury the same procedure may be followed except that the court upon request shall take and report the evidence in full unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the witness is privileged.

(c) Filing. When documentary evidence is introduced in an action, the clerk or the judge shall endorse an identifying number or symbol on it and when proffered or admitted in evidence, it shall be filed by him and considered in the custody of the court and not withdrawn except with written leave of court.

(d) Disposal. The clerk shall retain exhibits introduced in evidence or marked for identification; provided (1) that the court may order any such exhibit returned to either party and (2) the clerk may destroy or dispose of such exhibits under order of court after notice to all parties or by stipulation of the parties.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Common Law Rules 37 and 38 and Federal Rule 43(b) and (c).

Rule 1.460. CONTINUANCES

(a) Motion For. A motion for continuance may be made only before or at the time the case is set for trial, unless good cause for failure to do so is shown or unless the ground for the motion arose after the action was set for trial.

(b) Contents. The motion shall be in writing. It shall state fully and clearly all of the facts which the movant conceives may entitle him to a continuance. If continuance is sought on the ground of non-availability of a witness, the motion must show when it is believed the witness will be available.

(c) For What Time. No continuance shall be granted for any longer time than the ends of justice require.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Common Law Rule 34.

Rule 1.470. EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

(a) Adverse Ruling. For appellate purposes no exception shall be necessary to any adverse ruling, order, instruction or thing whatsoever said or done at the trial or prior thereto or after verdict, which was said or done after objection made and considered by the trial court and which affected the substantial rights of the party complaining and which is assigned as error.

(b) Instructions To Jury. Not later than at the close of the evidence, the parties shall file written requests that the court charge the jury on the law set forth in such requests. The court shall then require counsel to appear before it to settle the charges to be given. At such conference all objections shall be made and ruled upon and the court shall inform counsel of such general charges as it will give. No party may assign as error the giving of any charge unless he objects thereto at such time or the failure to give any charge unless he requested the same. The court shall charge the jury after the arguments are completed.

(c) Orders on New Trial, Directed Verdicts, etc. It shall not be necessary to object or except to any order granting or denying motions for new trials, directed verdicts or judgments non obstante veredicto or in arrest of judgment to entitle the party against whom such ruling is made to have the same reviewed by an appellate court.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 39.

Rule 1.480. MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT

(a) Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by the adverse party may offer evidence in the event the motion is denied without having reserved the right to do so and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. The denial of a motion for a directed verdict shall not operate to discharge the jury. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. The order directing a verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.

(b) Reservation of Decision on Motion. When a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all of the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Within ten days after the reception of a verdict a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict or if a verdict was not returned, such party may move for judgment in accordance with the motion for a directed verdict within ten days after the jury has been discharged.

(c) Joined with Motion for New Trial. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion or a new trial may be requested in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned, the court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 40.

Rule 1.490. MASTERS

(a) General Masters. Judges of the circuit court may appoint as many general masters in chancery from among the members of the bar in such circuit as the judges find necessary, and such general masters shall continue in office until removed by the court. The appointment shall be recorded. Every person appointed as general master in chancery shall take the oath required of officers by the Constitution of Florida and the oath shall be recorded before the master discharges any duties of his office.

(b) Special Masters. The court may appoint members of The Florida Bar as special masters in chancery for any particular service required by it, and they shall be governed by all the provisions of law and rules relating to masters in chancery except that they shall not be required to make oath or give bond unless required by the court. Upon a showing that such appointment is advisable, a person other than a member of the bar may be appointed as special master.

(c) Reference. When a reference is made to a master, the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the reference is made shall present the matter to the master for hearing with reasonable dispatch. If such party omits to do so, any other party may commence proceedings before the master at the cost of the party procuring the reference.

(d) General Powers and Duties. Every master in chancery shall perform, under the direction of the court, all the duties which pertain to the office according to the practice in chancery. Process issued by a master shall be directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the State. Hearings before any master, examiner or commissioner shall be held in the county in which the action is pending, except that hearings may be held at any place by leave of court or stipulation of the parties within or without the State to meet the convenience of the witnesses or the parties. All grounds of disqualification of a circuit judge shall apply to masters.

(e) Bond. The court may require masters in chancery who are appointed to dispose of real or personal property or appointed as receivers or when not otherwise provided by law to give bond and surety in such manner and with such penalty for the payment of all moneys which may come into their hands and for the due performance of their duties as the court may direct. Such bond shall be made payable to the State of Florida and shall be for the benefit of all persons aggrieved by any act of the person required to give such bond.

(f) Hearings. Upon every reference the master shall assign a time and place for proceedings as soon as he reasonably can after it is brought before him and give notice to each of the parties and if any party fails to appear, the master may proceed ex parte or in his discretion, may adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of such adjournment. The master shall proceed with reasonable diligence in every reference and with the least practicable delay. Any party may apply to the court for an order to the master to speed the proceedings and to make his report and to certify to the court the reason for any delay. The evidence in all examinations shall be taken down in writing by the master or by some other person by his authority in his presence and shall be filed with his report.

(g) Procedure. The master shall regulate all the proceedings before him. He shall have full authority to examine the parties on oath upon all matters contained in the reference and to require production of all books, papers, writings, vouchers and other documents applicable thereto and to examine on oath orally all witnesses produced by the parties before him or by deposition or otherwise and to direct the manner in which the matters requiring evidence are proved before him and generally to do all other acts and direct all other inquiries and proceedings which he may deem necessary and proper.

(h) Form of Accounts. All parties accounting before a master shall bring in their accounts in the form of accounts payable and receivable and any other parties who are not satisfied with the account may examine the accounting party orally or upon interrogatories or by deposition as the master directs.

(i) Former Proofs May Be Used. All affidavits, depositions and documents which have been made, read or used previously in the action may be used before the master.

(j) Claimants Examinable by Master. The master may examine any creditor or other person claiming before him either on written interrogatories or orally or both.

(k) Master's Report. In the reports made by the master no part of any statement of facts, account, charge, affidavit, deposition, examination or answer used before him shall be recited. Such matters shall be identified to inform the court what items were used.

(l) Filing of Master's Report; Notice; Exceptions; Hearing. The master shall file his report in the clerk's office and serve copies on the parties. The parties may serve exceptions to the report within ten days from the time it is served on them. If no exceptions are filed within said period, the court shall take appropriate action on the report. If exceptions are filed, they shall be heard on reasonable notice by either party.

Committee Note: Taken from Equity Rules 54 through 65.

Rule 1.500. DEFAULTS AND FINAL JUDGMENTS THEREON

(a) By the Clerk. When a party against whom affirmative relief is sought has failed to file or serve any paper in the action, the party seeking relief may have the clerk enter a default against the party failing to serve or file such paper.

(b) By the Court. When a party against whom affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by these rules or any applicable statute or any order of court, the court may enter a default against such party; provided that if such party has filed or served any paper in the action, he shall be served with notice of the application for default.

(c) Right to Plead. A party may plead or otherwise defend at any time before default is entered.

(d) Setting Aside Default. The court may set aside a default and if a final judgment consequent thereon has been entered, the court may set it aside in accordance with Rule 1.540(b).

(e) Final Judgment. Final judgments after default may be entered by the court at any time but no such judgment may be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator or other representative who has appeared therein. If it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damage or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter to enable the court to enter judgment or to effectuate it, the court may receive affidavits, make references or conduct hearings as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when required by the Constitution or any statute.

Committee Note: Adapted from Federal Rule 55.

Rule 1.510. SUMMARY JUDGMENT

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may move for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof with or without supporting affidavits at any time after the expiration of twenty days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may move for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof at any time with or without supporting affidavits.

(c) Motion and Proceedings Thereon. The motion shall be served at least twenty days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party may serve opposing affidavits prior to the day of hearing. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. On motion under this rule if judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial or the taking of testimony and a final hearing is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall ascertain, if practicable, what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. On the trial or final hearing of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established and the trial or final hearing shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories or by further affidavits.

(f) When Affidavits Are Unavailable. If it appears from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

Committee Note: Consolidation of Common Law Rule 43 and Equity Rule 40, with subsection (h) of Equity Rule 40 dropped.

Rule 1.520. VIEW

Upon motion of either party the jury may be taken to view the premises or place in question or any property, matter or thing relating to the controversy between the parties when it appears that view is necessary to a just decision but the party making the motion shall advance a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of the jury and the officer who attends them in taking the view, which expense shall be taxed as costs if the party who advanced it prevails.

Rule 1.530. MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIALS AND REHEARING; AMENDMENTS OF JUDGMENTS

(a) Jury and Non-Jury Actions. A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or a part of the issues. On a motion for a rehearing of matters heard without a jury, including summary judgments, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony and enter a new judgment.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial or for rehearing shall be served not later than ten days after the rendition of verdict or the entry of judgment. A timely motion may be amended to state new grounds in the discretion of the court at any time before the motion is determined.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for a new trial is based on affidavits, they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than ten days after entry of judgment or within the time of ruling on a timely motion for a rehearing or a new trial made by a party, the court of its own initiative may order a rehearing or a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a rehearing or a new trial on motion of a party.

(e) When Motion for Unnecessary; Non-Jury Case. When an action has been tried by the court without a jury, the sufficiency of the evidence to support the judgment may be raised on appeal by an assignment of error whether or not the party raising the question has made any objection thereto in the trial court or made a motion for rehearing, new trial or to alter or amend the judgment.

(f) Order Granting to Specify Grounds. All orders granting a new trial shall specify the particular and specific grounds therefor.

(g) Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than ten days after entry of the judgment except that this rule does not affect the remedies in Rule 1.540(b).

Committee Note: See Federal Rules 59 and 52(b).

Rule 1.540. RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT, DECREES OR ORDERS

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, decrees or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time on its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. During the pendency of an appeal such mistakes may be so corrected before the record on appeal is docketed in the appellate court and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate court.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, decree, order or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial or rehearing; (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment or decree is void; (5) the judgment or decree has been satisfied, released or discharged or a prior judgment or decree upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated or it is no longer equitable that the judgment or decree should have prospective application. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, decree, order or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this subdivision does not affect the finality of a judgment or decree or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, decree, order or proceeding or to set aside a judgment or decree for fraud upon the court.

Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment or decree shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Federal Rule 60.

Rule 1.550. EXECUTIONS AND FINAL PROCESS

(a) Issuance. Executions on judgments shall issue on the request of the party entitled thereto or his attorney without praecipe. No execution or other final process shall issue until the judgment on which it is based has been recorded nor within the time for serving a motion for new trial or rehearing and if a motion for new trial or rehearing is timely served, until it is determined; provided execution may be issued on special order of the court.

(b) Stay. The court before which an execution or other process based on a final judgment is returnable may stay such execution or other process and suspend proceedings thereon for good cause on motion and notice to all adverse parties.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 50. See also Section 62.16 F.S. Subsection (b) is Section 55.38 F.S.

Rule 1.560. DISCOVERY IN AID OF EXECUTION

In aid of a judgment, decree or execution the judgment creditor or his successor in interest, when that interest appears of record, may examine any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules for taking depositions.

Committee Note: See Federal Rule 69(a).

Rule 1.570. ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL JUDGMENTS

Final process to enforce any judgment may be by execution or other appropriate process or proceedings if the judgment is solely for the payment of money. If the judgment is for the performance of any specific act, as for example, for the execution of a conveyance of land or the delivering of deeds or other documents, the judgment shall prescribe the time within which the act shall be done and upon affidavit that the judgment has not been complied with within the prescribed time, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment against the delinquent party, from which he shall not be discharged except upon a full compliance with the judgment and the payment of all costs or upon a special order of the court enlarging the time for the performance thereof. If the delinquent party cannot be found, a writ of sequestration shall issue against his estate to compel obedience to the judgment. When a judgment is made for a conveyance, release or acquittance of land or any interest therein and the party against whom the judgment is entered does not comply therewith by the time prescribed, then such judgment shall be considered to have the same operation and effect as if the conveyance, release or acquittance had been executed conformably to it; notwithstanding any disability of such parties by infancy, lunacy, coverture or otherwise. If any other judgment, injunction or mandatory order for the specific performance of any act or contract is not complied with, the court may hold the disobedient party for contempt or may sequester his property or order that the act required be done, so far as practicable, by some other person appointed by the court at the cost of the disobedient party and the act, when so done, shall have like effect as if done by such party.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 67.

Rule 1.580. WRIT OF ASSISTANCE

When any judgment or order is for the delivery of possession, upon affidavit of a demand and refusal to obey the judgment or order, the party prosecuting the same shall be entitled to a writ of assistance issued by the clerk on order of the court.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 69.

Rule 1.590. PROCESS IN BEHALF OF AND AGAINST PERSONS NOT PARTIES

Every person who is not a party to the action who has obtained an order, or in whose favor an order has been made, may enforce obedience to such order by the same process as if he were a party and every person, not a party, against whom obedience to any order may be enforced shall be liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to such orders as if he were a party.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 72.

Rule 1.600. DEPOSITS IN COURT

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party may deposit all or any part of such sum or thing with the court upon notice to every other party and by leave of court. Money paid into court under this rule shall be deposited and withdrawn by order of court.

Committee Note: See Federal Rule 67.

Rule 1.610. INJUNCTIONS

(a) Issuance. No injunction shall be granted until a complaint therefor is filed.

(b) Temporary Injunction; Notice; Bond. No temporary injunction shall be granted except after notice to the adverse party unless it is manifest from the allegations of a verified complaint or supporting affidavits that the injury will be done if an immediate remedy is not afforded and in such event the court may grant a temporary injunction until a hearing or further order of court. When a temporary injunction is granted, the court shall require the party obtaining it to give bond conditioned for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is wrongfully enjoined unless the court, after taking evidence from all parties of the truth of the complaint and the fact that the party seeking the temporary injunction is unable to give bond, finds such to be true, in which event a temporary injunction without bond may be granted. When any injunction is issued on the complaint of a municipality or the State or any officer, agency or political subdivision thereof, the Court, in its discretion having due regard to the public interest, may require or dispense with the requirement of a bond, with or without surety, and conditioned as the circumstances may require.

(c) Motion to Dissolve. Any party against whom an injunction has been granted may move to dissolve it at any time.

(d) Evidence. Either party may present evidence at any hearing on an application for or motion to dissolve an injunction. On hearing the court may grant, dissolve or continue the injunction or may require bond.

(e) To Stay Other Proceedings. No injunction to stay other proceedings shall issue except on motion and notice to the adverse party, nor unless the party applying therefor has previously paid all costs of the other proceeding and gives a bond payable to the adverse party in the other proceeding and conditioned (1) to pay to plaintiff all damages, losses, expenses and charges which he may have sustained or have been put to by reason of the issuing of the injunction if the injunction is dissolved or if the complaint upon which it was granted is dismissed, if the application is to stay proceedings before verdict or inquest of damages; or (2) to pay the debt, interest and such damages as may be occasioned by the wrongful issuing of said injunction if said injunction is dissolved or the complaint upon which it is granted is dismissed if the application is to stay the proceedings after verdict or inquest of damages.

Committee Note: Equity Rule 73. See also Federal Rule 65(c) and 64.01 through 64.06 F.S.

Rule 1.620. RECEIVERS

(a) Notice. The provisions of Rule 1.610 as to notice shall apply to applications for the appointment of receivers.

(b) Report. Every receiver shall file in the clerk's office a true and complete inventory under oath of the property coming under his control or possession under his appointment within twenty days after his appointment. Every three months unless the court otherwise orders the receiver shall file in the same office an inventory and account under oath of any additional property or effects which he has discovered or which shall have come to his hands since his appointment and of the amount remaining in his hands or invested by him and of the manner in which the same is secured or invested, stating the balance due from or to him at the time of rendering his last account and his receipts and expenditures since that time. When a receiver neglects to file the inventory and account, the court shall enter an order requiring the receiver to file such inventory and account and to pay out of his own funds the expenses of the order and the proceedings thereon within not more than twenty days after service of a copy of such order upon him.

(c) Bond. The court may grant leave to put the bond of the receiver in suit against the sureties without notice to the sureties of the application for such leave.

Committee Note: Adaptation of Equity Rule 74.

Rule 1.630. SCIRE FACIAS

All writs of scire facias shall be returnable and served in the same manner as summons. The rules about time and manner of pleading shall apply as in other actions.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 52.

Rule 1.640. CERTIORARI

(a) Petition to be Supported by Transcript or Original Record and Brief. An application for a writ of certiorari to the circuit court shall be made by petition filed within sixty days from the date of the proceeding, order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed. It shall be ac-accompanied by either the original record or a certified transcript of the record of the proceedings the petitioner seeks to have reviewed or so much thereof as is essential. Unless shown by another party to be necessary, no other record shall be required. The petition shall contain a concise statement of the proceeding and the reasons relied on for granting the writ and shall be accompanied by a supporting brief.

(b) Respondent to be Served with Petition and Transcript. A copy of the petition, the supporting brief and the transcript, if made, shall be served on the defendant at the time notice of application for the writ is filed with the clerk.

(c) Respondent's Brief—When Filed. The defendant shall serve his brief in opposition to the writ within ten days after he has been served with petitioner's brief.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 55.

Rule 1.650. PROHIBITION

(a) Petition For. An application for writ of prohibition in the circuit court shall be made by petition stating the nature of the proceeding sought to be prohibited. The petition shall state the nature of the action and the proceedings in the court or body presuming to exercise the jurisdiction sought to be prohibited. The original record or any transcript shall be transmitted with the petition in the same form and manner as required by Rule 1.640(a) for certiorari.

(b) Issuance of Order. If the petition makes a prima facie case, the court may issue an order to the defendants, commanding them to show cause on a day certain why the writ should not be granted.

(c) Defendant's Return. Not later than the return day the defendant shall serve such pleadings as they deem proper.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 56.

Rule 1.660. MANDAMUS

(a) Petition For—Alternative Writ. Proceedings in mandamus in the circuit court shall be instituted by petition stating briefly the basis for the relief sought. If the petition makes a prima facie case, the court may either issue the alternative writ or an order to show cause why an alternative writ should not be granted returnable on a day certain.

(b) Defendant's Return—When. After the alternative writ issues, the defendant shall plead thereto as he deems proper on or before the return day.

(c) Amendments. When any alternative writ of mandamus is issued, the court shall allow such writ to be amended upon request of the petitioner without amending the petition.

(d) Issuance of Peremptory Writ. When any such writ is well founded, a peremptory writ may issue without further amendments to the extent that the writ is well founded.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 57.

Rule 1.670. QUO WARRANTO

(a) By Whom Instituted. Proceedings in quo warranto, including informations in the nature of quo warranto, may be instituted in the circuit court by petition in the name of the State by the Attorney General or by any person claiming title to the office or franchise on the refusal of the Attorney General.

(b) Governed by Rules on Mandamus. The petition shall conform with statutes governing quo warranto. Rule 1.660 shall apply to and govern as near as may be the pleadings and procedure in quo warranto.

(c) Judgment of Ouster. When any such petition is well founded, a judgment of ouster may issue without further amendments to the extent that such petition is well founded.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 58.

Rule 1.680. CONSTITUTIONAL STAY WRITS

(a) After Appeal and Notice. Application for constitutional or other writs necessary to the complete exercise of the jurisdiction of the circuit court may be entertained by said court only after reasonable notice of the application for such writ has been given to other parties.

(b) Final Adjudication on Merits. When it appears on the application for the writ that the ends of justice will be served best by disposing of the action on the merits, the court may deny the application and proceed accordingly.

Committee Note: Taken from Common Law Rule 60.

Rule 1.690. ATTACHMENT

When Returnable, Property Seized. A writ of attachment is returnable when fully executed or when the officer is convinced that no property can be found. If property is seized under the writ, the writ shall be returned when the property seized finally passes from the lien of said writ and control of the officer levying it. At the time of each action taken under said writ, the officer shall endorse such action thereon.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 44.

Rule 1.700. EJECTMENT

(a) Landlord Not a Defendant. When it appears before a trial that a defendant in an action of ejectment is in possession as a tenant only and that his landlord is not a party to the action, the landlord shall be made a party before further proceeding unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(b) Defense May Be Limited. Any defendant in an action of ejectment may limit his defense to a part of the property mentioned in the complaint, describing such part with reasonable certainty.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 46.

(c) Writs of Possession—Execution to Be Joint or Several. When the plaintiff recovers in ejectment, he may have one writ for possession and damages and costs or, if he so elects, have separate writs, one for possession and one for damages.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 47.

(d) Chain of Title. The plaintiff with his complaint and the defendant with his answer shall serve a statement setting forth chronologically the chain of title on which he will rely at the trial. If any part of the chain of title is recorded, the statement shall set forth the names of the grantors and the grantees and the book and page of the record thereof; if an unrecorded instrument is relied on, a copy shall be attached. The court may require the original to be submitted to the opposite party for inspection. If the party relies upon a claim or right without color of title, such statement shall specify how and when such claim originated and the facts upon which such claim is based. If the defendant and plaintiff claim under a common source, the statement need not deraign title prior to such common source.

(e) Testing Sufficiency. If either party desires to test the legal sufficiency of any instrument or court proceeding in the chain of title of the opposite party, he shall do so before trial by motion setting up his objections with a copy of such instrument or court proceedings attached. The motion shall be disposed of before trial. If either party determines that he will be unable to maintain his claim by reason of such order, he may so state in the record and final judgment shall thereupon be entered for the opposite party.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 48.

Rule 1.710. GARNISHMENT

(a) Time for Traverse. When any garnishee answers and the plaintiff is not satisfied with the answer, he shall serve a statement within ten days thereafter traversing the allegations of the answer in such particulars as he desires. On failure of the plaintiff to file such traverse, the answer shall be taken as true and on proper disposition of the assets, if any are disclosed thereby, the garnishee shall be entitled to an order as of course discharging him from further liability under the writ.

(b) Default, Scire Facias and Judgment. If the garnishee fails to appear or answer as required, a default and judgment shall be entered against him for the amount of plaintiff's claim together with interest. On the entry of judgment a scire facias shall issue against the garnishee returnable within ten days and in the case of failure sufficiently to answer the scire facias, a final judgment shall be entered against said garnishee; provided that no final judgment against a garnishee shall be entered before the entry of, or in excess of, the final judgment against the original defendant together with interest and costs.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 49.

Rule 1.720. HABEAS CORPUS

(a) Notice to Prosecuting Attorney. If the validity of any statute, criminal law proceeding or conviction is attacked by habeas corpus in the circuit court, notice of the application for the writ shall be given to the prosecuting attorney of the court in which the statute under attack is being applied, the criminal law proceeding is being maintained or the conviction has occurred.

(b) Defendant's Return. When the writ is issued the court shall set an early return date, at which time the formal return of the defendant shall be made. In the absence of a motion to quash or a motion for discharge notwithstanding the return, issue shall be deemed joined when the return is filed and the cause shall be considered as ready for final disposition.

Committee Note: Common Law Rule 59.

PROPOSED FORMS

FOR USE WITH THE

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Submitted by The Florida Bar

January 31, 1966

The following forms of process shall be sufficient in all actions. Departures from these forms shall not void papers which are otherwise sufficient and the forms may be varied when necessary to meet the facts of a particular case.

The following forms of complaints and petitions are sufficient for the types of cases which they respectively cover. They are intended for illustration only. They and like forms may be used with such modifications as may be necessary to meet the facts of each particular case so long as the substance thereof is expressed without prolixity.

Form 1.949 FLORIDA STANDARD JURY INSTRUCTIONS

The forms of Florida Standard Jury Instructions published by The Florida Bar pursuant to authority of the Court may be used by the trial judges of this State in charging the jury in every civil case to the extent that the forms are applicable, unless the trial judge shall determine that an applicable form of instruction is erroneous or inadequate, in which event he shall modify or amend such form or give such other instruction as the trial judge shall determine to be necessary accurately and sufficiently to instruct the jury in the circumstances of the case; and, in such event, the trial judge shall state on the record or in a separate order the respect in which he finds the standard form erroneous or inadequate and the legal basis of his finding. Similarly, in all circumstances in which the notes accompanying the Florida Standard Jury Instructions contain a recommendation that a certain type of instruction not be given, the trial judge may follow such recommendation unless he shall determine that the giving of such an instruction is necessary accurately and sufficiently to instruct the jury, in which event he shall give such instruction as he shall deem appropriate and necessary; and, in such event, the trial judge shall state on the record or in a separate order the legal basis of his determination that such instruction is necessary.

Note: Form 1.949, Florida Standard Jury Instructions, was adopted by the Florida Supreme Court by per curiam opinions, January term, A. D. 1967, filed April 19 and May 12, 1967, respectively, "In the Matter of the Use by Trial Courts of the STANDARD JURY INSTRUCTIONS" (198 So.2d 319, 320).

FLORIDA RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

1967 REVISION

Order of the Supreme Court

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA
MARCH 1, TERM, A. D. 1967

IN RE: FLORIDA RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
1967 REVISION

Opinion filed March 1, 1967

PER CURIAM.

Appended to this Order is a complete compilation of the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure adopted pursuant to the power vested in this Court by Article V of the Florida Constitution, F.S.A. This compilation of the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure shall govern all proceedings within the scope of these rules after midnight December 31, 1967. This compilation shall supersede all conflicting rules and statutes. All statutes not superseded hereby or in conflict herewith shall remain in effect as rules promulgated by the Supreme Court.

Also appended to this Order regarding the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure are notes and comments of the Florida Court Rules Committee Subcommittee on Rules of Criminal Procedure. These committee notes and comments are not a part of the formal Order and do not have force of law or approval of this Court. They are merely included for whatever benefit they may have to the bench and bar.

Adopted and approved by the Court en banc on March 1, 1967.

It is so ordered.

THORNAL, C. J., THOMAS, ROBERTS, DREW, O'CONNELL, CALDWELL
and ERVIN, JJ., concur.

I SCOPE, PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

Rule 1.010 SCOPE

These rules shall govern the procedure in all criminal proceedings in state courts.

Committee Note: These rules are not intended to apply to municipal courts, but are intended to apply to all state courts where "crimes" are charged.

Rule 1.020 PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

Purpose.—These rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every criminal proceeding. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure and fairness in administration.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Federal Rule 2.

II GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 1.030 SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND PAPERS

(a) Service; When Required.—Every pleading subsequent to the initial indictment, information or affidavit upon which defendant is to be tried unless the court otherwise orders, and every order not entered in open court, every written motion unless it is one as to which a hearing ex parte is authorized, and every written notice, demand and similar paper shall be served on each party; however, nothing herein shall be construed to require that a plea of not guilty shall be in writing.

(b) Same; How Made.—Where under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address, or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court who shall place it in the court file. Delivery of a copy within this rule shall mean: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or, leaving it at his office with his secretary or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his usual place of abode with some person of his family above fifteen years of age and informing such person of the contents thereof. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing.

(c) Filing.—All original papers, copies of which are required to be served upon parties, must be filed with the court either before service or immediately thereafter.

(d) Filing With the Court Defined.—The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and transmit them to the office of the clerk.

(e) Certificate of Service.—When any attorney shall in substance certify:

"I do certify that copy (copies) hereof have been furnished to (here insert name or names) by (delivery) (mail) this day of, 19....

Attorney"

the certificate shall be taken as prima facie proof of such service in compliance with all rules of court and law.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.040 COMPUTATION OF TIME

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act or event from which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be counted, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period shall run until the end of a next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed shall be less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.050 ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for good cause shown may, at any time, in its discretion (1) with or without notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion made and notice after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not, except as provided by statute or elsewhere in these rules, extend the time for making a motion for new trial, for taking an appeal, or for making a motion for a judgment of acquittal.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.060 TIME FOR SERVICE OF MOTIONS AND NOTICE OF HEARING

A copy of any written motion which may not be heard ex parte and a copy of the notice of the hearing thereof, shall be served on the adverse party a reasonable time before the time specified for the hearing.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.070 ADDITIONAL TIME AFTER SERVICE BY MAIL

Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Committee Note: This is the same as Rule 1.6(e), Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, except for the omission of subparagraph (c) of the civil rules which appears to be inapplicable to criminal cases.

Rule 1.080 PLEADINGS TO BE SIGNED BY ATTORNEY

Every written pleading or paper of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed in his individual name by such attorney, whose address shall be stated, and he may be required by an order of court to vouch for his authority to represent such party. Except when otherwise specifically provided by these rules, pleadings as such need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney shall constitute a certificate by him that he has read the pleading or paper; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading or paper is not signed, or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading or paper had not been served.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.090 PLEADINGS TO BE SIGNED BY UNREPRESENTED DEFENDANT

A defendant who has no attorney but represents himself shall sign his written pleading and state his address.

Committee Note: Taken from rules of civil procedure.

Rule 1.100 ATTORNEY NOT TO BE SURETY

No attorney or other officer of court shall enter himself or be taken as bail or surety in any proceeding in court on pain of being considered in contempt.

Committee Note: This rule is the same as Rule 1.5(c), Rules of Civil Procedure.

Rule 1.110 TELEVISION, PHOTOGRAPHING, RADIO BROADCASTING OF TRIAL

The taking of television pictures or other photographs in or of the courtroom during the progress of judicial proceedings or radio broadcasting of judicial proceedings from the courtroom shall not be permitted by the court.

Committee Note: This is the same as Federal Rule 53, except for the addition of "television" and the insertion "or of" the courtroom. This proposal was adopted unanimously by the committee.

III PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 1.120 COMMITTING MAGISTRATE

Each state judicial officer is a committing magistrate and may issue a warrant for the arrest of a person against whom a complaint, in writing and under oath, is made, when the complaint states facts which show a violation of a criminal law. The magistrate may commit an offender to jail or recognize him to appear before the proper court at its next ensuing term to answer the charge in the complaint, or may discharge him from custody.

Committee Note: This is substantially the same as part of 901.01 (the remaining part should be retained as a statute). It differs from the statute by requiring the complaint to be in writing and by identifying the initiating instrument as a "complaint," thus adopting the federal terminology which is more meaningful and modern. Some doubt was expressed as to whether the terms of the statute incorporated in the rule are within the rule making power of the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.121 ISSUANCE OF ARREST WARRANTS

(a) A warrant may be issued for the arrest of a person designated in a written complaint, under oath, when the complaint states facts which show that such person violated a criminal law of this state, within the jurisdiction of the magistrate before whom the complaint is made. The magistrate may take testimony under oath to determine if there is reasonable ground to believe the complaint is true.

(b) The warrant of arrest shall:

(1) Be in writing and in the name of the State of Florida;

(2) Set forth substantially the nature of the offense;

(3) Command that the person against whom the complaint was made be arrested and brought before the magistrate issuing the warrant or, if he is absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same County;

(4) Specify the name of the person to be arrested or, if his name is unknown to the magistrate, designate such person by any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty;

(5) State the date when issued and the County and justice district where issued;

(6) Be signed by the magistrate with the title of his office; and,

(7) In all offenses bailable as of right be endorsed with the amount of bail and the return date on the back of the warrant.

(c) No arrest warrant shall be dismissed nor shall any person in custody be discharged because of any defect as to form in the warrant; but, the warrant may be amended by the magistrate to remedy such defect.

Committee Note: (a) This is substantially the same as 901.02, except that the rule requires a written complaint. Also, the rule does not incorporate that seldom used part of the statute which permits the magistrate to issue an arrest warrant upon affidavits made before the prosecuting attorney.

(b) This is the same as 901.03.

(c) This is the same as 901.05, except for modernizing the language.

Rule 1.122 PRELIMINARY HEARING

(a) Duty of Magistrate.—When the defendant is brought before the magistrate upon an arrest, either with or without a warrant, on a complaint of having committed an offense, the magistrate shall immediately inform him:

(1) of the charge against him;

(2) of the purpose of a preliminary hearing;

(3) of his right to the aid of counsel during the preliminary hearing;

(4) of his right to have or to waive such hearing;

(5) of his right not to testify, and also caution him that in the event he does testify, anything that he says may be used against him in a subsequent hearing or proceeding.

(b) Waiver of Preliminary Hearing.—

(1) The defendant may waive a preliminary hearing and if he does so such waiver shall be in writing. If he waives preliminary hearing, the magistrate shall hold him to answer and shall either admit him to bail or commit him to custody.

(2) Notwithstanding a waiver of the hearing by the defendant, the magistrate, on the demand of the prosecuting attorney, shall examine the witnesses for the state and have their testimony reduced to writing or recorded verbatim stenographically or by mechanical means. After hearing the testimony if it appears that there is no probable cause to believe the defendant guilty of any offense, the magistrate shall order that he be discharged.

(c) Sending for Counsel.—The magistrate shall allow the defendant a reasonable time to send for counsel and shall, if necessary, postpone the hearing for such purpose. He shall also, upon request of the defendant, require an officer to communicate a message to such counsel in the county as the defendant may name. The officer shall with diligence and without cost to the defendant perform that duty.

(d) Magistrate to Proceed With Hearing Unless Waived.—

(1) If the defendant waives the aid of counsel, the magistrate shall immediately proceed to examine the case unless the defendant waives hearing.

(2) If the defendant requests the aid of counsel the magistrate shall, immediately after the appearance of counsel, or, after waiting a reasonable time therefor, if none appears, proceed to examine the case unless the defendant waives hearing.

(e) Postponement of Hearing.—The magistrate may for good cause postpone the hearing. If no postponement is ordered, the hearing shall be completed at one session. No postponement shall be for more than two days, nor shall the postponements in all exceed six days, except for exceptional circumstances.

(f) Bail After Postponement.—If a postponement is ordered, unless the defendant is already admitted to bail, the magistrate, if the defendant is bailable as of right, shall admit him to bail for his appearance at the time to which the hearing is postponed. If bail is not furnished, the magistrate shall commit him to custody for further hearing of the case.

(g) Summoning of Witnesses.—The magistrate shall issue such process as may be necessary to secure attendance of witnesses within the state, for the state or the defendant.

(h) Presence of Defendant and Cross-examination of Witnesses.—All witnesses shall be examined in the presence of the defendant and may be cross-examined.

(i) Examination of Witnesses for Defendant.—At the conclusion of the testimony for the prosecution the defendant shall, if he so elects, be sworn and testify in his own behalf, and in such cases be warned in advance that anything he may say can be used against him at a subsequent trial. He may be cross-examined as other witnesses; and, whether he testifies or not any witness produced by him shall be sworn and examined.

(j) Exclusion and Separation of Witnesses.—Prior to the examination of any witness in the cause, the magistrate may and on the request of the defendant shall exclude all other witnesses. He also may cause the witnesses to be kept separate and to be prevented from communicating with each other until all are examined.

(k) Testimony of Witnesses.—At the request of the prosecuting attorney the testimony of the witnesses and of the defendant, if he testifies, shall be recorded verbatim stenographically or by mechanical means, and transcribed. If the testimony, or any part thereof, is transcribed at the request of the prosecuting attorney, a copy of such testimony shall be furnished free of cost to defendant or his counsel.

(l) If from the evidence it appears to the magistrate that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the magistrate shall forthwith hold the defendant to answer to the court having trial jurisdiction, otherwise, the magistrate shall discharge him.

(m) Transmission of Papers by Magistrate.—

(1) When the magistrate has discharged the defendant, or has held him to answer, he shall transmit within 7 days thereafter to the clerk of the court having trial jurisdiction of the offense:

- (a) The complaint and warrant;
- (b) The written testimony of the witnesses if transcribed and filed;
- (c) The recognizance or undertaking for the appearance of witnesses;
- (d) A copy of the order discharging or holding the defendant;

(e) Every article, writing, money, or other exhibit received in evidence; provided, however, that such articles, writings, moneys, or other exhibits so used in evidence before said magistrate may be returned to the owner thereof upon written order of the judge of the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant.

(2) Any magistrate who refuses or fails to transmit the papers and articles so mentioned, may be ordered to do so by the court having trial jurisdiction of the offense charged and if he disobeys such orders may be held for contempt.

Committee Note: (a) Substantially the same as 902.01; the word "examination" is changed to "hearing" to conform to modern terminology.

(b through j) Substantially the same as 902.02 through 902.10 and 902.13 and 902.14, except for exchange of "hearing" for "examination."

(k) Parts of Section 902.11, and all of 902.12 were omitted because of conflict with case law: Escobedo v. State of Illinois, 378 U.S. 478, 84 S.Ct. 1758, 12 L.Ed.2d 977; White v. State of Maryland, 373 U.S. 59, 10 L.Ed. 2d 193, 83 S.Ct. 1050.

(l) Taken from Federal Rule 5(c). Previously Florida had no statute or rule defining what the magistrate should do at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing.

(m) Substantially the same as 902.18 except "without delay" changed to "within 7 days." Some specific time limit was felt necessary because of frequent delay by magistrates while defendants remain in jail.

Rule 1.130 BAIL

(a) Offenses Less Than Capital.—All persons in custody for the commission of an offense, not capital, shall before conviction be entitled as of right to be admitted to bail, and after conviction bail may be granted at the discretion of either the trial or appellate court.

(b) Notice of Application for Admission to Bail; Subsequent Application.—

(1) The court to which an application for admission to bail is made shall in all cases require written notice thereof to be given to the prosecuting attorney of the court having trial jurisdiction of the offense at least one hour before the hearing, unless notice is waived in writing by such prosecuting attorney.

(2) When a committing magistrate, not possessing trial jurisdiction orders a defendant held to answer before a court having jurisdiction to try the defendant, and bail has been denied or is alleged to be excessive, application by motion may be made to the court having jurisdiction to try defendant, or in the absence of the judge of said trial court, to the circuit court.

(3) In the event any trial court fixes bail and refuses its reduction before trial, the defendant may institute habeas corpus proceedings seeking reduction of bail. If application is made to the supreme court, or district court of appeal, notice shall be given to the attorney general.

(c) Application for Bail Denied.—If application for bail is made to an authorized court and denied, no court of inferior jurisdiction shall admit applicant to bail, unless such court of inferior jurisdiction is the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant.

(d) Bail Before Conviction; Condition of the Undertaking.—

(1) If a person is admitted to bail for his appearance for a preliminary hearing, or on a charge that a magistrate is empowered to try, the condition of the undertaking shall be that he will appear for such hearing, or to answer the charge, and will submit himself to the orders and process of the magistrate trying the same, and will not depart without leave.

(2) If he is admitted to bail after he has been held to answer by a magistrate, or after an indictment, information or affidavit on which he is to be tried has been filed against him, the condition of the undertaking shall be that he will appear to answer the charges before the court in which he may be prosecuted and submit to the orders and process of the court, and will not depart without leave.

(e) Bail on Appeal; Condition of the Undertaking.—If the defendant is admitted to bail after conviction and upon appeal, the condition of the undertaking shall be:

(1) That he will duly prosecute his appeal;

(2) That he will surrender himself in execution of the judgment or sentence upon its being affirmed or modified or upon the appeal being dismissed; or in case the judgment is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, that he will appear in the court to which said cause may be remanded and submit himself to the orders and process thereof, and will not depart without leave.

(f) Increase or Reduction of Bail.—The court in which a prosecution is pending may for good cause, after notice, either increase or reduce the amount of bail or require new or additional bail.

(g) Revocation of Bail.—The court in its discretion for good cause, any time after a defendant who is at large on bail appears for trial, may commit him to the custody of the proper official to abide the judgment, sentence and any further order of the court.

(h) Arrest and Commitment by Court.—The court in which the cause is pending may direct the arrest and commitment of the defendant who is at large on bail in the following cases:

(1) When there has been a breach of the undertaking;

(2) When it appears that his sureties or any of them are dead or cannot be found or are insufficient or have ceased to be residents of the state;

(3) When the court is satisfied that the bail should be increased or new or additional security required;

(4) When an indictment has been found against the defendant for an offense for which he is not bailable.

The order for the commitment of the defendant shall recite generally the facts upon which it is based, and shall direct that the defendant be arrested by any official authorized to make arrests, and that the defendant be committed to the official in whose custody he would be had he not been given bail, to be detained by such official until legally discharged. The defendant shall be arrested pursuant to such order upon a certified copy thereof, in any county, in the same manner as upon a warrant of arrest. If the order provided for is made because of the failure of the defendant to appear for judgment or because an indictment has been found against him, for an offense for which he is not bailable, the defendant shall be committed. If the order is made for any other cause and the defendant is bailable the court may fix the amount of bail and direct in the order that the defendant be admitted to bail in the sum fixed, which sum shall be specified in the order.

(i) Bail After Recommitment.—If the defendant applies to be admitted to bail after recommitment and he is bailable, he shall be admitted to bail by the court which recommitment him.

(j) Qualifications of Surety After Order of Recommitment.—If the defendant offers bail after recommitment, each surety shall possess the qualifications and sufficiency, and the bail shall be furnished in all respects in the manner, prescribed for admission to bail before recommitment.

Committee Note:

- (a) Same as 903.01.
- (b) Same as 903.04.
- (c) Same as 903.02.
- (d) Same as 903.12.
- (e) Substantially same as 903.13.
- (f) Same as 903.19.
- (g) Same as 918.01.
- (h) Substantially same as 903.23.
- (i) Same as 903.24.
- (j) Same as 903.25.

Although section (g) is the same as 918.01 its constitutionality was questioned by the subcommittee, constitutional right to bail and presumption of innocence.

Rule 1.140 INDICTMENTS, INFORMATION AND AFFIDAVITS

(a) Methods of Prosecution.—

(1) Capital Crimes.—An offense which may be punished by death shall be prosecuted by indictment.

(2) Other Crimes.—The prosecution of all other criminal offenses shall be as follows:

In criminal courts of record and in the Court of Record of Escambia County, prosecution shall be solely by information; in County Judge's Courts having elective prosecuting attorneys, by indictment, information or affidavit; in all courts not hereinabove mentioned which have elective prosecuting attorneys, by indictment or information; and in courts not having elective prosecuting attorneys, by indictment or affidavit. A grand jury may indict for any offense. When a grand jury returns an indictment for an offense not triable in the circuit court, the circuit judge shall commit or bail the accused for trial in a court having jurisdiction to try the offense, and such judge, or at his direction, the clerk of the circuit court shall certify the indictment and deliver it to the clerk of the court to which the accused is committed or bailed for trial or to the judge of such court if it has no clerk.

(b) Nature of Indictment, Information or Affidavit.—The indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried shall be a plain, concise and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged.

(c) Caption, Commencement and Date.—

(1) Caption.—No formal caption is essential to the validity of an indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried. Upon objection made as to its absence a caption shall be prefixed in substantially the following manner:

In the (name of court)

State of Florida versus (name of defendant)
Any defect, error or omission in a caption may be amended as of course, at any stage of the proceeding, whether before or after a plea to the merits, by court order.

(2) Commencement.—All indictments, informations or affidavits upon which the defendant is to be tried shall expressly state that the prosecution is brought in the name and by the authority of the State of Florida. Indictments shall state that the defendant is charged by the grand jury of the county. Informations shall state that the appropriate prosecuting attorney makes the charge.

(3) Date.—Every indictment, information or affidavit on which the defendant is to be tried shall bear the date (day, month, year) that it is filed in each court in which it is so filed.

(d) The Charge.—

(1) Allegation of Facts; Citation of Law

Violated.—Each count of an indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried shall allege the essential facts constituting the offense charged. In addition, each count shall recite the official or customary citation of the statute, rule, regulation or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged to have violated. Error in or omission of the citation shall not be ground for dismissing the count or for a reversal of a conviction based thereon if the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his prejudice.

(2) Name of Accused.—The name of the accused person shall be stated, if known, and if not known, he may be described by any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. If the grand jury, prosecuting attorney or affiant making the charge does not know either the name of the accused or any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty, the indictment, information or affidavit, as the case may be, shall so allege and the accused may be charged by a fictitious name.

(3) Time and Place.—Each count of an indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried shall contain allegations stating as definitely as possible the time and place of the commission of the offense charged in the count.

(4) Joinder of Offenses.—Two or more offenses which are triable in the same court may be charged in the same indictment, information or affidavit in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged, whether felonies or misdemeanors or both, are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or transactions connected together, provided the court in which the indictment, information or affidavit is filed has jurisdiction to try all of the offenses charged.

(5) Joinder of Defendants.—Two or more defendants may be charged in the same indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and all of the defendants need not be charged in each count.

(6) Allegation of Intent to Defraud.—When an intent to defraud is required as an element of the offense to be charged, it shall be sufficient to allege an intent to defraud, without naming therein the particular person or body corporate intended to be defrauded.

(e) Incorporation by Reference.—Allegations made in one count shall not be incorporated by reference in another count.

(f) Indorsement and Signature—Indictment.—An indictment shall be signed by the foreman or the acting foreman of the grand jury returning the indictment. The state attorney, or acting state attorney shall make and sign a statement on the indictment to the effect that such prosecuting officer, as authorized and required by law, has advised the grand jury returning the indictment. No objection to the indictment on the ground that such statement has not been made shall be entertained after the defendant pleads to the merits.

(g) Signature and Oath—Information.—An information shall be signed by the legally authorized prosecuting attorney under oath stating his good faith in instituting the prosecution. No objection to an information on the ground that it was not signed or verified, as herein provided, shall be entertained after the defendant pleads to the merits.

(h) Conclusion.—An indictment, information or affidavit on which the defendant is to be tried need contain no formal conclusion.

(i) Surplusage.—An unnecessary allegation may be disregarded as surplusage and, upon motion of the defendant, may be stricken from the pleading by the court.

(j) Amendment of Information.—An information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried which charges an offense may be amended on the motion of the prosecuting attorney or defendant at any time prior to trial because of formal defects.

(k) Form of Certain Allegations.—Allegations concerning the following items may be alleged as indicated below:

(1) Description of Written Instruments.—Instruments consisting wholly or in part of writing or figures, pictures or designs may be described by any term by which they are usually known or may be identified, without setting forth a copy or facsimile thereof.

(2) Words; Pictures.—Necessary averments relative to spoken or written words or pictures may be made by the general purport of such words or pictures without setting forth a copy or facsimile thereof.

(3) Judgments; Determinations; Proceedings.—A judgment, determination or proceeding of any court or official, civil or military, may be alleged generally in such a manner as to identify such judgment, determination or proceeding, without alleging acts conferring jurisdiction on such court or official.

(4) Exceptions; Excuses; Provisos.—Statutory exceptions, excuses or provisos relative to offenses created or defined by statute need not be negated by allegation.

(5) Alternative or Disjunctive Allegations.—For an offense which may be committed by the doing of one or more of several acts, or by one or more of several means, or with one or more of several intents or results, it is permissible to allege in the disjunctive or alternative such two or more acts, means, intents or results.

(6) Offenses Divided into Degrees.—For an offense divided into degrees it is sufficient to charge the commission of the offense without specifying the degree.

(7) Felonies.—It shall not be necessary to allege that the offense charged is a felony or was done feloniously.

(l) Custody and Inspection.—Unless otherwise ordered by the court having jurisdiction, all indictments, informations and affidavits and the records thereof shall be in the custody of the clerk of the court to which they are presented, and shall not be inspected by any person other than the judge, clerk, attorney general and prosecuting attorney until the defendant is in custody or has been admitted to bail, or until one year has elapsed between the return of an indictment, or the filing of an information, or the making of the affidavit, after which time the same shall be open for inspection for public inspection.

(m) Defendant's Right to Copy of Indictment, Information or Affidavit.—Each person who has been indicted or informed against for an offense, or charged by affidavit, shall, upon application to the clerk, be furnished a copy of the indictment, information, or affidavit and the indorsements thereon, at least twenty-four hours before he is required to plead thereto, and he shall not be required to plead to such indictment, information or affidavit if a copy has not been so furnished to him. A failure to furnish such copy shall not affect the validity of any subsequent proceeding against the defendant if he pleads to the indictment, information, or affidavit.

(n) Statement of Particulars.—The court, upon motion, shall order the prosecuting attorney to furnish a statement of particulars, when the indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense sufficiently to enable him to prepare his defense. Such statement of particulars shall specify as definitely as possible the place, date, and all other material facts of the crime charged that are specifically requested and are known to the prosecuting attorney, including the names of persons intended to be defrauded. Reasonable doubts concerning the construction of this rule shall be resolved in favor of the defendant. If there is no prosecuting attorney for the county judge's court or the court of a justice of the peace to which application for a statement of particulars is made by a defendant charged by an affidavit lacking in such particulars the affiant shall be required to furnish the statement of particulars.

(o) Defects and Variances.—No indictment or information, or any count thereof, or any affidavit shall be dismissed or judgment arrested, or new trial granted on account of any defect in the form of the indictment, information or affidavit or of misjoinder of offenses or for any cause whatsoever, unless the court shall be of the opinion that the indictment, information, or affidavit is so vague, indistinct and indefinite as to mislead the accused and embarrass him in the preparation of his defense or expose him after conviction or acquittal to substantial danger of a new prosecution for the same offense.

Committee Note: Introductory Statement.—The contention may be made that the authority of the Supreme Court of Florida to govern practice and procedure in all courts by court rule does not include the power to vary in any way from present statutory law governing the work product of the grand jury, viz., the indictment. Such a contention must, of necessity, be based in part, at least, upon the assumption that the grand jury is not an integral part of the judicial system of Florida but is a distinct entity which serves that system. The Supreme Court of Florida, in State v. Clemmons, 150 So.2d 231, seems to have taken a position contrary to such an assumption.

Regardless of whether such a contention is valid, it seems beyond controversy that the essentials of the indictment, as in the case of an information, are so intimately associated with practice and procedure in the courts that the individual or group having the responsibility of determining its make-up and use is thus empowered to govern a substantial segment of such practice and procedure. The conclusion seems to be inescapable, therefore, that since the Constitution grants to the Supreme Court the authority over this phase of the judicial scheme, the following material is appropriate for consideration as a part of the proposed Rules:

(a) (1) Capital Crimes.—This recommendation is consistent with present Florida law. (See sec. 10 DR, Fla. Const.; sec. 904.01 FS '63.) The terminology "which may be punished by death" is deemed preferable to the terminology "capital crime" of the Constitution and "capital offenses" of the statute because of its definitive nature. The recommended terminology is utilized in Federal Criminal Procedure Rule 7(a) and in the American Law Institute's Code of Criminal Procedure, sec. 115. The terminology used in the 1963 Code of Criminal Procedure of Illinois is "when death is a possible punishment." (See sec. 110-4.)

Sec. 10, DR, Florida Constitution provides "No person shall be tried for a capital crime unless on presentment or indictment by a grand jury. . . ." No provision is made in the recommendation for prosecution by presentment. This omission is consistent with the apparent legislative construction placed on this section. Sec. 904.01 FS provides, "All capital offenses shall be tried on indictment by a grand jury. . . ." Since presentments traditionally have not been used as trial accusatorial writs in Florida, there seems little reason, at this date, to question that the constitution authorizes the implementing authority, be it the legislature or the Supreme Court, to use one of the specified methods of prosecution to the exclusion of the other.

(a) (2) Other Crimes.—In Criminal Courts of Record and the Court of Record of Escambia County the Constitution of Florida requires that prosecutions be by information. (Sec's. 9 (5) & 10, Art. V) In County Judges' Courts having elective prosecuting attorneys present statutory law permits prosecutions by indictment (sec. 904.02) and affidavit (Ch. 937). The additional method of prosecution by information is provided as a step toward attaining uniformity with other courts in the prosecution of noncapital offenses, at least to the extent that a prosecutor desires to use an information. This addition involved a consideration of whether a non-elected prosecutor serving in a county judge's court—which often is the case—has the authority to use an information as an accusatorial writ. Since this question has not been definitely resolved under present law, caution dictated the specification that the prosecuting attorney be elected as a prerequisite to his use of an information.

In all courts not hereinabove mentioned which have elective prosecuting attorneys, trial by indictment or information is consistent with present Florida constitutional law and most of the statutory law. (See Sec. 10, DR, Fla. Const., sec's. 904.01 & 904.02 FS; cf. sec. 932.56 where an affidavit may be used in cases appealed from a Justice of the Peace court and which is tried de novo in a circuit court.) In specially created courts having elective prosecutors and which are not provided for in foregoing provisions of this rule it was felt that prosecution by indictment or information should be allowed, even though present statutory authority may limit prosecutions in such courts to the use of an information, e.g., the Court of Record of Alachua County.

In Courts not having elective prosecutors, prosecutions by information is not recommended because of the aforementioned doubt as to the authority of a non-elected prosecutor to use an information as an accusatorial writ. With reference to the present court structure of Florida this part of the proposal applies only to county judges' courts and justice of the peace courts. The only variation from present procedure contemplated by this part of the proposal is the use of an indictment as a basis for prosecution in a justice of the peace court.

Under this proposal a grand jury may indict for any criminal offense. This recommendation is based upon the premise that a grand jury's power to indict should not be limited by virtue of levels in a state court structure. A grand jury should be considered as a guardian of the public peace against all criminal activity and should be in a position to act directly with reference thereto. While practicalities dictate that most non-capital felonies and misdemeanors will be tried by information or affidavit, if appropriate, even if an indictment is permissible as an alternative procedure, it is well to retain the grand jury's check on prosecutors in this area of otherwise practically unrestricted discretion.

The procedure proposed for the circuit judge to follow when a grand jury returns an indictment for an offense not triable in the circuit court applies, with appropriate variations, much of the procedure presently used when a grand jury returns an indictment triable in a criminal court of record. (See sec. 32.18 FS)

(b) Nature of Indictment or Information.—This provision appears in Rule 7(c) of the Rules of Criminal Procedure for the United States District Courts (hereafter referred to as the Federal Rules for purposes of brevity). It may be deemed appropriate for incorporation into the recommendations since it preserves to the defendant expressly the right to a formal written accusation and at the same time permits the simplification of the form of the accusation and the elimination of unnecessary phraseology.

(c) Caption, Commencement and Date.—

(1) Caption.—Sec. 906.02 FS contains the essentials of this proposal. It was well settled at common law that the caption is no part of the indictment and that it may be amended. The caption may be considered as serving the purpose of convenience by making more readily identifiable a particular accusatorial writ. The proposal makes it possible for this convenience to be served if either party wishes it, yet does not provide that the caption be a matter of substance. The essentials of this recommendation also appear in section 149 of the American Law Institute's Code of Criminal Procedure.

(2) Commencement.—This proposal apparently is directly contra to sec. 906.02(1) FS which treats the caption and the commencement in the same manner, i.e., that neither is necessary to the validity of the indictment or information but may be present as mere matters of convenience. This legislative assumption may not be a correct one and caution dictates that a meaningful commencement be included. Sec. 20, Art. V, of the Constitution of Florida provides that the style of all process shall be "The State of Florida" and all prosecutions shall be conducted in the name and by the authority of the State." As contemplated in the proposal the commencement expressly states the sovereign authority by which the accusatorial writ is issued and the agent of that authority. Sec. 906.02(2) FS seems to contemplate that there will be included in the indictment an express provision concerning the agency of the state responsible for its presentation, viz., the grand jury, by stating, "It is unnecessary to allege that the grand jurors were empaneled, sworn or charged, or that they present the indictment upon their oaths or affirmations." The American Law Institute's commentary on the commencement (A.L.I. Code of Criminal Procedure, p. 259 et seq.) indicates that there is much confusion between what information should be in the commencement as distinguished from the caption.

(3) Date.—Since in many cases the beginning of the prosecution is co-existent with the issuance of the indictment or information, the date the writ bears may be of great significance, particularly with reference to the tolling of a statute of limitations. If the date of a grand jury's vote of a true bill or a prosecutor's making oath to an information differs from the date of filing of the indictment or information with the appropriate clerk, it seems the date of filing is the preferable date for a writ to bear since until the filing transpires there is no absolute certainty that the prosecution actually will leave the province of the grand jury or prosecutor.

(d) The Charge.—

(1) Allegation of Facts; Citation of Law Violated.—This proposal is consistent with various sections of chapter 906 FS in that the charge is adequately alleged when based on the essentials of the offense; surplusage should be guarded against. The citation of the law allegedly violated contributes to definitizing the charge and conserves time in ascertaining the exact nature of the charge. The 1963 Illinois Criminal Code, sec. 111-3(a) (2) and Federal Rule 7 (c) contain similar provisions.

(2) Name of Accused.—The provision concerning the method of stating the name of accused is consistent with the very elaborate Florida Statute, sec. 906.08, which seems unnecessarily long. It is deemed desirable that when a fictitious name is used the necessity therefor should be indicated by allegation.

(3) Time and Place.—This provision is consistent with present Florida law. (See Morgan v. State, 51 Fla. 76, 40 So. 828 (1906) as to "Time"; see Rimes v. State, 101 Fla. 1322, 133 So. 550 (1931) as to "Place") The provision is patterned after sec. 111-3(4) of the 1963 Illinois Code of Criminal Procedure.

(4) Joinder of Offenses.—The essence of this proposal is presently found in sec. 906.25 FS and Federal Rule 8(a), and in sec. 111-4(a) of the 1963 Illinois Code of Criminal Procedure.

(5) Joinder of Defendants.—This proposal is taken from Federal Rule 8(b). Its substance also appears in sec. 111-4(b) of the Illinois Code of Criminal Procedure. While sec. 906.25 FS does not expressly contain this provision there is little doubt that its broad language includes it.

(6) Allegation of Intent to Defraud.—The language of this proposal presently appears in sec. 906.18 FS except for the provision concerning affidavit. Its continuation seems advisable as an aid to drawing allegations in charging instruments, although such information if known to the prosecutor may be required to be given in a bill of particulars, upon motion of the defendant. (See sec. (n), this Rule.) At times such information may be unknown to the prosecutor. A part of the statute is purposely not included in the proposal. The excluded part states, "... and on the trial it shall be sufficient, and shall not be deemed a variance, if there appear to be an intent to defraud the United States or any state, county, city, town or parish, or any body corporate or any public officer in his official capacity, or any copartnership or members thereof, or any particular person." It seems that this part of the statute is stated in terms of the law of evidence rather than practice and procedure and should not be included in the Rules, although apparently being a logical conclusion from the part included in the proposal.

(e) Incorporation by Reference.—Although provision for incorporation by reference appears in Federal Rule 7(c), the prohibition of such incorporation is recommended with the thought that even though repetition may be minimized by incorporation, confusion, vagueness and misunderstanding may be fostered by such procedure.

(f) Indorsement and Signature—Indictment.—The requirement that the indictment be indorsed "A true bill" and be signed by the foreman or acting foreman of the grand jury presently appears in sec. 905.23 FS. There apparently is no valid reason for changing this requirement since it serves the useful purpose of lending authenticity to the indictment as a legal product of the grand jury. The requirement of the foreman's signature also appears in Federal Rule 6(c), 1963, Illinois CCP sec. 111-3(b) and A.L.I. Model Code of Crim. Proc. sec. 125.

The provision pertaining to the statement and signature of the prosecuting attorney varies from present Florida law and is offered in alternative form. Florida statutes presently provide that an indictment shall be signed by a state attorney (sec.'s 27.21 & 27.22). Federal Rule 7(c) also provides for the signature of the attorney for the government.

No requirement presently is made in Florida necessitating an express explanatory statement preceding such signature. Presumably the justification for the signature appears in the Florida statutes that require the aforementioned officers to wait upon the grand jury as advisors, as examiners of witnesses, and to draw indictments. (See sec's 905.16, 905.17, 905.19, 905.22, 27.02, 27.16, 27.21 & 27.22 FS.)

Vagueness remains concerning the significance of the signature, however. Since the prosecuting attorney cannot be present while the grand jury is deliberating or voting (see sec. 905.17 FS) and has no voice in the decision of whether an indictment is found (see sec. 905.23 FS), a logical question arises concerning the necessity for his signature on the indictment. The provision for the statement is made for the purpose of clarifying the reason for the signature.

(g) Signature and Oath—Information.—Sec. 10, DR, Florida Constitution requires that informations be under oath of the prosecuting attorney of the court wherein the information is filed. Sec. 9 (5), Art. V, Florida Constitution contains the same requirement concerning informations filed by the prosecuting attorney in a criminal court of record. This proposal also does not deviate from present Florida statutory law as found in sec. 906.04 FS. This statute has received judicial approval. (See Champlin v. State, Fla. App., 122 So.2d 412 (1960).) It should be noted here that the prosecutor's statement under oath is definitized as to the purpose served by the signature.

(h) Conclusion.—A similar provision currently appears in sec. 906.03, FS and should be included in the Rules because of its tendency to minimize unnecessary statements in accusatorial writs. Provision is added for the affidavit as an accusatorial writ.

(i) Surplusage.—The first part of the proposal, providing for the disregarding of unnecessary allegations as surplusage, is similar to sec. 906.24 FS. The part concerned with striking such material is patterned after Federal Rule 7(d). The parts are properly complementary.

(j) Amendment of Information.—Note—This proposal contains no provision for an amendment of an indictment since, presumably, a grand jury may not amend an indictment which it has returned and which is pending, although it may return another indictment and the first indictment may be disposed of by a nolle prosequi. (See 17 Fla. Juris. Indictments and Informations, see 9 (1958).) A federal indictment cannot be amended without reassembling the grand jury; (see Ex parte Bain, 121 U. S. 1, 7 S. Ct. 781, 30 L. Ed. 849 (1887)); consequently the Federal Rules contain no provision for the amendment of an indictment. (It may be that the Supreme Court of Florida will feel inclined to include in the Rules an express statement concerning amendments of an indictment. None is included here, however.)

The proposal is patterned after sec. 111-5 of the 1963 Illinois Code of Criminal Procedure, with one exception. The exception arises due to the fact that the Illinois Code provision applies to indictments as well as informations, the position in Illinois apparently being assumed that an indictment may be amended, at least with reference to specified items listed in the statute, as well as other formalities.

(k) Form of Certain Allegations.—Several statutes in Chapter 906 FS are concerned with the manner of making allegations in indictments and informations. Some of these sections are of such general application that it seems advisable to include their substance in the Rules; others are so restricted that it may be deemed appropriate to recommend other disposition of them.

The proposals made in (1) through (7) here are based on the substance of the designated Florida statutes:

Proposal (1)—Sec. 906.09.

Proposal (2)—Sec. 906.10.

Proposal (3)—Sec. 906.11.

Proposal (4)—Sec. 906.12.

Proposal (5)—Sec. 906.13.

Proposal (6)—Sec. 906.23.

Proposal (7)—Sec. 906.17.

(l) Custody and Inspection.—The proposal is taken verbatim from sec. 906.27. The necessity for specific provision for the custody and inspection of accusatorial writs seems to be proper to include here.

(m) Defendant's Right to Copy of Indictment or Information.—The procedure contained in this proposal is presently required under sec. 906.28 FS and seems to be unobjectionable.

(n) Statement of Particulars.—The phrase, "bill" of particulars, has been modernized by changing "bill" to "statement." Historically, a "bill" is a written statement. The first sentence of this proposal is taken from sec. 906.27 FS, the only change being the narrowing of the scope of the judicial discretion now granted by the statute. The latter part of the proposal is recommended in order to clarify the requirements of the rule. Provision for the accusatorial affidavit has been added.

(o) Defects and Variances.—This proposal presently appears in Florida law in the form of sec. 906.25 FS. The statute has been the object of much judicial construction and it seems inadvisable to divide it into parts merely for convenience in placing these parts under more appropriate titles, such as "Pre-Trial Motions," "Motion for New Trial," etc.

The intimate relation the statute has with indictments and informations justifies its inclusion here. The useful purposes served by the court constructions dictate the use of the statutory language without change.

Rule 1.150 PROCESS UPON INDICTMENT, INFORMATION AND AFFIDAVIT

(a) Capias Issued Upon Felony Charge; Bail Specified.—Upon the filing of either an indictment or information charging the commission of a felony, if the person named therein is not in custody or at large on bail for the offense charged, the judge shall issue or shall direct the clerk to issue, either immediately, or when so directed by the prosecuting attorney, a capias for the arrest of such person. Upon the filing of the indictment or information, the judge shall indicate the amount of bail, if the offense is bailable, in which case an indorsement shall be made on the capias and signed by the judge or clerk, to the following effect: The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of dollars.

(b) Summons Upon Misdemeanor Charge.—Upon the filing of an indictment, information, or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried, charging the commission of a misdemeanor only, if the person named therein is not in custody or at large on bail for the offense charged, the judge shall direct the clerk to issue or shall issue a summons instead of a capias, unless the judge has reasonable ground to believe that the person will not appear in response to a summons, whereupon a capias shall be issued with the amount of bail endorsed thereon. The summons shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the summons at a time and place stated therein.

(c) Summons When Defendant is Corporation.—Upon the filing of an indictment or information or affidavit charging a corporation with the commission of a crime, whether felony or misdemeanor, the judge shall direct the clerk to issue or shall issue a summons to secure its appearance to answer the charge. If, after being summoned, the corporation does not appear, a plea of not guilty shall be entered and trial and judgment shall follow without further process.

IV ARRAIGNMENT AND PLEAS

Rule 1.160 ARRAIGNMENT

(a) Nature of Arraignment.—The arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of the judge or clerk or prosecuting attorney reading the indictment or information or the affidavit upon which the defendant will be tried to the defendant or stating orally to him the substance of the charge or charges and calling upon him to plead thereto. Such reading or statement as to the charge or charges may be waived by the defendant.

(b) Effect of Failure to Arraign or Irregularity of Arraignment.—Neither a failure to arraign nor an irregularity in the arraignment shall affect the validity of any proceeding in the cause if the defendant pleads to the indictment or information or affidavit on which the defendant is to be tried or proceeds to trial without objection to such failure or irregularity.

(c) Plea of Guilty After Indictment, Information or Affidavit Filed.—If a person who has been indicted, informed against or charged by affidavit for an offense, but who has not been arraigned, desires to plead guilty thereto, he may so inform the court having jurisdiction of the offense, and such court shall, as soon as convenient, arraign the defendant and permit him to plead guilty to the indictment or information.

(d) Time to Prepare for Trial.—After a plea of not guilty the defendant is entitled to a reasonable time in which to prepare for trial.

(e) Defendant Not Represented by Counsel.—Prior to arraignment of any person charged with the commission of a felony, if he is not represented by counsel the court shall advise him of his right to counsel and if he is financially unable to obtain counsel, of his right to be assigned court-appointed counsel to represent him at such arraignment and at all subsequent proceedings in the case. If the defendant shall inform the court that he desires to be represented by counsel, and further, shall execute an affidavit that he is unable financially or otherwise to obtain counsel, and if the court shall determine such reason to be true, the court shall appoint counsel to represent him.

If the defendant, however, understandingly waives representation by counsel, he shall execute a written waiver of such representation which shall be filed in the case. If counsel be appointed, a reasonable time shall be accorded to such counsel before the defendant shall be required to plead to the indictment, informa-posals contain the essentials of present Florida Statutes, 907.01, 907.02 and 901.09(3) a change of some of the terminology being warranted for purpose of clarity.

(c) This proposal contains all of the essentials of sec. 907.03 F.S. and that part of sec. 901.14 F.S. pertaining to post-indictment or post-information procedure. A charge by affidavit is provided.

tion or affidavit upon which he is to be arraigned or tried, or otherwise to proceed further.

Committee Note: (a) A combination of 908.01 FS and Federal Rule 10.

(b) Same as 908.02 FS.

(c) Same as 909.15 FS except provision is made for trial by affidavit.

(d) Same as 909.20 FS.

(e) Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 44 provides:

"If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel and assign counsel to represent him at every stage of the proceeding unless he elects to proceed without counsel or is able to obtain counsel."

A presently proposed amendment to such rule provides:

"(a) Right to Assigned Counsel.—Every defendant who is unable to obtain counsel shall be entitled to have counsel assigned to represent him at every stage of the proceedings from his initial appearance before the commissioner or the court through appeal, unless he waives such appointment."

"(b) Assignment Procedure.—The procedures for implementing the right set out in subdivision (a) shall be those provided by law or by local rules of district courts of appeal." In lieu of such latter, blanket provision, it is suggested that the rule provide, as stated, for inquiry of the defendant and determination by the court as to his desire for and inability to obtain counsel, after being advised of his entitlement thereto. Many defendants, of course, will waive counsel.

In view of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals' decision in the Harvey case and that in White v. Maryland, holding that entitlement to counsel does not depend upon whether the offense charged be a felony or misdemeanor, it is suggested that the word "crime" be used instead of "felony" only in the first sentence of the proposed rule.

In Hamilton v. State of Alabama, 1961, 368 U.S. 52, 82 S.Ct. 157, 7 L.Ed.2d 114, involving breaking and entering with intent to commit rape, the Supreme Court held the defendant to be entitled to counsel at the arraignment, if the arraignment be deemed a part of the trial, as apparently it is under Alabama law. In Ex parte Jeffcoat, 109 Fla. 207, 146 So. 827, the Supreme Court of Florida held the arraignment to be a mere formal preliminary step to an answer or plea. However, in Sardinia v. State, Fla., 168 So.2d 674, the court recognized the accused's right to counsel upon arraignment. FS 909.21 provides for appointment of counsel in capital cases.

Rule 1.170 PLEAS

(a) Type of Pleas; Court's Discretion in Accepting.—A defendant may plead not guilty, guilty, or, with the consent of the court, nolo contendere. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, and shall not accept the plea without first determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge.

(b) Form of Plea; Failure to Enter of Record.—Every plea shall be made orally in open court, except that it may be made in writing or by counsel if the trial court has excused the defendant from personally appearing in a misdemeanor case, and shall be entered of record; but a failure so to enter it shall not affect the validity of any proceeding in the cause.

(c) Standing Mute or Pleading Evasively.—If a defendant stands mute, or pleads evasively, a plea of not guilty shall be entered.

(d) Failure of Corporation to Appear.—If the defendant is a corporation and fails to appear a plea of not guilty shall be entered of record.

(e) Plea of Not Guilty; Operation in Denial.—A plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried.

(f) Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty.—The court may, in its discretion, and shall upon good cause, at any time before sentence, permit a plea of guilty to be withdrawn and, if judgment of conviction has been entered thereon, set aside such judgment, and allow a plea of not guilty, or, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney, allow a plea of guilty of a lesser included offense, or of a lesser degree of the offense charged, to be substituted for the plea of guilty.

(g) Plea of Guilty to Lesser Included Offense or Lesser Degree.—The defendant, with the consent of the court and of the prosecuting attorney, may plead guilty to any lesser offense than that charged which is included in the offense charged in the indictment, information or affidavit or to any lesser degree of the offense charged.

(h) Plea of Guilty to an Offense Divided into Degrees; Determination of the Degree.—When an indictment, information or affidavit charges an offense that is divided into degrees without specifying the degree, if the defendant pleads guilty generally the court shall, before accepting the plea, examine witnesses to determine the degree of the offense of which the defendant is guilty.

Committee Note: (a) Patterned after the major portion of Federal Rule 11.

(b) Same as 909.07 FS except the word "made" is substituted for "pleaded."

(c) Taken from a part of 908.03 FS.

(d) Taken from a part of 908.03 FS.

(e) Same as 909.16 FS, except that provision is added for trial by affidavit.

(f) Essentially the same as 909.13 FS.

(g) Essentially the same as 909.09 FS, except for the addition of the charge by affidavit.

(h) Same as 909.11 except provision is made for a charge by affidavit.

Rule 1.180 PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT

(a) Presence of Defendant.—In all prosecutions for crime the defendant shall be present:

(1) At arraignment;

(2) When a plea is made;

(3) At the beginning of the trial during the examination, challenging, impanelling, and swearing of the jury;

(4) At all proceedings before the court when the jury is present;

(5) When evidence is addressed to the court out of the presence of the jury for the purpose of laying the foundation for the introduction of evidence before the jury;

(6) At any view by the jury;

(7) At the rendition of the verdict;

(8) At the pronouncement of judgment and the imposition of sentence.

(b) Defendant Absenting Himself.—If the defendant is present at the beginning of the trial and shall thereafter, during the progress of said trial, or before the verdict of the jury shall have been returned into court, voluntarily absents himself from the presence of the court without leave of court, the trial of the cause or the return of the verdict of the jury in the case shall not thereby be postponed or delayed, but the trial, the submission of said case to the jury for verdict, and the return of the verdict thereon shall proceed in all respects as though the defendant were present in court at all times.

(c) Defendant May Be Tried in Absentia for Misdemeanors.—Persons prosecuted for misdemeanors may, at their own request, by leave of court, be excused from attendance at any or all of the proceedings aforesaid.

(d) Presence of Corporation.—A corporation may appear by counsel at all times and for all purposes.

Committee Note: (a) The suggested rule is in great part a recopying of FS 914.01:

In (3) the words "at the beginning of the trial" are recommended for inclusion to avoid questions arising as to the necessity for the defendant's presence at times other than upon trial, such as when the jury venire is ordered, etc.

Subhead 8 is not in the present statute. However, it is deemed advisable to include it as the several sections of Chapter 921, particularly FS 921.07 appear to impliedly or expressly require the defendant's presence at such times.

(b) It will be noted that the statute and the suggested rule make no distinction between capital and other cases. In all probability, however, where a person on trial for a capital case to escape during trial, a mistrial should be ordered if such person were not captured within a reasonable time.

(c) It is suggested that this language be used rather than the all-inclusive general language of the present statute as to misdemeanor cases.

(d) This provision does not appear in FS 914.01 but it is a part of Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 43. It is deemed useful to include it.

V PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS AND DEFENSES

Rule 1.190 PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS

(a) Pre-Trial Motions in General.—Every pre-trial motion and pleading in response to a motion shall be in writing and signed by the party making the motion or the attorney for the party. This requirement may be waived by the court for good cause shown. Each such motion or other pleading shall state the ground or grounds on which it is based. A copy shall be served on the adverse party's attorney before the time the original is filed. A certificate of service must accompany the filing of any such pleading.

(b) Motion to Dismiss.—

(1) Grounds.—All defenses available to a defendant by plea, other than not guilty, shall be made only by motion to dismiss the indictment, information or affidavit, whether the same shall relate to matters of form, substance, former acquittal, former jeopardy, or any other defense.

(c) Time for Moving to Dismiss.—Unless the court grants him further time, the defendant shall move to dismiss the indictment, information or affidavit either before or upon arraignment. The court in its discretion may permit the defendant to plead and thereafter to file a motion to dismiss at a time to be set by the court. Except for objections based upon fundamental grounds, every ground for a motion to dismiss which is not presented by a motion to dismiss within the time hereinabove provided for shall be taken to have been waived. However, the court may at any time entertain a motion to dismiss on any of the following grounds:

(1) The defendant is charged with an offense for which he has been pardoned; or

(2) The defendant is charged with an offense of which he has previously been placed in jeopardy; or

(3) The defendant is charged with an offense for which he has previously been granted immunity; or

(4) There are no material disputed facts and the undisputed facts do not establish a prima facie case of guilt against the defendant. The facts on which such motion is based should be specifically alleged and the motion sworn to.

(d) Traverse or Demurrer.—The State may traverse or demur to a motion to dismiss which alleges factual matters. Factual matters alleged in a motion to dismiss shall be deemed admitted unless specifically denied by the State in such traverse. The court may receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to the decision of the motion. A motion to dismiss under paragraph (c) (4) of this rule shall be denied if the state files a traverse which denies under oath a material fact alleged in the motion to dismiss. Such demurrer or traverse shall be filed a reasonable time before the hearing on the motion to dismiss.

(e) Effect of Sustaining a Motion to Dismiss.—If the motion to dismiss is sustained the court may order that the defendant be held in custody or admitted to bail for a reasonable specified time pending the filing of a new indictment, information or affidavit. If a new indictment, information, or affidavit is not filed within the time specified in the order, or within such additional time as the court may allow for good cause shown, the defendant, if in custody, shall be discharged therefrom, unless some other charge justifies a continuation in custody. If he has been released on bail he and his sureties shall be exonerated; if money or bonds have been deposited as bail such money or bonds shall be refunded.

(f) Order Dismissing.—For the purpose of construing Section 924.07(1), Florida Statutes, the statutory term "order quashing" shall be taken and held to mean "order dismissing."

(g) Motion for Continuance.—

(1) Definition.—A continuance within the meaning of this rule is the postponement of a cause for any period of time.

(2) Cause.—The court on motion of the State or a defendant or upon its own motion may in its discretion for good cause shown grant a continuance.

(3) Time for Filing.—A motion for continuance may be made only before or at the time the case is set for trial, unless good cause for failure to so apply is shown or unless the ground for the motion arose after the cause was set for trial.

(4) Certificate of Good Faith.—A motion for continuance shall be accompanied by a certificate of the movant's counsel that the motion is made in good faith.

(5) Affidavits.—The party applying for a continuance may file affidavits in support of his motion, and the adverse party may file counter-affidavits in opposition to the motion.

(h) Motion to Suppress Evidence Obtained Through an Unlawful Search and Seizure.—

(1) Grounds.—A defendant aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court to suppress for the use as evidence anything so obtained on the ground that:

1. The property was illegally seized without a warrant; or

2. The warrant is insufficient on its face; or

3. The property seized is not that described in the warrant; or

4. There was not probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued; or

5. The warrant was illegally executed.

(2) Time for Filing.—The motion to suppress shall be made prior to trial unless opportunity therefore did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, but the court in its discretion may entertain the motion or an appropriate objection at the trial.

(3) Hearing.—The court shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to be decided in order to rule on the motion.

(i) Motion to Suppress a Confession or Admissions Illegally Obtained.—

(1) Grounds.—Upon motion of the defendant or upon its own motion, the court shall suppress any confession or admission obtained illegally from the defendant.

(2) Time for Filing.—The motion to suppress shall be made prior to trial unless opportunity therefore did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, but the court in its discretion may entertain the motion or an appropriate objection at the trial.

(3) Hearing.—The court shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to be decided in order to rule on the motion.

(j) Motion for Severance of Offenses or Defendants.—Upon motion of the State or a defendant, the court shall order a severance of multiple offenses or defendants charged in a single indictment, information or affidavit and separate trials thereon upon a showing that:

(1) The offenses or defendants are not properly joinable in a single indictment, or information or affidavit; or

(2) The movant is prejudiced by the joinder of offenses or defendants.

(k) Motion for Consolidation.—Upon motion of the State or a defendant, the court may order two or more indictments, informations or affidavits to be consolidated for trial, if the offenses, and the defendants if more than one, could have been joined in a single indictment, information or affidavit. The procedure thereafter shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single indictment, information or affidavit.

(l) Motion to Take Deposition to Perpetuate Testimony.—

(1) At any time after the filing of an indictment, information, or affidavit upon which a defendant is to be tried, if he shall satisfy the court by his oath in writing, or by the affidavits of credible persons, that the testimony of an absent person is material and necessary to his defense, and that such witness resides beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court or is so sick and infirm that with diligence his attendance cannot be procured at the trial, the court upon the proper application of the accused, or his attorney, shall order that a commission be issued to take the deposition of such witnesses to be used in the trial. If the application is made within ten days prior to the trial date the court may in the exercise of sound discretion deny such application.

(2) If a defendant desires to perpetuate the testimony of a witness living in or out of the state, whose testimony is material and necessary to his defense, the same proceedings shall be followed as set forth in sub-section (1) hereof; with the exception, however, that the testimony of such witness be taken before an official court reporter, transcribed by him, and filed in the trial court.

(3) The order for issuing such commission may be made by the court, either in term time or in vacation. Application to the court for that purpose may be made in vacation as well as in term time. The commission shall be issued at a time to be fixed by the court.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, the rules governing the taking and filing of oral depositions, the objections thereto, the issuing, execution and return of the commission, and the opening of the depositions in civil cases shall be observed in criminal cases.

(5) No deposition shall be used or read in evidence when the attendance of the witnesses can be procured, and if it shall appear to the court that any person whose deposition has been taken has absented himself by the procurement, inducement, or threats of the accused, or of any person on his behalf, such depositions shall not be read in evidence.

(m) Motion to Strike.—The court on motion of the defendant may strike surplusage from the indictment, information, or affidavit upon which he is to be tried.

Committee Note: (a) New; devised by committee.

(b) Substantially same as 909.02, except changes name of "motion to quash" to "motion to dismiss." This conforms to Federal rules terminology. The statute authorizing the state to appeal from certain orders, 924.07, should be amended by substituting the words "motion to dismiss" for "motion to quash."

(c) Combines the substance of 909.01 and 909.06. Sub-paragraph (4) affords a new remedy to an accused which he did not previously have. Although there is now a conclusive presumption of probable cause once an indictment or information is filed (See Sullivan v. State, ex rel. McCrary, Fla., 49 So.2d 794) it is felt that this rule is necessary. Primarily, this procedure will permit a pre-trial determination of the law of the case where the facts are not in dispute. In a sense, this is somewhat similar to summary judgment proceedings in civil cases, but a dismissal under this rule is not a bar to a subsequent prosecution.

(d) New; based on Marks v. State, 115 Fla. 497, 155 So. 727, and what is generally regarded as the better practice. Hearing provision based on Federal Rule 41(e).

(e) Combines Federal Rule 12(b) (5) and 909.05. With reference to the maximum time that a defendant will be held in custody or on bail pending the filing of a new indictment or information, the trial court is given its discretion in setting such time as to both the indictment and information. This proposal differs from sec. 909.05 FS with reference to the filing of a new indictment in that the statute requires that the new indictment be found by the same grand jury or the next grand jury having the authority to inquire into the offense. If the Supreme Court has the authority to deviate from this statutory provision by Court rule it seems that the trial court should be granted the same discretion with reference to the indictment that it is granted concerning the information. The statute is harsh in that under its provisions a person can be in custody or on bail for what may be an unreasonable length of time before a grand jury is required to return an indictment in order that the custody or bail be continued.

(g) (1) This subsection is almost the same as FS 916.02(1).

(g) (2) This subsection is almost the same as FS 916.02(2).

(g) (3) This subsection is almost the same as FS 916.03.

(g) (4) This motion rewords a portion of FS 916.04.

(g) (5) This subsection rewords FS 916.07.

(h) Same as Federal Rule 41(e) as to the points covered.

(i) This Rule is based on 38-114-11 of the Illinois Code of Criminal Procedure and Rule 41(e) of the Federal Rules.

(j) This subsection rewords and adds to Fed. Rule 14. It covers subject matter of 918.02.

(k) This Rule is almost the same as Fed. Rule 13, with provision added for trial by affidavit.

(l) Substantially same as 916.06 with these exceptions: application cannot be made until indictment, information, or trial affidavit is filed; application to be made at least 10 days before trial; oral deposition in addition to written interrogatories permissible.

Rule 1.200 NOTICE OF ALIBI

Upon the written demand of the prosecuting attorney, specifying as particularly as is known to such prosecuting attorney, the place, date and time of the commission of the crime charged, a defendant in a criminal case who intends to offer evidence of an alibi in his defense shall, not less than ten days before trial or such other time as the court may direct, file and serve upon such prosecuting attorney a notice in writing of his intention to claim such alibi, which notice shall contain specific information as to the place at which the defendant claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense and, as particularly as is known to defendant or his attorney, the names and addresses of the witnesses by whom he proposes to establish such alibi. Not less than five days after receipt of defendant's witness list, or such other times as the court may direct, the prosecuting attorney shall file and serve upon the defendant the names and addresses (as particularly as are known to the prosecuting attorney) of the witnesses the State proposes to offer in rebuttal to discredit the defendant's alibi at the trial of the cause. Both the defendant and the prosecuting attorney shall be under a continuing duty to promptly disclose the names and addresses of additional witnesses which come to the attention of either party subsequent to filing their respective witness lists as provided in this rule. If a defendant fails to file and serve a copy of such notice as herein required, the court may exclude evidence offered by such defendant for the purpose of proving an alibi, except the testimony of the defendant himself. If such notice is given by a defendant, the court may exclude the testimony of any witness offered by the defendant for the purpose of proving an alibi if the name and address of such witness as particularly as is known to defendant or his attorney is not stated in such notice. If the prosecuting attorney fails to file and serve a copy on the defendant of a list of witnesses as herein provided, the court may exclude evidence offered by the state in rebuttal to the defendant's alibi evidence. If such notice is given by the prosecuting attorney, the court may exclude the testimony of any witness offered by the prosecuting attorney for the purpose of rebutting the defense of alibi if the name and address of such witness as particularly as is known to the prosecuting attorney is not stated in such notice. For good cause shown the court may waive the requirements of this rule.

Committee Note: The proposed rule is completely new in Florida. Fourteen states have adopted notice of alibi statutes or rules: Arizona Supreme Court Rules of Criminal Procedure 192 (enacted in 1940); Ind. Ann. Stat. 9-1631, 9-1632, 9-1633 (1956) (enacted in 1935); Iowa Code Ann. 777.18 (1958) (enacted in 1941); Kan. Gen. Stat. Ann. 62-1341 (1949) (enacted in 1935); Minn. Stat. Ann. 630.14 (1947) (enacted in 1935); N.J. Superior and County Court Criminal Practice Rule 3:5-9 (1948) (enacted in 1934); N. Y. Code of Crim. Proc. 295-1 (1935) (enacted in 1935); Ohio Rev. Code Ann. 2945.58 (1953) (enacted in 1929); Okla. Stat. Ann. 22-585 (1937) (enacted in 1935); S.D. Code 34.2801 (1939) (enacted in 1935); Utah Code Ann. 77-22-17 (1953) (enacted in 1935); Vt. Stat. Ann. 13-6561, 6562 (1958) (enacted in 1935); Wis. Stat. Ann. 955.07 (1958) (enacted in 1935).

The proposed rule is modeled after the Ohio, New York and New Jersey statutes:

(1) The requirement of notice in writing is taken from the Ohio statute.

(2) The requirement of an initial demand by the prosecuting attorney is based on the New York and New Jersey statutes.

(3) The requirement of a mutual exchange of witness list is based on those statutes which require the defendant to disclose his alibi witnesses. In the interest of mutuality, the requirement of a reciprocal exchange of witness lists has been added. The enforcement provision is based on the Ohio and New York statutes. In New York, a defendant who fails to give advance notice of alibi may still give alibi testimony himself. People v. Rakiec, 260 App.Div. 452, 23 N.Y.S.2d 607 aff'd 289 N.Y. 306, 45 N.E.2d 812 (1942).

For an excellent article on notice of alibi statutes, court decisions thereunder and some empirical data on the practical effect of the rules, see Epstein, "Advance Notice of Alibi" Journal of Criminal Law, Criminology and Police Science, April 1964, pp. 29-38.

Rule 1.210 INSANITY

(a) At Time of Trial.—If before or during trial the court, of its own motion, or upon motion of counsel for the defendant, has reasonable ground to believe that the defendant is insane, the court shall immediately fix a time for a hearing to determine the defendant's mental condition. The court may appoint not exceeding three disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant and to testify at the hearing as to his mental condition. Other evidence regarding the defendant's mental condition may be introduced at the hearing by either party.

If the court decides that the defendant is sane, it shall proceed with the trial. If, however, it decides that the defendant is insane, it shall commit the defendant to the proper institution. If the defendant is declared insane during the trial, and afterwards released from the institution to which he has been committed, as sane, his former uncompleted trial shall not constitute former jeopardy. If, after a defendant has been committed to an institution as insane, the proper officer of such institution is of the opinion that the defendant is sane, the court shall fix a time for a hearing to determine whether the defendant is sane. The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as the original hearing to determine the defendant's sanity. If found sane, the trial shall proceed; if found insane, he shall be recommitted as hereinabove set forth.

(b) At Time of Offense.—When in any criminal case it shall be the intention of the defendant to rely upon the defense of insanity, no evidence offered by the defendant for the purpose of establishing such insanity shall be admitted in such case unless advance notice of such defense shall have been given by the defendant as hereinafter provided.

If the defendant upon arraignment, or prior thereto, notifies the court that he will rely upon insanity as one of his defenses, then the court will hear the parties and require the defendant to file, within such time as may be fixed by the court, a statement of particulars showing as nearly as he can the nature of insanity he expects to prove and the names and addresses of the witnesses by whom he expects to prove such insanity.

Upon the filing of said statement of particulars by the defendant, upon motion of the prosecution, the court may cause the defendant to be examined, in the presence of attorneys for the state and for the defendant, if they choose to be present, by one or more disinterested qualified experts, not exceeding three, appointed by the court, at such time and place as may be designated in the order of the court, as to the sanity, or insanity, of the defendant at the time of the commission of the alleged offense and subsequent thereto.

Upon good cause shown for the omission of the notices and procedure as to the defense of insanity, as here set forth, the court may in its discretion permit the introduction of evidence of such defense.

(c) Insanity at Time of Offense; Appointment of Expert Witnesses.—When on a prosecution by indictment or information the existence of insanity on the part of the defendant at the time of the alleged commission of the offense charged becomes an issue in the cause, the court may appoint one or more disinterested qualified experts, not exceeding three, to examine the defendant. If the court does so, the clerk shall notify the prosecuting attorney and counsel for the defendant of such appointment and shall give the names and addresses of the experts so appointed. If the defendant is at large on bail, the court in its discretion may commit him to custody pending the examination by such experts. The appointment of experts by the court shall not preclude the state or defendant from calling expert witnesses to testify at the trial and in case the defendant is committed to custody by the court they shall be permitted to have free access to the defendant for purposes of examination or observation. The experts appointed by the court shall be summoned to testify at the trial and may be examined by the court and by counsel for the state and the defendant.

Committee Note: (a) Same as 917.01 except it was felt that court cannot by rule direct institution officials. Thus words, "... he shall report this fact to the court which conducted the hearing. If the officer so reports ..." and concluding sentence, "No defendant committed by a court to an institution, by reason of the examination referred to in this paragraph, shall be released therefrom, without the consent of the court committing him," should be omitted from the rule but retained by statute.

(b) Same as 909.17.

(c) Same as 917.02.

VI DISCOVERY

Rule 1.220 DISCOVERY

(a) Production of Statement or Confessions, or Results or Reports of Physical or Mental Examinations, and of Defendant's Recorded Testimony Before Grand Jury.—When a person is charged with an offense, upon motion of such person, at any time after the filing of the indictment, information, or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried, the court shall order the prosecuting attorney:

(1) To permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph the defendant's written or recorded statements or confessions, if any, whether signed or unsigned.

(2) To permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph results and reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests, or experiments made in connection with the particular case, or copies thereof, which are known by the prosecutor to be within the possession, custody, or control, of the state; and,

(3) To permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph the recorded testimony of the defendant before a grand jury, if any.

The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspections and of making copies or photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

(b) Production of Other Documents and Things for Inspection, Copying or Photographing.—When a crime is alleged to have been committed and the evidence of the state shall relate to ballistics, firearms identification, fingerprints, blood, semen, or other stains, or documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or other tangible things of whatsoever kind or nature, the court shall order the state to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing, by or on behalf of the moving party, of any designated papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or other tangible things. At any examination to be conducted by representatives of the state, as to ballistics, firearms identification, fingerprints, blood, semen, and other stains, the defendant, upon motion and notice, shall be permitted by order of court, to be present, or have present an expert of his own selection, or both, during the course of such examination. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs, and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

(c) Reciprocal Discovery.—If the court grants relief sought by the defendant under (a) (2), or (b) of this rule, it shall condition its order by requiring that the defendant permit the state to inspect, copy or photograph scientific or medical reports, books, papers, documents, or tangible objects, which the defendant intends to produce at the trial and which are within his possession, custody, or control.

(d) Disclosure of Witnesses Supplying Basis for Charge.—It shall not be necessary to endorse on any indictment or information, the names and addresses of the witnesses on whose evidence the same is based, but upon motion of the defendant the court shall order the prosecuting attorney to furnish the names and addresses of such witnesses.

(e) Exchange of Witness Lists.—In addition to, or instead of, the practice described in Rule 1.220(d) when a person is charged with an offense he may at any time after the filing of the indictment or information against him, or the affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried, file in the cause an offer in writing (a copy of which offer shall be furnished to the prosecuting attorney) to furnish to the prosecuting attorney a list of all witnesses with their addresses and whereabouts if known whom the defendant expects to call as defense witnesses at the trial, whereupon, within five days after receipt of same by the prosecuting attorney, or within six days after the mailing of same to the prosecuting attorney, whichever shall be earlier, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the clerk and furnish to the person charged, a list of all witnesses known to the prosecuting attorney to have information which may be relevant to the offense charged, and to any defense of the person charged with respect thereto; and, within five days after the prosecuting attorney files with the clerk and furnishes such list of witnesses to the defendant, or within six days after the mailing of same to the defendant, whichever shall be earlier, the defendant shall file with the clerk and furnish to the prosecuting attorney a list of all witnesses whom the defendant expects to call as defense witnesses at the trial.

The prosecuting attorney may, prior to filing his list of witnesses, move the court for a protective order as provided in subsection (h) of this rule. The filing of a motion for a protective order will automatically stay the times provided for in this subsection. If a protective order is granted the defendant may, within two days thereafter, or at any time before the prosecuting attorney files a list as required herein, withdraw his offer and not be required to furnish his list of witnesses.

(f) Discovery Depositions.—When a person is charged with an offense, upon motion of such person, at any time after the filing of the indictment, information, or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried and after notice to the prosecuting attorney, the court shall order the taking of the deposition of any person other than a confidential informer who will not be a witness at the trial, who may have information relevant to the offense charged and the defense of the person charged with respect thereto, on showing that the testimony of the witness may be material or relevant on the trial, or of assistance in the preparation of the defense of the person charged, and on showing that the witness will not cooperate in giving a voluntary, signed, written statement to the person charged or his attorney. The person charged shall give to the prosecuting attorney written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice shall state the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of the prosecuting attorney, the court ordering the deposition may, for good cause shown, extend or shorten the time and may change the place of taking. A deposition under this section shall be taken in the manner provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and the scope of examination, on such deposition, and as to the written statement above shall be the same as that provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Any deposition taken pursuant hereto may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness. An order to take depositions authorizes the issuance of subpoenas by the clerk of the court for the persons named or described therein. A resident of the state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides, or is employed, or regularly transacts his business, in person. A person who refuses to obey a subpoena served upon him may be adjudged in contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

(g) Continuing Duty to Disclose; Failure to Comply.—If, subsequent to compliance with an offer or order for discovery under these rules, and prior to or during trial, a party discovers additional material which he would have been under a duty to disclose or produce at the time of such previous compliance, if it was then known to the party he shall promptly notify the other party or his attorney of the existence of the additional material in the same manner as required under these rules for initial discovery. If, at any time during the course of the proceedings it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with this rule, or with an order issued pursuant to this rule, the court may order such party to permit the discovery or inspection of materials not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, or prohibit the party from calling a witness not disclosed, or introducing in evidence the material not disclosed, or it may enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

(h) Protective Orders.—Upon a sufficient showing the court may, at any time, grant a protective order whereby the discovery contemplated by paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) hereof, is denied, restricted, or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate and may alter the time of compliance provided for herein. Upon motion by the prosecuting attorney the court may permit the state to make such showing, in whole or in part, in the form of a written statement to be inspected by the court alone. If the court enters an order granting relief following a showing to the court alone, the entire text of the state's statement shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal by the defendant.

(i) Costs of Indigents.—After a defendant is adjudged insolvent, the reasonable costs incurred in the operation of these rules shall be taxed as costs against the county.

(j) Application of Rule to County Judge's and Justice of the Peace Courts Having Irregular or No Prosecutors.—In a county judge's court or a court of a justice of the peace in which there is no prosecutor who can be required to meet the obligations of the state as provided for in this rule, the judge or justice of the peace shall meet such obligations in so far as it is reasonable to do so, including the issuance of appropriate orders to the affiant responsible for making the affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried.

Committee Note: (a)(1) This is substantially the same as 925.05.

(a)(2) This is new and allows a defendant rights which he did not have, but must be considered in light of rule (c).

(a)(3) This is a slight enlargement upon the present practice; however, from a practical standpoint, it is not an enlargement, but merely a codification of 925.05 with respect to the defendant's testimony before a grand jury.

(b) This is a re-statement of 925.04, except for the change of the word "may" to "shall."

(c) This is new and affords discovery to the State within the trial judge's discretion by allowing the trial judge to make discovery under (a)(2) and (b) conditioned upon the defendant giving the State some information if he has it. This affords the State some area of discovery which it did not previously have with respect to (b). A question was raised concerning the effect of (a)(2) on F.B.I. reports and other reports which are submitted to a prosecutor as "confidential" but it was agreed that the interests of justice would be better served by allowing this rule and that after the appropriate governmental authorities are made aware of the fact that their reports may be subject to compulsory disclosure, no harm to the State will be done.

(d) and (e). This gives the defendant optional procedures. (d) is simply a codification of 906.29 except for the addition of "addresses." The defendant is allowed this procedure in any event. (e) affords the defendant the additional practice of obtaining all of the State's witnesses, as distinguished from merely those on whose evidence the information, or indictment, is based, but only if the defendant is willing to give the State all of his witnesses which he must do if he takes advantage of this rule. The confidential informer must be disclosed if he is to be used as a witness; but it was expressly viewed that this should not otherwise over-rule present case law on the subject of disclosure of confidential informants, either where disclosure is required or not required.

(f) This is new and is a compromise between the philosophy that the defendant should be allowed unlimited discovery depositions and the philosophy that he should not be allowed any discovery depositions at all. The purpose of the rule is to afford the defendant relief from situations where witnesses refuse to "cooperate" by making pretrial disclosures to the defense. It was determined to be necessary that the written signed statement be a criterion because this is the only way witnesses can be impeached by prior contradictory statements. The word "cooperate" was intentionally left in the rule, although the word is a loose one, so that it can be given a liberal interpretation, i.e., a witness may say that he is making himself available and yet never actually submit himself to an interview. Some express the view that the defendant is not being afforded adequate protection because the cooperating witness will not have been under oath, but the sub-committee felt that the only alternative would be to make unlimited discovery depositions available to the defendant which was a view not approved by a majority of the sub-committee. Each minority is expressed by the following alternative proposals:

Alternative Proposal (1): Where a person is charged with an offense, at any time after the filing of the indictment or information, or affidavit, upon which the defendant is to be tried, such person may take the deposition of any person by deposition upon oral examination for the purpose of discovery. The attendances of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoenas as provided by law. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes. The scope of examination and the manner and method of taking such deposition shall be as provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and said deposition may be used for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of a deponent as a witness.

Alternative Proposal (2): If a defendant shall sign and file a written waiver of his privilege against self-incrimination, and if he shall submit himself to interrogation under oath by the prosecuting attorney, then he shall be entitled to compulsory process for any or all witnesses to enable him to interrogate them under oath, before trial, for discovery purposes.

A view was expressed that some limitation should be placed on the State's rights under 27.04 and 32.20 Florida Statutes, which allow the prosecutor to take all depositions unilaterally at any time. It was agreed by all members of the sub-committee that this right should not be curtailed until some specific time after the filing of an indictment, information, or affidavit, because circumstances sometime require the filing of the charge and a studied marshalling of evidence thereafter. Criticism of the present practice lies in the fact that any time up to and during the course of the trial the prosecutor can subpoena any person to the privacy of his office without notice to the defense and there take a statement of such person under oath. The sub-committee was divided, however, on the method of altering this situation and the end result was that this subcommittee itself should not undertake to change the existing practice, but should make the Supreme Court aware of this apparent imbalance.

(g) This is new and is required in order to make effective the preceding rules.

(h) This is new and although it encompasses relief for both the State and the defense, its primary purpose is to afford relief in situations where witnesses may be intimidated and where a prosecuting attorney's heavy docket might not allow him to comply with discovery within the time limitations set forth in the rules. The words "sufficient showing" were intentionally included in order to permit the trial judge to have discretion in granting the protective relief. It would be impossible to specify all possible grounds which can be the basis of a protective order. This verbiage also permits a possible abuse by a prosecution minded trial judge, but the sub-committee felt that the Appellate Court would remedy any such abuse in the course of making appellate decisions.

(i) This is new and although it will entail additional expense to counties, it was determined that it was necessary in order to comply with the recent trend of federal decisions which hold that due process is violated when a person who has the money with which to resist criminal prosecution gains an advantage over the person who is not so endowed. Actually, there is serious doubt that the intent of this sub-section can be accomplished by a rule of procedure; a statute is needed. It is recognized that such a statute may be unpopular with the legislature and not enacted. But, if this sub-section has not given effect there is a likelihood that a constitutional infirmity (equal protection of the law) will be found and either the entire rule with all sub-sections will be held void, or confusion in application will result.

(j) This provision is necessary since the prosecutor is required to assume many responsibilities under the various subsections under the Rule. There are no prosecuting attorneys, either elected or regularly assigned, in justice of the peace courts. County judge's courts, as distinguished from county courts, do not have elected prosecutors. Prosecuting attorneys in such courts are employed by county commissions and may be handicapped in meeting the requirements of the Rule due to the irregularity and uncertainty of such employment. This sub-section is inserted as a method of achieving as much uniformity as possible in all of the courts of Florida having jurisdictions to try criminal cases.

VII DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE

Rule 1.230 DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE

(a) The state or the defendant may move to disqualify the judge assigned to try the cause on the grounds: that the judge is prejudiced against the movant or in favor of the adverse party; that the defendant is related to the said judge by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; that the judge is related to an attorney or counselor of record for the defendant or the state by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; or that the judge is a material witness for or against one of the parties to said cause.

(b) Every motion to disqualify shall be in writing and be accompanied by two or more affidavits setting forth facts relied upon to show the grounds for disqualification, and a certificate of counsel of record that the motion is made in good faith.

(c) A motion to disqualify a judge shall be filed no less than 10 days before the time the case is called for trial unless good cause is shown for failure to so file within such time.

(d) The judge presiding shall examine the motion and supporting affidavits to disqualify him for prejudice to determine their legal sufficiency only, but shall not pass on the truth of the facts alleged nor adjudicate the question of disqualification. If the motion and affidavits are legally sufficient, the presiding judge shall enter an order disqualifying himself and proceed no further therein. Another judge shall be designated in a manner prescribed by applicable laws or rules for the substitution of judges for the trial of causes where the judge presiding is disqualified.

(e) When the prosecuting attorney or defendant shall have suggested the disqualification of a trial judge and an order shall have been made admitting the disqualification of such judge, and another judge shall have been assigned to act in lieu of the judge so held to be disqualified the judge so assigned shall not be disqualified on account of alleged prejudice against the party making the motion in the first instance, or in favor of the adverse party, unless such judge shall admit and hold that it is then a fact that he, the said judge, does not stand fair and impartial between the parties and if such judge shall hold, rule and adjudge that he does stand fair and impartial as between the parties and their respective interest, he shall cause such ruling to be entered on the minutes of the court, and shall proceed to preside as judge in the pending cause. The ruling of such judge may be reviewed by the appellate court, as are other rulings of the trial court.

Committee Note: Substantially same as 911.01 except requirement that affidavits of "citizens" of county is omitted. The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the subcommittee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

VIII CHANGE OF VENUE

Rule 1.240 CHANGE OF VENUE

(a) The state or the defendant may move for a change of venue on the ground that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the case is pending for any reason other than the interest and prejudice of the trial judge.

(b) Every motion for change of venue shall be in writing and be accompanied by:

(1) Affidavits of movant and two or more other persons setting forth facts upon which the motion is based; and

(2) A certificate by the movant's counsel that the motion is made in good faith.

(c) A motion for change of venue shall be filed no less than 10 days before the time the case is called for trial unless good cause is shown for failure to file within such time.

(d) The court shall consider the affidavits filed by all parties and receive evidence on every issue of fact necessary to its decision. If the court grants the motion it shall make an order removing the cause to the court having jurisdiction to try such offense in some other convenient county where a fair and impartial trial can be had.

(e) If the defendant is in custody, the order shall direct that he be forthwith delivered to the custody of the sheriff of the county to which the cause is removed.

(f) The clerk shall enter on the minutes the order of removal and shall transmit to the court to which the cause is removed a certified copy of the order of removal and of the record and proceedings and of the undertakings of the witnesses and the accused.

(g) When the cause is removed to another court the witnesses who have entered into undertakings to appear at the trial shall, on notice of such removal, attend the court to which the cause is removed at the time specified in the order of removal. A failure to so attend shall work a forfeiture of the undertaking.

(h) If there are several defendants and an order is made removing the cause on the application of one or more but not all of them, the other defendants shall be tried and all proceedings had against them in the county in which the cause is pending in all respects as if no order of removal had been made as to any defendant.

(i)(1) The court to which the cause is removed shall proceed to trial and judgment therein as if the cause had originated in such court. If it is necessary to have any of the original pleadings or other papers before such court, the court from which the cause is removed shall at any time upon application of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant order such papers or pleadings to be transmitted by the clerk, a certified copy thereof being retained.

(2) The prosecuting attorney of the court to which the cause is removed may amend the information, or file a new information, and such new information shall be entitled in the county in which the trial is had, but the allegations as to the place of commission of the crime, shall refer to the county in which the crime was actually committed.

Committee Note: (a) through (d) substantially same as 911.02 through 911.05. Language is simplified and requirement pertaining to cases in criminal courts of record that removal be to adjoining county is omitted. Modern communications and distribution of television and press makes old requirements impractical. Designation of county left to discretion of the trial judge.

(e) through (i) same as corresponding statutes 911.06 through 911.10.

IX THE TRIAL

Rule 1.250 ACCUSED AS WITNESS

In all criminal prosecutions the accused may at his option be sworn as a witness in his own behalf, and shall in such case be subject to examination as other witnesses, but no accused person shall be compelled to give testimony against himself, nor shall any prosecuting attorney be permitted before the jury or court to comment on the failure of the accused to testify in his own behalf, and a defendant offering no testimony in his own behalf, except his own, shall be entitled to the concluding argument before the jury.

Committee Note: Same as 918.09.

Rule 1.260 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

A defendant may, in writing, waive a jury trial with the approval of the court and the consent of the state.

Committee Note: This is the same as Federal Rule 23(a). This changes existing law by providing for consent of state.

Rule 1.270 NUMBER OF JURORS

Twelve persons shall constitute a jury to try all capital cases, and six persons shall constitute a jury to try all other criminal cases.

Committee Note: Except for substituting the word "persons" for "men," the suggested rule is a transcription of FS 913.10. The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the subcommittee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.280 ALTERNATE JURORS

The court may direct that jurors, in addition to the regular panel, be called and impanelled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors, in the order in which they are impanelled shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror, who does not replace a principal juror, shall be discharged at the time the jury retires to consider its verdict.

Committee Note: Save for certain rewording, the suggested rule is a transcription of FS 913.10(2), except that the provisions for the challenging of the alternate jurors has been included more appropriately in the rule relating to challenges.

Rule 1.290 JURY PANEL; EXAMINATION; OATH AND EXCUSING OF MEMBER

(a) Oath.—The prospective jurors shall be sworn collectively or individually, as the court may decide, to answer truthfully, collectively or individually, as the court may decide, all questions put to them regarding their competence to serve as jurors. The form of oath shall be as follows:

"Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will answer truthfully all questions asked of you about your competence to serve as jurors, so help you God."
If any prospective juror affirms, the clause "So help you God" shall be omitted.

(b) Examination.—The court shall then examine each prospective juror individually, except that, with the consent of both parties, it may examine the prospective jurors collectively. Counsel for both state and defendant shall be permitted to propound pertinent questions to the prospective juror after such examination by the court.

(c) Prospective Jurors Excused.—If, after the examination of any prospective juror, the court is of the opinion that such juror is incompetent, the court shall excuse such juror from the trial of the cause. If, however, the court does not excuse such juror, either party may then challenge such juror, as provided by law or by these rules.

Committee Note: (a) Save for the inclusion of the form of oath, the suggested rule is a transcription of a part of FS 913.02(1). The form of oath paraphrases in pertinent part the oath set out in FS 913.11.

(b) The suggested rule is a transcription of the remainder of FS 913.02(1).

(c) Substantially same as 913.02(2).

Rule 1.300 CHALLENGE TO PANEL

The state or defendant may challenge the panel.

A challenge to the panel may be made only on the ground that the prospective jurors were not selected or drawn according to law.

Challenges to the panel shall be made and decided before any individual juror is examined, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

A challenge to the panel shall be in writing and shall specify the facts constituting the ground of challenge.

Challenges to the panel shall be tried by the court.

Upon the trial of a challenge to the panel the witnesses may be examined on oath by the court and may be so examined by either party.

If the challenge to the panel is sustained, the court shall discharge the panel. If the challenge is not sustained, the individual jurors shall be called.

Committee Note: This is a transcription of FS 913.01.

Rule 1.310 TIME FOR CHALLENGE

The state or defendant may challenge an individual prospective juror, for cause or peremptorily, only before the juror is sworn to try the cause; except that the court may, for good cause, permit it to be made after the juror is sworn, but before any evidence is presented.

Committee Note: Same for the heading and for the inclusion of the phrase, "for cause or peremptorily," the suggested rule is a transcription of the provisions of FS 913.04.

Rule 1.320 MANNER OF CHALLENGE

A challenge to an individual juror for cause or peremptorily may be oral. When a juror is challenged for cause the ground of the challenge shall be stated.

Committee Note: Save for the heading and the insertion of the word "the," the suggested rule is a transcription of the provisions of FS 913.05. The phrase "for cause or peremptorily" has been added.

Rule 1.330 DETERMINATION OF CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE

The court shall determine the validity of a challenge of an individual juror for cause. In making such determination the juror challenged and any other material witnesses, produced by the parties, may be examined on oath by the court and may be so examined by either party. The court may consider also any other evidence material to such challenge.

Committee Note: The suggested rule is essentially a transcription of 913.06 and 913.07 except for the first and last sentences.

Rule 1.340 EFFECT OF SUSTAINING CHALLENGE

If a challenge for cause of an individual juror be sustained, such juror shall be discharged from the trial of the cause. If a peremptory challenge to an individual juror be made, such juror shall be discharged likewise from the trial of the cause.

Committee Note: The first sentence of the suggested rule except for the inclusion of the words "for cause" is a transcription of FS 913.09. The last sentence has been added.

Rule 1.350 NUMBER OF PEREMPTORY CHALLENGES

The state and the defendant shall each be allowed the following number of peremptory challenges:

(a) Ten, if the offense charged is punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(b) Six, if the offense charged is a felony not punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(c) Three, if the offense charged is a misdemeanor.

(d) If two or more defendants are jointly tried, each defendant shall be allowed the number of peremptory challenges specified above, and in such case the state shall be allowed as many challenges as are allowed to all of the defendants.

(e) If one or two alternate jurors are called, each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge, in addition to those otherwise allowed by law, for each alternate juror so called. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against the alternate juror and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternate juror.

Committee Note: The suggested rule is a transcription of FS 913.08, excluding subdivision (5), which is lifted from FS 913.10(2) and included since the several provisions relate to peremptory challenges. The question was raised regarding multiple counts or consolidation in their relation to the number of challenges. It was decided not to imply approval of multiple counts or consolidation. The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the subcommittee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.360 OATH OF TRIAL JURORS

The following oath shall be administered to the jurors:

"Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try the issues between the State of Florida and the defendant whom you shall have in charge and render a true verdict according to the law and the evidence, so help you God."

If any juror affirms, the clause "So help you God" shall be omitted.

Committee Note: The suggested rule is a transcription of FS 913.11.

X CONDUCT OF TRIAL; THE JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Rule 1.370 TRIAL OF JOINTLY CHARGED DEFENDANTS

When two or more defendants are jointly charged with an offense, whether felony or misdemeanor, they shall be tried jointly unless the court in its discretion, on the motion of the prosecuting attorney or any defendant, orders separate trials. In ordering separate trials, the court may order that one or more defendants be each separately tried and the others jointly tried or may order that several defendants be jointly tried in one trial and the others jointly tried in another trial or trials, or may order that each defendant be tried separately.

Committee Note: This rule is the same as 918.02 FS.

Rule 1.380 REGULATION AND SEPARATION OF JURORS

(a) Regulation of Jury.—

(1) After the jury shall have been sworn they shall sit together and hear the proofs and allegations in the case, which shall be delivered in public and in the presence of the accused; and after hearing such proofs and allegations the jury shall be kept together in some convenient place until they agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court, and the sheriff or a bailiff shall be sworn to take charge of the jury.

(2) After the cause has been finally submitted the jurors shall retire to the place provided for them and consider their verdict.

(b) Separation After Submission of Cause.—Unless the jurors have been kept together during the trial the court may, in its discretion, after the final submission of the cause, order that the jurors may separate for a definite time to be fixed by the court and then reconvene in the courtroom before retiring for consideration of their verdict.

Committee Note: (a) Taken from 919.01.

(b) Taken from 919.02.

Rule 1.390 SELECTION OF FOREMAN OF JURY

The court shall instruct the jurors to select one of their number foreman.

Committee Note: This rule was inserted in order to clarify the system of selecting jury foreman.

Rule 1.400 DELIBERATION OF JURY; WHAT JURORS MAY HAVE WITH THEM

Upon retiring for deliberation the jurors may, if the court permits, take or later have sent to them:

(a) Forms of verdict approved by the court, after being first submitted to counsel;

(b) Any written instructions given; but if any such instruction is taken or sent all the instructions shall be taken or sent;

(c) All things received in evidence other than depositions. If the thing received in evidence is a public record or a private document which, in the opinion of the court, ought not to be taken from the person having it in custody, a copy shall be taken or sent instead of the original.

Committee Note: (a) and (b) same as 919.04 (1) & (2).

Section (c) was changed from the existing 919.04(3) by adding to the things which should not be taken with or sent to the jury, written or recorded statements or confessions. It was felt by the committee that the present practice of allowing such things to be taken with the jury is unfair and emphasizes such statements or confessions to the jury. Since they are always read to the jury they should receive no additional emphasis than the testimony of any witness from the stand.

Rule 1.410 RETURN OF JURY FOR SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTIONS

After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict, if they desire additional instruction upon any point of law arising in the cause or to have any testimony, about which they are in doubt or disagreement, read to them, they shall, upon their request, be conducted into the courtroom by the officer who has them in charge and the court shall give them such additional instruction or shall order such testimony read to them. Such instruction shall be given and such testimony read only after notice to the prosecuting attorney and to counsel for the defendant.

Committee Note: Same as 919.05.

Rule 1.420 RECALL OF JURY FOR ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

The court may recall the jurors after they have retired to consider their verdict to give them additional instructions, or to correct any erroneous instruction it has given them. Such additional or corrective instructions may be given only after notice to the prosecuting attorney and to counsel for the defendant.

Committee Note: Same as 919.06.

Rule 1.430 JURY NOT RECALLABLE TO HEAR ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict the court shall not recall the jurors to hear additional evidence.

Committee Note: Same as 919.07.

XI THE VERDICT

Rule 1.440 RENDITION OF VERDICT; RECEPTION AND RECORDING

When the jurors have agreed upon a verdict they shall be conducted into the courtroom by the officer having them in charge. The court shall ask the foreman if an agreement has been reached on a verdict. If the foreman answers in the affirmative, the judge shall call upon him to deliver the verdict in writing to the clerk. The court may then examine the verdict and correct it as to matters of form with the unanimous consent of the jurors. The clerk shall then read the verdict to the jurors and unless disagreement is expressed by one or more of them or the jury be polled, the verdict shall be entered of record, and the jurors discharged from the cause. No verdict may be rendered unless all of the trial jurors concur in it.

Committee Note: Same as 919.09.

Rule 1.450 POLLING THE JURY

Upon the motion of either the state or the defendant or upon its own motion, the court shall cause the jurors to be asked severally if the verdict rendered is their verdict. If a juror dissents, the court must direct that the jury be sent back for further consideration; if there be no dissent the verdict shall be entered of record and the jurors discharged. Provided, however, that no motion to poll the jury shall be entertained after the jury is discharged or the verdict recorded.

Committee Note: Same as 919.10, except elimination of polling jury after directed verdict in view of innovation of "judgment of acquittal."

Rule 1.460 ACQUITTAL FOR CAUSE OF INSANITY

When a person tried for an offense shall be acquitted by the jury for the cause of insanity, the jury, in giving their verdict of not guilty, shall state that it was given for such cause. If the discharge or going at large of such insane person shall be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, the court shall order him to be committed to jail or otherwise to be cared for as an insane person, or may give him into the care of his friends, on their giving satisfactory security for the proper care and protection of such person; otherwise he shall be discharged.

Committee Note: Same as 919.11.

Rule 1.470 PROCEEDINGS ON SEALED VERDICT

The court may, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant, direct the jurors that if they should agree upon a verdict during a temporary adjournment of the court, the foreman and each juror shall sign the same, and such verdict shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the officer having charge of the jury, after which the jury may separate until the next convening of the court, at which time they shall reassemble in the jury box. The officer shall, at the earliest possible moment, deliver the sealed verdict to the clerk. When the jurors have reassembled in open court, the envelope shall be opened by the court or clerk and the same proceedings shall be had as in the receiving of other verdicts, with the exception that, the verdict having been signed by each juror, there shall be no polling of the jury.

Committee Note: Same as 919.12.

Rule 1.480 ADMONITION TO JURORS AS TO SEALED VERDICT

When the court authorizes the rendition of a sealed verdict it shall admonish the jurors not to make any disclosure concerning it, nor to speak with other persons concerning the cause, until their verdict shall have been rendered in open court.

Committee Note: Same as 919.13.

Rule 1.490 DETERMINATION OF DEGREE OF OFFENSE

If the indictment, information, or affidavit upon which defendant is to be tried, charges an offense which is divided into degrees, without specifying the degree, the jurors may find the defendant guilty of any degree of the offense charged; if the indictment, information or affidavit charges a particular degree the jurors may find the defendant guilty of the degree charged or of any lesser degree. The court shall in all such cases charge the jury as to the degree of the offense.

Committee Note: Same as 919.14.

Rule 1.500 VERDICT OF GUILTY WHERE MORE THAN ONE COUNT

If different offenses are charged in the indictment, information, or affidavit on which the defendant is tried, the jurors shall, if they convict the defendant, make it appear by their verdict on which counts (if the indictment, information, or affidavit is divided into counts) or of which offenses they find him guilty.

Committee Note: Same as 919.15.

Rule 1.510 CONVICTION OF ATTEMPT; LESSER INCLUDED OFFENSE

Upon an indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant is to be tried for any offense the jurors may convict the defendant of an attempt to commit such offense if such attempt is an offense, or may convict him of any offense which is necessarily included in the offense charged. The Court shall charge the jury in this regard.

Committee Note: Same as 919.16. The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the subcommittee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.520 VERDICT IN CASE OF JOINT DEFENDANTS

On the trial of two or more defendants jointly the jurors may render a verdict as to any defendant in regard to whom the jurors agree.

Committee Note: Same as 919.17.

Rule 1.530 RECONSIDERATION OF AMBIGUOUS OR DEFECTIVE VERDICT

If a verdict is so defective that the court cannot determine from it whether the jurors intended to acquit the defendant or to convict him of an offense for which judgment could be entered under the indictment, information, or affidavit upon which the defendant is tried, or cannot determine from it on what count or counts the jurors intended to acquit or convict the defendant, the court shall, with proper instructions, direct the jurors to reconsider the verdict, and the verdict shall not be received until it shall clearly appear therefrom whether the jurors intended to convict or acquit the defendant and on what count or counts they intended to acquit or convict him, unless they persist in rendering such defective verdict, in which case the verdict shall be received and entered of record as rendered.

Committee Note: Same as 919.18.

Rule 1.540 WHEN VERDICT MAY BE RENDERED

A verdict may be rendered and additional or corrective instructions given on any day, including Sunday or any legal holiday.

Committee Note: Same as 919.19.

Rule 1.550 DISPOSITION OF DEFENDANT

If a verdict of guilty is rendered the defendant shall, if in custody, be remanded; if he is at large on bail he may be taken into custody and committed to the proper official, or remain at liberty on the same or additional bail as the court may direct.

Committee Note: Same as 919.20.

Rule 1.560 DISCHARGE OF JURORS

After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict the court shall discharge them from the cause when:

- (a) Their verdict has been received;
- (b) Upon the expiration of such time as the court deems proper, the court finds there is no reasonable probability that the jurors can agree upon a verdict;
- (c) A necessity exists for their discharge.

The court may in any event discharge the jurors from the cause if the prosecuting attorney and the defendant consent to such discharge.

Committee Note: Same as 919.21 except (4) omitted.

Rule 1.570 IRREGULARITY IN RENDITION, EXCEPTION AND RECORDING OF VERDICT

No irregularity in the rendition or reception of a verdict may be raised unless it is raised before the jury is discharged. No irregularity in the recording of a verdict shall affect its validity unless the defendant was in fact prejudiced by such irregularity.

Committee Note: Same as 919.22.

Section 919.23 was not included in the rules. This deals with the recommendation of mercy and it was felt that this was not procedural but substantive and not within the scope of the rule making power of the Supreme Court.

XII POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

Rule 1.580 COURT MAY GRANT NEW TRIAL

When a verdict has been rendered against the defendant or the defendant has been found guilty by the court, the court on motion of the defendant, or on its own motion, may grant a new trial or arrest judgment.

Committee Note: Same as Section 920.01 except arrest of judgment is added.

Rule 1.590 TIME FOR AND METHOD OF MAKING MOTIONS; PROCEDURE; CUSTODY PENDING HEARING

(a) A motion for new trial or in arrest of judgment, or both, may be made within four days, or such greater time as the court may allow, not to exceed fifteen days, after the rendition of the verdict or the finding of the court.

(b) When the defendant has been found guilty by a jury or by the court, such a motion may be dictated into the record, if a court reporter is present, and may be argued immediately after the return of the verdict or the finding of the court. The court may immediately rule upon the motion.

(c) Such motion may be in writing, filed with the clerk; it shall state the grounds on which it is based. A copy of a written motion shall be served on the prosecuting attorney. When the court sets a time for the hearing thereon, the clerk may notify counsel for the respective parties, or the attorney for the defendant may serve notice of hearing on the prosecuting officer.

(d) Until such motion is disposed of, a defendant who is not already at liberty on bail shall remain in custody and not be allowed his liberty on bail unless the court upon good cause shown, (if the offense for which the defendant is convicted is bailable) permit the defendant to be released upon bail until the motion is disposed of. If the defendant is already at liberty on bail which is deemed by the court to be good and sufficient, it may permit him to continue at large upon such bail until the motion for new trial is heard and disposed of.

Committee Note: (a) The same as the first part of Section 920.02 (3), except that the statutory word "further" is changed to "greater" in the Rule and provision for motion in arrest of judgment is added.

(b) Substantially the same as first part of Section 920.02(2). The Rule omits the requirement that the defendant be sentenced immediately upon the denial of his motion for new trial (the court might wish to place the defendant on probation or might desire to call for a pre-sentence investigation). The Rule also omits the statute's requirement that an order of denial be dictated to the court reporter, since the clerk is supposed to be taking minutes at this stage.

Note: The provisions of the last part of Section 920.02(2) as to supersedeas and appeal are not incorporated into this Rule; such provisions are not germane to motions for new trial or arrest of judgment.

(c) Substantially same as Section 920.03.

(d) Substantially same as last part of Section 920.02(3) except that the last sentence of the Rule is new.

Note: The provisions of Section 920.02(4), relating to supersedeas on appeal and the steps which are necessary to obtain one, are not incorporated into a rule. The provisions of this subsection do not belong in a group of rules dealing with motions for new trial.

Rule 1.600 GROUNDS FOR NEW TRIAL

(a) The court shall grant a new trial if any of the following grounds is established:

(1) That the jurors decided the verdict by lot;

(2) That the verdict is contrary to law or the weight of the evidence;

(3) That new and material evidence, that if introduced at the trial would probably have changed the verdict or finding of the court, and that the defendant could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced upon the trial, has been discovered.

(b) The court shall grant a new trial if any of the following grounds is established, providing substantial rights of the defendant were prejudiced thereby:

(1) That the defendant was not present at any proceeding at which his presence is required by these rules;

(2) That the jury received any evidence out of court, other than that resulting from an authorized view of the premises;

(3) That the jurors, after retiring to deliberate upon the verdict, separated without leave of court;

(4) That any of the jurors was guilty of misconduct;

(5) That the prosecuting attorney was guilty of misconduct;

(6) That the court erred in the decision of any matter of law arising during the course of the trial;

(7) That the court erroneously instructed the jury on a matter of law or refused to give a proper instruction requested by the defendant;

(8) That, for any other cause not due to the defendant's own fault, he did not receive a fair and impartial trial.

(c) When a motion for new trial calls for a decision on any question of fact, the court may consider evidence on such motion by affidavit or otherwise.

Committee Note: Same as Sections 920.04 and 920.05 except that the last paragraph of Section 920.05 is omitted from the Rule. The provision of said omitted paragraph that a new trial shall be granted to a defendant who has not received a fair and impartial trial through no fault of his own is inserted in the Rule as subsection b(8). The provision of said omitted paragraph of the statute which requires a new trial when the sentence exceeds the penalty provided by law is omitted from the Rule because no defendant is entitled to a new trial merely because an excessive sentence has been pronounced upon him. The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the sub-committee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

(c) Same as second paragraph of 920.07.

Rule 1.610 MOTION FOR ARREST OF JUDGMENT; GROUNDS

(a) The court shall grant a motion in arrest of judgment only on one or more of the following grounds:

(1) That the indictment, information or affidavit upon which the defendant was tried is so defective that it will not support a judgment of conviction;

(2) That the court is without jurisdiction of the cause;

(3) That the verdict is so uncertain that it does not appear therefrom that the jurors intended to convict the defendant of an offense of which he could be convicted under the indictment, information or affidavit under which he was tried;

(4) That the defendant was convicted of an offense for which he could not be convicted under the indictment, information or affidavit under which he was tried.

Committee Note: Note that (a) (1) of the Rule revamps Section 920.05(2)(a) through (d) in an effort to better take into account the fact that an accusatorial writ which would not withstand a motion to quash (dismiss) might well support a judgment of conviction if no such motion is filed. (See Sinclair v. State, Fla., 46 So.2d 453.)

Note also that, where appropriate, the Rule mentions "affidavit" in addition to "indictment" and "information." The standing committee on Florida Court rules raised the question as to whether or not this rule is procedural or substantive and directed the sub-committee to call this fact to the attention of the Supreme Court.

Rule 1.620 WHEN EVIDENCE SUSTAINS ONLY CONVICTION OF LESSER OFFENSE

When the offense is divided into degrees or necessarily includes lesser offenses, and the court, on a motion for new trial, is of the opinion that the evidence does not sustain the verdict but is sufficient to sustain a finding of guilt of a lesser degree or of a lesser offense necessarily included in the one charged, the court shall not grant a new trial but shall find or adjudge the defendant guilty of such lesser degree or lesser offense necessarily included in the charge, unless a new trial is granted by reason of some other prejudicial error.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Section 920.06.

Rule 1.630 SENTENCE BEFORE OR AFTER MOTION FILED; EVIDENCE AT HEARING

The court in its discretion may sentence the defendant either before or after the filing of a motion for new trial or arrest of judgment.

Committee Note: Same as first paragraph of Section 920.07. Provision for arrest of judgment is added.

Rule 1.640 EFFECT OF GRANTING NEW TRIAL

(a) New Trial for Greater Offense Prohibited.—When a new trial is granted, the new trial shall proceed in all respects as if no former trial had been had except that when an offense is divided into degrees or the charge includes a lesser offense, and the defendant has been found guilty of a lesser degree or lesser included offense, he cannot thereafter be prosecuted for a higher degree of the same offense or for a higher offense than that of which he was convicted.

(b) Witnesses and Former Testimony at New Trial.—The testimony given during the former trial may not be read in evidence at the new trial unless it is that of a witness who at the time of the new trial is absent from the state, mentally incompetent to be a witness, physically unable to appear and testify, or dead, in which event the evidence of such witness on the former trial may be read in evidence at the new trial as the same was taken and transcribed by the court reporter. Before the introduction of the evidence of an absent witness, the party introducing the same must show due diligence on his part in attempting to procure the attendance of witnesses at the trial, and must show that the witness is not absent by consent or connivance of such party.

Note: Based on Section 920.09. The second paragraph of the existing statute allows the testimony of an absent witness, given at a former trial, to be used only when he is absent from the state or dead. This has been enlarged to include absent witnesses who are physically incapacitated to attend court or one who has become mentally incapacitated to be a witness since the former trial.

XIII JUDGMENT

Rule 1.650 JUDGMENT DEFINED

The term "judgment" means the adjudication by the court that the defendant is guilty or not guilty.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as Section 921.01.

Rule 1.660 MOTION FOR JUDGMENT OF ACQUITTAL

(a) If, at the close of the evidence for the state or at the close of all the evidence in the cause, the court is of the opinion that the evidence is insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may, and on the motion of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, shall, enter a judgment of acquittal.

(b) A motion for judgment of acquittal is not waived by subsequent introduction of evidence on behalf of the defendant, but after introduction of evidence by the defendant, the motion for judgment of acquittal must be renewed at the close of all the evidence. Such motion must fully set forth the grounds upon which it is based.

Committee Note: Substantially same as 918.08 except as follows:

(a) The existing statutory practice of granting directed verdicts is abolished in favor of the Federal practice of having the judge enter a judgment of acquittal.

(b) The wording was changed to comply with the judgment of acquittal theory. A majority of the committee felt that the substance of the existing statute was all right, but a minority felt that the language should be changed so that a defendant would waive an erroneous denial of his motion for judgment of acquittal by introducing evidence. This point was raised in Wiggins v. State, Fla.App., 101 So.2d 833, wherein the court said that this statute is "inaptly worded."

Rule 1.670 RENDITION OF JUDGMENT

If the defendant is found guilty, a judgment of guilty, and, if he has been acquitted, a judgment of not guilty, shall be rendered in open court and in writing, signed by the judge and filed; and, if in a court of record, recorded, otherwise, entered on the court's docket. However, the judge may withhold such adjudication of guilt if he places the defendant on probation.

When a judge renders a final judgment of conviction, imposes a sentence, grants probation or revokes probation, he shall forthwith inform the defendant concerning his rights of appeal therefrom, including the time allowed by law for taking an appeal.

Committee Note: To the same effect as Section 921.02, except the portion reading "in writing, signed by the Judge" which was added. Last sentence was added to permit judge to operate under 948.01(3).

The Florida law forming the basis of this proposal is found in sections 4 and 5, Article V, Constitution of Florida, concerning the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction; sec. 924.06 Florida Statutes, specifying when a defendant may take an appeal; sec. 924.09 Florida Statutes and Florida Criminal Appellate Rule 6.2 concerning the time for taking appeals by a defendant in criminal cases, and sec. 948.011 Florida Statutes providing for a sentence of a fine and probation as to imprisonment.

The purpose of the proposed rule is to provide assurance that a defendant, represented or unrepresented by counsel, will have authoritative and timely notice of his right to appeal.

Rule 1.680 JUDGMENT ON INFORMAL VERDICT

If a verdict is rendered from which it can be clearly understood that it is the intention of the jurors to acquit the defendant, a judgment of not guilty shall be rendered thereon even though the verdict is defective. No judgment of guilty shall be rendered on a verdict unless the jurors clearly express in it a finding of guilt of the defendant.

Committee Note: Same as sec. 921.03.

Rule 1.690 JUDGMENT OF NOT GUILTY; DEFENDANT DISCHARGED AND SURETIES EXONERATED

When a judgment of not guilty is entered, the defendant, if in custody, shall be immediately discharged therefrom unless he is in custody on some other charge; if he is at large on bail, his sureties shall be exonerated and if money or bonds have been deposited as bail, such money or bonds shall be refunded.

Committee Note: Same as sec. 921.04.

XIV SENTENCE

Rule 1.700 SENTENCE DEFINED; PRONOUNCEMENT AND ENTRY

(a) The term sentence means the pronouncement by the court of the penalty imposed upon a defendant for the offense of which he has been adjudged guilty.

(b) Every sentence shall be pronounced in open court, shall be entered in the minutes in courts in which minutes are kept, and shall be docketed in courts which do not maintain minutes.

Committee Note: This Rule is a revamped version of Section 921.05.

Rule 1.710 HOW DEFENDANT BROUGHT BEFORE COURT WHEN NOT IN CUSTODY

Whenever the court deems it necessary to do so in order to procure the presence of the defendant before it for the adjudication of guilt or the pronouncement of sentence, or both, when he is not in custody, it shall direct the clerk to issue immediately, or when directed by the prosecuting attorney, a capias for the arrest of such defendant. Subsequent capiases may be issued from time to time by direction of the court or the prosecuting attorney.

Committee Note: A revamped version of sec. 921.06, adding provision that defendant be required to be present at the adjudication of guilt.

Rule 1.720 DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO SHOW CAUSE WHY SENTENCE SHOULD NOT BE PRONOUNCED

When sentence is to be pronounced, the court shall inform the defendant of the accusation against him and of the judgment and shall ask him whether he has any cause to show why sentence should not be pronounced.

Committee Note: Same as sec. 921.07.

Rule 1.730 CAUSES FOR NOT PRONOUNCING SENTENCE

The person before the court to be sentenced may allege and show as cause why sentence should not be pronounced, only:

(a) That he has become insane since pleading guilty or nolo contendere or since being found guilty by the court or by the verdict of a jury;

(b) That he has been pardoned of the offense for which he is about to be sentenced;

(c) That he is not the same person against whom the verdict or finding of the court or judgment was rendered;

(d) If the defendant is a woman, and the sentence of death is to be pronounced, that she is pregnant.

Committee Note: A revamped version of sec. 921.08.

Rule 1.740 PROCEDURE WHEN INSANITY IS ALLEGED AS CAUSE FOR NOT PRONOUNCING SENTENCE

(a) When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is insanity, if the court has reasonable ground to believe that the defendant is insane, it shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence and shall immediately fix a time for a hearing to determine the defendant's mental condition. The court may appoint not exceeding three disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant and testify at the hearing as to his mental condition. Other evidence regarding the defendant's mental condition may be introduced at the hearing by either party.

(b) If the court, after the hearing, decides that the defendant is sane, it shall proceed to pronounce sentence or place the defendant on probation. If, however, it decides that the defendant is insane, it shall take proper steps to have him committed to the appropriate institution. If, after a defendant has been committed to an institution as insane, the proper officer of such institution is of the opinion that the defendant is sane and so reports to the court, the court shall fix a time for a hearing to determine whether the defendant is sane. This hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as the original hearing to determine the defendant's insanity. If found sane, the court shall proceed to pronounce sentence; if found insane the defendant shall again be committed as hereinabove set forth. No defendant committed by a court to an institution, by reason of any examination referred to in this paragraph, shall be released therefrom without the consent of the court committing him.

Committee Note: This Rule is a composite of sections 921.09 and 917.01, except for requirement that proper officer of institution "shall" report, etc., the committee having felt that court rule could not govern conduct of institution officers. This should be done by statute.

Rule 1.750 PROCEDURE WHEN PARDON IS ALLEGED AS CAUSE FOR NOT PRONOUNCING SENTENCE

When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is that the defendant has been pardoned for the offense for which he is about to be sentenced, the court, if necessary, shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence for the purpose of hearing evidence on such allegation. If the court decides that such allegation is true, it shall discharge such person from custody unless he is in custody on some other charge. If, however, it decides that such allegation is not true, it shall proceed to pronounce sentence.

Committee Note: A revamped version of sec. 921.10.

Rule 1.760 PROCEDURE WHEN NONIDENTITY IS ALLEGED AS CAUSE FOR NOT PRONOUNCING SENTENCE

When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is that the person brought before the court to be sentenced is not the same person against whom the verdict, finding of the court or judgment was rendered, the court, if necessary, shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence for the purpose of hearing evidence on such allegation. If the court decides that such allegation is true, it shall discharge such person from custody unless he is in custody on some other charge. If, however, it decides that such allegation is not true, it shall proceed to pronounce sentence.

Committee Note: A revamped version of sec. 921.11.

Rule 1.770 PROCEDURE WHEN PREGNANCY IS ALLEGED AS CAUSE FOR NOT PRONOUNCING SENTENCE

When pregnancy of a female defendant is alleged as the cause for not pronouncing the death sentence, the court shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence until after it has decided the truth of such allegation. If necessary in order to arrive at such a decision, it shall immediately fix a time for a hearing to determine whether or not such defendant is pregnant and shall appoint not exceeding three competent disinterested physicians to examine the defendant as to her alleged pregnancy and to testify at the hearing as to whether or not she is pregnant. Other evidence regarding whether or not such defendant is pregnant may be introduced at the hearing by either party. If the court decides that the defendant is not pregnant, it shall proceed to pronounce sentence. If it decides that she is pregnant, it shall commit her to prison until it appears that she is not pregnant and shall then pronounce sentence upon her.

Committee Note: A revamped version of Section 921.12.

NOTE that the Rule omits the statutory provisions for the payment of fees to the examining physicians. The Supreme Court probably does not have the power to make rules governing such matters.

Rule 1.780 INQUIRY INTO MITIGATING OR AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES PRIOR TO SENTENCE

When the court has discretion as to the penalty to be inflicted on the defendant, it shall, upon the suggestion of either party that there are circumstances which may properly be taken into consideration, hear evidence as to the same summarily in open court, either immediately or at a specified time and upon such notice to the adverse party as the court may direct; or the court may inquire into such circumstances on its own motion.

Committee Note: Same as section 921.13.

Rule 1.790 PROBATION HEARING; PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION; SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE; ORDER OF PROBATION

(a) Probation Hearing; Presentence Investigation.—In cases in which probation is authorized by law, either with or without an adjudication of guilt, the trial court, after guilt has been established by verdict of a jury, a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere, or a finding by the court trying the case without a jury, may hear and determine the question of probation of the defendant. Prior to such hearing the court may refer the case to the state probation and parole commission or county probation officer for investigation and recommendation as an aid to facilitating the proper disposition of the case.

(b) Suspension of the Pronouncement and Imposition of Sentence; Probation.—Pronouncement and imposition of sentence of imprisonment shall not be made upon a defendant who is to be placed on probation regardless of whether such defendant has or has not been adjudicated guilty. An order of the court placing a person on probation shall place the probationer under the authority of the state probation and parole commission to be supervised as provided by law.

(c) Revocation of Probation; Judgment;

Sentence.—When a probationer is brought before a court charged with a violation of probation, the court shall advise him of such charge and if the charge is admitted to be true may forthwith enter an order revoking, modifying or continuing the probation. If such violation of probation is not admitted by the probationer, the court may commit him or release him with or without bail to await further hearing, or it may dismiss the charge of violation of probation. If the charge is not admitted by the probationer and if it is not dismissed, the court, as soon as may be practicable, shall give the probationer an opportunity to be fully heard in person, by counsel, or both. After such hearing, the court may enter an order revoking, modifying or continuing the probation. Following a revocation of probation, the trial court shall adjudicate the defendant guilty of the crime forming the basis of his probation, if no such adjudication has been made previously. Pronouncement and imposition of sentence then shall be made upon such defendant.

Committee Note: (a) & (b) contain the procedural aspects of 948.01(1), (2), (3) FS. It should be noted that in (b) provision is made for no pronouncements in addition to no imposition of sentence prior to the granting of probation. The terminology in 948.01(3) FS is that the trial court shall "withhold the imposition of sentence." The selected terminology is deemed preferable to the present statutory language since the latter is apparently subject to misconstruction whereby a sentence may be pronounced and merely the execution of the sentence is suspended.

The Third District Court of Appeal has indicated that the proper procedure to be followed is that probation be granted prior to sentencing. A sentence, therefore, is not a prerequisite of probation. (See Yates v. Buchanan, 170 So.2d 72 (1964); also see Bateh v. State, 101 So.2d 869 (1958), decided by the First District Court of Appeal to the same effect.)

While a trial court initially can set a probationary period at less than the maximum allowed by law, he may extend this period to the maximum if he acts prior to the expiration of the initially-set probationary period. (Pickman v. State, 155 So.2d 646 (1st D.C.A. 1963). This means, therefore, that any specific time set by the court as to the probationary period is not binding on the court if he acts timely in modifying it. It is clear, in view of the foregoing, that if a trial judge pronounces a definite sentence and then purports to suspend its execution and place the defendant on probation for the period of time specified in the sentence matters may become unduly complicated.

If such procedure is considered to be nothing more than an informal manner of suspending the imposition of sentence and thus adhering to present statutory requirements, it should be noted that the time specified in the "sentence" is not binding on the court with reference to subsequent modification, if timely action follows. On the other hand if the action of the trial court is considered strictly it would be held to be void as not in conformity with statutory requirements.

A probationary period is not a sentence and any procedure that tends to mix them is undesirable, even though this mixture is accomplished by nothing more than the terminology used by the trial court in its desire to place a person on probation. (See 948.04 & 948.06(1) in which clear distinctions are drawn between the period of a sentence and the period of probation.)

(c) Contains the procedural aspects of 948.06(1) FS.

Rule 1.800 CORRECTION AND REDUCTION OF SENTENCES

(a) A court may at any time correct an illegal sentence imposed by it.

(b) A court may reduce a legal sentence imposed by it at the same term of court at which it has been imposed, or if such term ends less than sixty days after the imposition of the sentence, then within sixty days after such imposition, or within sixty days after receipt by the court of a mandate issued by the appellate court upon affirmance of the judgment and/or sentence upon an original appeal, or within sixty days after receipt by the court of a certified copy of an order of the appellate court dismissing an original appeal from the judgment and/or sentence, or, if further appellate review is sought in a higher court or in successively higher courts, then within sixty days after the highest state or federal court to which a timely appeal has been taken under authority of law, or in which a petition for certiorari has been timely filed under authority of law, has entered an order of affirmance or an order dismissing the appeal and/or denying certiorari.

Committee Note: Same as sections 921.24 and 921.25. Similar to Federal Rule 35.

XV EXECUTION OF SENTENCE

Rule 1.810 COMMITMENT OF DEFENDANT; DUTY OF SHERIFF

Upon pronouncement of a sentence imposing a penalty other than a fine only or death, the court shall, unless the execution of the sentence is suspended or stayed, and, in such case, upon termination of the suspension or stay, forthwith commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff under a commitment to which shall be attached a certified copy of the sentence and, unless both are contained in the same instrument if the sentence be to imprisonment in the state prison, a certified copy of the judgment of conviction and a certified copy of the indictment or information, and the sheriff shall thereupon, within a reasonable time, if he is not the proper official to execute the sentence, transfer the defendant, together with the commitment and attached certified copies, to the custody of the official whose duty it is to execute the sentence, and shall take from such person a receipt for the defendant and make a return thereof to the court.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as section 922.01. There has been added to the Rule the requirement that, if the commitment be to the state prison, it shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the judgment of conviction and a certified copy of the indictment or information. (Section 944.18 requires a certified copy of the indictment or information to be transmitted to the Division of Corrections; the Division of Corrections should also have a certified copy of the judgment.)

Rule 1.820 HABEAS CORPUS; CUSTODY PENDING APPEAL

(a) When a defendant has been sentenced, and is actually serving his sentence, and has not appealed from the judgment or sentence, but seeks his release from imprisonment by habeas corpus proceedings, and the writ has been refused, or the writ has been discharged after it has been issued, the custody of the prisoner shall not be disturbed, pending a review of the appellate court.

(b) Pending a review of a decision discharging a prisoner on habeas corpus, he shall be discharged upon bail, with sureties to be approved as other bail bonds are approved, for his appearance to answer and abide by the judgment of the appellate court.

Committee Note: Same as section 922.03.

XVI CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

Rule 1.830 DIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

A criminal contempt may be punished summarily if the court saw or heard the conduct constituting the contempt committed in the actual presence of the court. The judgment of guilt of contempt shall include a recital of those facts upon which the adjudication of guilt is based. Prior to the adjudication of guilt the judge shall inform the defendant of the accusation against him and inquire as to whether he has any cause to show why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt by the court and sentenced therefor. The defendant shall be given the opportunity to present evidence of excusing or mitigating circumstances. The judgment shall be signed by the judge and entered of record. Sentence shall be pronounced in open court.

Committee Note: This proposal is consistent with present Florida practice in authorizing summary proceedings in direct criminal contempt cases (See Ballengee v. State, 144 So.2d 68 (Fla. App. 1962); Baumgartner v. Joughin, 105 Fla. 335, 141 So. 185; also see State ex rel. Grebstein v. Lehman, 100 Fla. 481, 129 So. 818, holding that the defendant is not entitled to notice of the accusation nor to a motion for attachment.) Fairness dictates that the defendant be allowed to present excusing or mitigating evidence even in direct criminal contempt cases.

Much of the terminology of the proposal is patterned after Federal Criminal Procedure Rule 42(a) with variations for purposes of clarity. What may be considered a significant change from the terminology of the Federal Rule is that the proposal provides for a "judgment" of contempt, whereas the term "order" of contempt is used in the Federal Rule. Both terms have been used in Florida appellate cases. The term "judgment" is preferred here since it is consistent with the procedure of adjudicating guilt and is more easily reconciled with a "conviction" of contempt, common terminology on the trial and appellate levels in Florida. It also is consistent with appeals in contempt cases (e.g., see State ex rel. Shotkin v. Buchanan, 149 So.2d 574, 98 A.L.R.2d 683, Fla. App. 1963, for the use of the term "judgment").

Rule 1.840 INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

(a) Indirect (Constructive) Criminal Contempt.—A criminal contempt, except as provided in the preceding subsection concerning direct contempts, shall be prosecuted in the following manner:

(1) Order to Show Cause.—The judge, of his own motion or upon affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts, may issue and sign an order directed to the defendant, stating the essential facts constituting the criminal contempt charged and requiring him to appear before the court to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court. The order shall specify the time and place of the hearing, with a reasonable time allowed for preparation of the defense after service of the order on the defendant.

(2) Motions; Answer.—The defendant, personally or by counsel, may move to dismiss the order to show cause, move for a statement of particulars or answer such order by way of explanation or defense. All motions and the answer shall be in writing unless specified otherwise by the judge. A defendant's omission to file motions or answer shall not be deemed as an admission of guilt of the contempt charged.

(3) Order of Arrest; Bail.—The judge may issue an order of arrest of the defendant if the judge has reason to believe the defendant will not appear in response to the order to show cause. The defendant shall be admitted to bail in the manner provided by law in criminal cases.

(4) Arraignment; Hearing.—The defendant may be arraigned at the time of the hearing, or prior thereto upon his request. A hearing to determine the guilt or innocence of the defendant shall follow a plea of not guilty. The judge may conduct the hearing without assistance of counsel or may be assisted by the prosecuting attorney or by an attorney appointed for that purpose. The defendant is entitled to be represented by counsel, have compulsory process for the attendance of witnesses, and may testify in his own defense.

All issues of law shall be heard and determined by the judge; all issues of fact shall be heard and determined by a jury of six persons selected as in criminal cases, unless waived by the defendant.

(5) Disqualification of Judge.—If the contempt charged involves disrespect to or criticism of a judge he shall disqualify himself from presiding at the hearing. Another judge shall be designated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

(6) Verdict; Judgment.—At the conclusion of the hearing the jury shall consider and render its verdict of guilty or not guilty. The judge shall sign and enter of record a judgment in accordance with the verdict. Upon a verdict of guilty there shall be included in the judgment a recital of the facts constituting the contempt of which the defendant has been found and adjudicated guilty.

(7) The Sentence; Indirect Contempt.—Prior to the pronouncement of sentence, the judge shall inform the defendant of the accusation and judgment against him and inquire as to whether he has any cause to show why sentence should not be pronounced. The defendant shall be afforded the opportunity to present evidence of mitigating circumstances. The sentence shall be pronounced in open court and in the presence of the defendant.

Committee Note: (a)(1) Order to Show Cause.—The courts have used various and, at times, misleading terminology with reference to this phase of the procedure, viz., "citation," "rule nisi," "rule," "rule to show cause," "information," "indicted," and "order to show cause." Although all apparently have been used with the same connotation the terminology chosen probably is more readily understandable than the others. This term is used in Federal Rule 42(b) dealing with indirect criminal contempts.

In proceedings for indirect contempt, due process of law requires that the accused be given notice of the charge and a reasonable opportunity to meet it by way of defense or explanation. (State ex rel. Giblin v. Sullivan, 157 Fla. 496, 26 So.2d 509; State ex rel. Geary v. Kelly, 137 So.2d 262, 263 (Fla. App. 1962).)

The petition (affidavit is used here) must be filed by someone having actual knowledge of the facts and must be under oath. Phillips v. State, 147 So.2d 163 (Fla. App. 1962); see also Croft v. Culbreath, 150 Fla. 60, 6 So.2d 638; Ex parte Biggers, 85 Fla. 322, 95 So. 763.

(2) Motions; Answer.—The appellate courts of Florida, while apparently refraining from making motions and answers indispensable parts of the procedure, seem to regard them with favor in appropriate situations. (Re motion to quash and motion for statement of particulars—see Geary v. State, 139 So.2d 891 (Fla. App. 1962); re the answer—see State ex rel. Huie v. Lewis, 80 So.2d 685 (Fla. 1955).)

Elsewhere in these rules is a recommended proposal that a motion to dismiss replace the present motion to quash; hence, the motion to dismiss is recommended here.

The proposal contains no requirement that the motions or answer be under oath. Until sec. 38.22 FS was amended in 1945 there prevailed in Florida the common law rule that denial under oath is conclusive and requires discharge of the defendant in indirect contempt cases; the discharge was considered as justified because the defendant could be convicted of perjury if he had sworn falsely in the answer or in a motion whereby he denied the charge. The amendment of sec. 38.22 FS, however, has been construed to no longer justify the discharge of the defendant merely because he denies the charge under oath. (See Ex parte Earman, 85 Fla. 297, 95 So. 755, 31 A.L.R. 1226 (1923) re the common law; see Dodd v. State, 110 So.2d 22 (Fla. 1959) re the construction of sec. 38.22 as amended.) There appears, therefore, no necessity of requiring that a pleading directed to the order to show cause be under oath, except as a matter of policy of holding potential perjury prosecutions over the heads of defendants. It is recommended, therefore, that no oath be required at this stage of the proceeding.

Due process of law in the prosecution for indirect contempt requires that the defendant have the right to assistance by counsel. (Baumgartner v. Joughin, 105 Fla. 335, 141 So. 185, adhered to in 107 Fla. 858, 143 So. 436.)

(3) Order of Arrest; Bail.—Arrest and bail, although apparently used only rarely, where permissible at common law and, accordingly, are unobjectionable under present Florida law. At times each should serve a useful purpose in contempt proceedings and should be included in the rule. (As to the common law see Ex parte Biggers, 85 Fla. 322, 95 So. 763 (1923).)

(4) Arraignment; Hearing.—Provision is made for a pre-hearing arraignment in case the defendant wishes to plead guilty to the charge prior to the date set for the hearing. The defendant has a constitutional right to a hearing under the due process clauses of the state and federal constitutions. (State ex rel. Pipia v. Buchanan, 168 So.2d 783 (Fla. App. 1964).) This right includes the right to assistance of counsel and the right to call witnesses. (Baumgartner v. Joughin, 105 Fla. 335, 141 So. 185.) The defendant cannot be compelled to testify against himself. (Demetree v. State ex rel. Marsh, 89 So.2d 498 (Fla. 1956).)

Sec. 38.22 FS as amended in 1945, provides that all issues of law or fact shall be heard and determined by the judge. Apparently under this statute the defendant is not only precluded from considering a jury trial as his right but also the judge has no discretion within which he may allow the defendant a jury trial. (See State ex rel. Huie v. Lewis, 80 So.2d 685 (Fla. 1955), and Dodd v. State, 110 So.2d 22 (Fla.

There is no reason to believe that the statute is unconstitutional as being in violation of sec. 11 of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution which provides, in part, that the accused in all criminal prosecutions shall have the right to a public trial by an impartial jury. Criminal contempt is not a crime; consequently, no criminal prosecution is involved. (Ballengee v. State, 144 So.2d 68 (Fla. App. 1962); State ex rel. Saunders v. Boyer, 166 So.2d 694 (Fla. App. 1964); Neering v. State, 155 So.2d 874 (Fla. 1963).)

Sec. 3 of the Declaration of Rights, providing that the right of trial by jury shall be secured to all and remain inviolate forever, also apparently is not violated. This provision has been construed many times as guaranteeing a jury trial in proceedings at common law, as practiced at the time of the adoption of the constitution (e.g., Hawkins v. Rellim Inv. Co., 92 Fla. 784, 110 So. 350), i.e., it is applicable only to cases in which the right existed before the adoption of the constitution (e.g., State ex rel. Sellers v. Parker, 87 Fla. 181, 100 So. 260). The section was never intended to extend the right of trial by jury beyond this point. (Boyd v. Dade County, 123 So.2d 323 (Fla. 1960).)

There is some authority that trial by jury in indirect criminal contempt existed in the early common law but this practice was eliminated by the Star Chamber with the result that for centuries the common law courts have punished indirect contempts without a jury trial. (See Mississippi Law Journal, vol. 36, p. 106.) The practice in Florida to date apparently has been consistent with this position. No case has been found in this State in which a person was tried by a jury for criminal contempt. (See Justice Terrell's comment adverse to such jury trials in State ex rel. Huie v. Lewis, 80 So.2d 685 (Fla. 1955).)

The United States Supreme Court has assumed the same position with reference to the dictates of the common law. This Court stated in 1964, "If it has ever been understood that proceedings according to the common law for contempt of court have been subject to the right of trial by jury, we have been unable to find any instance of it" and in answer to the contention that contempt proceedings without a jury were limited to trivial offenses, this Court states, "[W]e find no basis for a determination that, at the time the Constitution was adopted, contempt was generally regarded as not extending to cases of serious misconduct." (United States v. Barnett, 376 U.S. 681, 84 S.Ct. 984, 12 L.Ed.2d 23.) There is little doubt, therefore, that a defendant in a criminal contempt case in Florida has no constitutional right to a trial by jury.

Proponents for such trials seemingly must depend upon authorization by the legislature or Supreme Court of Florida in order to attain their objective. By enacting sec. 38.22 FS which impliedly prohibits trial by jury the legislature exhibited a legislative intent to remain consistent with the common law rule. A possible alternative is for the Supreme Court of Florida to promulgate a rule providing for such trials and assume the position that under its constitutional right to govern practice and procedure in the courts of Florida such rule would supersede sec. 38.22 FS. It is believed that the Supreme Court has such authority. Accordingly, alternate proposals are offered for the Court's consideration; the first provides for a jury trial unless waived by the defendant; the alternate is consistent with present practice.

(5) Disqualification of Judge.—Provision for the disqualification of the judge is made in Federal Rule 42(b). The proposal is patterned after this rule.

Favorable comments concerning disqualification of judges in appropriate cases may be found in opinions of the Supreme Court of Florida. See Pennekamp v. State, 156 Fla. 227, 22 So.2d 875, 881 (1945), and concurring opinion in State ex rel. Huie v. Lewis, 80 So.2d 685 (Fla. 1955).

(6) Verdict; Judgment.—"Judgment" is deemed preferable to the term "order," since the proper procedure involves an adjudication of guilty. The use of "judgment" is consistent with present Florida practice. (e.g., State ex rel. Byrd v. Anderson, 168 So.2d 554 (Fla. App. 1964); Dinnen v. State, 168 So.2d 703 (Fla. App. 1964).)

The recital in the judgment of facts constituting the contempt serves to preserve for post-conviction purposes a composite record of the offense by the person best qualified to make such recital—the judge. (See Ryals v. United States, 5 Cir. 69 F.2d 946, in which such procedure is referred to as "good practice.")

(7) The Sentence; Indirect Contempt.—The substance of this section is found in present Florida statutes sec's. 921.05(2), 921.07 and 921.13. While these sections are concerned with sentences in criminal cases, the First District Court of Appeal in 1964 held that unless a defendant convicted of criminal contempt is paid the same deference he is not being accorded due process of law as provided in section 12 of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. (Neering v. State, 164 So.2d 29 (Fla. App. 1964).)

Statement concerning the effect the adoption of this proposed rule will have on contempt statutes.

This rule is not concerned with the source of the power of courts to punish for contempt. It is concerned with desirable procedure to be employed in the implementation of such power. Consequently, its adoption will in no way affect the Florida statutes purporting to be legislative grants of authority to the courts to punish for contempt, viz., sec's. 38.22 (dealing with "all" courts), 932.03 (dealing with courts having original jurisdiction in criminal cases), and 39.13 (dealing with juvenile courts). This is true regardless of whether the source of power is considered to lie exclusively with the courts as an inherent power or is subject, at least in part, to legislative grant.

The adoption of the rule also will leave unaffected the numerous Florida statutes concerned with various situations considered by the legislature to be punishable as contempt (e.g., sec. 3823 FS), since these statutes deal with substantive rather than procedural law.

XVII POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

Rule 1.850 MOTION TO VACATE, SET ASIDE OR CORRECT SENTENCE; HEARING; APPEAL

A prisoner in custody under Sentence of a court established by the Laws of Florida claiming the right to be released upon the ground that the sentence was imposed in violation of the Constitution or Laws of the United States, or of the State of Florida, or that the court was without jurisdiction to impose such sentence, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or is otherwise subject to collateral attack, may move the court which imposed the sentence to vacate, set aside or correct the sentence.

A motion for such relief may be made at any time.

Unless the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the prisoner is entitled to no relief, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the court, grant a prompt hearing thereon, determine the issues and make findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect thereto. If the court finds that the judgment was rendered without jurisdiction, or that the sentence imposed was not authorized by law or is otherwise open to collateral attack, or that there has been such a denial or infringement of the constitutional rights of the prisoner as to render the judgment vulnerable to collateral attack, the court shall vacate and set the judgment aside and shall discharge the prisoner or resentence him or grant a new trial or correct the sentence as may appear appropriate.

A court may entertain and determine such motion without requiring the production of the prisoner at the hearing.

The sentencing court shall not be required to entertain a second or successive motion for similar relief on behalf of the same prisoner.

An appeal may be taken to the appropriate appellate court from the order entered on the motion as from a final judgment on application for a writ of habeas corpus.

An application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of a prisoner who is authorized to apply for relief by motion pursuant to this rule, shall not be entertained if it appears that the applicant has failed to apply for relief, by motion, to the court which sentenced him, or that such court has denied him relief, unless it also appears that the remedy by motion is inadequate or ineffective to test the legality of his detention.

Sec. 38.22 FS, as discussed in the preceding notes, is concerned with procedure in that it requires the court to hear and determine all questions of law or fact. Insofar, therefore, as criminal contempts are concerned the adoption of the alternate proposal providing for a jury trial will mean that the rule supersedes this aspect of the statute and the statute should be amended accordingly.

quate or ineffective to test the legality of his detention.

Rule 1.860 CRIMINAL PRACTICE BY SENIOR LAW STUDENTS

Any senior law student in an accredited law school in Florida that operates and maintains a faculty-supervised legal aid program may, with the written approval of the Supreme Court of Florida, appear in any municipal or trial court on behalf of any insolvent person accused of crime; provided, however, that the conduct of the case is under the immediate and personal supervision of a public defender, assistant public defender or special assistant public defender appointed or elected in accordance with law.

Before any student shall be eligible to appear in court for or on behalf of any insolvent person accused of crime, the dean of the accredited law school of which he is a student shall file with the public defender in the judicial circuit in which the school is located a list of names of the enrolled senior students who have been selected by the faculty to participate in its legal aid program. From such list the public defender may select and certify to the Supreme Court of Florida the names of such students as he desires to aid and assist him in the defense of insolvent persons accused of crime. Upon written approval by the Supreme Court of Florida of students so certified, and the filing of such written approval or a certified copy thereof with the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the law school is located, such approved students shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to appear in any court when under the immediate supervision of the public defender or one of his assistants, on behalf of such insolvent persons accused of crime as shall be assigned to them; but shall not render professional counsel or advice, either in or out of the courtroom, except in the presence of such public defender or one of his assistants.

The written approval of such students by the Supreme Court of Florida shall be and remain in force and effect for a period of twelve months from the date of filing unless withdrawn earlier.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

MOTION OF THE FLORIDA BAR FOR THE ADOPTION OF RULES OF PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP PROCEDURE

TO: THE HONORABLE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA:

The attached Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure having been recommended by the Florida Court Rules Committee and the Sub-committee on Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure and submitted to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, and the Board of Governors of the Florida Bar, having approved them, does now respectfully move for the adoption of said Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure.

The Court is advised that simultaneously with the filing of this motion, a copy hereof has been filed with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar for inclusion in the February, 1967 issue of The Florida Bar Journal.

Rule 5.010. SCOPE

These rules govern the procedure in the County Judge's Court in all probate and guardianship proceedings and shall be known and cited as the Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure and may be abbreviated as "PGR". The Rules of Civil Procedure apply only as provided herein.

Committee Note: When this rule is adopted, Rule 1.010 should be amended to apply to County Judge's Courts only in civil matters. See F.S. 36.09.

Rule 5.020. DEFINITIONS

When used in these rules, unless otherwise required by the context, or unless a contrary intent is expressly declared in the provision to be construed, the following mean:

- (a) Court. The County Judge's Court.
- (b) Judge. The judge of the County Judge's Court including any judge elected, appointed, substituted or assigned to serve as judge of the court.
- (c) Personal Representative. A general term referring to the fiduciary, whether a person or a corporation, appointed by the court as an administrator, administrator cum testamento annexo, administrator de bonis non, ancillary administrator, ancillary executor, executor, guardian, or curator, to any of whom letters have been issued.
- (d) Estate. All of the property of a decedent, minor, or incompetent as originally constituted, and as it from time to time exists during administration.

(e) Process. Citation, summons, subpoena, order to show cause and any other order of the court by which jurisdiction is obtained of a party.

(f) Notice. The service of pleadings, motions and other papers subsequent to obtaining jurisdiction of the party and when required by law or these rules, other than process.

(g) May. In relation to an act to be performed by the court, means in the discretion of the court.

(h) Gender and Number. Unless the context of these rules otherwise requires:

- (1) "Administrator" also refers to an administratrix.
- (2) "Executor" also refers to executrix.
- (3) Words in the singular number include the plural and in the plural include the singular.
- (4) Words in the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates, words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

Committee Note: This section is new. These definitions are intended to simplify drafting of these rules and should be liberally construed. See also statutory definitions in F.S. 731.03. The term "personal representative" when used in these rules is broadened to include guardians.

Rule 5.030. PLEADINGS; MOTIONS

(a) Forms of Pleadings. Pleadings in probate and guardianship matters shall be in writing and signed by the attorney of record, and by the pleader when required by law. A party who has no attorney, but represents himself only, shall sign his pleading or other paper and state his address. All technical forms of pleadings are abolished. No defect of form impairs substantial rights, and no defect in the statement of jurisdictional facts actually existing renders any proceeding void.

(b) Petition. The petition shall state in a short and simple manner the facts constituting jurisdiction of the court and the ground of the proceedings and shall ask for such relief as is desired. It shall be filed before any process issues.

(c) Defense. Defenses shall be filed on or before the return day specified in the notice or process. The answer shall set forth the facts constituting the defense in a short and simple manner.

(d) When at Issue. Upon the filing of a sufficient answer the proceeding is at issue, new matters being deemed denied or avoided; and the issues shall be tried at such time as the court directs.

(e) Motions. Any party may test the sufficiency of any part or all of an adversary's pleading, by motion. Motions directed to an answer shall be filed within 20 days after the day the answer was required to be filed, or within such other time as the court in its discretion may allow. Disposition of motions and all matters of amendment and pleading generally shall be in accordance with the direction of the court. Reasonable notice in writing shall be given to the adversary or his counsel of the hearing of any motion. Ten days shall be allowed for further pleadings unless the judge shall order otherwise. Notice shall be given in the same manner as service of pleadings.

(f) Copies. In adversary proceedings, or when otherwise required by these rules, copies of all pleadings and motions shall be served on all interested parties or their attorneys.

Committee Note: This is the same as F.S. 732.08, combining F.S. 744.28 relating to guardianships, both with editorial changes. The time for filing a motion to an answer is enlarged to 20 days.

Rule 5.040. ATTORNEYS

The provisions of Rule 1.030 RCP relating to attorneys shall apply.

Rule 5.050. PROCESS; NOTICE; TIME

(a) When process is required by these rules, by statute, or is ordered by the court, summons shall be issued by the judge or clerk directed to the parties in interest requiring them to file their written defenses to the petition or pleading, copy of which must be attached to the summons, within twenty days after service thereof.

*(b) Service of process in Florida may be made as provided in Chapter 48, Fla. Stats., or as in paragraph (c) hereof.

(c) Service of process outside of Florida may be made by delivery of a copy of the summons to the person to be served. If the person without the state is a minor or incompetent, a copy of the summons shall be delivered to such minor or incompetent and also to the person in whose care and custody such minor or incompetent is found. The return of such service shall be by affidavit and shall state the date when the summons was received by the person making the return, the date when it was served, the place of service, the name of the person served and the manner of service.

*(d) When an affidavit is filed showing that personal service is impractical, the court may order service by publication, in the manner provided by Chapter 49, Fla. Stats.

(e) If any person fails to file his defenses to a pleading within the time prescribed, the matter shall proceed ex parte as to such person.

(f) Unless ordered by the court, service of process is not necessary on any person who has filed a claim, pleading, election or other paper, or who has otherwise appeared in the same proceeding, notice, where required, being sufficient.

(g) Service of notice, pleadings, motions and other papers subsequent to obtaining jurisdiction of the party and when required by law or by these rules, other than process, shall be made, filed and certified to as provided in Rule 1.080 RCP, except when specially provided otherwise.

(h) The provisions of Rule 1.090 RCP shall apply in probate and guardianship proceedings.

Committee Note: This rule incorporates some of the provisions of F.S. 732.09 and Rule 1.070 RCP. The committee considers that the time for filing a defense should be within twenty days after service whether it be in person or by publication. See Form 5.610 for citation (by service) and Form 5.620 for citation (by publication). Also see Form 5.630 for affidavit of service, as an optional form. For service of pleadings and papers subsequent to process, see Rule 5.030(f) PGR.

*Note: Case No. 36,045, opinion filed December 19, 1967, amended paragraphs (b) and (d).

Rule 5.060. REQUEST FOR NOTICES AND COPIES OF PLEADINGS

(a) Any person interested in the estate of a decedent or ward who desires notice of proceedings in such estate may file a separate written request for notice of further proceedings, designating therein his residence and postoffice address. When such person changes his residence or postoffice address, a new designation of such change shall be filed in the proceedings. A person filing such request shall also deliver two copies thereof to the court, which shall forthwith mail one copy to the personal representative, and one copy to his attorney of record, noting on the original the fact of mailing.

(b) Any party filing such a request shall be served thereafter with notice of further proceedings and with copies of subsequent pleadings and papers.

Committee Note: This is a decided change from the present provision of F.S. 732.11 which apparently is more honored in the breach than in the observance. It seems well to require all persons desiring notice, other than in adversary proceedings, to file a formal request therefor. The fact that a creditor has filed a claim against an estate should not require the personal representative to serve the creditor with notice of all further proceedings. On the other hand, if for some reason the creditor, or other person interested in the estate does want notice of further proceedings, he should make a formal request therefor.

Rule 5.070. SUBPOENA

The provisions of Rule 1.410 RCP shall apply in probate and guardianship proceedings.

Committee Note: The committee considered that F.S. 732.12 entitled "Testimony and Subpoenas" should be divided in subject matter and that the text of that section made little or no contribution to either subject. Accordingly, this rule adopts the provisions of Rule 1.410, relating to subpoenas, which is already familiar to the lawyers and the courts. Since this rule now covers guardianship proceedings, F.S. 744.32 is no longer needed.

Rule 5.080. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

(a) The following Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply in probate and guardianship proceedings:

- (1) Rule 1.280, Depositions Pending Action.
- (2) Rule 1.310, Depositions Upon Oral Examination.
- (3) Rule 1.320, Depositions of Witnesses Upon Written Interrogatories.
- (4) Rule 1.330, Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.
- (5) Rule 1.340, Interrogatories to Parties.
- (6) Rule 1.350, Discovery and Production of Documents and Things.
- (7) Rule 1.360, Examination of Parties and Property.
- (8) Rule 1.370, Admission of Facts and Genuineness of Documents.
- (9) Rule 1.380, Refusal to Make Discovery; Consequences.
- (10) Rule 1.390, Depositions of Expert Witnesses.
- (11) Rule 1.400, Depositions Deemed Published When Filed.

(b) Where "Circuit Court" is referred to in said rules, "County Judge's Court" is substituted.

(c) In order to conserve the assets of the estate and the rights of the beneficiaries therein, the court has broad discretion to limit the scope of such examination and the place and manner of taking the same, and may assess the costs thereof to the party taking the same or to one or more of the beneficiaries of the estate in such proportions as the court determines, considering, among other things, the benefit derived therefrom.

Committee Note: This rule is intended to clearly permit the use of discovery practices in probate and guardianship matters. It greatly enlarges F.S. 732.13 and F.S. 744.32 and broadens the ruling in the case of In re: Estate of E. Carter Estes, Deceased, 156 So.2d 794, 161 So.2d 218 (cert. denied) (Fla. 1963).

Much latitude is given the court, however, to prevent abuse by those who might make indiscriminate or limitless use of depositions and discovery, anticipating that all costs will be paid from the general assets of the estate. Probate and guardianship litigation often involves only one share or portion of the estate assets, the result of the litigation being of little or no benefit to the other heirs or beneficiaries. The court may allocate or charge such costs against specific shares or to one or more of the parties. See also Rule 5.090.

Rule 5.090. ALLOCATION OF COSTS, FEES AND COMMISSIONS

(a) In probate and guardianship proceedings, costs, fees and commissions may be allowed in the discretion of the court, ordinarily abiding the result of each particular proceeding, but otherwise when it would be unjust that the losing party pay costs.

(b) When costs and attorneys' fees are to be paid out of the estate, the court may, in its discretion, direct from what portion of the estate they shall be paid.

(c) The proponent of a will in due form, being prima facie justified in offering the same for probate, shall receive his costs and attorneys' fees out of the estate, even though he is unsuccessful.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.14, except for change of the title, addition of reference to guardianship proceedings and inclusion of fees and commissions as costs and permitting their allocation. F.S. 744.23 and 744.47 are now combined in this rule.

Rule 5.100. RIGHT OF APPEAL

All orders and judgments of the court determining rights of any party in any particular proceeding in the administration of the estate of a decedent or ward shall be deemed final and may, as a matter of right, be appealed to the appropriate district court of appeal, except those appeals which may be taken directly to the supreme court as provided by Section 4, Art. V of the state constitution. Appeals provided by this rule shall be governed by the Florida appellate rules including the right to supersedeas.

Committee Note: This rule is substantially the same as F.S. 732.15, except that by rearrangement of that statute the word "finally" has been defined. The committee considers that an order from the county judge's court that determines the right of a party on a particular issue may be appealed to the district court of appeal before the administration of the estate is completed and the personal representative is discharged. Determination of the validity of a will, or of the right of a person to participate as an heir in an estate is a final determination, and distribution of the estate is subsequently made pursuant to that determination, prior to the entry of a final order of discharge. Section 5(3), of Article 5 of the Constitution permits appeals "from final order or decrees of county judge's courts pertaining to probate matters or to estates and interests of minors and incompetents". Rule 4.4 of the Fla. Appellate Rules contains similar language. The committee's proposed rule is intended to define "final orders and decrees" of the county judge as an order or decree which ultimately disposes of a right of a party in the estate or proceeding.

Rule 5.110. PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL

(a) Every petition for the probate of a will shall be verified by the petitioner or his attorney and shall contain statements to the best of the petitioner's information and belief showing:

- (1) The domicile of the decedent at the time of his death;
- (2) The date and place of his death;
- (3) The approximate value of his estate;
- (4) The residence and postoffice address of the petitioner;
- (5) The names, ages and residences of the surviving spouse and heirs at law of the decedent so far as known to the petitioner, and their respective relationships to the decedent. The birthdates of minor heirs shall also be stated, if known.

(b) No notice need be served before the probate of a will.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.23, with editorial changes, except that agents are not permitted to file petitions. In (a) (5) the averment that reasonable search has been made to obtain information about heirs of the testator has been eliminated, and such information "so far as known to the petitioner" is called for. Birthdates of minor heirs may be helpful in subsequent proceedings in the estate. Ages of adults may be stated as "over 21". See Form 5.640.

Rule 5.120. PROOF OF WILLS

(a) Wills may be admitted to probate upon the oath or affirmation of any attesting witness, taken before the judge or his clerk, or before a commissioner as provided in Rule 5.130.

(b) When a will is offered for probate and the attesting witnesses cannot be found, or are dead, or after its execution have become incompetent, or their testimony cannot be obtained within a reasonable time, the will may be admitted to probate upon the oath or affirmation of the executor, whether he is interested in the estate or not, or of any person having no interest in the estate under the will, taken as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, that he believes the writing to be the true last will of the decedent.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.24, except for editorial changes, and the words "have gone to parts unknown" are changed to "cannot be found". Testimony on affirmation is permitted.

Rule 5.130. COMMISSION TO PROVE WILL

(a) If any will is produced for probate and any witness attesting it cannot appear before the court without inconvenience, the court may issue a commission, directed to any person who is authorized to administer an oath by the laws of the state or country where such witness may be found, empowering the commissioner to take proof of the attestation of such witness and to certify such proof. No oath of the commissioner is required.

(b) If the person to whom such commission is directed certifies that the witness personally appeared and made written oath or affirmation (such written oath or affirmation to be attached to said certificate) as to the execution by the testator of the will, the original or photographic copy of which is attached to such commission, such oath or affirmation has the same operation and effect as if such written oath or affirmation had been made in the court issuing the commission.

Committee Notes: Same as F.S. 732.25 with editorial changes. See Form 5.670 for Application for Appointment of Commissioner; Form 5.680 for Commission; and Form 5.690 for Oath of Witness to Will and Certificate of Commissioner.

Rule 5.140. NOTICE TO HEIRS OR BENEFICIARIES

(a) Within 60 days after qualification, the personal representative shall cause to be served upon each known heir in an intestate estate and each legatee or devisee in a testate estate (including trust beneficiaries where reasonably ascertainable) and the surviving spouse if not a legatee or devisee, a notice containing substantially the following recitals:

- (1) That the decedent has died.
- (2) That proceedings for administration are pending.

(3) That the person notified appears to be an heir at law or devisee or legatee under the will, as the case may be.

(4) The designation and location of the court administering the estate.

(5) The name and address of the personal representative.

(b) A certificate showing compliance with this rule shall be filed in the proceeding.

(c) At the time of qualification, if the names or addresses of some of the heirs, legatees, or devisees are unknown to the personal representative, the certificate shall so state. If the names or addresses are later determined, notice shall be given forthwith and compliance with this rule shown by a further certificate.

Committee Note: This is an enlargement of F.S. 732.281 which required only educational, charitable and religious beneficiaries to be notified. The committee considers that all heirs or beneficiaries (including trust beneficiaries) and the surviving spouse if not a legatee or devisee, should receive the informal notice required by this rule. It is contemplated that the attorney for the personal representative may send the notice and file a certificate of mailing.

Rule 5.150. CAVEAT: PROCEEDINGS

(a) If any creditor of the estate of a decedent is apprehensive that an estate, either testate or intestate, will be administered without its knowledge, or if any heir or distributee of the estate of a decedent is apprehensive that a will may be admitted to probate without his knowledge, such creditor or person may file a caveat with the court.

(b) No caveat is effective unless it contains a statement of the interest of the caveator in the estate, the name and specific residence address of the caveator, and, if the caveator is not a state agency and is a non-resident of the county, the additional name and specific residence address of some person residing in the county, designated as the agent of the caveator, upon whom service of citation may be made. After the filing of a caveat by an heir or distributee, the court shall not admit the will of such decedent to probate without the issuance of a citation to that caveator. Caveators who are creditors in testate and intestate estates, and caveators who are heirs or distributees in intestate estates, shall receive notice as provided in subrule (e).

(c) Such citation shall be served either upon the caveator or upon his agent named in the caveat for service of citation, whoever is stated to be a resident of the county. Upon a return that after diligent search the caveator, if he is a resident, or his resident agent, if the caveator is a nonresident, cannot be found, the court may admit the will to probate or issue letters of administration upon the expiration of fifteen days after mailing copies of the citation and petition to the caveator and to his agent, if any is named in the caveat, at the respective residence addresses given. A certificate of mailing shall be filed in such instances by the court.

(d) Upon the return day of the citation, the caveator may answer the petition for probate or letters of administration. In his answer he shall set forth his interest in the estate and the facts constituting the grounds upon which probate of the will or issuance of letters of administration is opposed; and the court shall, upon the issue made and the proof adduced, grant or deny the petition.

(e) If at the time of the filing of any caveat the decedent's will has been admitted to probate or letters of administration have been issued on such estate, the court shall forthwith notify the caveator thereof, in writing, advising him of the date of issuance of letters, if any, and the name and address of the personal representative of such estate. Should letters of administration or letters testamentary issue after the filing of any caveat, on issuance thereof the court shall forthwith notify the caveator thereof, in writing, advising him of the date of issuance of such letters and the name and address of the administrator, unless citation has been served on such caveator. Copy of any such notice required to be given by the court herein, together with a certificate of the mailing of the original thereof, shall be filed in the estate.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.29, with editorial change, except that any creditor is permitted to file a caveat. This rule exempts State agencies from designating a resident agent. The 30-day limitation in (5) of the Statute has been deleted and procedure to be followed when a caveat is filed after commencement of probate, has been set forth in more detail.

Rule 5.160. REVOCATION OF PROBATE

(a) A petition for revocation of probate shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in the estate and the facts constituting the grounds upon which revocation is demanded.

(b) Service of process shall be made on the personal representative and all persons adversely interested.

(c) Any legatee, devisee or other person interested in the estate may appear and prosecute or defend as a party.

(d) Pending the determination of any issue made for revocation of probate, the personal representative shall administer the estate as if no such issue had been made, but no distribution may be made to legatees or devisees in contravention of the rights of those who, but for such will, would be entitled to the property disposed of thereby.

(e) After trial of the issues, the court shall confirm or revoke the probate.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.30 (2), (3) and (4), except for editorial changes. Subsection (1) is considered a substantive right.

Rule 5.170. PROBATE OF WILL WRITTEN IN FOREIGN LANGUAGE

(a) The petition for probate of a will written in a foreign language shall contain or have attached a true and complete English translation of the will. No probate of any will written in a foreign language shall be granted without service of process on the surviving spouse and heirs at law of the testator and all beneficiaries under the will.

(b) Upon the probate of such a will, the court shall establish the correct translation thereof in its order admitting the will to probate. Any person affected may at any time and from time to time, during the administration of the estate, by petition and service of process on all interested persons, have the correctness of the translation or of any portion thereof redetermined. An executor acting in compliance with the English translation of the will as then established by the court shall incur no personal liability.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.34 with editorial changes, except in (b) "If possible, the original will shall also be recorded by the county judge in its original form", eliminated. The committee considers that the original will would accompany the petition.

Rule 5.180. PROBATE OF NOTARIAL WILL

(a) When a copy of a notarial will in the possession of a notary entitled to the custody thereof, in a foreign state or country (the laws of which require that such will remain in the custody of such notary), duly authenticated by such notary, whose official position, signature and seal of office are further authenticated as provided by the Acts of Congress, or by an American consul, vice counsel or other American consular officer within whose jurisdiction such notary may be a resident, is presented to the court by the executor or other person interested, it may be admitted to probate without further proof if the original might have been admitted to probate in Florida.

(b) Such authenticated copy shall be filed instead of the original will, and is prima facie evidence of its execution and of the facts stated in the certificate in compliance with the preceding subsection.

(c) Any person interested in the estate may oppose the probate of such foreign will as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state. Any person interested adversely may apply for revocation of probate of such foreign will as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state. All proceedings in connection with any such foreign will shall be similar to proceedings in connection with wills originally probated in this state.

Committee Note: Substantially same as F.S. 732.37 with editorial changes.

Rule 5.190. PROBATE OF NUNCUPATIVE WILL

(a) A nuncupative will shall not be admitted to probate until process is served upon those who, but for such will, would be entitled to the property thereby bequeathed.

(b) Upon the probate of a nuncupative will, the court shall recite the full and precise terms of such will as a part of its order admitting it to probate.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.40, with editorial changes.

Rule 5.200. PETITION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION

(a) Every petition for letters of administration shall be verified by the petitioner, or his attorney and shall contain statements to the best of petitioner's information and belief, showing:

(1) The domicile of the decedent at the time of his death.

(2) The date and place of his death.

(3) The approximate value of his estate, and the nature thereof, in order that an adequate bond may be fixed.

(4) The residence and post office address of the petitioner, and the relationship, if any, of the petitioner to the decedent. If the petitioner claims the benefit of a common-law marriage to the decedent, such fact shall be stated explicitly in the petition for letters of administration.

(5) That the decedent died intestate.

(6) The names, ages and residences of the surviving spouse and heirs at law of the decedent so far as known to the petitioner (including birthdates of minor heirs, if known) and their respective relationships to decedent.

(b) No notice need be served of the granting of letters of administration when it appears that the petitioner is entitled to preference of appointment; but, before letters are granted to any person who is not entitled to preference, process shall be served on all known persons qualified to act as administrator and entitled to preference over the person applying, unless those entitled to preference waive it in writing.

Committee Note: F.S. 232.43 has been rearranged, agents are not permitted to file petitions, and requirements are added that place of death of decedent and birthdates of minor heirs be shown if known to the petitioner. Ages of adults may be stated as "over 21". See Form 5.640.

Rule 5.210. RESIDENT AGENT

Before letters are issued to any personal representative except corporate fiduciaries, the personal representative shall file a designation of his place of residence, his postoffice address and the name, place of residence and postoffice address of a resident of the county wherein proceedings are pending, as his agent for the service of process. The written acceptance of the person appointed shall also be filed. Such designation and acceptance constitutes the consent of the personal representative filing it that service of any process upon the designated agent shall be sufficient to bind the personal representative in any action against the personal representative, either in his representative capacity or personally if such personal action accrued in the administration of such estate. The designation and acceptance thereof may be in the petition for appointment if signed by the personal representative appointed, or in the oath of the personal representative.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as F.S. 732.45 (2) and 744.46. See Form 5.660 combining the designation and acceptance with the oath of the personal representative.

Rule 5.220. DISQUALIFICATION OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE; NOTIFICATION

Any personal representative who was improperly qualified or who becomes disqualified to act after his appointment shall immediately present the petition to the court and shall do any and all other things necessary or proper to procure an order approving such resignation.

Committee Note: This is the same as F.S. 732.47 (3), except "after May 27, 1947" and reference to F.S. 734.09 are deleted, and it is enlarged to include those who were improperly qualified. F.S. 734.09, describing the procedure on resignation, has become Rule 5.380. F.S. 746.01 relating to resignation of guardians has been combined in Rule 5.380.

Rule 5.230. ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM; GUARDIAN AD LITEM

(a) When it is necessary that the estate of a decedent or a ward be represented in any proceeding and there is no personal representative of such estate or the personal representative is or may be interested adversely to the estate or is enforcing his own debt or claim against the estate, the court shall appoint an administrator ad litem or a guardian ad litem, as the case may be, without bond for that particular proceeding, without notice. The administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem shall file his oath to discharge his duties faithfully. No process need be served upon him, but he shall appear and defend as directed by the court.

(b) When any administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem recovers any judgment or other relief, it shall be enforced as other judgments, except that execution shall issue in favor of the administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem for the use of the estate and the money collected shall be paid to the personal representative of the estate.

(c) An administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem shall be allowed such compensation for his services as the court deems just and reasonable, and which shall be taxed as costs and allowed as provided in Rule 5.090.

Committee Note: (a) is substantially the same as F.S. 732.55; (b) is substantially the same as F.S. 732.56; (c) is substantially the same as F.S. 732.58. F.S. 732.54 has been combined.

Rule 5.240. OATH OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Before the granting of letters, the personal representative shall file an oath that he will faithfully administer the estate of the decedent or incompetent. If the petition is sworn to by the prospective personal representative, individually, the oath may be incorporated in the petition.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 732.59 except last sentence added. F.S. 744.36 combined, last sentence omitted. A form of oath, combined with designation of resident agent and acceptance is at Form 5.660.

Rule 5.250. INVENTORY

(a) The personal representative shall file a complete inventory of the personal property wheresoever situate of a person who hereafter dies a resident of Florida, or of his ward together with the real estate situate within this state. Homestead real property shall so be designated. Real property of such decedent or ward situated outside of this state shall be inventoried, if known. The personal representative shall file a complete inventory of the real and personal property within the state of a person who hereafter dies a resident of some other state or country, or of a non-resident ward. The inventory shall be filed within sixty days from the date of the granting of letters, unless the time is extended by the court.

(b) The appraisal, if endorsed by the personal representative for that purpose, may be considered as an inventory of that part of the estate included in the appraisal.

Committee Note: With editorial changes, (a) is the same as F.S. 733.03, with 744.53 and 744.59 combined. (b) is taken from the last sentence of F.S. 733.05. See Form 5.700 for form of Inventory.

Rule 5.260. APPOINTMENT AND QUALIFICATION OF APPRAISERS

(a) The court may appoint one or more competent persons not of kin to the decedent or ward, as appraisers of the estate. They shall appraise all the property of the estate which shall be produced or comes to their knowledge, unless the appointment limits the property to be appraised. Appraisals may be dispensed with by the court. If, in the discretion of the court, circumstances warrant, a corporation may be appointed as an appraiser.

(b) On the death of an appraiser or on his neglect or refusal to act, another may be appointed by the court to act in his place.

(c) No oath or affirmation shall be required of an appraiser but the court may require a written acceptance of appointment.

Committee Note: Substantial editorial changes made to F.S. 733.04 and F.S. 744.54, and appointment is permissive instead of mandatory. (b) is taken from one of the provisions of F.S. 744.54.

Rule 5.270. COMPENSATION OF APPRAISERS

Each appraiser is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for his services, which may be fixed by the court and shall be paid by the personal representative. Application therefor shall be accompanied by an affidavit of each appraiser showing the services rendered and the reasonable value thereof. Such application may be heard upon such notice as the court shall fix.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 733.07, except the fixing of the fee by the judge is made permissive instead of mandatory. F.S. 744.56 is combined.

Rule 5.280. CONTINUANCE OF BUSINESS OF DECEDENT OR WARD

(a) When any personal representative does not have the power by will to continue a trade or business, or when a person dies intestate or is adjudicated incompetent while engaged in any trade or business, the court may authorize the personal representative to continue such trade or business for a reasonable time under the supervision of the court, requiring such security or additional security as the court deems proper.

(b) Before any order is made authorizing the continuance of the trade or business of the decedent, the personal representative shall file a verified petition, alleging sufficient facts to make it appear that it is to the best interest of the estate to continue such trade or business.

(c) The order authorizing the continuance of such trade or business may empower the personal representative to make such contracts as are necessary to conduct such trade or business and to incur debts and to pay out money in the proper conduct of such trade or business, and the net profits only of such trade or business are added to the assets of the said estate.

(d) In the conduct of such trade or business under order of court, the personal representative shall keep full and accurate accounts of all receipts and expenditures and make reports thereof at such intervals as the court requires.

(e) Any person interested in the estate may apply at any time for an order requiring the personal representative to discontinue and to wind up said trade or business, and the court shall enter such order thereon as is in the best interest of said estate.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 733.08 except additional language has been added to clearly indicate that if the power to continue a business is given in the will, it shall not be necessary to obtain leave of court. In (b) the phrase "to prevent great loss to the estate" is changed to "it is to the best interest of the estate". In (d) the requirement of monthly reports is changed to reports "at such intervals as the court may require". F.S. 744.66 is combined.

Rule 5.290. DUTY TO ASSIGN DOWER

(a) The personal representative shall have dower assigned immediately after the widow has timely exercised her election to take dower.

(b) The personal representative shall file a petition to assign dower and process shall be served upon the widow and all persons adversely interested, or such of them as do not appear and join in the proceedings.

(c) If the personal representative fails to file a petition for the assignment of dower, the widow may file such petition specifying as particularly as is known to her the property in which she claims dower and asking for its assignment. Process shall be served upon the personal representative and all persons adversely interested, or such of them as do not appear and join in the proceedings.

(d) The widow may also file an extraordinary petition for assignment of dower in the court of any county or counties where any lands lie which her husband had conveyed in which she had not relinquished her right of dower. Process shall be served upon all persons adversely interested. Proceedings therein shall be as similar to those for the ordinary assignment of dower as possible.

(e) Proceedings for assignment of dower shall be informal and summary.

(f) On any petition for assignment of dower, the right of dower and the admeasurement thereof shall be determined, with mesne profits from the date of the death of the decedent included in the judgment. No judgment shall become effective in any other county until a duly certified copy has been recorded in such other county.

(g) If a judgment for dower is entered, the court shall appoint (unless selected by mutual agreement of the parties) three suitable persons as commissioners who are disinterested and not connected with the parties by consanguinity or by affinity. The commissioners shall be allowed such fees as the court deems reasonable, to be paid as part of the costs of administration of the estate. The commissioners may employ a surveyor who may be paid a reasonable fee, subject to the approval of the court. The commissioners may be removed for good cause and others appointed in their places. Immediately upon taking oaths to faithfully and impartially execute the trust imposed in them, they shall allot and set off the widow's dower. All matters of mesne profits shall be decided by the court upon the pleadings and evidence, but when the interested parties agree to the allotment of dower, or when the assets are of such value and nature that dower may be allotted without the appointment of commissioners, the court may dispense with such appointment and set off and allot dower in its discretion.

(h) In all cases of assignment of dower upon hearing after notice, the court shall confirm, reject or modify the allotment or assignment made. Such judgment shall vest in the widow a fee simple estate in the lands and the absolute ownership of the personal property allotted. She shall be entitled to a writ of possession, if necessary.

Committee Note: With editorial changes: (a) is the same as F.S. 733.09 except that the phrase "lay off and assign dower" is changed to "proceed to have dower assigned". (b) is the same as F.S. 733.10. (c) is the same as F.S. 733.11(1). (d) is the same as F.S. 733.11(2). (e) and (f) are the same as F.S. 733.12. (g) is the same as F.S. 733.13. (h) is the same as F.S. 733.14. See F.S. 731.35 for election to take dower.

Rule 5.300. SALES WHERE NO POWER CONFERRED

(a) Application for authorization or confirmation of sale shall be made by verified petition of the personal representative setting forth the reasons for such sale, a description of the property sold or proposed to be sold, and, except when authorization or confirmation of the sale at the current market of stocks or bonds listed upon an established exchange is applied for, the price and terms of such sale.

(b) After the hearing upon a petition to sell or confirm the sale of property, if the sale is authorized or confirmed, the order shall describe the property and, if said property is authorized to be sold at private sale, shall fix the price and the terms of sale. A certified copy of such order relating to real property may be recorded in each county where real property, or any part thereof, is situated. An order authorizing a sale may provide for the public or private sale of any property described therein, in parcels or as a whole. If public sale is ordered, the personal representative shall give such notice as the order requires.

(c) In the order of sale, or at any time before an authorized sale is made, the court may appoint an administrator ad litem to make the sale and to execute the instruments necessary to consummate it. Any sale made by an administrator ad litem shall be as valid as though made by the personal representative.

Committee Note: (a) is taken from the last sentence of F.S. 733.23 and from F.S. 745.06. See also F.S. 744.17 regarding sale by foreign guardians the procedure for which is included in this rule. (b) and (c) are taken from F.S. 733.28(1) and (2). The committee considers that if a person other than the personal representative is appointed to make the sale, he should be designated "administrator ad litem" rather than "commissioner".

Rule 5.310. ANNUAL RETURNS AND CONTENTS

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a personal representative shall make annual returns on or before ninety days after the expiration of the fiscal year. The fiscal year shall be selected by filing a designation thereof with the court. Notice of such designation shall be served on the same persons and in the same manner as the notice required by Rule 5.140 and may be combined with that notice. In the absence of such designation and notice, the returns shall be filed on or before April first of each year for the calendar year or fraction of a calendar year ending on December thirty-first preceding. If he fails to make such returns when due, he shall forfeit all commissions on such returns in the discretion of the court.

(b) If the time for filing claims against the estate expires before the end of the fiscal or calendar year, or expires within thirty days thereafter, the personal representative in lieu of making annual returns may file his final return within ninety days from the expiration of the fiscal year, or on or before April 1 after expiration of the calendar year, and apply for discharge.

(c) If a personal representative fails to make his annual returns within the proper time, he shall immediately give written notice of the filing of such returns to all persons interested in the estate when such returns are actually made.

(d) In his returns a personal representative shall render a full and correct account of the receipts and expenditures of the estate and include a statement of the assets of the estate. Real estate need not be specifically described, but shall be identified as to nature and location. The return shall be supported by such schedules, or supplemental data, as is necessary to disclose the personal representative's compliance with the principal and income laws of this State, Chapter 690, Fla. Stats.

(e) Substantiating papers need not be filed with accountings but pertinent substantiating papers and records shall be available as a trial of objections to accountings, and, if not filed, shall be preserved by the personal representative for three years after his discharge.

(f) It is not necessary to file an annual accounting when all of the heirs or beneficiaries are sui juris and consent thereto in writing. Trustees may give such consent on behalf of the beneficiaries of trusts, whether or not the beneficiaries are sui juris. Notwithstanding such consents, the court may require the filing of a return.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 733.43, except the last paragraph is deleted since it relates to final accountings covered by F.S. 734.22 which will become Rule 5.430. F.S. 745.24 is combined. Rule 5.430 requires the personal representative to preserve records for a period of three years after discharge.

Rule 5.320. OBJECTION TO ANNUAL RETURNS

(a) Any interested person or ward may file an objection in writing to the return or any item thereof within thirty days after the time fixed by these rules for filing the return specifying the ground of objection. No item previously approved by the court upon notice shall be subject to objection. Objection may be filed at any time within thirty days after the service of copy thereof when service is required under Rule 5.310(c).

(b) After the expiration of the time for filing of objections, if objections to accounts have been timely filed, the personal representative or the objecting party may apply to the court for a hearing thereon upon reasonable notice to all parties interested in the estate. The court shall set the objections for hearing, and shall sustain or overrule the objections, or require further proof of the items contained therein.

(c) If no objection is filed to a return within the time limited for filing objections, the court shall examine the return and approve it or require such proof of the items contained therein as is proper.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 733.45, except reference to filing annual returns on or before the first day of April in any year has been deleted and the provision for filing within the time required by these rules has been substituted, since the personal representative may elect to file annual returns on a fiscal year basis. (b) Same as F.S. 733.46, with editorial changes. (c) Same as F.S. 733.47, with editorial changes.

Rule 5.330. ORDER REQUIRING RETURNS

(a) When any personal representative fails or neglects to make annual returns, the court shall order the personal representative to make such returns within fifteen days from the service upon him of such order, or show cause why he should not be compelled to do so. A copy of the order shall be served upon the personal representative. If the personal representative fails, neglects or refuses without good cause to file such returns within the time specified by the order, the court shall issue an order forthwith directed to said personal representative to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt. If such personal representative fails to show just cause, the court may adjudge said personal representative to be in contempt of court, and he shall stand committed for contempt until he makes the annual returns.

(b) Although an executor may be exempted from making annual or final returns by the terms of the will appointing him, and although no mismanagement or waste is charged against him, upon the application of any interested person, the court may direct the personal representative to file such accounts and to make such settlements and distribution in whole or in part as is necessary for the proper administration of said estate. Such order may also be made by the court upon its own motion.

Committee Note: (a) Same as F.S. 733.49 with editorial changes. (b) Same as F.S. 733.50 with editorial changes. The committee was uncertain however, as to the meaning of the requirement of "making settlements with returns" and substituted in its place making "annual or final returns".

Rule 5.340. PRODUCTION OF ASSETS

Upon the petition of any interested person, or upon its own motion, the court may require any personal representative to produce satisfactory evidence that the assets of the estate are in his possession or under his control and may order production of such assets for the inspection of such interested person or the court.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 733.51 with editorial changes.

Rule 5.350. PROCEEDINGS FOR THE PAYMENT OF LEGACIES OR DISTRIBUTIVE INTEREST

(a) Before any personal representative is compelled earlier than the final settlement of his accounts to pay any legacy in money or to deliver any specific personal property bequeathed to any person (unless such personal property is exempt personal property) which may have come into his hands, or to pay all or any part of any distributive share in the personal estate of such decedent, or to surrender any land to any heir or devisee, the heir, devisee, legatee or distributee shall file a petition setting forth the facts which entitle him to relief and stating that the property will not be required for the payment of debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, or for providing funds for contribution or enforcing equalization in case of advancements; and process shall be served upon or notice given to the personal representative. Upon the return day, the court shall enter an order as it deems proper.

(b) An order directing the surrender of real estate or the delivery of any specific personal property shall describe the property to be surrendered or delivered.

(c) On petition for a partial or early distribution by the personal representative or by a person entitled to distribution, if the administration of the estate (except the distribution thereof) has not been completed before the entry of an order thereon, the court may require the person entitled to distribution to give a bond with adequate sureties, to be approved by the court, conditioned to make due contribution for the payment of legacies, debts, demands and all costs which may be awarded, if any such debt or demand is duly presented within the time limited by law, and for family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges, expenses of administration and equalization in case of advancements.

Committee Note: With editorial changes, same as F.S. 734.03, except for the substantive provisions in (2) of the statute relating to the conclusiveness of an order of distribution. Notwithstanding an order entered pursuant to (c), the personal representative may be personally liable therefor pursuant to F.S. 734.02.

Rule 5.360. DISTRIBUTION

After the time for filing claims against the estate has expired and all debts, claims, estate and inheritance taxes, family allowance, charges and expenses of administration have been paid or provision made for the payment thereof, and before the final settlement of the accounts of the personal representative, he may apply for an order authorizing him to surrender the possession of any designated or described real estate to the heir or devisee, or to deliver any specific property, or to make any distribution of the assets of the estate. Upon the approval of the final accounts of the personal representative, he shall surrender the possession of all real estate to the heir or devisee entitled thereto and pay over and distribute all personal property to those entitled thereto.

Committee Note: This is substantially the language of F.S. 734.04 except for the substantive provisions as to the effect of orders entered relating to distribution and discharge. See Rule 5.350(c) for partial distributions.

Rule 5.370. EXEMPT ESTATES

At any time during the course of administration, if it appears that the estate consist of no more than the homestead and exempt personal property of the decedent, the court may order the distribution of said estate to the persons entitled to receive it, and upon said distribution, may discharge the personal representative.

Committee Note: With editorial changes, same as F.S. 734.08.

Rule 5.380. RESIGNATION OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

(a) Any personal representative may resign and be relieved of his office with the approval of the court, provided that he files his application therefor, with notice to all interested persons, including the surety or sureties on the bond, if any. Before relieving the personal representative from his duties and obligations, the court shall require him to file a true and correct account of his administration and to pay over and deliver to his successor (or to his co-executor or coadministrator) all of the property of the decedent or ward, such books of account, documents, and papers of or concerning the estate as the court orders, and all sums of money due to the estate from him. The acceptance of such resignation shall not exonerate any personal representative or his sureties from any liabilities previously incurred. The court shall be satisfied that the interest of the estate will not be placed in jeopardy by such action before making such order.

(b) When a sole personal representative resigns, a successor must be appointed and duly qualified before a personal representative is relieved of his duties and obligations.

Committee Note: With substantial editorial changes (a) is taken from F.S. 734.09. With editorial changes (b) is the same as F.S. 734.10. F.S. 746.01 and F.S. 746.02 have been combined.

Rule 5.390. PROCEEDINGS FOR REMOVAL

(a) Proceedings for removal of the personal representative may be instituted by the court or any interested person. Such notice shall be given to the personal representative as the court may direct. Upon hearing the court may enter such order as it deems proper.

(b) A removed personal representative shall file an accurate, complete and final account of his administration within twenty days after his removal, unless for good cause shown the time is extended by the court.

(c) The remaining or successor personal representative shall demand of the removed personal representative, or of his heirs, personal representatives or sureties, all of the property of the decedent or ward and all books of account, documents and papers of or concerning the estate, together with all sums of money due the estate from him. The removed personal representative, his heirs, personal representatives or sureties, shall turn over to his successor all of said property upon qualification of his successor and upon demand as aforesaid.

(d) If a removed personal representative fails or refuses to file an accurate, complete and final account of his administration, or fails to turn over to his successor all the goods, property and effects of the deceased, and all books of accounts, documents and papers of or concerning the estate, upon demand, or fails to pay over all money due the estate from him, the court shall order the removed personal representative to comply within ten days after service of a copy of the order. If he fails or neglects to comply within the time required, the court may commit such removed personal representative until he complies. If sufficient cause is shown for the default, the court shall prescribe a reasonable time within which to comply and upon failure of the removed personal representative to comply with this or any subsequent like order, the court may commit him until he does comply.

(e) Proceedings for the commitment of such defaulting personal representative may be instituted by the court or any interested person or the sureties on his bond, or by his successor or co-personal representative.

(f) If proceedings for commitment are instituted by the court, the order directing compliance shall be sufficient of itself. If proceedings are instituted by a person other than the court, they shall be by verified petition, stating the facts upon which the proceedings are based. After notice to the removed personal representative and a hearing on the petition, if it deems the facts stated sufficient, the court shall issue its order and proceed in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

Committee Note: With editorial changes: (a) is the same as F.S. 734.13 and F.S. 746.04. (b) is the same as F.S. 734.15 and F.S. 746.05. (c) is the same as F.S. 734.16 and F.S. 746.06. (d) is the same as F.S. 734.17 and F.S. 746.07. (e) is the same as F.S. 734.18 and F.S. 746.08. (f) is the same as F.S. 734.19 and F.S. 746.09.

Rule 5.400. ADMINISTRATION FOLLOWING DEATH, RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL

When a personal representative of a decedent dies, resigns, or is removed for any cause and there is a remaining executor or administrator, no other executor or administrator shall be appointed unless the will otherwise directs; but such remaining executor or administrator shall complete the administration of the estate. If a sole executor, administrator or guardian dies, resigns or is removed, the court shall appoint a successor. A bond shall be required as in the case of an original administration, the condition of the bond being modified to suit the nature of the case.

Committee Note: F.S. 734.14 has been enlarged to include administration following the death or resignation of a personal representative as well as upon his removal. A provision has also been added to recognize that a will may designate a successor executor in case of the death or resignation of a prior executor. See also F.S. 746.01 relating to guardians.

Rule 5.410. TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIP ON CHANGE OF DOMICILE OF RESIDENT WARD

(a) When the domicile of a resident ward has lawfully been changed in accordance with F.S. 744.10, and the foreign court having jurisdiction over the ward at his new domicile has appointed a guardian of the property of such ward and such guardian has qualified and posted in such foreign jurisdiction a bond in an amount deemed reasonable by the Florida court, the Florida guardian of the property of such ward may file his accountings and close the Florida guardianship if, in the opinion of the court and by order entered thereon, the transfer of such guardianship proceedings to the new domicile of the ward is deemed advisable and in the best interest of said ward. The court may require notice to the guardian of the person or custodian of the ward and other interested persons and may fix a time for hearing objections to such transfer.

(b) Upon proof acceptable to the court that the remaining assets in such guardianship have been transferred to and received by the foreign guardian, the Florida guardian may be discharged and the Florida guardianship terminated. The entry of an order terminating the Florida guardianship shall not exonerate the guardian, or his surety, from any liability previously incurred.

Committee Note: With editorial changes, this rule is the same as F.S. 746.121, except for division into paragraphs, and the provision for publishing notice of filing final accounting, and discretionary notice and hearing of objections has been substituted.

Rule 5.420. TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIP UPON REMOVAL OF WARD'S INCAPACITY, DEATH OR EXHAUSTION OF ASSETS

When a ward becomes sui juris, dies or when the property of a ward has been lawfully exhausted, the guardian of the property of such ward shall file a final accounting and shall serve a copy thereof together with a notice of application for discharge on the ward, upon the personal representative of a deceased ward, or if there be no assets justifying qualification of a personal representative, then upon known next of kin, or such persons as the court may direct. The notice of application for discharge shall state a time certain not less than 30 days after service of such notice when the application for discharge shall be heard and shall advise that objections to the final accounting and discharge may be filed in the court prior to said hearing. A sui juris ward may waive such notice and hearing.

If objection is filed, the court shall hear the objection and enter its order thereon. Prior to granting such discharge, the court may require whatever proof of the removal of such incompetency or of the need of the continuance of the guardianship as it deems necessary.

Upon proof acceptable to the court that the remaining assets in such guardianship have been transferred to and received by the person entitled thereto, the guardian may be discharged. The entry of an order of discharge shall not exonerate the guardian, or his surety, from any liability previously incurred.

Committee Note: Substantial change has been made to F.S. 746.12, including requirement of notice and hearing of application for discharge.

Rule 5.430. FINAL SETTLEMENT AND DISCHARGE, DECEDENT'S ESTATE

(a) When a personal representative of a decedent's estate has completed the administration except for distribution, he shall file his final report and make application for discharge.

(b) The personal representative shall then publish a notice once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, notifying all persons of the filing of his report and of his application for discharge. After filing the proof of publication, if no objection is filed and if it appears to the judge that the personal representative has faithfully administered the estate, the court shall approve the final report and direct the personal representative to make distribution. No distribution of estate assets to a testamentary trustee shall be authorized until proof has been obtained and filed of qualification of the trustee under the law of the state where the trust is to be administered, unless it appears that there is no trust qualification law in existence in such state or no trust qualification law which applies to the testamentary trust.

(c) If objection is filed, trial shall be had as for the trial of objections to annual returns.

(d) The personal representative may, before making distribution, retain from the funds in his hands a sufficient amount to pay the expenses accrued since the filing of his final report and his application for discharge.

(e) It is not necessary to file a final accounting, nor to advertise notice of the filing of final accounting or petition for distribution and discharge, when all heirs or beneficiaries are sui juris and consent thereto in writing. Trustees may give such consent on behalf of the beneficiaries of trusts.

(f) When the interest of a minor heir or beneficiary does not exceed the amount authorized by Florida law to be received by his natural guardian, such natural guardian may give such consent on behalf of such minor heir or beneficiary.

(g) The judge may require the filing of an annual or final accounting and the advertisement of notice thereof and of petition for distribution and discharge, notwithstanding the waivers aforesaid.

Committee Note: Similar to F.S. 734.22, with editorial changes. See also Rule 5.310 for annual returns and requirement that pertinent substantiating papers and records be filed or retained by the personal representative for three years. See Form 5.710 for Order of Final Discharge.

Rule 5.440. SUBSEQUENT ADMINISTRATION

The final settlement of an estate and the discharge of the personal representative shall not prevent a revocation of the order of discharge or the subsequent issuance of letters testamentary or of administration if other property of the estate is discovered or if it becomes necessary or proper for any cause that further administration of such estate be had.

Committee Note: Same as F.S. 734.26.

Rule 5.450. ANCILLARY ADMINISTRATION

(a) To entitle an applicant to ancillary letters, a petition shall be filed with an authenticated copy of so much of the domiciliary proceedings as shows either (1) the will, petition for probate, order admitting the will to probate and letters testamentary, if there are such; or, (2) the petition for letters of administration and letters of administration.

(b) Upon the filing of a petition for admission of testamentary instruments to probate, and of an authenticated copy of a probated will, including any probated codicils thereto, and of the parts of the record of the domiciliary proceedings as aforesaid, the court may, if it finds that the said will and codicils, if any, comply with the laws of this state so as to entitle them to probate, admit said will and codicils, if any, to probate in this state.

(c) The ancillary personal representative shall give like bond as personal representatives generally, and all proceedings for appointment and in the administration of the estate shall be as similar as possible to those in original administrations.

(d) After the payment of all expenses of administration and claims against the estate the court may, upon petition, order the remaining personal property in the hands of the ancillary personal representative to be transferred to the domiciliary personal representative.

Committee Note: Paragraphs (1) and (6) of F.S. 734.31 were considered to grant substantive rights and were left in the statute. The paragraphs of this rule are (2), (3), (4), and (5) of the statute. Authentication of proceedings and records is defined and described in Title 28, Section 1738, U.S. Code.

No. 36,481

Opinion filed October 4, 1967

Original jurisdiction—Petition of The Florida Bar for Adoption of Proposed Summary Claims Procedure Rules

William P. Simmons, Jr., President, W. E. Grissett, Jr., F. A. Currie, William M. Hereford and Henry P. Trawick, Jr.,

PER CURIAM.

Appended to this order is a complete compilation of the Summary Claims Procedure Rules adopted pursuant to the power vested in this Court by Article V of the Florida Constitution. This compilation shall govern all proceedings within the scope of these rules after midnight December 31, 1967. This compilation shall supersede all conflicting rules and statutes. All statutes not superseded hereby or in conflict herewith shall remain in effect as rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Florida.

Adopted and approved by the Court en banc Oct. 4, 1967.

It is so ordered.

Rule 7.010. TITLE AND SCOPE.

(a) Title. These rules shall be cited as the Summary Claims Procedure Rules and may be abbreviated SCPR. These rules shall be construed to implement the simple, speedy and inexpensive trial of actions at law in courts of limited jurisdiction.

(b) Scope. These rules are applicable to all actions of a civil nature in the County Judges' Courts, County Courts, Justice of Peace Courts, Small Claims Courts, and in all other courts in which civil jurisdiction is limited to actions at law in which the demand or value of property involved does not exceed $1,000.00 exclusive of costs, interest and attorneys' fees.

Rule 7.020. APPLICABILITY OF RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE; LOCAL RULES.

(a) Civil Procedure Rules; When Applicable. Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.090(a), (b) and (e); 1.190(e); 1.210(b); 1.260; 1.280; 1.300; 1.310; 1.330; 1.350; 1.360; 1.370; 1.410 and 1.560 are applicable to the courts covered by these Rules; provided, the time for such discovery procedures may be prescribed by the court.

(b) Local Rules. Local rules may be adopted, amended or rescinded by the court, but they are not effective until approved by the Supreme Court.

Rule 7.030. ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES.

Judges may be assigned by the Chief Justice as provided by Florida Appellate Rule 2.1 and Article V, Section 2, Constitution of Florida.

Rule 7.040. CLERICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES OF CLERK OR JUDGE.

(a) Records. The clerk, or if there is no clerk, the judge, shall:

(1) Maintain a trial calendar, and the placing of any action thereon with the date and time of trial is notice to all concerned of the order in which they may expect such action to be called.

(2) Maintain a docket book and a judgment book (which may be the same book) in which accurate entries of all actions brought before the court and notations of the proceedings shall be made including the date of filing; the date of issuance, service and return of process; the appearance of such parties as may appear; the fact of trial, whether by Court or jury; the issuance of execution and to whom issued and the date thereof and return thereon and, when satisfied, a marginal entry of the date thereof; the issuance of a certified copy; a memorandum of the items of costs including witness fees; and the record of the verdict of the jury or finding of the judge, the judgment, including damages and costs, which judgments may be kept in a separate judgment book.

(3) Maintain an alphabetical index by parties' names with reference to action and case number.

Committee Note: Also see Rule 7.050(c).

Rule 7.050. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; STATEMENT OF CLAIM.

(a) Commencement.

(1) Statement of Claim. Actions are commenced by the filing of a Statement of Claim in concise form which shall inform the defendant of the basis and the amount of the claim. If the claim is based upon a written document, a copy, or the material part thereof, shall be attached to the Statement of Claim.

(2) When Papers to be Signed by Attorney. Every paper filed by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his or her individual name, whose address shall be stated, and who shall be duly licensed to practice law in Florida. A party, individual or corporation, who or which has no attorney handling such cause shall sign his or its statement of claim or other paper and state his or its address. Provided, however, if the trial court in its discretion shall determine that the plaintiff is engaged in the business of collecting claims, and holds such claim being sued upon, by purchase, assignment or management arrangement in the operation of such business, the court may require such corporation to provide counsel in the prosecution of the cause.

(b) Parties. The names and addresses of all parties or their attorneys, if any, must be stated therein.

(c) Clerk's Duties. The clerk shall assist in the preparation of a Statement of Claim and other papers to be filed in the action at the request of any litigant. The clerk shall not be required to prepare papers on constructive service, proceedings supplementary to execution, or discovery procedures.

(d) Memorandum on Hearing Date. The court shall furnish all parties with a memorandum of the day and hour set for the hearing.

Committee Note: The statement of claim need not be verified.

Rule 7.060. PROCESS.

A summons entitled Notice to Appear stating the time and place of hearing shall be served on the defendant. A copy of the statement of claim shall be served with said notice.

Rule 7.070. METHOD OF SERVICE OF PROCESS.

Service of process shall be effected as provided by law. Constructive service of process may be effected as provided by law.

Committee Note: Also see Rule 7.120.

Rule 7.080. SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND PAPERS OTHER THAN STATEMENT OF CLAIM.

(a) Service; When Required. Copies of all pleadings and papers subsequent to the notice to appear, except applications for witness subpoenas and orders and judgments entered in open court, shall be served on each party. One against whom a default has been entered is entitled to be served only with pleadings asserting new or additional claims.

(b) Same; How Made. When a party is represented by an attorney, service of papers other than the statement of claim and notice to appear shall be made upon the attorney unless the court orders service to be made upon the party. Service shall be made by delivering the paper to the party or his attorney, as the case may be, or by mailing it to his last known address.

(c) Filing. All original pleadings and papers shall be filed with the court either before service or immediately thereafter. The court may allow a copy to be substituted for the original of any document.

(d) Filing with the Court Defined. The filing of papers with the court as required by these rules is made by filing them with the clerk, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and transmit them to the clerk, and the clerk shall file them as of the same date they were filed with the judge.

(e) Certificate of Service.

(1) When any party or his attorney in substance certifies:

"I certify that copy hereof has been furnished to (here insert name or names) by (delivery) (mail) this _____ day of _____, 19__.

Party or his attorney."

the certificate is prima facie proof of such service in compliance with all rules of court and law.

(2) When any paper is served by the clerk, a docket entry shall be made showing the mode and date of service. Such entry is sufficient proof of service without a separate certificate of service.

Committee Note: Sections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) are substantially the same as FRCP 1.080(a), (b), (d), (e), and (f).

Rule 7.090. APPEARANCE; DEFENSIVE PLEADINGS; TRIAL DATE.

(a) Appearance. On the date and time appointed in the notice to appear the defendant shall appear personally or by counsel.

(b) Defensive Pleadings. Unless required by order of court, written defensive pleadings are not necessary. If filed, copies of such pleadings shall be served on all other parties to the action at or prior to trial.

(c) Trial Date. The court shall provide for trial of an action on the appearance date or thereafter.

Rule 7.100. COUNTERCLAIMS, SETOFFS, TRANSFER WHEN EXCESSIVE AND DEPOSIT THEREFOR.

(a) Compulsory Counterclaim. Any claim of the defendant against the plaintiff, arising out of the same transaction or occurrence which is the subject matter of plaintiff's claim, shall be filed not less than five days prior to the appearance date or within such time as the court designates or it is deemed to be abandoned.

(b) Permissive Counterclaim. Any claim or setoff of the defendant against the plaintiff, not arising out of the transaction or occurrence which is the subject matter of plaintiff's claim, may be filed not less than five days before the appearance date or within such time as the court designates, and tried, providing that such permissive claim is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) How Filed. Counterclaims and setoffs shall be filed in writing. If additional time is needed to prepare a defense, the court may continue the action.

(d) Transfer When Beyond Jurisdiction.

When a counterclaim or setoff exceeds the jurisdiction of the court, it shall be filed in writing before or at the hearing, and the action shall then be transferred to the court having jurisdiction thereof. As evidence of good faith, the counterclaimant shall deposit a sum sufficient to pay the filing fee in the court to which the case is to be transferred with his counterclaim, which shall be sent with the record to the court to which transferred. Failure to make the deposit waives the right to transfer.

Rule 7.110. DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS.

(a) Voluntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof.

(1) By Parties. Except in actions where property has been seized or is in the custody of the court, an action may be dismissed by plaintiff without order of court, (i) by plaintiff informing the defendant and clerk of the dismissal before the trial date fixed in the notice to appear, or before retirement of the jury in a case tried before a jury or before submission of a nonjury case to the court for decision, or (ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when a plaintiff has once dismissed in any court an action based on or including the same claim.

(2) By Order of the Court; If Counterclaim. Except as provided in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at a party's instance except upon order of the court and on such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been made by the defendant before plaintiff dismisses voluntarily, the action shall not be dismissed against defendant's objections unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal. Any party may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him for failure of an adverse party to comply with these rules or any order of court. After a party seeking affirmative relief in an action has completed the presentation of his evidence, any other party may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the party seeking affirmative relief has shown no right to relief without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted. The court may then determine them and render judgment against the party seeking affirmative relief or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or for improper venue or for lack of an indispensable party, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim.

(d) Costs. Costs in any action dismissed under this rule shall be assessed and judgment for costs entered in that action. If a party who has once dismissed a claim in any court of this State commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same adverse party, the court shall make such order for the payment of costs of the claim previously dismissed as it may deem proper and shall stay the proceedings in the action until the party seeking affirmative relief has complied with the order.

(e) Failure to Prosecute. All actions in which it does not affirmatively appear from some action taken by filing of pleadings, order of court or otherwise that the same is being prosecuted for a period of one year shall be deemed abated for want of prosecution and shall be dismissed by the court upon its own motion or upon motion of any interested person, whether a party to the action or not, after notice to the parties; provided that actions so dismissed may be reinstated on motion for good cause, such motion to be served by any party within one month after such order of dismissal.

Committee Note: Substantially the same as FRCP 1.420. See also §45.19(1), Florida Statutes.

Rule 7.120. TIME OF TRIAL.

The time of trial shall not be less than fifteen (15) nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of personal service of the notice to appear or the last publication of constructive service. Not less than twenty days' notice shall be given if any of the defendants reside outside the county in which the court sits.

Rule 7.130. CONTINUANCES AND SETTLEMENTS.

(a) Continuances. A continuance may be granted only upon good cause shown. The motion for continuance may be oral but the court may require it to be reduced to writing. The action shall be set again for trial as soon as practicable and the parties given timely notice.

(b) Settlements. Settlements in full or by installment payments made by the parties out of the presence of the court are encouraged. The plaintiff shall notify the clerk of settlement and the case may be dismissed or continued pending payments. Upon failure of a party to perform the terms of any stipulation or agreement for settlement of the claim before judgment, the court may enter appropriate judgment upon request and after proper notice.

Rule 7.140. TRIAL.

(a) Time. The trial shall be had at the time fixed in the notice to appear or such time thereafter as the judge shall designate.

(b) Determination. Issues shall be settled and motions determined summarily.

(c) Pretrial. If, at the time set for trial, it appears to the court that for good cause the trial should not proceed, the time may be utilized for a pretrial conference to determine the issues so that at the next appointed trial date the trial can be held.

(d) Settlement. At any time before judgment the judge shall make an effort to assist the parties in settling the controversy.

(e) Assistance by Court. In an effort to secure substantial justice, the court shall assist any party not represented by an attorney on:

- (1) Procedure to be followed
- (2) Presentation of material evidence
- (3) Questions of law.

(f) How Conducted. The trial shall be conducted informally but with decorum befitting a court of justice. The rules of evidence applicable to trial of civil actions apply but are to be liberally construed.

Rule 7.150. JURY TRIALS.

Trial by jury may be had upon written demand by plaintiff made at the commencement of the action or by any defendant within five days after service of the notice to appear. If the demand is not made, the right to trial by jury is waived. Deposit for payment of jurors, taxation of cost of the jury, selection, issuance of venire, summons and pay of jurors shall be as provided by law.

Rule 7.160. FAILURE OF PLAINTIFF OR BOTH PARTIES TO APPEAR.

(a) Plaintiff. If plaintiff fails to appear on the return date, the action may be dismissed for want of prosecution, defendant may proceed to trial on the merits, or the action may be continued as the judge may direct.

(b) Both Parties. If both parties fail to appear, the judge may continue the action or dismiss it for want of prosecution at that time or later as justice requires.

Rule 7.170. DEFAULT; JUDGMENT.

(a) Default. If defendant does not appear at the scheduled time the plaintiff is entitled to a default to be entered by either the judge or clerk.

(b) Final Judgment. After default is entered, the judge shall receive evidence establishing the damages and enter judgment in accordance with the evidence and the law.

Committee Note: Evidence may be by testimony, affidavit or other competent means.

Rule 7.180. MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL; TIME FOR; CONTENTS.

(a) Time. A motion for new trial shall be filed not later than ten (10) days after the date of the judgment. A timely motion may be amended to state new grounds at any time before it is disposed of in the discretion of the court.

(b) Determination. The motion shall set forth the basis with particularity. Upon examination of the motion, the court may find it without merit and deny it summarily, or may grant a hearing on it with notice.

(c) Grounds. Every order granting a new trial shall specify the particular and specific grounds therefor.

Committee Note: Sections (a) and (c) are substantially the same as FRCP 1.530(b) and (f).

Rule 7.190. RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER; CLERICAL MISTAKES.

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the record on appeal is docketed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate court.

Committee Note: See FRCP 1.540(a).

Rule 7.200. EXECUTIONS.

An execution shall issue upon the request of the party entitled thereto. No execution shall issue until the time for filing a motion for new trial has expired or, if a motion for a new trial is filed, until after such motion is disposed of. Execution may be issued at any time upon special order of the court.

Rule 7.210. STAY OF JUDGMENT AND EXECUTION.

(a) Judgment or Execution Stayed. When judgment is to be entered against a party, the judge may inquire and permit inquiry about the earnings and financial status of the party and has discretionary power to stay an entry of judgment, or if entered, to stay execution upon such terms as are just and in consideration of a stipulation on the part of the judgment debtor to make such payments as will insure a periodic reduction of the judgment until it is satisfied.

(b) Stipulation. The judge shall note the terms of such stipulation in the file; the stipulation may be set out in the judgment or made a part of the judgment by reference to "the stipulation made in open court."

(c) Execution. When judgment is entered and execution stayed pending payments, if the judgment debtor fails to pay the installment payments, the judgment creditor may have execution without further notice for the unpaid amount of the judgment.

(d) Oral Stipulations. Oral stipulations may be made in the presence of the court that upon failure of the judgment debtor to comply with any agreement, judgment may be entered or execution issued or both without further notice.

Rule 7.220. SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Proceedings supplementary to execution may be had in accordance with proceedings provided by law or by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Rule 7.230. APPELLATE REVIEW.

Review of orders and judgments of the courts governed by these rules shall be prosecuted in accordance with the Florida Appellate Rules.

Committee Note: Attention is directed to Rule 4.7, F.A.R., which authorizes the Circuit Court to modify or dispense with any of the steps to be taken after filing of the notice of appeal.

Rule 7.300. FORMS.

The following forms of process are sufficient in all actions.

The following forms of statements of claim and other papers are sufficient for the types of actions which they respectively cover. They are intended for illustration only. They and like forms may be used with such modifications as may be necessary to meet the facts of each particular action so long as the substance thereof is expressed without prolixity. The common counts are not sufficient. The complaint forms appended to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure may be utilized if appropriate.

Order of the Supreme Court

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA
JANUARY TERM, A. D. 1962

IN RE: FLORIDA APPELLATE RULES
1962 REVISION

OPINION FILED JUNE 20, 1962

PER CURIAM.

Appended to this order is a complete compilation of the Florida Appellate Rules and all amendments, revisions or additions which have been made since July 1, 1957, adopted pursuant to the power vested in this Court by Article V of the Florida Constitution. This compilation and revision shall govern all appellate proceedings in the Supreme Court, district courts of appeal and circuit courts after midnight, September 30, 1962. This compilation and revision shall supersede all conflicting rules and statutes. All statutes not superseded hereby or in conflict herewith shall remain in effect as rules promulgated by the Supreme Court.

Rule 2.2 relating to district courts of appeal is included in this compilation and revision for the convenience of the Bench and Bar and contains, according to information furnished this Court by the district courts of appeal, all amendments, revisions or additions from July 1, 1957. Such portions of Rule 2.2 as are within the jurisdiction of this Court to enact or approve are hereby approved and promulgated.

Adopted and approved by the Court en banc June 18th, 1962.
It is so ordered.

FLORIDA APPELLATE RULES

PART I. APPLICATION, DEFINITIONS AND CITATION

Rule 1.1 APPLICATION

These rules are adopted pursuant to the constitutional and inherent powers of the Supreme Court of Florida. From their effective date they shall govern all proceedings in the Supreme Court, the district courts of appeal, and the circuit courts in the exercise of their appellate jurisdiction. All rules shall apply equally to all such courts unless specifically limited to one court.

Rule 1.2 CITATION

These rules shall be cited as, "Florida Appellate Rules, 1962 Revision."

Rule 1.3 DEFINITIONS

Throughout these rules, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

"Attorney of Record" means not only the attorney who appears or whose name is affixed to the pleadings or papers, but any member or associate of a law firm to which he may belong.

"Clerk" means the person or official specifically designated as such for the court or body concerned; or if no person or official has been specifically so designated, then the official or agent of such court or body who most closely resembles a clerk in the functions he performs.

"Commission" or "board" shall mean a commissioner or other administrative agent or officer where the context of these rules requires.

"Court" means the Supreme Court, the district courts of appeal, and the circuit courts in the exercise of their appellate jurisdiction.

"District Court" means district court of appeal.

"Legal Holiday" means New Year's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day (May 30th), July 4th, Labor Day, General Election Day, any state-wide primary election day, Veteran's Day (November 11th), Thanksgiving Day, Christmas, and any Monday immediately following a Sunday upon which one of the foregoing holidays falls.

"Lower Court" means the court or agency, board, commission or body whose decision, judgment, decree or order is being reviewed or whose act is in question.

"Rendition" of a judgment, decision, order or decree means that it has been reduced to writing, signed and made a matter of record, or if recording is not required then filed. A paper is deemed to be recorded when filed with the clerk and assigned a book and page number. Where there has been filed in the lower court a timely and proper motion or petition for a new trial, for a rehearing, or other timely post-trial motion or petition permitted by the Rules, the decision, judgment, order or decree shall not be deemed rendered until such motion or petition is disposed of.

Rule 1.4 EFFECTIVE DATE: REPEAL

These rules shall become effective midnight, September 30, 1962. Proceedings commenced prior thereto shall be governed by the rules theretofore in effect. From their effective date as to proceedings commenced after September 30, 1962, these rules shall supersede all conflicting rules and statutes. All statutes not superseded hereby or in conflict herewith shall remain in effect as rules promulgated by the Supreme Court.

PART II. THE COURTS

Rule 2.1 THE SUPREME COURT

a. Internal Government.

(1) Exercise of Powers and Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court will exercise its powers and jurisdiction en banc. Five justices shall constitute a quorum but the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision. If four justices who hear the argument do not concur, the cause shall be submitted to the other two justices.

(2) Chief Justice.

(a) The chief justice of the Supreme Court shall be chosen by the justices on the first day of July, 1957, and shall serve for a term of two years. In the event of a vacancy a successor shall be chosen within sixty days for a like term. The chief justice shall be the administrative officer of the court and shall be responsible for the dispatch of business. The chief justice shall have the power to order consolidation of such cases as he deems necessary.

(b) The chief justice shall be notified by all justices of any contemplated absences from the court and the reasons therefor.

(c) In the event of the death or retirement of the chief justice or his inability to act the justice longest in continuous service shall perform the duties during the inability, or until a chief justice is elected.

(3) Administration. The chief justice is vested with, and shall exercise in accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court, authority temporarily to assign (1) justices of the Supreme Court to district courts of appeal and circuit courts; (2) judges of district courts of appeal and circuit judges to the Supreme Court, district courts of appeal and circuit courts; (3) judges of other courts, except municipal courts, to judicial service in any court of the same or lesser jurisdiction. Any retired justice or judge may, with his consent, be likewise assigned to judicial service, and shall while serving receive as additional compensation the difference between retirement compensation and the compensation applicable to such service.

(4) How Assignments of Judges Made.

(a) When any justice of the Supreme Court is unable to perform the duties of his office on account of absence, disqualification, sickness or other disability, or because of assignment to special duty, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the Court, the chief justice is hereby authorized to call any judge of a district court of appeal or circuit judge to the Supreme Court for such time as the chief justice may designate.

(b) When a judge of any district court of appeal is unable to perform the duties of his office on account of absence, sickness, disqualification or other disability, or because of assignment to special duty, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the court, said judge or clerk of the district court of appeal shall advise the chief justice of such inability and when so advised the chief justice shall assign a justice of the Supreme Court, a judge of another district court of appeal or a circuit judge to such court for such time as the chief justice may direct.

(c) When any circuit judge is unable to perform the duties of his office on account of absence, sickness, disqualification or other disability, or because of assignment to special duty, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the court, said circuit judge or the presiding judge of such circuit shall so advise the chief justice, who shall assign a justice of the Supreme Court, a judge of the district court, or judge of another circuit, to perform the duties of such judge; provided, however, that no order of assignment shall be necessary if there be another judge or judges of the circuit available to perform the duties of such judge, or the presiding judge may allocate the business of such judge to any judge or judges of the circuit; provided further, that should any judge be disqualified or recuse himself in any cause, such cause shall be reassigned to another judge in accordance with the local rules or practice of said circuit for assignment of business to the judges thereof.

(d) Repealed March 19, 1958, effective July 1, 1958.

(e) When any judge of the Court of Record of Escambia County is unable to perform the duties of his office for the reasons named in paragraph 4(c) of these rules, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the court, or for other reasons beyond its control the docket is shown to be in arrears and other judges of said court as well as the judges of the Circuit Court of Escambia County, who, under Section 10 of Article V of the Constitution, may be requested to perform the duties of such judge are not available or are unable to perform them, a judge or the clerk of said court shall advise the chief justice who shall assign a justice of the Supreme Court, a judge of the district courts of appeal, or a circuit judge, to said court for such time as he may direct.

(f) Repealed March 19, 1958, effective July 1, 1958.

(g) When the judge of any criminal court of record or civil court of record or civil and criminal court of record is unable to perform the duties of his office because of absence, sickness, disqualification, or other cause, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the court, the said judge or the clerk of said court shall advise the chief justice who may assign any judge of any other criminal or civil court of record having the same or greater jurisdiction to perform the duties of said judge for such time as the chief justice may direct; provided, however, that if there be more than one judge of the said court available and qualified, he shall perform the duties of the disabled or disqualified judge.

When the judge of the Civil Court of Record of Duval County, established under the provisions of Chapter 8521, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1921, shall be unable from absence, sickness or any other cause or shall be disqualified by, or from, interest, relationship or any other cause to discharge any duty whatever pertaining to his office, it shall be the duty of a circuit judge, of the county in which the said Civil Court of Record is located, to be designated by the presiding circuit judge, to perform all the duties, and he shall be vested with all the powers, of the judge of the Civil Court of Record of Duval County who is unable or disqualified to act.

(h) When the judge of any county court or county judge's court is unable to perform the duties of his office because of absence, sickness, disqualification or other inability, or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the court, said judge or the clerk of said court shall advise the chief justice who may assign the judge of any other county court or county judge's court having the same or greater jurisdiction to perform the duties of said disqualified judge for such time as the chief justice may direct. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect any provision of the statutes in this state in effect July 1, 1957 authorizing the substitution of circuit judges for county judges in the event of disqualification, absence, sickness or other disability of such county judge, but this rule shall relate solely to the assignment of a judge to act for and in lieu of a county judge by the chief justice of this court under the Florida Constitution.

Provided, however, that if the county has more than one county judge, such additional judge shall perform the duties of the disabled or disqualified county judge if he is available and qualified.

When a county judge shall be disabled or disqualified because of illness, interest, absence from his jurisdiction or other cause, and it is desired to have a circuit judge perform the functions of a county judge as authorized by the statutes, such disability or disqualification and the cause thereof shall be certified by the county judge or by the clerk of the county judge's court, as required by statutes, to a circuit judge or judges of the county or circuit available and able to act, who shall thereupon perform the functions of such disabled or disqualified county judge until such inability or disqualification shall cease.

(i) When the judge of any small claims court, juvenile court or traffic court is unable to perform the duties of his office because of absence, sickness, disqualification or other cause or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of said court, the said judge or the clerk of said court shall advise the chief justice who may assign any judge (except Supreme Court justices, district court judges or circuit judges) of any other court of the same or greater jurisdiction to perform the duties of said judge for such time as the chief justice may direct; provided, however, that if there be more than one judge of a small claims court, juvenile court or traffic court available and qualified, he shall perform the duties of the disabled or disqualified judge.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect any provision of the statutes in this state in effect on July 1, 1957 which, in event of disqualification, absence, sickness or disability of the judge of a separate juvenile court or a county judge who is also judge of juvenile court in his county, authorize the substitution of county judges and circuit judges for judges of separate juvenile courts, and the substitution of circuit judges for county judges in those counties where there is no separate juvenile court and the county judge is the juvenile court judge.

When any justice of the peace of this state is unable to perform the duties of his office because of absence, sickness, disqualification or other cause or when necessary for the prompt dispatch of business of said court, the said justice of the peace or his clerk, if he shall have such, shall advise the chief justice who may assign any other justice of the peace or any judge (except Supreme Court justices, district court of appeal judges or circuit judges) of any other court of this state having the same or greater jurisdiction to perform the duties of said justice of the peace for such time as the chief justice may direct.

(j) The chief justice in the exercise of his authority under Section 2, Article V of the Constitution shall wherever possible make such assignment from courts whose dockets are nearest current in order that there be the least delay in the adjudicating of pending cases. Assignments to the Supreme Court shall be effective when endorsed by the chief justice and three other justices.

(5) Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

(a) Appeals from trial courts may be taken directly to the Supreme Court, as a matter of right, only from judgments imposing the death penalty, from final judgments or decrees passing directly upon the validity of a state statute or a federal statute or treaty, or construing a controlling provision of the Florida or federal Constitution, and from final judgments or decrees in proceedings for the validation of bonds and certificates of indebtedness. The Supreme Court may directly review interlocutory orders or decrees passing upon chancery matters which upon final decree would be directly appealable to the Supreme Court. In all direct appeals and interlocutory appeals, the Supreme Court shall have such jurisdiction as may be necessary to complete determination of the cause on review.

(b) Appeals from district courts of appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court, as a matter of right, only from decisions initially passing upon the validity of a state statute, a federal statute or treaty, or initially construing a controlling provision of the Florida or federal Constitution. The Supreme Court may review by certiorari any decision of a district court of appeal that affects a class of constitutional or state officers, or that passes upon a question certified by the district court of appeal to be of great public interest, or that is in direct conflict with a decision of another district court of appeal or of the Supreme Court on the same point of law, and may issue writs of certiorari to commissions established by law.

The Supreme Court may issue writs of mandamus and quo warranto when a state officer, board, commission, or other agency authorized to represent the public generally, or a member of any such board, commission, or other agency is named as respondent, and writs of prohibition to commissions established by law, to the district courts of appeal, and to trial courts when questions are involved upon which a direct appeal to the Supreme Court is allowed as a matter of right.

(c) The Supreme Court or any justice thereof may issue writs of habeas corpus returnable before the Supreme Court or any justice thereof, or before a district court of appeal or any judge thereof or before any circuit judge.

(d) When the jurisdiction of an appellate court has been improvidently invoked, that court may of its own motion or on motion of either party to the cause enter an order transferring it to the court having jurisdiction. Five days' notice of such motion or proposed action shall be given to the other parties. Notices of appeal and other papers filed prior to the transfer shall have the same force and effect as if filed in the proper court and as of the time when filed in the court from which the transfer was made.

(e) The Supreme Court may on its own motion or on suggestion of one of the district courts of appeal issue all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction.

(6) Judges Shall Devote Full Time to Judicial Duties. Justices of the Supreme Court, judges of district courts of appeal and circuit judges shall devote full time to their judicial duties, shall not engage in the practice of law or hold any office or position of profit under the state or federal government and shall not hold office in any political party. Compensation for services in the state militia or the armed forces of the United States or other defense agencies recognized by the Supreme Court for such periods as may be determined by it shall not be deemed profit.

b. Clerk.

(1) The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk who shall hold office during the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court directs. His compensation shall be fixed by law.

(2) Office. The clerk shall have his office in the Supreme Court building. He shall devote his time to the duties of the office and shall not engage in the practice of law while he continues in office.

(3) Custody of Books, Records and Seal. All books, papers, records, files and the seal of the court shall be kept in the office of the clerk and in his custody; and the clerk shall not allow any book, paper, record or file to be taken from his office or the courtroom, except by a justice of the court or upon the order of the court.

(4) Minutes of Proceedings. The clerk shall keep, in substantially bound books, fair and regular minutes of the proceedings of the court, a record of all its judicial acts, and such other records as the court may from time to time order or direct.

(5) Docket of Cases. The clerk shall keep a docket of all cases that are appealed to, or which originate in, the court. Each case shall be docketed and numbered in the order that the notice of appeal or the petition originating the cause is filed in the court.

(6) Filing Fee. In all appeals, and in all cases originating in the court, the clerk shall require the payment of twenty-five dollars when the notice of appeal, petition or other initial pleading is filed; provided that such payment shall not be exacted in advance in criminal appeals in which the defendant has been adjudicated insolvent for the purpose of an appeal, or in appeals where the State of Florida is the real party in interest as the moving party; provided further, that the payment of costs shall not be required in habeas corpus proceedings, or appeals therefrom, arising out of or in connection with criminal causes or convictions.

(7) Issuance of Mandate, Recordation and Notification. The clerk shall issue such mandates or process as may be directed by the court. Upon the issuance of any mandate the clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, in which shall be noted the date of issuance and the manner of transmission of the mandate to the court below.

In proceedings where no mandate is issued, the clerk, upon final adjudication of the pending cause, shall transmit to the party affected thereby a copy of the court's judgment. The clerk shall notify the attorneys of record of the issuance of any mandate or the rendition of any final judgment.

(8) Return of Original Papers. Upon the conclusion of any cause in the Supreme Court, the clerk shall return to the clerk of the lower court such original papers or files as may have been transmitted to this court for use in the cause.

c. Librarian.

(1) Personnel. The Supreme Court shall appoint a librarian of the Supreme Court and such assistants as may be necessary.

(2) Custodian. The Supreme Court library shall be in the custody of the librarian, but under the exclusive control of the Supreme Court.

(3) Use of Library. The library shall be open to members of the bar of the Supreme Court, to members of the legislature, to law officers of the executive or other departments of the state, and to such other persons as, by special permission of the court, may be allowed to use the library.

(4) Library Hours. The library shall be open during such times as the reasonable needs of the bar require and shall be governed by the regulations made by the librarian with the approval of the court.

(5) Books. Books shall not be removed from the library, except for use by the justices or on order of the chief justice or any justice.

d. Marshal.

(1) Appointment. The Supreme Court shall appoint a marshal who shall hold office at the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court directs. His compensation shall be fixed by law. The marshal shall have power to execute process of the court throughout the state, and in any county may deputize the sheriff or a deputy sheriff for such purpose.

(2) General Duties. The marshal shall perform such clerical or ministerial duties as the court may direct, and such duties as may be required by law.

(3) Custodian of Building and Grounds. Subject to the direction of the court, the marshal shall be custodian of the Supreme Court building and grounds. He shall keep the building clean, sanitary and free of trespassers and marauders and shall maintain the same in good state of repair; and shall cause the grounds to be beautified and preserved against depredations and trespassers.

e. Terms of Court.

(1) Regular Terms. The court shall hold two terms in each year, in the Supreme Court Building, commencing respectively on the second Tuesday in January and July.

(2) Continuance of Cases. At the end of each term, all matters not disposed of shall be continued to the next term.

f. Sessions and Adjournments.

(1) Open Sessions. All sessions of the court shall be open to the public, except conference sessions held for the discussion and consideration of pending cases and the formulation of opinions by the court.

(2) Hearings. The first and third Monday in each month shall be Motion Day in this court. Motions dealing with preliminary matters and interlocutory appeals will be heard at 9:30 a.m. on such Monday; provided notice of the hearing has been served on the opposite party at least five days prior to the day set for the hearing and proof of service has been filed in this court. All other matters will be heard at hours assigned by the clerk. If the court is not in session on the Motion Day set, the hearing will be held on another Motion Day to be determined by the court, of which the clerk shall notify the parties. For good cause shown, the court may set a matter down for hearing on a day other than a Motion Day.

(3) Holidays. The court will not hear arguments or hold open sessions on Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, except in cases of emergency.

(4) Recesses and Adjournments. The court, in appropriate instances, will direct the clerk or the marshal to announce recesses and adjournments.

g. Advisory Committee on Rules. There is hereby created an advisory committee on rules consisting of the following persons to be appointed by the chief justice of the Supreme Court to serve for a period of two years: one justice of the Supreme Court, one judge of the district courts of appeal, one circuit judge, and three members of The Florida Bar. This committee shall conduct a continuous study of the appellate rules and shall meet on June 1st and December 1st of every year in the Supreme Court building in Tallahassee to consider the results of such study and to make such recommendations as are deemed advisable to the Supreme Court for the improvement of the appellate rules.

Rule 2.2 DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL

a. Internal Government.

(1) Exercise of Power and Jurisdiction. Three judges shall constitute a panel for and shall consider each case and the concurrence of a majority of the panel shall be necessary to a decision.

(2) Chief Judge.

(a) The chief judge shall be chosen by the judges of the court on July 1, 1957, and shall serve for a term of two years. In the event of vacancy, a successor shall be chosen within 60 days for a like term. The chief judge shall be the administrative officer of the court and responsible for the dispatch of business. He shall have the power to order consolidation of such cases as he deems necessary and shall assign cases to the judges for the preparation of opinions, orders or judgments.

(b) If the chief judge is unable to discharge his duties for any cause the judge longest in continuous service or, as between judges with equal continuous service, the one having the longest unexpired term and able to do so shall perform the duties of chief judge pending his return to duty.

(c) Judges shall notify the chief judge of any contemplated absence from the court and the reasons therefor.

(3) Assignments of Judges. See Florida Appellate Rule 2.1a(4).

(4) Jurisdiction. See Constitution, Art. V, Section 5(3).

b. Clerk.

(1) Appointment. The court shall appoint a clerk who shall hold office during the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court directs. His compensation shall be fixed by law.

(2) Office. The clerk shall have his office in the headquarters of the court. He shall devote his time to the duties of the office and shall not engage in the practice of law while he continues in office.

(3) Custody of Books, Records and Seal. All books, papers, records, files and the seal of the court shall be kept in the office of the clerk and in his custody; and the clerk shall not allow any book, paper, record or file to be taken from his office or the courtroom, except by a judge of the court or upon the order of the court.

(4) Minutes of Proceedings. The clerk shall keep, in substantially bound books, fair and regular minutes of the proceedings of the court, a record of all its judicial acts, and such other records as the court may from time to time order or direct.

(5) Docket of Cases. The clerk shall keep a docket of all cases that are appealed to, or which originate in, the court. Each case shall be docketed and numbered in the order that the certified copy of the notice of appeal or the petition, suggestion or information originating the cause is filed in the court.

(6) Filing Fee. In all appeals, and in all cases originating in the court, the clerk shall require the payment of twenty-five dollars at the time the certified copy of the notice of appeal, petition, or other initial pleading is filed; provided that such payment shall not be exacted in advance in criminal appeals in which the defendant has been adjudicated insolvent for the purpose of an appeal, or in appeals where the State of Florida is the real party in interest as the moving party, provided further, that the payment of such fee or any costs shall not be required in habeas corpus proceedings or appeals therefrom, arising out of or in connection with criminal causes or convictions.

(7) Issuance of Mandate, Recordation and Notification—Written Opinions. The clerk shall issue such mandates or process as may be directed by the court. Upon the issuance of any mandate the clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, in which shall be noted the date of issuance and the manner of transmission of the mandate to the court below.

In proceedings where no mandate is issued, the clerk, upon final adjudication of the pending cause, shall transmit to the party affected thereby a copy of the court's order or judgment. The clerk shall notify the attorneys of record of the issuance of any mandate or the rendition of any final judgment; and he shall furnish without charge to all attorneys of record in any cause a copy of any order or written opinion rendered in such cause.

(8) Return of Original Papers. The clerk shall retain all original papers, files and exhibits as may have been transmitted to the court for use in the cause for a period of not less than 60 days after the rendition of the court's opinion or order denying petition for rehearing, whichever is the later. If within said 60 day period no petition for certiorari has been filed in nor appeal taken to the Supreme Court for review of the court's decision, the clerk shall forthwith transmit to the clerk of the trial court the original papers, files and exhibits mentioned herein. If within said 60 day period a petition for certiorari has been filed in or appeal taken to the Supreme Court to review the court's decision, the original papers, files and exhibits mentioned herein shall be retained by the clerk and not returned to the clerk of the trial court until final disposition of the review by the Supreme Court and final disposition of the cause by this court pursuant to any mandate issued consequent upon the review.

(9) Additional Duties. The clerk shall perform such other duties as are required by law or as the court may direct.

c. Marshal.

(1) Appointment. The court shall appoint a marshal who shall hold office at the pleasure of the court and perform such duties as the court directs. His compensation shall be fixed by law. The marshal shall have power to execute process of the court throughout the state, and in any county may deputize the sheriff or a deputy sheriff for such purpose.

(2) General Duties. The marshal shall perform such clerical or ministerial duties as the court may direct or as may be required by law.

(3) Custodian of Building and Grounds. The said marshal shall, under the direction of the court, be custodian of the headquarters occupied by the court, whether such headquarters be an entire building or a portion of a building. Should the court occupy an entire building, he shall keep the grounds thereof clean, sanitary and free of trespassers and marauders and shall maintain the same in good state of repair and cause the grounds to be beautified and preserved against depredations and trespassers and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by the court or the judges thereof.

d. Terms of court.

(1) Regular Terms. The court shall hold two regular terms in each year, at its headquarters, commencing respectively on the second Tuesday in January and July.

(2) Special Sessions. The court may hold special sessions at such times and places within the district as may be deemed necessary for the public interest, and shall hold at least one session every year in each judicial circuit within the district wherein there is ready business to transact.

(3) Continuance of Cases. At the end of each term, all matters not disposed of shall be continued to the next term.

e. Sessions and Adjournments.

(1) Open Sessions. All sessions of the court shall be open to the public, except conference sessions held for the discussion and consideration of pending cases and the formulation of opinions by the court.

(2) Motion Days. In the First and Second Districts, unless otherwise ordered, the first and third Tuesday of each month shall be Motion Day. Hearings set for the Motion Day falling on the first Tuesday of the month shall be held either at the place where the court is then holding its session or at the headquarters of the court unless the court fixes another place within the district. Hearings on the Motion Day falling on the third Tuesday of the month shall be held at the headquarters of the court unless the court fixes another place within the district. In the Third District, every Monday shall be Motion Day. Except as otherwise specifically provided by these rules all hearings on all matters, except arguments on the merits in appeals from final judgments or decrees, will be held at 9:30 A.M. in the First and Second Districts and at 9:00 A.M. in the Third District, on a Motion Day, provided that notice of the hearing has been served on the opposite party at least five days prior to the day set for the hearing and proof of service has been filed in the court. If the court is not in session on the Motion Day set, the hearing will be held on another Motion Day to be determined by the court, of which the clerk shall notify the parties. For good cause shown, the court may set a matter down for hearing on a day other than a Motion Day.

(3) Oral Argument Days. Unless otherwise ordered, the court will hold sessions on Wednesday through Friday in the First and Second Districts, and on Tuesday through Friday in the Third District, of such weeks and at such places within the district, as announced by the court, for the purpose of hearing oral arguments on the merits in appeals from final orders, judgments or decrees.

(4) Saturdays. The court will not hear arguments or hold open sessions on Saturday or legal holidays except in cases of emergency.

(5) Recesses and Adjournments. The court, in appropriate instances, will direct the clerk or the marshal to announce recesses and adjournments.

f. Designation of Assigned Judges.

When any justice or judge of another court is assigned for temporary service on the district court of appeal, he shall be designated, as author or participant, by his name and initials followed by the words "Associate Judge."

Rule 2.3 ATTORNEYS

a. Practice by Local Attorneys. All persons duly licensed to practice law and in good standing as a member of The Florida Bar shall be permitted to practice in the Court.

b. Practice by Foreign Attorneys. Upon motion duly filed with the Court supported by proof that an attorney is a member in good standing of the bar of another state and that, under the rules of comity of such state, attorneys of Florida are similarly permitted to appear, attorneys of other states may be permitted to appear in particular cases in the Court, provided requests for such appearances have been made and granted prior to oral argument in the cause. Attorneys of other states shall not do a general practice in the Court unless they are members of The Florida Bar in good standing.

c. Clerks and Secretaries to Justices or Judges Not to Practice. No one serving as a research aide or secretary to a justice or judge of the Court shall practice as an attorney in any court or before any agency of government while continuing in that position; nor shall he ever participate by way of any form of professional consultation and assistance in any case that was docketed in the Court during the period such position was held by him or prior thereto.

d. Attorney as Agent of Client.

(1) Service Upon Attorney. In all matters relating to the prosecution or defense of any matter in the Court, the attorney of record shall be accepted as the agent of his client, and any notice by or to such attorney, act of his, or step taken by him in the prosecution or defense of such proceeding, shall be accepted as the act, notice to, or step of the client.

(2) Withdrawal of Attorney. An attorney of record will not be permitted to withdraw from a cause unless his withdrawal is sanctioned by the Court. He may file his motion for that purpose in the Court setting up the reasons for his withdrawal. A copy of said motion or petition shall be served on the client and the attorney for the adverse party.

(3) Additional Attorneys. After an appeal or other proceeding has been filed or docketed in the Court, additional authorized attorneys may appear and participate, prior to the time the cause is presented to the Court for decision on the merits, without the necessity of securing permission of the Court on filing written appearance in the office of the clerk of the Court and serving a copy thereof upon opposing counsel prior to its filing.

After the date any cause in the Court is presented to the Court for a decision on the merits, no additional attorneys other than the original attorneys of record or those who have noted their appearance in said cause prior to the date the same is presented to the Court for a decision on the merits shall be permitted to appear or participate therein except upon leave of the Court for good cause shown, and provided a copy of the application for leave to appear shall have been served upon opposing counsel at least five days prior to the entry of any order allowing such appearance.

PART III. PROCEEDINGS GENERALLY

Rule 3.1 NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS

Except where petitions for certiorari are permitted by law or by these rules, all appellate review shall be by appeal.

Rule 3.2 COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS

a. Method. An appeal shall be commenced by filing a notice of appeal and depositing the filing fee prescribed by law, which may be by check or money order payable to the clerk of the appellate court, with the clerk of the lower court. Within five days after the notice is so filed, the clerk of the lower court shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the appellate court together with such filing fee. The copy so certified shall contain a certificate of the clerk of the lower court showing the date of the filing of such notice of appeal. Other proceedings shall be commenced by filing the initial pleading with the clerk of the Court and paying him the filing fee prescribed by law.

b. Time. Appeals from final decisions, orders, judgments or decrees shall be commenced within 60 days from the rendition of the final decision, order, judgment or decree appealed from, unless some other period of time for taking an appeal is specifically provided by statute or these rules.

c. Contents of Notice. The notice of appeal may be in the form approved by the Court. The notice of appeal shall state the title of the court, and the style of the cause from which the appeal is taken and the title of the court to which the appeal is taken; the name and designation of the appealing party, whether plaintiff or defendant; the name and designation of the opposing party, whether plaintiff or defendant; the nature and date of rendition of the order, judgment or decree appealed from; and the date and book and page of the public record in which it is recorded.

Deficiencies in form or substance in the notice of appeal shall not be jurisdictional and shall not be ground for dismissal of the appeal unless it be clearly shown that the complaining party was misled or prejudiced by such deficiencies.

d. Effect of Filing Notice. The filing of the notice of appeal and deposit of the filing fee with the clerk of the lower court shall give the Court jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the parties to the appeal. Failure to transmit a certified copy of the notice and the filing fee to the clerk of the appellate court shall not be jurisdictional.

Any reviewable interlocutory order entered in any cause subsequent to the entry of the final judgment or decree but prior to the filing of the notice of appeal may be reviewed by the appellate court in the same manner as reviewable interlocutory orders entered prior to the date of such final judgment or decree. When appeal is from a final judgment or decree, it shall not be necessary to designate such interlocutory orders by time and place of record in the notice of appeal. In such cases they shall be reviewable as so described in the assignments of error.

e. Notice to Be Recorded. The notice of appeal shall be recorded in the lower court.

f. Payment of Costs by Original Plaintiff. No appeal may be taken by the original plaintiff in any suit or proceeding until he shall have first paid all costs that have accrued in and about the suit, and have been specifically taxed against him, up to the time the appeal is taken; provided, that nothing contained herein shall require the prepayment of costs by the original plaintiff when he has assigned as error the taxation of costs and has superseded the order, judgment or decree specifically taxing the same; provided further, that in those instances where the costs are not settled until after the notice of appeal is filed, the party obligated shall be required to pay the same within ten (10) days upon written demand, otherwise said appeal shall be dismissed upon motion. Every motion to dismiss an appeal for failure to comply with this rule shall be filed on or before the 20th day after the filing of the notice of appeal or if costs were settled thereafter from the date of such settlement.

Rule 3.3 BASIS OF HEARING AND DETERMINATION

Appeals will be heard and determined on assignments of error, appendices and briefs filed in accordance with these rules; but the record-on-appeal will be referred to when necessary to settle material conflicts between the parties. No assignment of error or matter contained in an appendix will be considered unless it is properly based on the record-on-appeal.

Rule 3.4 FILING AND SERVICE OF PAPERS

a. Filing. Papers required to be filed under these rules shall be filed with the clerk of the appellate or lower court as the case may be. Copies in addition to the original paper need not be filed except where specifically required.

b. Service.

(1) Upon Whom Made. Wherever by these rules, or by the order of the Court service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney of record, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless personal service upon the party is ordered by the Court.

(2) How Made.

(a) Service upon the attorney may be made by mailing a copy of the paper or notice to his last known address; or handing it to him personally; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his usual place of abode with some person of his family above fifteen years of age and informing such person of the contents thereof.

(b) When personal service upon the party is ordered by the Court, or when the party is not represented by an attorney of record, service may be made upon such party in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) hereof.

(3) Effect of Mailing. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing; but service by mail shall add three days to the time allowed to do any act required to be done within a certain time after service of a notice or paper.

(4) Proof of Service. When service is made by some person other than an executive officer of the Court, proof of service shall be made by certificate and filed in the Court.

(5) Copies to Be Served. A copy of each paper required to be filed under these rules, including the notice of appeal, shall be served on the adverse party or his attorney at or prior to the time of filing. Where parties are numerous the Court may limit the number of copies to be served.

Rule 3.5 ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

a. Assignments of Error by Appellant. Within 10 days after the notice of appeal has been filed, the appellant shall file his assignments of error with the clerk of the lower court.

b. Cross Assignments of Error by Appellee. Within 10 days after the appellant has filed his assignments of error, the appellee if he desires review on any adverse ruling must file his cross assignments of error with the said clerk.

c. Essentials. The assignments or cross assignments of error shall designate identified judicial acts which should be stated as they occurred; grounds for error need not be stated in the assignment.

d. Extension of Time. The time for filing assignments and cross assignments of error may be extended by the appellate court or the lower court.

Rule 3.6 RECORD-ON-APPEAL

a. What Constitutes. The record-on-appeal shall consist either of an original record or a transcript of record, or a stipulated statement prepared in accordance with these rules. A transcript of record shall be used only when so ordered by the lower court or stipulated by the parties. Appellant may, however, use a transcript as a matter of right if he elects to assume the cost thereof, which shall not be taxable as costs. Where a transcript of record instead of the original record is used, such transcript shall be printed, typewritten or duplicated in a clear readable manner such as by mimeograph on opaque white unglossed paper not to exceed in size $8\frac{1}{2} \times 14$ inches. Lettering shall be black and distinct type, double spaced and with margins no less than one inch. Lettering in transcript or type made in imitation of handwriting will not be permitted. The record shall be bound and securely stapled or fastened and no volume shall contain more than 200 pages and the cover sheet of each volume shall state the style of the cause, the court from which it was appealed and the volume number and shall contain an appropriate index.

b. Duty to Prepare: Enforcement of Duties. The duty of preparing and transmitting to the Court the record-on-appeal shall rest on the clerk of the lower court. The reporter shall have the duty of transcribing, certifying and transmitting to the clerk of the lower court such portions of the lower court proceedings as have been stenographically reported and designated by the parties. Appellant shall see that these duties are complied with and may enforce the same by motion in the lower or appellate court.

c. Preparation by Appellant. If the appellant elects he may prepare the record-on-appeal. In such event the clerk of the lower court shall be entitled to receive a fee only for verifying an uncertified transcript and certifying and otherwise making said record conform with these rules; and he shall refuse to certify any record that does not comply with said rules.

d. Directions to Clerk and Reporter.

(1) Directions to Clerk. The appellant shall file, within the time provided for filing his assignments of error, his directions to the lower court clerk for making up the record-on-appeal, said directions to designate the portions of the original record, proceedings and evidence to be transmitted to the Court. Within 10 days after the appellant has filed his directions, the appellee shall file his directions designating any additional portions of the record, proceedings, or evidence he deems essential to be included in the record-on-appeal. If appellant is served with cross assignments of error he shall have 10 days thereafter to file additional directions to the clerk.

(2) Designation to Reporter. When any proceedings in the lower court have been stenographically reported, and have not been transcribed, the appellant, within the time for filing and serving assignments of error, shall file, and serve upon the appellee, a designation of such parts of said proceedings as he shall deem necessary for the appeal or an affirmative statement that he does not deem any part of such proceedings necessary. Within 10 days thereafter, the appellee shall file and serve upon the appellant a designation of such additional parts of said proceedings as he shall deem necessary for the appeal or an affirmative statement that he does not deem any part of such proceedings necessary. If appellant is served with cross assignments of error he shall have 10 days thereafter to file additional designations to the reporter. The original of such designations shall be filed with the clerk of the lower court and copies served on the reporter and the adverse party or his attorney.

e. Reporter's Transcribed Notes. After the service of the designations by the parties, and within the time herein prescribed, the reporter shall transcribe and certify to the clerk of the lower court a copy of the parts of the proceedings that have been designated by the parties and shall furnish to appellant at his expense such copies as he shall order.

The lower court clerk shall not be required to verify, nor shall he make a charge for, any stenographic copy furnished and certified by the reporter for incorporation in the record-on-appeal. The transcript of the testimony may be bound and paged separately in volumes not to exceed 200 pages each.

At all times prior to the submission of the cause for final decision in the court, the lower court, after notice, shall have the power to make such transcribed copy speak the truth.

f. Original Record.

(1) Contents and Transmittal. Within the time herein prescribed the clerk of the lower court shall transmit to the clerk of the Court all of the designated portions of the original papers and exhibits in the action or proceeding in which the appeal is taken, together with a copy of any such parts of the trial proceedings as were stenographically reported and have been designated by the parties and certified by the reporter for inclusion in the record-on-appeal, and certified copies of the order, judgment or decree appealed from, and all appeal papers other than the notice of appeal and shall append his certificate identifying the papers with reasonable definiteness. On appellate proceedings from a district court of appeal to the Supreme Court the record shall include the record, if any, transmitted from the lower court.

(2) Form In Which Papers Transmitted. The original papers, including the transcript of testimony, shall be fastened together in one or more volumes containing not more than 200 pages per volume. The pages of the record as prepared shall be numbered consecutively, and each volume shall include a cover page and a complete index of all papers therein. The clerk's office shall use the flat filing system in the preparation of the record-on-appeal.

(3) Preface Index. The record shall be securely bound and shall be prefaced with a complete index, which shall state in chronological order the date of the filing of each paper, order or instrument in the lower court, the name or character of the instrument, and the page of the record where the same may be found. Deeds, contracts and the like shall be described by the names of the parties thereto. The names of witnesses and the pages where the testimony of each may be found shall be designated.

g. Transcript of Record.

(1) When Used. If the parties shall so stipulate, or if the judge of the lower court is of the opinion, that the original papers in the case should be kept in the trial court pending the appeal for use in the trial of other litigation or for other valid reason, the judge may make an order to that effect, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the clerk of the lower court from which the appeal is taken to transmit to the Court a certified copy of the record in accordance with these rules.

(2) Contents and Form. No matter shall be included in the transcript of record that is not within the scope of the assignments of error. All pleadings, evidence and other matters not essential to the decision of said points shall be omitted. Formal parts of all pleadings and exhibits and more than one copy of any document shall be excluded. Documents shall be abridged by omitting all irrelevant and formal parts. The transcript shall be bound, numbered, prefaced and indexed in the same manner as an original record, and may be on either letter or legal size paper. There shall be a cover sheet which gives the name of the trial judge and the names and addresses of all attorneys of record. It shall include proof that the proper service has been made of copies of all appeal papers.

h. Stipulated Statement. When the points to be presented on an appeal can be determined without an examination of the record in the lower court, the parties may prepare and sign a stipulated statement in the cause showing how the points to be presented arose and were decided in the lower court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved, or sought to be averred or proved, as are deemed essential to a decision of the points by the Court. Within the time provided by this rule, the clerk of the lower court shall certify and transmit the stipulated statement, a copy of the order, judgment or decree appealed from, and all other appeal papers to the Court, and the same shall constitute the record-on-appeal.

i. Filing, Use and Service of Copies.

(1) Filing and Use. When the preparation of the record-on-appeal has been completed it shall be promptly filed with the clerk of the lower court and, prior to its transmittal to the appellate court, made available for use by the parties and their attorneys.

(2) Service of Copy of Transcript. Where a transcript of record is to be used in lieu of the original record, the appellant shall file the same and serve a copy thereof upon the appellee; provided, that where there is more than one appellee, and it is made to appear that the service of a copy on each appellee will work an undue hardship or entail unreasonable expense, the lower court, after notice, may authorize in lieu of such service, the filing of at least one but not more than three copies of said transcript with the clerk of the lower court for the use of the appellees.

(3) Service of Copy of Reporter's Transcribed Notes. If the same are not being included in a transcript of the record, or a copy of the same is not already possessed by appellee, the appellant shall serve appellee with a copy of such portions of the reporter's transcribed notes as are to be included in the record-on-appeal. Where there is more than one appellee, and it is made to appear that the service of a copy on each appellee will work an undue hardship or entail unreasonable expense, the lower court, after notice, may authorize, in lieu of such service, the filing of at least one but not more than three copies with the clerk of the lower court for the use of the appellees.

(4) Service of Copy of Index. Where the original record is used the clerk shall furnish a copy of the index to all parties as soon as it is prepared.

j. Time for Performance of Acts Relating to Record-on-Appeal.

(1) Original Time Schedule. Unless an appropriate extension order has been entered the acts specified by these rules with respect to the record-on-appeal shall be performed in accordance with the following time schedule:

Directions to the clerk of the lower court shall be filed and served within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed.

Cross-directions to the clerk of the lower court shall be filed and served within 10 days after appellee is served with appellant's directions.

Designations to the reporter (or statements that none of the stenographic notes are to be transcribed) shall be filed and served within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed.

Cross-designations to the reporter (or statements that none of the stenographic notes are to be transcribed) shall be filed and served within 10 days after appellee is served with appellant's designations.

Reporter's transcribed notes shall be transcribed, certified and filed with the clerk of the lower court and appellant supplied with all copies ordered by him within 30 days after the filing and service of appellant's designations. An extension of time for filing the reporter's transcribed notes in the office of the clerk of the lower court shall operate to extend for a like period the times fixed herein below for governing the filing of the record-on-appeal and for transmittal of the record-on-appeal.

Service of copies of reporter's transcribed notes shall be made within 10 days after the original record has been completely prepared and filed with the clerk of the lower court.

Completion and filing of record-on-appeal by and with the clerk of the lower court shall take place within 50 days after the filing of the notice of appeal.

Service of a copy of the transcript upon the appellee shall be made within 60 days after the notice of appeal is filed.

Transmittal of the record-on-appeal to the clerk of the appellate court shall take place 110 days after the notice of appeal has been filed.

(2) Time Changes and Extensions. On motion and after reasonable notice, the above scheduled times may be reduced or enlarged as provided in Rule 3.8. An extension of time for the doing of an act shall automatically extend the time for the doing of other acts which bear a time relation to it. When an extension order is entered by the lower court, a certified copy thereof shall be filed promptly by the moving party with the clerk of the appellate court.

k. Record for Preliminary Hearing. If, prior to the time the record-on-appeal is transmitted to the Court, a party desires to present a motion to dismiss or to quash the appeal for admission to bail, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the appeal bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the lower court, at the request of such party or order of the lower court, shall transmit to the clerk of the Court certified copies of such of the original papers in the action or proceeding in the lower court as are needed for that purpose.

l. Correcting or Completing. Unless the record shows to the contrary, it shall be presumed, upon appellate proceedings, that the record transmitted to the Court contains all proceedings in the lower court material to the points presented for decision in the Court. If anything is omitted from the record-on-appeal by error or accident, the parties by stipulation, or the lower court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the Court, or the Court on a proper suggestion or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission be corrected. If any dispute arises as to whether any transcript truly discloses what occurred in the lower court, or is in conformance with any stipulation of the parties, the dispute shall be submitted to and settled by the lower court and the transcript made to conform accordingly.

m. Return to Lower Court. After final disposition has been made of an appeal, and the time for any further review or appeal has expired, the original papers comprising the record-on-appeal shall be returned to the clerk of the lower court.

n. Certificates. Certificates called for by this rule may follow the forms suggested herein.

Rule 3.7 BRIEFS—FORM, CONTENTS AND FILING

a. Appellant's Main Brief, Service. At least 40 days before the date upon which the record-on-appeal is required to be filed in the appellate court, the appellant shall serve one copy of his brief and appendix upon the appellee and he shall file the original and one copy of his brief and appendix with the clerk of the Court, together with proof of service of a copy thereof upon appellee.

b. Appellee's Brief, Service. It shall be the duty of appellee within 20 days after a copy of appellant's brief has been served upon him to file in the appellate court the original and one copy of his brief and appendix and serve a copy thereof upon appellant. Failure of appellee to file his brief and appendix as required by these rules shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court prior to the date set for oral argument, forfeit the right of said appellee to oral argument.

c. Appellant's Reply Brief, Service. Within 20 days after a copy of appellee's brief has been served upon him, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the appellant, if he prepares a reply brief (which is not mandatory), shall serve the appellee with a copy and file the original and one copy thereof with the clerk of the Court, together with proof of service. Without special order of the Court no reply brief shall be considered unless filed and served at least five days prior to the oral argument date.

d. Extension of Time for Filing. The appellate court, or the lower court may, for good cause, extend the time for filing briefs and appendices, but no briefs or appendices other than those prescribed above will be permitted, except by special order of the appellate court. A certified copy of any order entered by the lower court hereunder shall be filed by the moving party or parties with the clerk of the appellate court within five days after it is entered. Extension of time for filing briefs shall extend the time for transmittal of the record-on-appeal to the clerk of the appellate court as provided for in Rule 3.6j(1).

e. Style of Briefs.

(1) Paper and Size. All briefs shall be printed, typewritten, or duplicated in a clear, readable manner such as by mimeographing, on opaque, white unglossed paper. If printed, the briefs shall be 6 x 9 inches, or within one-half inch thereof; if typewritten or duplicated the briefs shall be on letter-size paper.

(2) Type and Spacing. The lettering in briefs shall be black and distinct type, double spaced and with margins no less than one inch. Lettering in script, or type made in imitation of handwriting, will not be permitted. Quoted matter shall be indented and single spaced.

(3) Binding, Titles. Briefs shall be bound in book form and stitched or stapled, if printed, or securely stapled along the left side, if typewritten, with headings in capital letters, and, if printed, subheadings in bold type of not less than eleven points.

(4) Cover of Each Brief. There shall be stated on the cover sheet of each brief the title of the Court, the style of the cause, the court from which it was appealed, upon whose behalf the brief is filed, and the names and addresses of the attorneys filing the brief.

(5) Length of Briefs. Briefs shall contain not more than 50 pages, whether printed or typewritten, exclusive of the appendices herein required, unless the court permits enlargement of the briefs.

f. Contents of Appellant's Brief. The appellant's main brief shall contain:

(1) A citation of authorities. The volume and page of both the official state and West Publishing Company Reports to be given when available.

(2) A topical index.

(3) A statement of the case and of the facts and points involved, in a clear and concise manner, with reference to the pages of the appendix, and also to the pages of the original record where there is any possibility that appellee may question the statement.

(4) Argument in support of the position of the appellant. This section of the brief shall contain a division for each of the points involved. Specific assignments of error from which the points argued arise should be stated, and if any reference to the original record or appendix is made, the page should be given.

(5) An Appendix, which shall contain a copy of the material portions of the order, judgment or decree appealed from or sought to be reviewed or enforced, together with any opinion of the court, board or commission, and any pertinent portion of any report of a master filed in the case. The appendix shall also contain a copy of such parts of the original record material to the points presented as the appellant desires the Court to read.

If the points presented on appeal arise in connection with testimony taken at the trial or hearing, the appellant shall incorporate such testimony in the appendix in question and answer form, as will best facilitate a clear and proper understanding of the points raised; but the inclusion of immaterial substance in the appendix will not be permitted. Asterisks, or other appropriate means, shall be used to indicate omissions in the testimony of witnesses. Reference to the pages of the record-on-appeal shall be made and the names of the witnesses shall be indexed. If the transcript of the testimony is bound and paged separately it shall be sufficient to refer to the pages of the transcript appellant desires the Court to read without copying the same in the appendix.

The appendix may be in separate pamphlet or volume from the rest of the brief, but shall conform with the requirements of the brief as to paper, size, type, spacing, and titles. If it exceeds 50 pages the appendix shall be bound separately.

g. Contents of Appellee's Brief. The brief of appellee shall be prepared in the same manner as the brief of appellant and in addition thereto shall contain:

(1) A statement of the case and of the points involved, if the appellee disagrees with the statement of appellant.

(2) A statement of the facts which are necessary to correct or amplify the statement in appellant's brief insofar as it is deemed erroneous or inadequate, with reference to pages of the record-on-appeal.

(3) Argument on each point presented by appellant and such additional points as appellee desires to present and as fall within the assignments or cross-assignments of error.

(4) An Appendix, prepared in the same manner as appellant's appendix, containing a copy of such parts of the record-on-appeal as the appellee desires the court to read, and as have not been presented in the brief or appendix of appellant.

h. Reply Brief of Appellant. The appellant may file a reply brief and may set forth in an appendix thereto such parts of the record-on-appeal as he may wish the Court to read in view of the parts presented by the appellee.

i. Points Not Argued Are Abandoned. Such assignments of error as are not argued in the briefs will be deemed abandoned and may not be argued orally. However, the Court, in the interest of justice, may notice jurisdictional or fundamental error apparent in the record-on-appeal, whether or not it has been argued in the briefs or made the subject of an assignment of error, or of an objection or exception in the court below.

j. Appendix Requirement Permissive. Except as required in Rule 4.2, whenever an appendix to briefs is required by any provision of these rules, such requirement shall be construed as permissive only despite the mandatory language of the rules in regard thereto.

k. Amicus Curiae. Any attorney who desires to file a brief in a cause pending in the court, as amicus curiae, may do so if consent therefor in writing signed by the attorneys for all parties of record is first filed in the Court; or if, upon motion filed within 80 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, petition for certiorari or original proceedings, he is permitted to do so by the Court. Such motion shall state briefly the reason for the request and the persons or interests upon whose behalf he seeks to appear, and a copy thereof shall be served on all attorneys in the cause. The motion may be heard and disposed of any Motion

Day, provided reasonable notice of such hearing has been served on the attorneys in the cause.

Rule 3.8 POWER OF LOWER COURT

(a) After the entry of an appeal, but before the record-on-appeal is filed in the Court, the things required to be done in the lower court or appellate court and objections to things done, including the fixing or extension of time within which they shall be done, shall be under the supervision of the lower court, subject to the control of the appellate court by motion on proper notice.

(b) If an appeal is taken from an order or decree awarding separate maintenance, support or alimony, the lower court may in its discretion, upon proper notice and hearing, order the payment of separate maintenance, support or alimony pending such appeal in such amounts and under such terms and conditions as may be just and equitable. Such order shall be subject to supersedeas only by the appellate court upon motion and for good cause and then only upon such conditions as shall be imposed by such appellate court, including the payment of attorneys' fees. The acceptance of the benefits thereof shall be without prejudice to the rights of the beneficiary to raise as issues on the appeal the correctness of any of the terms or provisions of the original order or decree appealed.

(c) A certified copy of any order entered by the lower court under this rule shall be filed by the moving party or parties with the clerk of the appellate court within 5 days after it is entered.

Rule 3.9 MOTIONS

a. Use. If no other procedure or pleading is specifically provided, requests to the Court for an order or ruling shall be by way of motion filed with the clerk of the Court and served on the opposite party or his attorney.

b. Motion to Quash Appeal. Where appropriate, the appellee may file with the clerk of the Court, a written motion to quash the appeal on the ground that the same is frivolous or taken only for the purpose of delay.

c. Time For. Every motion on behalf of an appellee to quash or dismiss an appeal, to strike the record or any portion thereof shall be filed, and a copy thereof served upon the opposite party, on or before the day the appellee is required to file his brief.

d. When Heard. Upon proof of such service and without further notice to the opposite party, the Court will hear said motion on the first motion day thereafter, if a period of five days has intervened; otherwise the motion will be heard on the next succeeding motion day.

e. Briefs and Argument. The parties may file briefs in support of, or in opposition to, the motion any time before the hearing, and at the hearing they will be permitted to submit oral arguments if they desire, but no arguments will be permitted on motions to quash an appeal as frivolous unless such argument is requested by the Court.

f. Stay of Proceedings. When a motion is made as provided by this rule, further proceedings or the time for the filing of any paper or document in the cause will be suspended until the disposition of the motion. When the motion is disposed of, the cause will proceed under the rules unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

g. Evidence in Support of Motions. Unless the motion is ex parte, all affidavits or evidence dehors the record offered in support of any motion before the Court shall be filed prior to the hearing thereon, and copies thereof served upon the opposite party in time to permit the offering of counter evidence.

Rule 3.10 ORAL ARGUMENTS

a. Application For. Oral arguments may be allowed in any case appealed, or presented, to the Court if applied for at the time the applicant's first brief is filed. The application for oral argument shall not be incorporated in the briefs or other bound papers but shall be filed on a separate paper. The application shall be filed with the clerk and a copy thereof shall be served on the opposite party in the same manner that briefs are required to be served.

b. Time Allowed. Not more than 30 minutes to the side will be allowed for arguments in the Supreme Court and not more than 30 minutes in the district courts; but this time may be enlarged, for good cause shown, provided application for enlargement is made prior to the time the case is set upon the oral argument calendar for hearing on a day certain. Not more than 10 minutes to a side will be allowed for argument on motions heard on Motion Day unless the Court enlarges the time for good cause shown by application filed by either party at least five days prior to the hearing date. As amended effective May 15, 1964.

c. Participation by Attorneys. Not more than two attorneys to the side will be allowed to argue any case, except by special permission.

d. Duty of Attorneys. In oral argument, attorney for the appellant will be expected to state briefly the position occupied by the appellant in the court below, whether plaintiff or defendant; the nature of the order, judgment or decree appealed from; the nature of the suit in which the order, judgment or decree was entered, and at what point in the case it was entered; a short statement of the material facts upon which the order, judgment or decree was entered; and the points relied on by the appellant for the reversal of the order, judgment or decree appealed from.

An attorney's legitimate deductions from the evidence may be argued, but extensive reading from the evidence, books, records or briefs will not be permitted.

e. Court May Require, or Dispense with, Oral Argument. In its discretion the Court may require oral argument in any case even though the same has not been requested, may limit the time thereof, or may dispense with oral argument in any case even though request for oral argument has been made.

f. Time and Place of Oral Arguments. Unless otherwise ordered by the court all oral arguments on days other than Motion Days shall be held in the main courtroom and shall commence at 9:30 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

g. Hearing by Supreme Court en banc. Oral arguments will be heard by the Supreme Court en banc (seven justices) in the following cases, to-wit:

(1) Appeals from judgments imposing the death penalty.

(2) Appeals from final judgments or decrees directly passing upon the validity of a state statute or a federal statute or treaty.

(3) Appeals from final judgments or decrees construing a controlling provision of the Florida or Federal Constitution.

(4) Such other matters as shall be designated by the chief justice.

All other cases will be heard by a quorum of the court consisting of five members.

Nothing herein shall prevent the court from sitting as scheduled if a constitutional quorum is present, when so convened in the discretion of the chief justice because of the disqualification, illness or absence of one or more of the justices.

Rule 3.11 PARTIES

a. Generally. Any party who shall feel aggrieved by a final decision, order, judgment or decree may take an appeal and all parties to the cause who are not named as parties appellant shall automatically become parties appellee. Any person or persons taking or joining in an appeal shall be the party or parties appellant, and all other parties shall be parties appellee, regardless of the effect on such party or parties of any order, judgment or decree appealed from. As to any party against whom a judgment by default or a decree pro confesso has been entered in the lower court, the cause may proceed ex parte, but said party shall not be deprived by reason thereof of the right to file cross-assignments of error.

b. Joinder in Appeal. If any party who is an appellee desires to join as an appellant in the appeal he shall file his joinder in appeal, within the time allowed by these rules for filing notice of appeal; and thereafter, within the time prescribed by these rules for such purposes, he may, if he desires, file such additional assignments of error and additional directions to the clerk of the lower court as he may deem necessary. Should an appeal be commenced more than 50 days after the rendition of the decision, judgment, decree, or order appealed from, an appellee shall be allowed ten days after being served with a copy of the notice of appeal within which to file his joinder in appeal and his assignments of error.

c. Dismissal of Parties. If any party wishes to be dismissed from the appeal, he shall present to the court, after five days' notice to the other parties to the appeal, a motion for his dismissal from the cause. If the Court determines that the cause can be decided without such party it may order that said party be dismissed and that the cause proceed to final determination; provided that any dismissed party shall be bound by the decision rendered.

d. Attorneys and Guardians Ad Litem Below as such. Attorneys and guardians ad litem in the lower court shall be deemed attorneys or guardians ad litem of the same parties in the Court, unless others are duly appointed after notice thereof to the adverse party and the substitution noted of record.

e. Death of Parties and Substitution.

(1) Voluntary Substitution. Whenever any party to an appeal pending in the Court shall die, the personal representative of the deceased party may voluntarily come in and be admitted as a party to the appeal, and said appeal shall thereupon be heard and determined as other appeals.

(2) Involuntary Substitution. If the personal representative of a deceased party does not voluntarily become a party to the appeal any interested party may suggest the death and move for an order requiring the representative to become a party within twenty days or within such time as the Court may order.

(3) Publication of Order. A copy of such order shall be published within 10 days after the entry of the order in some newspaper of general circulation in the county of the lower court, provided that personal service of a copy of the order upon the personal representative shall be deemed the equivalent of, and a substitute for, publication.

(4) Dismissal or Revival. If the personal representative of a deceased party fails to come in when ordered by the Court to do so, the movant, if an appellee, may procure an order of dismissal, and the movant, if an appellant, may procure an order of revival of the cause against said personal representative in order that said appeal may be finally determined.

(5) Revivor Unnecessary. If any party to the appeal shall die after the cause is completely ready for decision, but before decision rendered, a revivor of the suit against the deceased party shall not be necessary.

(6) Constructive Service. If an appellee dies pending the appeal and service on parties interested becomes necessary, constructive service on such parties may be resorted to if personal service cannot be reasonably made.

Rule 3.12 ADVANCEMENT OF CAUSES

For good cause shown, or upon its own motion, the Court may advance any cause for final hearing.

Rule 3.13 DISMISSAL OF CAUSES

a. Dismissal of Causes When Settled. When any cause pending in the Court is settled by compromise or otherwise prior to a decision on the merits, it shall be the duty of both parties to immediately notify the Court of such settlement by a signed stipulation for dismissal.

b. Voluntary Dismissal of Causes. The moving party in any proceedings, original or appellate, may procure dismissal of such proceedings at any time by filing with the clerk of the Court a notice for dismissal. Where the opposing party or parties have filed responsive pleadings or assignments of error or cross-petition, such notice for dismissal shall be by all such parties.

c. Clerk's Duty. When an appellate proceeding has been dismissed, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Court to certify the fact of dismissal to the lower court.

Rule 3.14 REHEARING

a. Time For. Unless further time is allowed, rehearings must be applied for by petition in writing within 15 days after the filing of the decision or order of the Court.

b. Contents of Petition. The petition for rehearing shall not assume a new ground or position from that taken in the original argument or briefs upon which the cause was submitted, and must set forth concisely, and without argument, the alleged omissions, oversights, causes or grounds on which it is based.

c. Service. A copy of the petition shall be served upon the opposite party or counsel and proof of such service shall be transmitted to the Court with the petition. The petition for rehearing shall not be considered a part of the record in the cause, unless so ordered by the Court, or unless rehearing is granted. No oral argument will be allowed on the petition.

d. Rule Violation. In case of a substantial violation of any material provision of this rule, the petition will be stricken by the Court on its own motion and the contents will not be considered.

e. Only One Petition Allowed. The petitioner shall be entitled to file only one petition for rehearing with respect to the particular decision and no further petition or motion will be received or filed by the clerk or considered by the Court.

f. Further Pleadings. The opposing party may file and serve a reply to a petition for rehearing within 5 days after he is served with a copy of the petition. No other pleadings shall be allowed.

Rule 3.15 MANDATE

a. Issuance of Mandate. Unless the Court, by special order, shall otherwise direct, the clerk, upon the expiration of 15 days from the decision or order, shall issue such mandate or process as may be directed by the Court. When a judgment of reversal is entered which requires the entry of a money judgment on a verdict the mandate shall be deemed to require such money judgment to be entered as of the date of the verdict.

b. Extension of Time for Issuance of Mandate. If a petition for rehearing is filed in a cause, the time for the issuance of the mandate or other process shall be extended until the petition is denied, or, if granted, until the cause has been fully determined; provided, however, that the court may delay the issuance of its mandate upon terms and conditions to be imposed by it after denial of rehearing for good cause if such application be made at the time of filing the petition for rehearing.

Rule 3.16. TAXATION OF COSTS

a. Cost of Record-On-Appeal. Reasonable costs for preparing the record-on-appeal by the clerk of the lower court may be taxed in the lower court after the filing of the mandate.

b. Where Taxed. All costs including appellate costs shall be taxed in the lower court pursuant to law.

c. Reviewable by Petition. If any party shall feel aggrieved by any judgment for costs, said judgment shall be reviewable in the appellate court upon petition, provided the petition is filed within 20 days after the entry of said judgment.

d. Petition and Notice—Requisite of. A petition to review a judgment for costs shall set forth with particularity the items of cost allowed by the lower court and the items complained of. A copy of such petition shall be served forthwith upon the party adversely affected, and proof of service shall be filed in the Court. The adverse party shall file his reply to the petition within 10 days after service of the petition on him.

e. Attorney's Fees. Where attorney's fees are allowable by law for services in the appellate court the request therefor shall be presented by motion filed with the clerk of the appellate court at or before the time of filing the party's first brief, and shall be disposed of at the time the case is disposed of on the merits, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The motion for attorney's fees shall not be incorporated in the briefs or other bound papers but shall be filed on a separate paper. The trial court shall have full and complete power and authority upon due application to enforce the payment of fees allowed by the appellate court.

Rule 3.17 PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

The violation of any of these rules shall subject the offending person to such penalties as the Court may impose.

Rule 3.18 COMPUTATION OF TIME

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be counted, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period shall run until the end of a next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed shall be less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as any other day and not as a holiday. If an act be required to be performed on a day certain and such day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the act shall be performed on the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday, nor a legal holiday.

PART IV. SPECIAL AND EXTRAORDINARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 4.1 REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE BOARDS AND AGENCIES

All appellate review of the rulings of any commission or board shall be by certiorari as provided by the Florida Appellate Rules.

In appeals from compensation orders of the Industrial Commission the record shall be prepared in the following manner, rather than by the method provided in Rule 4.5c: within 10 days after service of the petition on the Industrial Commission and other parties to the cause, the Director of the Workmen's Compensation Division shall transmit to the Court the original record of the proceeding before the deputy commissioner which was reviewed by the full commission, the originals of any motions or other instruments filed in connection with such review by the full commission, and the original order sought to be reviewed, which shall constitute the record for review by the Court. No service of the record for review hereby prepared shall be required.

Rule 4.2 INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS

a. Application. Appeals to district courts from interlocutory orders at law relating to venue or jurisdiction over the person, appeals to the appropriate court from interlocutory orders or decrees in equity and orders, judgments or decrees entered in law or equity after final judgment or decree, except those relating to motions for new trial or reconsideration, may be prosecuted in accordance with this rule; provided that nothing in this rule shall preclude the review of an interlocutory order or decree in law or equity on appeal from the final judgment or decree as otherwise authorized by these rules; and provided, however, this rule shall not be construed as limiting or affecting the power of the district courts of appeal or the circuit courts in reviewing any appropriate interlocutory order by common law certiorari.

b. Time for Filing. The notice of appeal, which shall designate the appeal as an interlocutory appeal, and assignments of error shall be filed simultaneously within 60 days from the rendition of the order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed.

c. Disposition. If it affirmatively appears that the appeal is frivolous, was not taken in good faith, was taken for delay, or is without substantial merit, it will be dismissed and the cost of the proceeding imposed on the appellant.

d. Record-on-Appeal. No record-on-appeal shall be required or permitted other than certified copies of the appeal papers and the judgment or order appealed from. Such certified copies shall be served and filed within 15 days from the date of the filing of the notice of appeal. The appendices shall contain full copies of all pleadings and other parts of the record needed to determine the appeal.

e. Briefs. Briefs and appendices shall be prepared, filed and served in accordance with Rule 3.7 except that appellant's main brief shall be served within 15 days after the notice of appeal is filed, appellee's brief shall be served within 10 days after he is served with appellant's brief, and appellant's reply brief shall be served within five days after he is served with appellee's brief. All briefs shall be promptly filed after service.

f. Hearing and Disposition. When oral arguments are requested, interlocutory appeals shall be set by the Court for argument at the earliest practicable date. The time allowed for oral argument in the Supreme Court shall be the same as for other oral arguments and in the district courts shall be as fixed by rules of such court. The appellate court may reserve ruling until final disposition of the cause by the lower court.

g. Other Rules. Except as modified by this rule the other rules of the Florida Appellate Rules shall apply to interlocutory appeals.

Rule 4.3 BOND VALIDATION PROCEEDINGS

Appeals may be taken in bond validation proceedings only from the final decree within 20 days after the rendition of such decree.

The procedure to be followed in taking and perfecting said appeals and the time within which such proceedings shall be taken shall be the same as that herein provided for interlocutory appeals, except that a certified transcript of the proceedings shall be filed with the appellant's brief and a copy served on opposing counsel. The opinion and judgment shall be final after 10 days and the mandate shall issue forthwith if no petition for rehearing has been filed within said 10 day period. In the event a petition for rehearing shall be filed, the same shall receive immediate consideration by the Court and, if denied, the mandate shall issue simultaneously with the denial of the petition.

Rule 4.4 APPEALS IN PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP PROCEEDINGS AND CASES INVOLVING ESTATES OF INFANTS

The Florida Appellate Rules relating to appeals shall apply to appeals from final orders or decrees of county judge's courts pertaining to probate matters or to estates and interests of minors and incompetents.

Rule 4.5 EXTRAORDINARY WRITS: MANDAMUS, CERTIORARI, PROHIBITION, QUO WARRANTO, HABEAS CORPUS, AND STAY WRITS

a. Generally.

(1) When Heard. All applications in original proceedings in the Supreme Court and district courts of appeal for writs of mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto and other writs necessary to the complete exercise of the jurisdiction of the Court, as authorized by the Constitution, shall be made as herein provided.

(2) Writs Raising Issue of Fact Will Not Be Heard. When it appears that an application raises questions of fact which will require the taking of testimony said application will not be entertained by the Court.

(3) Brief Served on Respondent. A copy of every brief required with any application shall be served on the adverse party.

(4) Oral Arguments. Oral arguments on application shall be governed by the provisions of these rules.

(5) Stricken March 21, 1962, effective July 1, 1962.

b. Mandamus.

(1) When Entertained. No original petition in mandamus will be entertained by the Supreme Court unless a state officer, state board, state functionary, or an agency authorized to represent the public generally, is named as respondent.

(2) Petition. Application for a writ of mandamus shall be by petition setting up briefly the basis for the relief prayed, and shall be supported by brief, a copy of which shall be served on the respondent prior to the application.

(3) Issuance of Alternative Writ or Rule. If the petition makes a prima facie case, the Court will issue the alternative writ, or a rule directing the respondent to show cause on a day certain why an alternative writ should not issue.

(4) Respondent's Return and Brief. When the alternative writ has issued, the respondent, on or before the return day fixed therein, shall file such appropriate pleadings as he may deem proper, and a brief in support thereof, a copy of which shall be served on the relator on or before the time of filing.

(5) Relator's Reply Brief. Relator shall be allowed not exceeding 10 days after the service of respondent's pleadings and brief to file a reply brief, and to serve a copy on the respondent; after which time the cause will be deemed ready for final disposition, unless further proceedings are ordered by the Court.

c. Certiorari.

(1) Petition to Be Supported by Transcript and Brief. Application for writ of certiorari shall be by petition filed in the Court within 60 days from the rendition of the decision, order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, it shall be accompanied by a certified transcript of the record of the proceedings the petitioner seeks to have reviewed or so much thereof as is essential. Unless shown by the respondent or his attorney to be necessary, no other record shall be required. The petition shall contain a concise statement of the cause and the reasons relied on for granting the writ. It shall be accompanied by a supporting brief prepared as provided by Rule 3.7.

(2) Respondent to Be Served With Petition, Transcript and Brief. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a copy of the petition, transcript, and brief shall be served on respondent or his attorney on or before the time the application is filed with the clerk of the Court.

(3) Respondent's Brief and Cross-petition. If the respondent desires to have reviewed any adverse ruling in the decision, order, judgment or decree under review, he shall, within 20 days from the service on him of the documents provided in paragraph (2) of this rule, serve on petitioner a copy of his cross-petition for certiorari which shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of the original petition, and such additional portions of the record as may be essential to such review.

The respondent shall file his brief in opposition to the writ and, where a cross-petition is filed, in support of his cross-petition and serve a copy thereof on the petitioner within 20 days after he has been served with a copy of petitioner's brief.

(4) Reply Briefs. Petitioner shall file such reply brief as he deems necessary, and serve a copy of the same on respondent, within 10 days after he has been served with a copy of respondent's brief.

Respondent shall have five days thereafter to file a reply brief in support of his cross-petition.

(5) Oral Argument. Except hearings for review of workmen's compensation orders the petition shall be set down for oral argument as directed by the Court on some motion day after the time allowed petitioner herein to file his reply brief; and, unless further proceedings are ordered by the Court, the cause shall be finally disposed of without further oral argument.

Review of workmen's compensation orders pursuant to statute and Rule 4.1, shall be set for hearing on regular oral argument days in accord with the provisions of Rule 3.10(a)-(e).

(6) From District Court to Supreme Court. Where any decision of a district court of appeal (1) affects a class of constitutional or state officers, or (2) passes upon a question certified by such district court to be of great public interest, or (3) is in direct conflict with a decision of another district court of appeal or of the Supreme Court on the same point of law, petition may be filed with the Supreme Court to issue a writ of certiorari to review such decision.

The petition for certiorari under this rule shall be filed in the Supreme Court within 60 days from the rendition of the order, decision or judgment of the district court of appeal. The petition shall set forth briefly and clearly the grounds for invoking jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and the facts relied upon for the issuance of the writ. Unless the district court shall otherwise direct for good cause shown after notice and hearing, a petition for certiorari filed in the Supreme Court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the order, decision or judgment sought to be reviewed or within 15 days from the date of the disposition of a petition for rehearing shall automatically stay further proceedings in the district court and the trial court until the disposition of said petition by the Supreme Court; otherwise such petition for certiorari shall operate as a stay of such proceedings only upon the order of the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice after due notice to the adverse party.

Only so much of the record as shall be necessary to show jurisdiction in the Supreme Court shall be attached to or filed with the petition, and it may be in the form of conformed copies and need not be certified, except when a certificate of great public interest is made by the district court of appeal.

Copy of petition with certificate of filing the same in the Supreme Court shall be filed in the district court of appeal.

Copy of petition, and of the supporting portions of the record and brief relating only to jurisdiction of the Court, shall be served on the respondent or his attorney on or before the time petition is filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Respondent shall file a reply brief in opposition, on the sole issue of jurisdiction, and serve copy thereof upon the petitioner within 10 days after he has been served with copy of the petition, supporting portions of the record and brief. Such reply brief may be supported by copies of additional portions of the record below which need not be verified, but which shall be filed and served with the reply brief.

The Supreme Court shall consider the petition, supporting record or portions thereof and the briefs on jurisdiction, without oral argument unless otherwise directed, and if the Court determines that it has jurisdiction, the said petition shall be granted; otherwise the same shall be denied or dismissed.

If granted, a copy of the order granting the petition shall be forwarded forthwith by the Clerk to the district court of appeal and 45 days after the receipt of said order or sooner by stipulation of parties (or within such other time as the Court may direct) the original record in the district court shall be forwarded by that court to the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Copies of said order shall be served by the Clerk of the Supreme Court upon counsel of record for the respective parties, and the cause shall be set for oral argument on the merits of the petition. Counsel for the petitioner shall file his brief on the merits and serve a copy thereof upon the respondent within 25 days from the rendition of the order granting certiorari. The respondent shall file his brief in opposition and serve a copy thereof upon petitioner within 15 days after he has been served with a copy of the petitioner's brief, and petitioner shall have 5 days thereafter within which to file and serve a reply brief.

When jurisdiction for certiorari is based on a certificate of a district court that the decision passes upon a question of great public interest, no preliminary brief as to jurisdiction need be filed, and upon the filing of the petition and such a certificate of the district court, an order granting certiorari may be entered and thereupon the matter shall proceed as outlined in the preceding paragraph.

When the case is finally disposed of by the Supreme Court, the Court may order a certified copy of such record, or of the part thereof which the Court deems necessary, filed in the Supreme Court before the original record is returned to the district court of appeal and shall assess the costs thereof in such order.

d. Prohibition.

(1) Petition. Application for a writ of prohibition shall be by suggestion, and shall be supported by brief, a copy of which shall be served on the respondent.

(2) Issuance of Rule. If the suggestion makes a prima facie case the Court will issue a rule directing the inferior court to show cause on a day certain why the writ as prayed for should not issue; and such rule shall operate as a supersedeas when the same has been issued and notice thereof given to respondent.

(3) Respondent's Return and Brief. On or before the return day fixed in the rule, the respondent shall file such appropriate pleadings as he may deem proper, and a brief in support thereof, a copy of which shall be served on relator on or before the time the brief is filed.

(4) Relator's Reply Brief. Relator shall be allowed not exceeding 10 days after the service of respondent's pleadings and brief to file a reply brief, and to serve a copy on the respondent; after which time the cause will be deemed ready for final disposition, unless further proceedings are ordered by the Court.

e. Quo Warranto.

(1) By Whom Instituted. Proceedings in quo warranto, including informations in the nature of quo warranto, may be instituted by petition or information in the name of the state by the Attorney General, or by any person claiming title to the office or franchise on the refusal of the Attorney General.

(2) Governed by Rules on Mandamus. The rules governing mandamus as to pleading, filing briefs, and final disposition of the cause shall apply to and govern quo warranto.

f. Habeas Corpus.

(1) Issued by Whom. A writ of habeas corpus or an order to show cause may be issued by the Court, or by any justice or judge thereof, in the manner provided by law.

(2) Notice to Attorney General. If the validity of any statute, or criminal proceeding or conviction, is attacked, notice of the issuance of the writ shall be given to the Attorney General.

(3) Respondent's Return and Brief. If the writ is issued an early return date shall be set by the Court. On or before said return date the officer holding custody of the applicant shall file his formal return, which may include a motion to quash, and his brief, and serve a copy thereof upon the applicant.

(4) Applicant's Brief. Within 10 days after the service of respondent's return and brief upon him, the applicant may file a brief, and such pleadings as he may deem necessary, and shall serve a copy thereof upon the respondent.

(5) Respondent's Reply Brief. If the applicant's brief contains any matter not covered by the respondent's brief, the respondent shall have five days after he has been served within which to file a reply brief, and to serve a copy on the petitioner.

(6) Final Disposition. In the absence of a motion to quash or a motion for discharge notwithstanding the return, issue shall be deemed joined on the return, and the cause shall proceed to final disposition in accordance with this rule, unless further proceedings are ordered by the Court.

g. Constitutional Writs.

(1) After Appeal and Notice. Application for constitutional or other writs necessary to the complete exercise of the jurisdiction of the Court will be entertained only after reasonable notice to the adverse party. No such petition will be entertained unless an appeal has been commenced, and then only when it is made clearly to appear that a supersedeas order entered by the lower court will not completely preserve the Court's jurisdiction, or that the lower court has erroneously refused to enter such an order.

(2) Final Adjudication on Merits. When. If it should develop on the application for the writ that the ends of justice will be best served by disposing of the cause on the merits, the Court will so determine, allow the attorneys time to file briefs, and dispose of the cause on the merits without further arguments.

Rule 4.6 CERTIFIED QUESTIONS FROM STATE COURTS

a. When Certified. When it shall appear to a judge of the lower court that there is involved in any cause pending before him questions or propositions of law that are determinative of the cause and are without controlling precedent in this state and that instruction from the Court will facilitate the proper disposition of the cause, said judge, on his own motion or on motion of either party, may certify said question or proposition of law to the Court for instruction.

b. Limitations On. Only questions or propositions of law that are definitely and concisely stated and that can be answered without regard to other issues in the cause will be considered by the Court. The certificate shall not be employed in such a way as to affect the jurisdiction of the appellate court or the lower court, and must be limited to those cases in which instructions will facilitate the final disposition of the cause.

c. Contents of Certificate. The certificate shall contain the style of the case, a "Statement of Facts" showing the nature of the cause and the circumstances out of which the questions or propositions of law arise, and the "Questions" of law to be answered.

d. Preparation of Certificate. The certificate may be prepared by stipulation, or as directed by the lower court judge, upon due notice. When prepared and signed by the judge, it shall be endorsed and certified to the Court by the clerk of the lower court under his official seal.

e. Costs of Certificate. If sufficient reason therefor is shown, the Court may require the entire record to be sent up and decide the controversy as if it were on appeal. The costs of the certificate and filing fee shall be divided equally between the parties, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If the entire record is sent up and decision rendered as on appeal, costs shall follow the general rule pertaining to the taxation of costs.

f. Briefs and Argument. When the certificate is filed in the Court, briefs of all parties shall be filed within 15 days after the certificate is filed, unless otherwise directed by the lower court.

g. Oral Argument. Oral argument may be granted on application, in which event the matter will be set for hearing either on a Motion Day or on an oral argument day as the Court shall direct.

Rule 4.61 CERTIFIED QUESTIONS FROM FEDERAL COURTS

a. When Certified. When it shall appear to the Supreme Court of the United States, or to any of the Courts of Appeal of the United States that there are involved in any proceeding before it questions or propositions of law of this state which are determinative of said cause and that there are no clear controlling precedents in the decisions of the Supreme Court of this state, such federal appellate court may certify such questions or propositions of law of this state to the Supreme Court of Florida for instructions concerning such questions or propositions of state law.

b. Jurisdiction. Questions or propositions of law referred to in sub-paragraph a hereof shall be certified for answer to the Supreme Court of this state.

c. Method of Invoking Rule. The provisions of this rule may be invoked by any of the federal courts referred to in sub-paragraph a hereof upon its own motion or upon the suggestion or motion of any interested party when approved by such federal court.

d. Contents of Certificate. The certificate provided for herein shall contain the style of the case, a statement of facts showing the nature of the cause and the circumstances out of which the questions or propositions of law arise and the question of law to be answered.

e. Preparation of Certificate. The certificate may be prepared by stipulation or as directed by such federal court. When prepared and signed by the presiding judge of said federal court, it shall be certified to the Supreme Court by the clerk of the federal court and under its official seal. The Supreme Court may, in its discretion, require the original or copies of all or any portion of the record before the federal court to be filed with said certificate where, in its opinion, such record may be necessary in the determination of said cause.

f. Costs of Certificate. The costs of the certificate and filing fee shall be equally divided between the parties unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

g. Briefs and Argument. The appellant or moving party in the federal court shall file and serve upon its adversary its brief on the question certified within 30 days after the filing of said certificate in the appellate court of this state having jurisdiction. The appellee or responding party in the federal court shall file and serve upon its adversary its brief within 20 days after the receipt of appellant's or moving party's brief and a reply brief shall be filed within 10 days thereafter.

h. Oral Argument. Oral argument may be granted upon application and, unless for good cause shown the time be enlarged by special order of the Court prior to the hearing thereon, the parties shall be allowed the same time as in other causes on the merits.

Rule 4.7 APPELLATE REVIEW BY CIRCUIT COURTS

The Florida Appellate Rules shall govern procedure in the circuit courts in the exercise of their appellate jurisdiction. The circuit court may on motion showing the need therefor, after notice and hearing thereon, modify or dispense with any of the steps to be taken after filing of the notice of appeal or the institution of the proceedings for review. Any such order shall prescribe all modifications in the entire proceeding throughout the cause on review. Filing fee for such an appeal or review shall be in the amount prescribed by law.

PART V. SUPERSEDEAS ON APPEAL

Rule 5.1 SUPERSEDEAS DISCRETIONARY WHEN APPEAL IS FROM INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

When it shall be made to appear to the lower court that an appeal to review an interlocutory order or decree in equity has been or is about to be taken to the Court, the lower court may, in its discretion, grant a supersedeas or stay upon appellant's giving a good and sufficient bond conditional that such appeal shall be taken within 10 days, and to pay all costs, damages and expenses occasioned by reason of the stay of proceedings, together with such other and further conditions as may be fixed by the lower court in the event the order or judgment of which a review is sought is not quashed, modified or reversed.

Rule 5.2 WHEN APPEAL IS FROM FINAL JUDGMENT OR DECREE

Every appeal taken to the Court from a final decision, judgment or decree shall operate as a stay or supersedeas upon posting bond under the conditions specified herein.

Rule 5.3 SUPERSEDEAS AS OF RIGHT

a. Money Judgment or Decree. If the appeal is from a final money decision, judgment or decree the stay or supersedeas shall be as of right upon the posting of the bond.

b. Probate and Guardianship Proceedings and Cases Involving Estates of Infants. Every appeal in probate, guardianship or involving estates of infants shall, as a matter of right, operate as a supersedeas if the appellant, within the time limited for taking the appeal, files in the office of the clerk of the lower court a supersedeas bond, with good and sufficient personal sureties or corporate surety approved by said clerk, the terms, conditions and amount of which bond shall have been fixed by order of the lower court upon notice to the appellee; provided, that for an appeal from an order appointing or removing an executor, administrator, guardian or curator to operate as a supersedeas or have the effect of placing or keeping the estate in the possession of the party appealing, bond shall be required sufficient in amount, and subject to such conditions as may be fixed by the lower court, to fully indemnify all interested parties against any loss occasioned by virtue of said appeal or any defalcation or mismanagement of said estate during the pendency of said appeal.

Rule 5.4 SUPERSEDEAS OR STAY OF INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION ORDER

In all reviews of compensation orders of the Florida Industrial Commission, the Commission may grant a supersedeas or stay upon petitioner's giving a good and sufficient bond as provided in this rule, conditioned to pay the amount of the award, interest and costs, if the Commission shall be affirmed by the Court; provided, however, that if an employer who is petitioner has secured the payment of benefits of the workmen's compensation law to his employees no bond shall be required. The interest shall not exceed six per cent of the amount of compensation due and payable at the time the order of the Court is filed with the Industrial Commission, and shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such compensation.

Rule 5.5 MOTION AND ORDER FOR SUPERSEDEAS TO STAY FINAL JUDGMENT

If a party desires to supersede a final decision, judgment, order or decree, he shall, at the time the appeal is taken, or at any time prior to filing the record-on-appeal in the Court, apply to the lower court for an order fixing the amount, terms and conditions for good and sufficient bond to be payable to the adverse party.

Rule 5.6 "GOOD AND SUFFICIENT BOND" DEFINED

A "good and sufficient bond" shall be taken to mean a bond with a principal and two good and sufficient personal sureties, or one surety company, if it is authorized to do business in the State of Florida, when and if approved by the clerk or judge of the lower court or an officer authorized by the order granting the stay or supersedeas.

Rule 5.7 BOND WHEN JUDGMENT IS FOR RECOVERY OF MONEY NOT SECURED

When the decision, judgment, order or decree requires or provides unconditionally for the payment or recovery of money, the bond shall be conditioned to satisfy the judgment or decree or any modification not increasing the amount thereof, in full, including costs, interest (if chargeable), and damages for delay, in event the appeal be dismissed or the judgment, order or decree is affirmed.

Rule 5.8 BOND WHEN JUDGMENT IS FOR RECOVERY OF MONEY OTHERWISE SECURED

When the decision, judgment, order or decree is for the recovery of money otherwise secured, the bond shall be conditioned to pay costs on appeal, interest (if legally chargeable) and damages for delay, together with such other and further conditions as shall be fixed by the lower court. In fixing the amount of such bond, the lower court shall take into consideration the adequacy of the security to cover the costs of appeal, interest and damages for delay.

Rule 5.9 BOND WHEN JUDGMENT IS OTHER THAN FOR MONEY

If the decision, judgment, order or decree is in whole or in part other than a money judgment, order or decree, the elements to be considered in fixing the amount and conditions of the bond shall be the cost of the action, cost of the appeal, interest (if chargeable), damages for delay, use, detention, and depreciation of any property involved.

Rule 5.10 REVIEW OF ORDER WHEN ARBITRARY OR UNREASONABLE

If the lower court refuses to grant a supersedeas or stay, or if any bond required by said court is deemed to be arbitrary or unreasonable or such as is for any other reason not proper, the order of refusal, or the order fixing the terms and conditions of the bond, may be reviewed and overruled, modified or discharged by the Court on motion, provided reasonable notice of the hearing on said motion is given to the adverse party.

Rule 5.11 JUDGMENT AGAINST SURETY

By entering into a supersedeas or stay order bond given pursuant to these rules, or any statute or order of court, the surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the lower court, and his liability thereon may be enforced by said court, after motion and citation, without the necessity of resorting to an independent action.

Rule 5.12 SUPERSEDEAS BOND NOT REQUIRED OF THE STATE AND ITS POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS AND THEIR BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, ETC.; SECURITY WHEN REQUIRED

(1) When Security Not Required.—When the state or any of its political subdivisions, or any officer, board, commission or other public body of the state or any of its political subdivisions, in a purely official capacity, takes an appeal or petitions for certiorari, the filing of the notice of appeal or the petition for certiorari as the case may be shall perfect the same and stay the execution or performance of the judgment, decree or order being reviewed and no supersedeas bond need be given unless expressly required by the court.

(2) Court May Require Bond.—The court may, on motion for good cause shown, require a supersedeas bond or other security, in such amount, form and manner as it may prescribe as a condition for the further prosecution of the appeal or certiorari.

PART VI. CRIMINAL APPEALS

Rule 6.1 APPLICABILITY OF PART VI

Appeals in criminal cases to the Supreme Court, the district courts of appeal and to the circuit courts (including appeals from municipal courts), shall be prosecuted in accordance with Part VI of these rules and, except as herein stated, with such provisions of other parts of these rules as are not inconsistent with the provisions of Part VI.

Rule 6.2 WHEN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN BY DEFENDANT

Any appeal by the defendant shall be taken within 90 days after the judgment is entered, or from the judgment or sentence, or both, within 90 days after the sentence is entered.

Rule 6.3 WHEN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN BY THE STATE

An appeal may be taken by the state only within 30 days after the order or sentence appealed from is entered, except that when the defendant takes an appeal from the judgment the state may, not later than 10 days after the defendant files his assignments of error and serves a copy thereof, take an appeal authorized by Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes. When an appeal is taken by the state by filing a notice of appeal, a filing fee of $25.00 shall be transmitted to the clerk of the appellate court by the Board of County Commissioners of the county in which the trial court is located.

Rule 6.4 HOW APPEAL TAKEN; NOTICE OF APPEAL

An appeal may be taken only by filing with the clerk of the lower court a notice in writing stating that the appellant appeals from a judgment, order, ruling or sentence, as the case may be, and if the appeal be taken by a defendant, by depositing a filing fee in the amount prescribed by law, which may be by a check or money order payable to the clerk of the appellate court, with the clerk of the lower court unless the appellant is adjudged insolvent prior to the time of such filing; provided, however, that the state may, at its option, take an appeal authorized by Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing cross assignments of error, with such clerk in lieu of filing a formal notice of appeal. The notice of appeal or cross assignments of error, as the case may be, shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney or by the attorney general when the state takes an appeal from a trial court, and by the attorney general when the state takes an appeal from a district court of appeal. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, the notice of appeal shall be signed by him or his attorney. The appellee may waive the right to notice that an appeal has been taken. Upon the filing of a notice of appeal, the clerk of the court in which it is filed shall, within five days after such filing, send a certified copy of such notice of appeal and the filing fee to the appellate court to which the appeal is taken and a certified copy, together with a statement of the offense charged or convicted of, to the attorney general if the appeal is to the Supreme Court or a district court of appeal, to the state attorney if the appeal is to a circuit court from any court other than a municipal court, and to the city attorney or, if there be none, to the mayor, if the appeal is from a municipal court.

Rule 6.5 NOTICE TO COUNSEL FOR STATE WHEN DEFENDANT APPEALS

A copy of the notice of appeal shall be served on the prosecuting attorney when an appeal is taken by the defendant from a trial court, and upon the attorney general when it is taken by him from a district court of appeal.

Rule 6.6 NOTICE TO DEFENDANT WHEN STATE APPEALS

a. Service. If the appeal is taken by the state, except under authorization of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, a copy of the notice of appeal shall be served by the prosecuting attorney on the defendant, if his place of residence is known, and on the counsel, if any, who appeared for him at the trial.

b. Service Under Section 924.07(4). If, after the defendant appeals from a judgment the state takes an appeal authorized by Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing either a notice of appeal or cross assignments of error, a copy of such notice of appeal or cross assignments of error, as the case may be, shall be served on the appealing defendant, if his place of residence is known, or if an attorney has filed assignments of error in behalf of such defendant, upon such attorney.

Rule 6.61 POWER OF LOWER COURT

After the entry of an appeal, but before the record-on-appeal is filed in the Court, the things required to be done in the lower court or appellate court and objections to things done, including the fixing or extension of time within which they shall be done, shall be under the supervision of the lower court, subject to the control of the appellate court by motion on proper notice. A certified copy of any order entered by the lower court under this rule shall be filed by the moving party or parties with the clerk of the appellate court within five days after it is entered.

Rule 6.7 ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR AND DIRECTIONS TO CLERK

a. By Appellant. Within 20 days after the filing of a notice of appeal, except one filed by the state under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the lower court and serve copies of his or its assignments of error and directions to the clerk for making up the record-on-appeal, upon the attorney of record for the state if the defendant be the appellant and upon the defendant or his attorney if the state be the appellant, the said directions to designate the portions of the record, proceedings and evidence to be included. The assignments of error and directions to the clerk may be combined in one document.

b. By Appellee. The appellee may, within 10 days after such service is made, file with the clerk of the lower court and serve a copy of his or its directions designating additional portions essential to be included in the record-on-appeal, upon the defendant or his attorney if the defendant be the appellant or upon the attorney of record for the state if the state be the appellant.

c. Cross Assignments of Error When State Files Notice of Appeal Under Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes. When, after the defendant appeals from the judgment, the state takes an appeal under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing a notice of appeal instead of by filing cross assignments of error, it shall also file cross assignments of error and serve a copy thereof upon the defendant or his attorney within 10 days after being served with a copy of the defendant's assignments of error.

d. Additional Directions by Appellant Upon the Filing of Cross Assignments by the State.

Upon the filing of cross assignments of error by the state for the purposes of its appeal under Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, the appealing defendant may, within five days after service of a copy thereof upon him or his attorney, file further directions to the clerk and serve a copy upon the attorney of record for the state.

e. Extension of Time for Filing. The time for filing such assignments of error and directions to the clerk may be extended by either the lower court or the appellate court. There shall be no extension of the time for the state to appeal under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing cross assignments of error, but if the state has taken such an appeal by filing a timely notice of appeal, either the lower court or the appellate court may extend the time for the state to file its cross assignments of error.

f. Stipulation as to Contents of Appeal Record. The parties, by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the lower court, may designate the parts of the records, proceedings and evidence to be included in the record-on-appeal and may agree upon a condensed statement in narrative form of all or part of the testimony and, if thus done, the same shall be in lieu of and shall take the place of directions to the clerk for making up the transcript of record-on-appeal.

g. Formal Exceptions Not Necessary in Order to Assign Error. Formal exceptions to rulings, orders or charges of the court are not necessary to support the assignments or cross assignments of error provided for by these rules; but for all purposes for which an exception has ever been necessary, it is sufficient that a party, at the time that the ruling, order, or charge of the court is made, or sought, makes known to the court the action which he or it desires the court to take, or his or its objection to the action of the court and his or its grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection shall not thereafter prejudice him.

Rule 6.8 TRANSCRIBING AND FILING NOTES OF REPORTER UPON APPEAL

When an appeal is taken by either the state or the defendant, the trial court shall, upon motion of either party, direct the reporter to transcribe his notes of the proceedings or such part or parts thereof as are requested by such motion. The reporter shall certify the correctness of the notes and of the transcript thereof and shall file the notes and the transcript, duly certified, and two copies of such transcript with the clerk of said court. If the prosecuting attorney or the defendant or his attorney questions the correctness of the notes and/or transcript, the question shall be settled by the court. The cost of such stenographic report and copies shall be paid by the defendant if he takes the appeal and by the county if the state takes the appeal, except that if the state appeals under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, after the taking of an appeal by the defendant, the defendant shall pay the cost of that part which he procures to be prepared and the county shall pay for that part which the state procures to be prepared; provided that, if an appealing defendant is adjudged insolvent, the county shall pay the cost of such transcript and copies.

The lower court clerk shall not be required to verify, nor shall he make a charge for, any stenographic copy furnished and certified by the reporter for incorporation in the record-on-appeal. The transcript of the testimony may be bound and paged separately in volumes not to exceed 200 pages each.

Rule 6.9 PREPARATION AND TRANSMISSION OF RECORD TO APPELLATE COURT ON APPEAL BY DEFENDANT

a. Preparation. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, the preparation of the record shall be begun upon the expiration of the periods hereinabove allowed the parties for filing directions to the clerk or upon the entry of an order on objections thereto. An original and two copies shall be completed by the clerk as expeditiously as possible, within the time allowed for filing the appeal record in the appellate court, and delivered to the attorney for the defendant, or to the defendant if he has no attorney, even though the state may also have appealed under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing either notice of appeal or cross assignments of error. The original record shall be duly certified.

The transcript of record shall be bound, numbered, prefaced and indexed in the same manner as provided in Rule 3.6f(2) and 3.6f(3), and may be on either letter or legal size paper.

b. Filing and Service. Within 40 days from the date an appeal is taken by the defendant, he shall file the appeal record with the clerk of the appellate court and serve a copy thereof upon the attorney general, even though the state may also have appealed under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, by filing either a notice of appeal or cross assignments of error.

c. Approval by Lower Court. It shall not be necessary for the record-on-appeal to be approved by the lower court but if any difference arises as to whether the record duly discloses what occurred, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by the lower court and the record made to conform to the truth.

d. Omissions and Corrections. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record-on-appeal by error or accident, or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the lower court either before or after the record is transmitted to the appellate court, or the appellate court on a proper suggestion, or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement shall be corrected, and, if necessary, that a supplemental record shall be certified and transmitted to the appellate court.

e. Transmission of Original Papers. When either the lower court or the appellate court is of the opinion that original papers or exhibits should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to the appellate court in lieu of copies, it may make such order therefor, and for the safekeeping, transportation, and return thereof as it deems proper. The form shall be the same as that provided in Rule 6.9a.

f. Clerk's Costs. When the defendant takes an appeal, the clerk's costs incident to the appeal shall be paid by the defendant, or by the county in case the defendant is adjudged insolvent.

Rule 6.10 TRANSMISSION OF RECORD TO APPELLATE COURT UPON APPEAL BY STATE

a. Filing and Service. When an appeal is taken by the state, except under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, the provisions of Rule 6.9 shall be applicable, except that the clerk of the lower court shall deliver the transcript of record to the appellate court and one copy to the attorney general and the other copy to the appellee, if his place of residence is known, or, if not, on the counsel, if any, who appeared for him at the trial, provided that, if the appellee's residence is unknown and no counsel appeared for him at the trial, the clerk shall hold the appellee's copy of the record subject to the appellee's demand.

b. Clerk's Costs. When the state takes an appeal, except when it appeals under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, after the defendant appeals from the judgment, the clerk's cost incident to the appeal shall be paid by the county.

Rule 6.11 BRIEFS

a. What to Contain. Briefs shall be prepared as required by Rule 3.7; provided that it shall not be necessary that an appendix be included in or filed with the appellant's brief, but if such be done, an appendix may be included in or filed with the appellee's brief.

b. Time for Filing. Within 30 days after filing the transcript of record, the appellant shall file the original and one copy of his or its brief with the clerk of the appellate court and serve one copy on the appellee.

Within 20 days after a copy of the appellant's brief has been served upon him or it, the appellee shall file the original and one copy of his or its brief with the clerk of the appellate court and serve one copy on the appellant.

Within 20 days after service of a copy of the appellee's brief upon the appellant, the latter may file the original and one copy of a reply brief with the clerk of the appellate court, and serve one copy on the appellee.

When an appeal is taken by the defendant and thereafter the state appeals under authority of Section 924.07(4), Florida Statutes, the terms "appellant" and "appellee," as used in this rule, shall mean the defendant and the state, respectively.

Rule 6.12 REQUESTS FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Requests for oral argument shall be made in accordance with Rule 3.10.

Rule 6.13 DISMISSAL OF APPEAL FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

The appellate court may dismiss the appeal if the appellant does not prosecute it as required by these rules. When an appeal is dismissed, the clerk of the appellate court shall file with the clerk of the trial court a certified copy of the order of dismissal.

Rule 6.14 APPEALS IN CRIMINAL CAUSES TO HAVE PRECEDENCE

All appeals in criminal cases shall have precedence over other appeals and shall be placed first upon the calendar for hearing. Appeals in cases where a sentence of death has been imposed shall have precedence over all other appeals.

Rule 6.15 BAIL PENDING APPEAL

a. Notice of Appeal Required; Review in Case of Noncompliance. The lower court shall make no order granting to a defendant bail pending appeal prior to the filing of a notice of appeal by such defendant, and any order made in violation hereof may be reviewed by the appellate court upon the motion of the state, supported by a certified copy of such order and the certificate of the clerk of the lower court that the defendant thereby granted bail has not filed a notice of appeal prior to the making of such certificate.

b. Application to Lower Court. The sufficiency of an application to the lower court for bail pending appeal shall be tested by applying the principles laid down in Younghans v. State, 90 So.2d 308.

c. Lower Court to State Reasons When Denying. When the lower court denies bail pending appeal, it shall state in its order of denial the reasons therefor.

d. Review of Denial Upon Motion of Defendant. An order denying bail pending appeal may be reviewed by the appellate court upon the motion of the defendant, supported by a certified copy of such order and of a notice of appeal and the proceedings in the lower court concerning bail pending appeal, including any, evidence relating thereto but not necessarily including a transcript of the trial proceedings.

e. Review of Order Granting Upon Motion of State. An order granting bail pending appeal may be reviewed by the appellate court upon the motion of the state, supported by a certified copy of such order and of the proceedings in the lower court concerning bail pending appeal, including any evidence relating thereto but not necessarily including a transcript of the trial proceedings.

Rule 6.16 SCOPE OF REVIEW

a. Generally. Upon an appeal by either the state or the defendant the appellate court shall review all rulings and orders appearing in the appeal record insofar as it is necessary to do so in order to pass upon the grounds of appeal. The court shall also review all instructions to which an objection was made and which are alleged as a ground of appeal, and the sentence when there is an appeal therefrom. The court may also in its discretion, if it deems the interests of justice to require, review any other things said or done in the cause which appear in the appeal record, including instructions to the jury. The reception of evidence to which no objection was made shall not be construed to constitute a ruling by the court.

b. Sufficiency of Evidence. Upon an appeal by the defendant from the judgment the appellate court shall review the evidence to determine if it is insufficient to support the judgment where this is a ground of appeal. Upon an appeal from the judgment by a defendant who has been sentenced to death the appellate court shall review the evidence to determine if the interests of justice require a new trial, whether the insufficiency of the evidence is a ground of appeal or not.

Rule 6.17 APPLICATION FOR REHEARING

Application for rehearing shall be made in accordance with Rule 3.14.

PART VII. FORMS

i. Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

Ordinarily the only portions of the record required to be attached to the petition for certiorari are:

1. Those portions of the decision necessary to show that such decision affects a class of constitutional or state officers, where that provision is invoked for review;

2. The decisions of the courts that are alleged to conflict with each other, where that provision is invoked. This may be by reference to the citation of said decisions where they have been reported in official reports. In those instances when the alleged conflict is not apparent from the decisions, then so much of the record as shall be essential to demonstrate such conflict may be brought up with the petition for certiorari. The Court may, after granting the writ and setting the case for oral argument, order brought up such further portions of the record as it may deem necessary.

3. When the provision of the Constitution authorizing review upon questions of great public interest is invoked, the original record in the district court shall be filed with the petition. If the writ is granted by the Supreme Court and an opinion is filed, the Court shall order a certified copy of such record filed in the Supreme Court before the original record is returned to the district court of appeal and shall assess the costs thereof in such order. IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

Petitioner }
vs. } PETITION FOR A WRIT OF Respondent } CERTIORARI TO THE DIS-TRICT COURT OF APPEAL,
SECOND DISTRICT

TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

Petitioner, _____, presents this, his petition for a writ of certiorari and states:

1. Petitioner seeks to have reviewed an order (or decision) of the District Court of Appeal, Second District, dated the _____ day of _____, 19____, and filed in the records of said District Court on the _____ day of _____, 19____, in _____ Book _____, Page _____.

2. This petition is presented under and pursuant to Article 5, Section 4, of the Florida Constitution, and Rule 4.5c of the Florida Appellate Rules.

3. This petition is accompanied by a certified transcript of the record of the proceedings, including the decision petitioner seeks to have reviewed, and a supporting brief.

4. The following are the facts of the case:
(Give in lettered sub-paragraphs and support statements by reference to the transcript)

5. On the foregoing facts the Court was presented with the following point of law:

(Here state point of law involved)

On this point of law the District Court of Appeal, Second District rendered the following decision or holding:

(Here give ruling or holding of the district court of appeal whose decision is sought to be reviewed)

6. The same point of law was involved in the case of _____ vs. _____, decided by the District Court of Appeal, First District, on the _____ day of _____, 19____. This decision was reported in _____ So. 2d, page _____, and a copy of the decision is attached to this petition as Exhibit 1. The facts involved in _____ vs. _____ were as follows:

(Here state facts involved in the case from the other appellate district)

On these facts the District Court of Appeal, First District ruled as follows:

(Here set forth ruling)

7. The decision of the District Court of Appeal, Second District which petitioner seeks to have reviewed is in direct conflict with the above mentioned decision of the District Court of Appeal, First District. Because of the reasons and authorities set forth in petitioner's brief, it is believed that the decision hereby sought to be reviewed is erroneous and that the conflicting decision of the District Court of Appeal, First District is correct and should be approved by this Court as the controlling law for the State of Florida.

WHEREFORE, petitioner requests this Court to grant a writ of certiorari and enter its order quashing the decision and order hereby sought to be reviewed, approving the decision of the District Court of Appeal, First District, as the correct decision, and granting such other and further relief as shall seem right and proper to the Court.

The above table shows the average span of life as taken from the new "1958 Commissioners Standard Ordinary" mortality table. This table is based upon the death records of American life insurance companies during the period 1950-54. The new mortality table largely replaces the 1941 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Table of Mortality, based upon death records during 1930-1940, which replaced the American Experience Table of Mortality based upon death records during 1843-1858.

BROWARD WILLIAMS, State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner.

TABLE

TRACING GENERAL ACTS OF THE LEGISLATURE 1919 TO 1967 INCLUSIVE, INTO FLORIDA STATUTES

Explanatory: This table traces all existing general acts of the legislature from the 1919 session through the 1967 sessions, inclusive, into the sections of the Florida Statutes. Acts shown to be "omitted" from Florida Statutes, are local, population, or limited application acts, and are not included herein.

Use of Table: This table should be used in connection with the History and Revision Notes to Florida Statutes. In using this table first ascertain the chapter number of the session law in question, then refer to the chapter number in this table and ascertain the section number appearing under the heading "Section, Florida Statutes," and then refer to the corresponding section number in the statutes, which will disclose the complete history of the particular section in question.
